ICONIC CAMBRIDGE STUD SOLD

Cambridge Stud, New Zealand's most iconic stud, is about to change hands and, very importantly for the New Zealand thoroughbred industry, it will remain proudly Kiwi-owned.

Sir Patrick Hogan has confirmed that his and Justine, Lady Hogan's historic thoroughbred nursery has been sold to Auckland couple Brendan and Jo Lindsay, ensuring that New Zealand's internationally renowned stud farm stays in local hands.

"It is no secret that there has been huge international interest in Cambridge Stud for some time now," Sir Patrick Hogan said.

"Many different parties have made approaches to us, however Justine and I were determined to wait for both the right time and the right people - that was non-negotiable for us.

"That right time has now come and the right people have arrived. A new chapter begins for Cambridge Stud and is one that we firmly believe was worth waiting for.

"Cambridge Stud has been our lives for over four decades. We have nurtured it, been its guardians and have proudly seen it evolve into the globally respected operation it is today.

"As we pass the ownership baton on, we know that Cambridge Stud could not be in better hands. Everyone knows that Brendan and Jo Lindsay are deeply passionate about both our industry and our country, and Cambridge Stud certainly holds a unique place in both.

"For Justine and I, this is a dream come true - we can look ahead with great confidence to the future that Cambridge Stud is assured through its new ownership."

Despite the sale of the famed thoroughbred nursery, Hogan has no desire to step away from the industry that has been his life-long passion.

Jo & Brendan Lindsay are the new owners of the iconic New Zealand breeding establishment, Cambridge Stud

"In answer to the undoubted question of my retirement - the answer is a firm no, that is not on my agenda," Hogan said.

"We will have our 2018 Karaka draft, the final one under our auspices, to prepare. After that I have plenty of racing and breeding interests to keep me firmly involved in the industry - an industry I will be fully immersed in until the day I die."

Nearly 12 months ago, Brendan Lindsay sold Sistema, the plastic container maker firm he started and majority owned, for $660 million to US Fortune 500 company Newell Brands.

For the Auckland-based couple, it is a case of diving further into thoroughbreds, an industry for which they have long had significant interests in.

The seeds for Brendan Lindsay's passion for racing were sown from childhood, where he would regularly accompany his father to race meetings.

Lindsay's first horse was Maintain (NZ) (Centaine) who won three races as a two-year-old, in the 1990-91 season from the McKee stable.

The Lindsays have since enjoyed success with the likes of Group One winning juvenile Marky Mark (NZ) (Makfi) and Gr.1 Galaxy Handicap winner Griante (Good Journey), in addition to Group One performers J'Adane (NZ) (Danehill) and Zonza (NZ) (Zabeel).

Sporting their yellow and black checked racing silks, Marky Mark was also bred by the Lindsays from their 200 acre property at Karaka which was developed in 2009, where they now have a small private training operation.

Brendan and Jo Lindsay will assume control of Cambridge Stud in April 2018.

"We are very aware of the huge responsibility that comes with assuming the ownership of such a treasured and revered operation as Cambridge Stud," Brendan Lindsay said.

"Sir Patrick, a member of both the Australian and New Zealand Halls of Fame, is the undisputed king of the New Zealand thoroughbred industry.

"There are no parallels to what he and Lady Hogan have achieved including 31 years as the national sale's leading vendor. They have been an inspiration to owners and breeders across the world and have cemented the New Zealand thoroughbred as a force to be reckoned with on the world stage.

"Cambridge Stud is more than a stud farm - it is a unique Kiwi legend. No matter where you travel in the world, the Cambridge Stud name is synonymous not only with New Zealand but with unequalled Group 1 excellence. Eight Melbourne Cups, four Cox Plates, three Caulfield Cups and the Golden Slipper have been associated with the stud.

"We will honour the legacy that Sir Patrick and Lady Hogan have entrusted us with. We feel both proud and privileged to have the opportunity of helping to write exciting new chapters to the Cambridge Stud success story."

