SHARROCK STRAIGHT TO THE POINT

Kawi looks primed and ready for his next Australian assault this weekend

The pre-race instructions from Allan Sharrock to his former champion apprentice before Saturday's assault on the $A1 million Gr.1 Kingston Town Stakes at Ascot with Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel), will be succinct.

The New Plymouth trainer's words to Michael Walker will be don't get cluttered up and get the multiple Group One-winning six-year-old rolling before the turn.

"I just think the main thing is to get him out 600 from home and have a crack at them," Sharrock said.

"At weight-for-age the best horse wins in my opinion. It suits Kawi, they all come up to his weight now and we've had two nice runs to ready him for this.

"It has always been our target race and I couldn't be happier with my horse and the rest is really up to him and Michael on the day and luck in the run."

Kawi is unbeaten at the Kingston Town distance of 1800 metres, having won last year's Gr.3 Taranaki Cup over the trip.

"I would have said a mile was his best distance, but he has only had one crack at 1800m and won that and he's won a Group One over 2000m and placed in a Group One over 2000m so I think the distance on Saturday is perfect for him," Sharrock said.

Kawi was a last-start sixth in the Gr.1 Railway Stakes and the gelding has come through the race in perfect order.

“He would have got closer with some clear air and he was quite happy to pick grass afterwards in the birdcage so he didn’t really have a hard run,” Sharrock said. “He’s thrived since.”

He believes the local hope Perfect Reflection (More Than Ready) will be the hardest to beat on Saturday.

“She’s honest and she’s got a nice barrier at two,” Sharrock said. “She going to be tough and being a mare she gets a couple of kilos off them.”

PATIENCE DUE MAJOR REWARD AT TRENTHAM

If good things come to those who wait, Abidewithme (NZ) (Redoute's Choice) will get her Group One win at Trentham in the Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes on Saturday.

She is in foal to Tavistock and will not race past Boxing Day, when she is scheduled to tackle the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic at Ellerslie.

The Captain Cook will be her 15th start at the highest level, but co-trainer Stephen Autridge believes she is better equipped to win a big race now than at any other stage in her career.

"I think she's finally come of age and being in foal has probably helped as well," he said. "When she came back in for this campaign she looked the best she had ever been.

"She's never been very big or strong and is only just getting there now. She was always going to get better with time and has just taken longer than most."

Abidewithme, a Redoute's Choice mare, had her first run in Group One company in November 2012, when she tackled the 1000 Guineas at her third start and also contested the New Zealand Oaks.

She ran third in the 2015 Breeders' Stakes at Te Aroha and ran second, beaten a neck by Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City), this year and was fourth in the 2014 Makfi Stakes at Hastings. Abidewithme also had three Group One starts for Melbourne trainer Peter Moody.

She has had only two starts this term, finishing third at Ellerslie and then beating her Captain Cook rivals El Pescado (NZ) (El Hermano) and Julinsky Prince (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in the Gr.2 Tauranga Stakes.

"She worked beautifully on the plough on Tuesday morning when Danielle [Johnson] came over to ride her," said Autridge, who trains in partnership with Jamie Richards.

Johnson will be having her first ride on Abidewithme on Saturday, replacing regular rider Michael McNab who is suspended.

STUD DEVASTATED BY STALLION'S DEATH

Tragedy has struck Mapperley Stud with the untimely passing of their stallion Atlante

Mapperley Stud are reeling following the shock death of their promising young stallion Atlante (Fastnet Rock).

Cambridge studmaster Simms Davison said he had been left devastated by the freak accident that claimed the life of the Fastnet Rock stallion on Thursday afternoon.

"He was outside his box when he reared up and slipped over and whacked his head when he came down. He just lost his balance and that was it.

"For a young studmaster it's a bitter pill to swallow - there's a lot of sweat and tears goes into these horses. I'm just gutted."

Atlante retired to Mapperley Stud in 2015 and Davison said the feedback on his first crop of foals had been hugely encouraging.

"He's been leaving some great types, it's just heart breaking."

