DYNAMIC DUO SHOOT FOR DOUBLE DOUBLE

Promising mare Love Affair leads the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman charge in tomorrow's Gr. 2 Cal Isuzu Stakes at Te Rapa

Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman will chase a repeat of a prized double at Te Rapa on Saturday.

The Cambridge training duo produced Coldplay (NZ) (Savabeel) and Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) to claim the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes-Gr.3 SkyCity Hamilton Waikato Cup double last year and have a strong hand in both races again this weekend.

Last-start Gr.3 Counties Cup (2100m) winner Maygrove

(Authorized) and Waverley Cup (2200m) placed Zacada (NZ) (Zabeel) tackle the Waikato Cup (2400m), while Lizzie L'Amour, Stolen Dance (NZ) (Alamosa) and Love Affair (NZ) (Savabeel) make up a three-pronged attack on the weight-for-age Cal Isuzu Stakes (1600m) for fillies and mares.

The Cal Isuzu is a race the stable has won regularly in recent years with Lady Kipling (NZ) (Savabeel) (2011), Diademe (NZ) (Savabeel) (2013), Sports Illustrated (NZ) (Fast

'n' Famous) (2014) and Coldplay all successful, remarkably all four by Waikato Stud sires and both Sports Illustrated and Coldplay wearing Waikato Stud colours.

Emerging star Love Affair will bid to continue that trend, the Garry Chittick-bred and raced daughter of Savabeel shooting for her fifth win in just six starts.

Just as Sports Illustrated did, Love Affair was successful in a lower grade race last start at Pukekohe as her lead-up to her first shot at a Group race.

"We think she's a pretty good horse. She's a good-class mare and we think she'll measure up," Baker said.

"She won well at Pukekohe last time and she's gone on the right way since. She's a very promising horse."

TAB bookmakers have installed Love Affair as a $2.30 favourite for the Cal Isuzu Stakes, with Lizzie L'Amour and Stolen Dance, who won the race in 2015 for then trainer David Greene, as $4.80 equal second favourites.

"Stolen Dance will go a good race," Baker said. "She's a class act. With Lizzie L'Amour, we'll try her out and see how she goes. It will probably be a bit short for her but she's a good horse too."

Baker has plans to run Lizzie L'Amour and Stolen Dance in the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day should they run to his satisfaction on Saturday, while no plan has yet been confirmed for Love Affair.

The master trainer was pleased with his Waikato Cup pair leading into their staying test.

"Zacada's not the worst and he'll get the trip all right. He's had a run at the trip and finished second and he was fourth in the [New Zealand] St Leger over 2500m. He got home well last week and he'll go a good race," Baker said.

"Maygrove has that big weight to carry again but it's not a great field and he's racing well. He's about the same as he was the year he won the Wellington Cup and he'll put in again like he always does."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Crack Me Up (NZ) (Mossman)

Crack Me Up set for grand finale

Multiple Queensland stakes winner Crack Me Up (NZ) (Mossman) will run in Saturday's Gr.2 Villiers Stakes (1600m) at Randwick for trainer Liam Birchley.

The four-year-old gelding won the Listed Recognition Stakes (1350m) second up at Doomben on 25 November and ran fourth on Saturday in the Listed Brisbane Handicap (1600m).

Sydney-based jockey Jason Collett has been booked to ride Crack Me Up, who also won the Gr.3 Sunshine Coast Guineas (1600m) in July.

Birchley has indicated this will be the last start for Crack Me Up in this campaign.

Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Devise looking good for Te Rapa

Shaune Ritchie is bullish about Devise's (NZ) (Darci Brahma) prospects in the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes (1600m) at Te Rapa on Saturday.

"She looks a good chance to get some more black type on the pedigree page," the Cambridge trainer said. "As long as she races up to expectations and comes through well, the Zabeel Classic is on the cards."

Devise will be ridden by Michael Coleman while Chris Johnson will be aboard her stablemate Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle).

"Chris Johnson is a good booking for Let Her Rip, we'll be riding her cold as she's best when she's held up for the last crack at them," Ritchie said.

NZ bred hoping to continue dream run

Celebrity Dream (NZ) (Thorn Park) is eyeing a hat-trick of stakes victories when she tackles the Listed R S Crawford Stakes (1000m) at Ascot on Saturday.

Trained by Adam Durrant, the mare comes into the race off the back of two wins in the Listed Jungle Mist Classic (1200m) and the Listed Jungle Dawn Classic (1400m) and will face a field of four rivals.

Celebrity Dream will jump from barrier four with Chris Parnham replacing regular rider William Pike who is out on suspension.

Patrick Moloney

Moloney returning to NZ

Patrick Moloney will be riding in New Zealand this week to again fill in for the suspended Jake Bayliss.

The stable rider for Mike Moroney in Melbourne will cross the Tasman to partner the exciting juvenile She's A Thief (NZ) (Showcasing) in the Wentwood Grange Premier (1200m) at Te Rapa on Saturday and The Boy Wonder (NZ) (Cape Blanco) in the Listed Auckland Age Concerns 3YO Salver (2100m) at Ellerslie the following day.

Both horses are trained by Moroney at his Matamata base with Pam Gerard.

Moloney, who will also be in action at Tauranga on Friday, won the Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial (1500m) at Ellerslie and was successful aboard Bocce (Foxwedge) at Otaki for the stable earlier this month when deputising for a suspended Bayliss.

Mare poised to boost stable's fortunes

Brookbars (NZ) (Bullbars) could provide Brian McKeagg with a deserved change of luck on his home track today.