WELLINGTON STAKES PERFORMANCE TO TELL ALL

Lisa Latta will be much the wiser about Platinum Volos (NZ) (Dalghar) after the three-year-old's black type debut at Otaki today.

The Awapuni trainer is stepping into unknown territory with the son of Dalghar in the Gr.3 Lucia Valentina Wellington Stakes (1600m).

Platinum Volos has made a bright start to his career with two wins and two placings from his six appearances, including a last-start second over 1400m at Riccarton behind the highly-regarded filly Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel).

"He handled the better track down there, but it's hard to know at this stage whether he will handle the mile at Otaki. It's a question mark," Latta said.

"It's a bit difficult to know if he was coming to the end of his run over the 1400m at Christchurch or not. It was his first trip away and he has done well since he came home."

Masa Tanaka will have the task of guiding Platinum

Volos' fortunes from the outside gate in the Levin Racing Club's feature.

"The wide draw is a bit of a concern as well, we'll just have to hope for a little bit of luck from out there," Latta said.

Platinum Volos' performance over the mile at Otaki will determine his summer programme, with the grey gelding eligible for the $1 million Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie on January 27.

"We're going to learn a lot more about the horse today and whether we look to take him to Auckland," Latta said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Patrick Moloney

Business comes first for in-form Moloney

High-flying Australian jockey Patrick Moloney didn't hesitate to delay a holiday to make his first working trip to New Zealand.

The 23-year-old has answered a call from Michael Moroney to ride runners from the trans-Tasman trainer's Matamata base, which he operates with Pam Gerard, at Otaki today and at Ellerslie on Saturday.

"I'm stable rider for Mike in Melbourne and basically I have been for the last year and a-half to two years," Moloney said.

"I was going to go on holiday and then Mike said to me that Jake (Bayliss) had been suspended and would I go over and ride a few. I said yes straight away, no dramas. Full story here

Mofara (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Mofara ready to run

Cambridge trainers David and Emma-Lee Browne are expecting a recently-gelded Mofara (NZ) (Iffraaj) to start showcasing his Derby potential, beginning with today's Gr.3 Lucia Valentina Wellington Stakes (1600m) at Otaki.

"He's doing really well. He's been gelded and his race last time was much better," Emma-Lee Browne said.

"Every day he's settling down a bit more. He's going to enjoy the step up in trip and we expect him to finish off well.

"Even though he's a maiden, we're looking to get into some bigger races later on. At this stage, everything is focused on the Derby."

The Brownes will also saddle trial-winning two-year-old Hattie Bee (Bernardini) in the Fasttrack Insurance 2YO Premier (1000m) at Otaki.

Endean Rose (NZ) (Savabeel)

Rose chasing another Group One tilt

Endean Rose (NZ) (Savabeel) has already exceeded the expectations of her connections, but the under-rated Rotorua mare isn't finished providing the thrills.

The Savabeel seven-year-old mare boasts six wins and 12 placings from her 39 starts and, most importantly, she has added to her potential broodmare value with Group One and Group Two placings.

She was runner-up to Mime (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in last April's Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa and surpassed that performance when a courageous third behind Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed) and Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hastings last month.

Now she is back on the black-type trail in her first assignment since her surprise Livamol Classic effort. She will contest the Gr.3 Eagle Technology Stakes (1600m) at Ellerslie on Saturday and trainer and part-owner Iain Kennedy hopes it will be the start of a couple of successful trips to Auckland.

Quieter week for leading trainers

Top trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman had a busy time with runners last week, but are easing off the accelerator this week.

"We had a lot of runners and had a good week so it'll be good to be a bit quieter this week," Forsman said.

The stable's main mission this weekend will be the Gr.3 Wellington Stakes (1600m) at Otaki with the promising Karisto (Written Tycoon).

The son of Written Tycoon has had five starts for a win and four placings. He cleared maiden ranks two starts ago over 1400 metres at Te Rapa after three second placings and stepped up to Rating 65 with a solid third over the same course and distance.

"That was a good run last time and he wasn't beaten by much," Forsman said. "He should be a good chance today."

Baker and Forsman are going into the week's racing with a clear lead on the New Zealand Trainers' Premiership. They have 37 wins, nine more than their nearest rivals, Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards.