A son of the Group-performed More Than Ready mare Readyforcatherine, Atlante began his career with Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman and at his fourth start he won the Listed Canterbury Stakes before he triumphed next time out in the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas.

He subsequently placed in the Gr.2 Hobartville Stakes during a Sydney autumn campaign before joining John, Michael and Wayne Hawke's stable.

Atlante won the Listed Chandler Macleod Stakes and subsequently returned to Baker and Forsman for one more appearance before his retirement to Mapperley.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Julinsky Prince (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Title holder in top order for Trentham

Julinsky Prince (NZ) (Darci Brahma) is going the right way about successfully defending one of his Group One titles.

The Marton galloper finished third in the Gr.2 Tauranga Stakes 12 months ago before he won the Gr.1 Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes and he will step out at Trentham on Saturday with identical lead-up form.

"The key to this horse is that he loves to race on the fresh side and we went to Tauranga this time knowing there was a twist to come in terms of his fitness," trainer Fraser Auret said.

"I think he raced incredibly well, he's just such a genuine horse and he has tightened up nicely for the Captain Cook." Full story here.

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock)

Cameron reunited with multiple Group One winner

Matt Cameron is looking forward to his reunion with Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) on Saturday.

The leading rider will partner the top performer in the Gr.1 Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes at Trentham, a race that has been weakened by the early defections of Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock).

Rasa Lila required surgery following a colic attack on Monday evening and Hasselhoof, a stablemate of Volkstok'n'barrell, has a minor foot injury.

Cameron won five races on Volkstok'n'barrell during the horse's three-year-old campaign, but he has not had a race ride on the horse since finishing second in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby in 2015.

The son of Tavistock has done most of his racing since then in Australia and conflicting commitments prevented Cameron riding the horse in his three starts in New Zealand last autumn. Full story here.

Hannam in demand for Captain Cook

Palmerston North jockey Robbie Hannam has gone with his head over his heart as he chases Group One success in Saturday's Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes (1600m) at Trentham.

Hannam has ridden the Lisa Latta-trained Authentic Paddy (NZ) (Howbaddouwantit) in 48 of his 60 starts and been aboard for all 10 of his wins. However, he has plumped for the Fraser Auret-trained Aide Memoire (NZ) (Remind) ahead of one of his favourite horses.

"It's a tough one because he's been a great horse to me," Hannam said. "It weighed pretty heavily on me, but I spoke to Lisa and she said I had to do what was best for me - after all it is a Group One race.

"I've ridden Aide Memoire once for a Listed win in the Rangitikei Cup and she's gone on with it since then. She's probably not the better horse today, but she probably will be next year." Full story here.

Juliette (NZ) (Poet's Voice)

Scene set for Juliette to star

Promising filly Juliette (NZ) (Poet's Voice) will be seeking important black-type status in Saturday's Gr.2 Wellington Seamarket Wakefield Challenge Stakes (1200m) at Trentham.

"It's only a small field of eight runners for $100,000. It's a Group Two race and she's a filly so if she could get some black-type, we'd be over the moon. She's going very well and we think she'll be very competitive," said trainer Brendon Hawtin.

Juliette opened as the TAB's $7.20 third favourite on its final field market released on Thursday.

Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power), who is unbeaten in two starts culminating in her Listed Wellesley Stakes win at Trentham, opened as the $1.95 favourite, head of Ruakaka debut winner Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands).

Famous Seamus (NZ) (Elusive City)

Famous Seamus feeling festive

It's been almost four years and 40 starts since Group One-winning sprinter Famous Seamus (NZ) (Elusive City) stepped out over 1500 metres but his trainer believes now is the time to try again.

The eight-year-old runs in Saturday's Gr.3 Festival Stakes at Rosehill and, if he performs as Noel Mayfield-Smith hopes, he will be aimed at Sydney's summer showpiece, the Villiers Stakes (1600m).

Famous Seamus counts the 2014 Gr.1 BTC Cup among his 12 wins which also include the more recent Ladies Day Cup (1400m) on his home track, Hawkesbury.