Dance For Money (NZ) (Showcasing)

Vile dancing for the money

Awapuni trainer Gary Vile believes it's now time to again put Dance For Money (NZ) (Showcasing) to the black-type test.

He plans to start the Showcasing filly in today's Gr.3 Wellington Stakes (1600m) at Otaki on the strength of her last-start second behind Seraphim (Rip Van Winkle) over 1550m at Awapuni earlier this month.

"That was a good run against the older horses and she will have no problem with the 1600 metres," Vile said. "I've always rated her. She's up to it."

Dance For Money has won one of her five starts and been placed on two occasions with both her unplaced efforts being in previous black-type assignments.

"I made the mistake of putting her first-up in the Gold Trail when she was not ready for it," Vile said. "She's more ready for this one."

To keep Dance For Money up to the mark since her runner-up finish, Vile gave her a trial at Foxton last Tuesday and she finished second behind Casaquinman (NZ) (Per Incanto).

Weight may break winless run

Mighty Solomon (NZ) (Darci Brahma) is well-placed in the handicap at Otaki today to break a lengthy drought.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mighty Solomon (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

The seven-year-old will carry 53.5kg in the Listed Fasttrack Insurance Levin Stakes (1200m) in his quest for his first win since he was successful in an open handicap at Hawke's Bay in February, 2015.

"He's got to a good place in the weights now and he has trained on very well since his last run," trainer Lisa Latta said.

Mighty Solomon, who has placed at Group One level, got home well at his most recent appearance at Awapuni for a close second behind Shadow Fox (NZ) (Keeninsky). He meets that runner a kilo and a-half better off today.

Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder)

Back on track for Group One tilts

Trainers Evan and JJ Rayner believe they have their stable star Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder) on track to defend his Gr.1 Sistema Railway (1200m) crown on New Year's Day.

The son of Eighth Wonder rose to prominence when he downed the best sprinters in this year's Ellerslie feature and went on to make his mark in three other Group Ones, including victory in the Gr.1 NRM Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa.

Those wins, plus his seconds in the Gr.1 J.R. & N. Berkett Telegraph (1200m) and Haunui Farm Group One WFA Classic (1600m), earned him the New Zealand Champion Sprinter award and the Rayners are confident he can measure up along the same path this campaign.

Star Wondering will resume in today's Listed Fasttrack Insurance Levin Stakes (1200m) at Otaki under the clear topweight of 61kgs. Full story here

Logan using proven Group One launchpad

Donna Logan will again attempt to use Saturday's Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial (1500m) at Ellerslie to launch a Group One galloper.

The Ruakaka trainer has had five runners in the race since 2012 and remarkably three have gone on to win Group One races, while a fourth - 2014 runner-up Midnitemagicman (NZ) (Tavistock) - finished fourth in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) of his year.

Logan's 2012 winner Habibi (NZ) (Ekraar) went on to win the New Zealand Derby later that season, while her 2013 winner Rising Romance (NZ) (Ekraar) was second in the Derby before winning the Gr.1 Australian Oaks (2400m) at Randwick, then later finished second in the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m). Full story here

Demonetization (All Too Hard)

Derby prospect now immediate focus for Tiley

Nigel Tiley unleashed another exciting black-type winner at his local meeting last Saturday and will be hoping he can add his New Zealand Derby prospect Demonetization (All Too Hard) to that list this weekend.

The Pukekohe trainer had a satisfying day at the office at his local meeting with a win, two seconds and a sixth from his four starters and this Saturday he will line up the unbeaten Demonetization in the Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial 3YO (1500m) at Ellerslie.

The highlight of Tiley's day was the impressive debut win by the Iffraaj two-year-old filly Melt (NZ), who followed up an Avondale trials win by trouncing her rivals in the Listed Ashford Lodge 2YO Stakes (1100m). Full story here

Survived chasing Cup three-peat

Survived (NZ) (Zed) will chase a piece of racing history today when he attempts to win a third Mount Gambier Gold Cup (2400m) in 18 months for trainer Archie Alexander.