Famous Seamus will carry second top weight of 58.5kg, half a kilogram less than Amovatio (Al Maher), one of three runners for premier trainer Chris Waller.

Waller's other runners will be last-start winner Religify (Choirir) and Marenostro (NZ) (Duelled) who finished 6-1/2 lengths behind his stablemate when seventh at Rosehill last Saturday week.

"Marenostro was a bit soft first-up but I think he will have come on," Waller said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Rageese (Street Cry)

Rageese ready for Festival Stakes

New Zealand stallion prospect Rageese (Street Cry) has made a good recovery from injury and he will run in Saturday's Gr.3 Festival Stakes at Rosehill.

Part-owned by Cambridge's Windsor Park Stud, a setback forced the son of Street Cry to miss the Gr.1 Railway Stakes in Perth.

"He seems to be good, he had a few easy days after he had that little foot issue, but I'm really happy with him," trainer Darren Weir said.

Rageese's next aim will be the Gr.2 Villiers Stakes at Randwick on December 17.

Natuzzi (NZ) (Coats Choice)

Railway start isn't a given for Natuzzi

Natuzzi (NZ) (Coats Choice) isn't booked for a start in January's Gr.1 Sistema Railway (1200m), but a bold run at Ellerslie on Saturday might go some way to twisting his co-trainer's arm.

A top performance is expected in the Gr.3 J. A. Russell Ltd Concorde Handicap (1200m), after which the sprinter's prospects of a tilt at the New Year's Day feature will be assessed.

"We'll see how he goes on Saturday," said Paul Richards, who trains in partnership with Peter and Dawn Williams.

"He's an eight-year-old and the handicapper knows him well. It's got a bit difficult to place him.

"With age he's probably not as sharp as he was. He gets in all right at the weights for the Railway, but it depends more on the competition. Full story here.

Best Tothelign to defend title

Best Tothelign (NZ) (Align) will be out to defend his SIN-Gr.3 Colonial Chief Stakes title on Sunday.

The Shane Baertschiger trained six-year-old is coming off a last start win in November and has drawn well to jump from barrier two.

New Zealand bred runners hold a strong hand in the feature with six of the ten runners carrying the (NZ) suffix.

Last start winner Infantry (NZ) (Tavistock) and Bring Money Home (NZ) (Mr Nancho) will also contest the race, with Group Three winners El Padrino (NZ) (Mr Nancho) and Daniel (NZ) (Guillotine) completing the kiwi-bred contingent.

Iggi Pop (NZ) (Savabeel)

Comeback king Iggi Pop returns to Rosehill

When Iggi Pop (NZ) (Savabeel) was standing in retirement on a hill at Segenhoe Farm, the thought of him returning to the track to win more than A$100,000 in stakes seemed distant.

But that's the mark the veteran stayer has reached as he loads up again to contest the Listed ATC Cup (2000m) at Rosehill on Saturday.

His career's second act has produced two Listed placings in the Wagga and McKell cups.

Iggi Pop picked up another cheque last start when he finished third in an open handicap over 1900m at Rosehill on November 19.

"He hasn't won for a long time but he keeps running his genuine honest races and it's probably just a case of him winning one day when everything falls into place for him," trainer Peter Robl said.

Iggi Pop has drawn barrier 13 of 14 for Saturday but has the advantage of in-form jockey Tim Clark who will ride him carrying the minimum 54kg.

The Chris Waller-trained Lady Le Fay (NZ) (Thorn Park) will jump from barrier seven and will be ridden by Glyn Schofield.

Puccini to contest Pakenham Cup

A field of 14 will line up in Saturday's A$200,000 Listed Pakenham Cup with former New Zealander Puccini (NZ) (Encosta De Lago) to carry top weight of 60kg with Stephen Baster to ride.

A last-start fourth in the Ballarat Cup, Puccini will be lining up for his seventh start in a Cup race in his past seven starts.