The son of Zed has won the last two editions of the race when it has been run in May and his affinity with the unique circuit prompted connections to specifically target the Cup's maiden summer staging, in which he will carry the 59kg top weight.

"When he won it last year someone said that no horse had ever won the Cup three years in a row so we had it in the back of our mind as a bit of a challenge with him," Alexander said.

"He's sound and he's well but he's a very unpredictable horse.

"Three starts ago he beat Kiwia, who went on to run well in some nice races over the spring but then last start he was beaten at Naracoorte by a horse rated 56, albeit on a very Heavy track.

"With that rain they've had in the last few days and the forecast over the next couple of days, the track won't be rock hard so it should be ideal for him."

Moira Murdoch

Trainers in hot form

A family well known to Moira Murdoch brought up a winning treble for her and daughter Kieran at Avondale on Thursday.

They rounded off a rewarding day when Iffindoubt (NZ) (Iffraaj) capped off a bright start to his career with victory in the GCS Logistics Maiden (1400m).

The promising son of Iffraaj is out of the Not A Single Doubt mare Belle De Jeu, who won four races from Murdoch's stable with her debut success coming at the expense of the subsequent dual Group One winner Katie Lee (Pins).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Iffindoubt ran fourth in his only start last season and was runner-up when opening his current campaign behind Motivation (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) at Te Aroha.

"He got beaten by a pretty smart horse at his last-start so second-up he looked a good chance," winning rider Leith Innes said. "He won nicely and will get over a bit more ground."

The Murdochs had earlier been successful with Polzeath (NZ) (Pentire) and Pokuru Nugget (NZ) (Stravinsky).

Polzeath (NZ) (Pentire)

Touching maiden success

Polzeath (NZ) (Pentire) recorded a poignant victory for Rich Hill Stud at Avondale on Thursday.

The lightly-tried five-year-old is a son of the recently deceased Pentire, who was the farm's foundation stallion.

The Moira and Kieran Murdoch-trained Polzeath is part-owned by Rich Hill's John Thompson and was making just his third race day appearance and first for five months.

"The owners have been extremely patient," Moira Murdoch said, "He's raced by John and Peter Merton, who has also been a great Pentire fan."

A further connection to the Walton, near Matamata, nursery was provided by the successful jockey Jasmine Fawcett.

"My first job was at Rich Hill Stud so I was very happy to get the ride," she said.

Railway plan for Gift Of Power

Graeme Rogerson has his sights set on talented filly Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power) joining stablemate Ferrando (NZ) (Fast 'n' Famous) in the Gr.1 Sistema Railway (1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

The three-year-old filly took a step toward the lofty goal when lining up in an open 1000-metre trial at Matamata on Tuesday.

Gift Of Power disputed most of the pace with Break My Stride (Zoffany) and she pleased the Tuhikaramea trainer with her fighting second, a head behind

Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power)

Akoya (NZ) (Bullbars), when ridden by his granddaughter, Bailey Rogerson.

"She had missed a bit of work since she last raced and needed the trial," Rogerson said. "She will run next in a Rating 85 1000m at Trentham. I want to get her into the Railway. I think she is good enough."

Ferrando is already on target for the Sistema Railway, though Rogerson believes he should have finished closer than fourth in last Saturday's Listed Haunui Farm Counties Bowl.

"The track was a Dead4 and he needs it rock hard," Rogerson said. "He still went a top race. He'll have another run before the Railway."

Battle Time (NZ) (Battle Paint)

Trial causes first-up rethink

Margaret Carter believed the likely fresh-up mission for Battle Time (NZ) (Battle Paint) had been decided, but she was having second thoughts after the Group Two winner competed at Tuesday's Matamata trials.

After being off the scene since winning over 1400 metres at Ellerslie last June, Battle Time contested an open 1000-metre heat, in which he settled in the last few and beat a couple home.

In his burly state it was an effort which satisfied rider Sam Spratt, but both she and Carter, who prepares Battle Time with her husband, Tim, agreed to rethink the first-up assignment planned for the son of Battle Paint.