The gelding contested the Avoca and Horsham Cups for Wayne Walters before Ballarat, while under the training of Darren Weir he ran in the Brisbane, Ipswich and Caloundra Cups.

Draw does Kuro no favours

Kuro's (NZ) (Denman) chances in Saturday's Listed Starlight Stakes (1100m) at Rosehill have been hampered by a wide barrier draw.

The Joseph Pride-trained gelding, who is placed at Group One level, will jump from barrier 11.

Kuro, a graduate of Curraghmore Stud's 2013 NZB Premier draft, has returned to racing this preparation in smart form and is coming off a last start second at Rosehill over the same distance as Saturday's race.

Fellow New Zealand bred contender Prince Famous (NZ) (Fast 'n' Famous) fared better in the draw and will start from gate five.

Orpheo (Fastnet Rock)

Stakes test for promising Noble filly

Last-start winner Orpheo (Fastnet Rock) will line up in Saturday's Listed Schneider Electric Mufhasa Stakes (1300m) at Ellerslie, and her performance will guide Auckland trainer Lance Noble on her summer programme.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"We're really happy with her. It's a pretty even field looking at it on paper - full of one-win horses," Noble said.

"We've always rated her so how she runs will determine whether we tackle those fillies races or bring her up through the grades."

Orphea will jump from barrier four and is to be ridden by Grant Cooksley who will step in for regular rider Leith Innes who is out on suspension.

Michael Dee

Dee to ride at Rosehill for first time

Michael Dee heads to unfamiliar territory in Sydney on Festival Stakes day as he approaches a significant milestone in the latter stages of his apprenticeship.

The Melbourne-based New Zealander needs two city wins to lose his claim and will ride at Rosehill for the first time on Saturday.

The 20-year-old is booked to partner the Ciaran Maher-trained Hazzabeel (NZ) (Zabeel) in the Gr.3 Festival Stakes (1500m) and will also be aboard Husson Eagle (Husson) in the Listed Starlight Stakes.

The 20-year-old Dee has only ridden once in Sydney when third in the Gr.1 Metropolitan on the Godolphin-owned Allergic (Street Cry) last month at Randwick.

He was keen to stick with Hazzabeel after riding the former Perth-based horse to a 1-3/4 length win in the Listed Kilmore Cup (1600m) on November 20.

Ride key to Da Shindig's chances

Da Shindig (NZ) (Shinko King) looms as one of Jan Hay's best winning prospects at Riccarton today.

The sparingly-raced Shinko King seven-year-old has been in solid form and he will face a drop in class in the Dunstan Feeds Championship Qualifier, in which he will be ridden by the visiting central districts jockey Masa Tanaka.

"His agent rang me so I was happy to put him on," Hay said. "The horse is going well, he just needs to be ridden right.

Da Shindig (NZ) (Shinko King)

"He has to be able to find his feet and then be given clear air - he can't have an interrupted run." Full story here.

Order Again a winter hopeful

Lightly raced Order Again (NZ) (Iffraaj) has avenged an unlucky last-start defeat to confirm his rating as a possible winter carnival contender with a decisive win at the Sunshine Coast.

Sent out the $1.50 favourite in Wednesday's 1400m-maiden, Order Again ran down the leader The Amateur (Teofilo) to win by 2-3/4 lengths.

Trainer Brian Smith said he would enter Order Again for an open three-year-old race over 1600m at Eagle Farm on Saturday week.

"I think he might make a lower grade winter carnival three-year-old. I don't want to be talking about the Derby but I do think he is a 2400 metre horse in the making," Smith said.

Overdue victory for Marky Mark

A lengthy period of frustration has ended for all concerned with the four-year-old Marky Mark (Makfi).

He won for the first time since he claimed the Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes 20 months ago when he took a Rating 85 scalp at Pukekohe Park on Wednesday.

"He's been saddled with big weights and he's only a little fellow and last time we dropped him back to 1200 metres which didn't work," said Moira Murdoch, who trains Marky Mark with her daughter Kieran.

The son of Makfi, who carried 60kg when beaten two runs back at Ellerslie, appreciated the return to 1400m at Pukekohe where he beat Packing Tycoon under 54.5kg.

Riccarton trainers eyeing northern features

Michael and Matthew Pitman are expecting to be regular North Island visitors in the coming months.

The father and son partnership have eyes on major sprinting features with First Serve (NZ) (Swiss Ace) and Kinagat (Street Cry) while other members of their Riccarton stable are also likely to be in action at Trentham in January.

"First Serve's next start will almost certainly be in the Listed sprint at Dunedin on Boxing Day and then on to the Telegraph," Michael Pitman said.

"Hopefully, we'll have others at the Wellington Cup carnival. South Island horses go well there because we've got consistent racing here to get them ready."

First Serve won for the sixth time in her eight start career when she claimed the Gr.3 Canterbury Breeders' Stakes during the recent New Zealand Cup carnival. Full story here.

Stayer back on the cups' trail

Wellington Cup winner Mister Impatience (Hernando) is making good progress after an injury break.

The Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard-trained seven-year-old's preparation took in a run at the recent Te Teko trials and while he tailed the field home over 1000 metres, his connections weren't disappointed.

"It was far too short for him," Ballymore Stables' racing manager Nick Fairweather said. "He's come back extremely well and he's carrying a lot of condition."

Mister Impatience came to Matamata from Moroney's Flemington stable and in his fifth New Zealand appearance he won last season's Gr.3 Wellington Cup. Following an unplaced run in the Gr.1 Auckland Cup, he underwent surgery.

"His rehab went well after he had a bone chip removed from his fetlock," Fairweather said.

"If he comes up to anywhere near his best form then he could have a go at a few of the cups and then maybe head back to Australia.

"He's nominated for the City of Auckland Cup and the Auckland Cup. He's also in the Wellington Cup, but that could come up a touch too soon for him."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hutchings outed for 14 meetings over fall

Jockey Rory Hutchings has been suspended for 14 meetings over his involvement in a fall which led to a horse being euthanised at Hawkesbury.

Hutchings was slapped with the careless riding ban for crossing on Mount Taishan (Northern Meteor) and causing interference to Blaike McDougall's mount Dragon's Magic (Pendragon) in the opening stages of a race at Hawkesbury on November 18.

Dragon's Magic fell and broke her shoulder before being taken to a veterinary hospital where she was euthanised.

McDougall suffered an ankle injury and was stood down from the rest of the meeting.

Hutchings, who became a senior rider in June, will begin his suspension on Sunday and can return to competitive riding on New Year's Eve.

Road to Rock colt the highlight of gavelhouse.com NZ November auction

Local and international buyers were active in the most recent gavelhouse.com New Zealand auction which wrapped up on 28 November.

The top price fetched was for Wellfield Lodge's impressive son of Road to Rock at Lot 30 with a Singapore-based buyer bidding to $50,000 to add the colt to his string.

Buyers from Malaysia and South Africa were also active, purchasing racing and breeding stock.

Since gavelhouse.com's relaunch in New Zealand as an auction site in April 2016, 228 horses have traded hands for total receipts of over $1.7 million. The site is now a valuable trading tool for the industry outside the traditional auction cycle with a long list of New Zealand's most esteemed racing stables and studs now regular users.

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Redcraze- the weight carrying marvel

A good horse in New Zealand, Redcraze became a great horse in Australia.

Originally trained by Syd Brown in New Zealand, he was transferred to the stables of Tommy Smith in Australia as a late five-year-old where he realised his huge potential and became a superstar in the spring of 1956.

After winning three races in Sydney, including the Metropolitan, he won the WFA Caulfield Stakes, then the Caulfield Cup with a record 9st 13lb (63kg).

NEW ZEALAND RACING
HALL OF FAME

Under 10st 3lb (65kg) in the Melbourne Cup, Redcraze failed by a half-neck to overhaul the lightweight Evening Peal, to whom he was conceding the equivalent of 15kg - an outstanding performance.