"We were thinking of running him first-up in the open 1200 at Ellerslie on the ninth (of December), but after watching him trial they might go too quick for him over 1200. It may be better to find a 1400 first-up," Carter said. "It mightn't be as hard on him."

Southern Icon (Big Brown)

Southern Icon back on track

Matamata trainer Alan Tait is hoping to have finally turned the corner with Southern Icon (Big Brown) after a frustrating year with the bold galloper.

Southern Icon has won once during the year (fresh-up at Te Rapa last July) and run some sound races, but he has been plagued by viruses.

"He's had two viruses," Tait said. "Just when we thought we had got him right he got another one. It's been such a frustrating year."

Southern Icon was given a hit-out at Tuesday's Matamata trials and showed his usual dash in front in his four-horse heat over 1200 metres. He kept up a solid gallop to the line for regular rider Mark Hills to win by a length and three-quarters from Cool Tart (NZ) (Zabeel).

"His action was good and I'm happy with that," Tait said. "I'm just restricted where to go with him."

"He doesn't go right-handed so that rules out most of the races up this way. There's only the Group Three at Te Rapa (J. Swap Contractors Sprint (1400m)) in a few weeks or he'll have to go down to the central districts and I don't really want to travel away with him first-up."

Top sprinter on track for Railway

Top sprinter Sacred Star (Flying Spur) is on the right track for a fresh-up tilt at the Gr.1 Sistema Railway (1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Sacred Star (Flying Spur)

Sacred Star hasn't raced since a three-start Queensland Winter Carnival campaign 16 months ago, but he proved at Tuesday's Matamata trials that he had lost none of his talent.

It was Sacred Star's second trials outing since he last raced and he showed improvement on his unplaced trials effort at Cambridge earlier this month. Full story here

Akoya (NZ) (Bullbars)

Marsh in no rush with Akoya

Cambridge trainer Stephen Marsh isn't in a hurry with Akoya (NZ) (Bullbars) despite a trial win at Matamata on Tuesday.

Akoya has recorded two wins and two placings from six starts for Marsh, but hasn't raced since finishing unplaced in the Gr.3 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders Stakes (1200m) at Te Rapa last April.

She reappeared at the Cambridge trials late last month and had another trial outing on the same track 16 days later with both those outings sharpening her up for Tuesday's trial.

Ridden by Danielle Johnson, Akoya settled behind the leaders and rounded off her effort solidly to beat the joint pacemakers Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power) and Break My Stride (Zoffany) in an open 1000-metre heat.

"She's taken the three trials to get her fitter," Marsh said. "I'll look at a 1200-metre race somewhere for her, but she won't do much racing over the summer."

"She really needs the sting out of the ground and is better in the autumn. We'll just keep her ticking over and aim for then."

Hard Merchandize (NZ) (Burgundy)

Northern test for Hard Merchandize

A trial win at Foxton last week has Gr.2 Hawke's Bay Guineas (1400m) winner Hard Merchandize (NZ) (Burgundy) on target for a northern test next month.

Freshened since finishing a game third behind Sumstreetsumwhere (NZ) (Highly Recommended) in the Gr.2 James & Annie Sarten Memorial Stakes (1400m) at Te Rapa, Hard Merchandize contested an open 1000m Foxton trial and with Dylan Turner in the saddle he scored a long neck win.

"It was a nice trial, a run just to keep him ticking over," his Awapuni trainer Gary Vile said. "He had a week in the paddock after the Sarten Memorial and needed a nice hit-out. Full story here

Early New Year comeback

Injured Cambridge jockey Rogan Norvall is hoping the New Year will bring with it a welcome change of luck.

Norvall has encountered more than his share of injuries during his career and his New Year's wish should be to stay injury free for at least a whole year.

Norvall has spent more time on the sideline than in the saddle since he was injured in a horrific barrier incident at Te Aroha in April last year.

His leg was crushed against the back of the barriers when his mount suddenly backed out of his stall and he suffered a compound fracture of his tibia, a spiral fracture of his fibia, and a break behind the left knee. Full story here