The Tauranga trainer is tipping a bold showing from the mare in the Young Read Woudberg Chartered Accountants Handicap (2100m) to put an end to a frustrating run.

McKeagg has had the misfortune this year to lose a pair of talented horses in the multiple winners Galloping Gerte (NZ) (Align) and Cantare (NZ) (Per Incanto). Full story here

Brookbars (NZ) (Bullbars)

Chance To Dance (Teofilo)

Tauranga outing for Group One contender

Multiple stakes winner Chance To Dance (Teofilo) will further his Group One preparation at Tauranga today.

The well-travelled eight-year-old has won two of his three New Zealand starts and is progressing well toward the Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

The Irish-bred Chance To Dance was successful first-up in the Listed Karaka Classic (1600m) at Pukekohe before he was caught three wide without cover when beaten in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hawke's Bay. Full story here

Kiwi-bred colt wins again

Civil Disobedience (NZ) (Raise The Flag) furthered his prospects of a possible trip home with his latest success at Mornington.

The Kiwi-bred son of Raise The Flag, who posted his second win from six starts for trainer Darren Weir over 2000m on Wednesday, holds a nomination for next year's Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby (2400m).

Civil Disobedience is currently a $61 chance in the Derby market.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Monrecour (NZ) (Zacinto)

Allen stars, but youth bows to experience

Victorian Ben Allen was the individual star of the show at Ellerslie on Wednesday evening, but his valiant efforts weren't enough for his youthful side to land the Jockeys' World Cup Prelude.

The 18-year-old won the opening event, the Edwards Sound Maiden (1400m) aboard Lily The Pink (NZ) (Makfi) and completed a double when he guided Monrecour (NZ) (Zacinto) to victory in the feature event, the Barfoot & Thompson Twilight Cup (1500m).

But the inaugural event and a $3000 prize was won by the senior team of Jason Collett, Damian Lane and Jamie Kah, riding under the Vodafone International banner with a winning points tally of 84. Full story here

Tivaci

European stint ruled out for Tivaci

Waikato Stud has decided against shuttling their popular freshman stallion Tivaci to Europe.

The Group One-winning son of High Chaparral has received strong domestic patronage in 2017, having served a quality book of more than 140 mares.

"After such a successful season that has just gone so quickly, we have decided not to take up the offer of a Northern Hemisphere season at the English National Stud," Matamata farm principal Mark Chittick said.

Per Incanto

Royal international result for Little Avondale's Per Incanto

Exposure on the international stage has provided Little Avondale Stud with another timely boost.

The good times continue to roll for the Wairarapa farm's resident stallion Per Incanto, who will enjoy unprecedented representation at New Zealand Bloodstock's Yearling Sale series at Karaka next month.

And the recent success of Per Incanto's Hong Kong-based son Time To Celebrate (NZ) was a massive fillip, studmaster Sam Williams said. Full story here

Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel)

Mr Stunning tops big weekend for Treweeks

Lyndhurst Farm's Mark and Shelley Treweek were always going to have something to celebrate last weekend, but what eventuated exceeded their plans.

Three celebrations on Saturday were capped by a Group One highlight with the John Size-trained Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) in the Gr.1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint (1200m) at Sha Tin on Sunday evening.

Mr Stunning is one of their many pin-hooking success stories, the couple having bought the son of Exceed And Excel in Melbourne for $A110,000. They subsequently sold him the following year during the Premier Sale at Karaka for $250,000 to Magus Equine, the Hong Kong operation of Willie Leung. Full story here

Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock)

Highden Park graduates shine in Hong Kong

Sunday evening's Hong Kong International race meeting will be one that Highden Park's Libby and Sam Bleakley will remember for some time.

The Feilding couple were already on cloud nine after experiencing their first win as owners on Sunday, but their day got a whole lot better when Highden graduates Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) and Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) added to their back-type tallies.

Beauty Generation secured his first Group One victory in the Longines Hong Kong Mile (1600m), while the farm's poster child Werther put in a strong runner-up performance in the Gr.1 Longines Hong Kong Cup (2000m). Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

"He's packed on the beef so we'll take him to Ellerslie on Sunday, it will do him good to have another look around," co-trainer Chris Gibbs said.

A last-start third in the Gr.3 Eagle Technology Stakes (1600m), Volkstok'n'barrell has been set for the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day. He finished runner-up to Consensus (NZ) (Postponed) in the weight-for-age feature last year.

Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed)

Anniversary return for Cup hope

Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed) will be back in action early next month to continue his build-up toward the Gr.1 Auckland Cup (3200m).

The Barfoot and Thompson-sponsored staying feature is the seven-year-old's autumn goal and, to that end, he will head to Trentham off a break to resume in the Gr.3 Tui – Backing a Winner Anniversary Handicap (1600m) on January 13.

"We're looking to kick him off in the Anniversary at set weights and penalties," said Grant Cullen, who trains the gelding with Guy Lowry. Full story here

Princess Rihanna (NZ) (Showcasing)

Eight Carat a timely option

Princess Rihanna (NZ) (Showcasing) will head back to familiar territory for her next appearance.

She put away a competitive field of older horses over 1400m at Ellerslie last time out and she will return there on Boxing Day for the Gr.2 Cambridge Stud Eight Carat Classic (1600m).

"We looked at the Eulogy Stakes at Awapuni this Saturday, but we want to give her a little bit longer between races and Ellerslie will set her up better for the summer months," said Andrew Scott, who trains the Showcasing filly with Lance O'Sullivan.

"We've had doubts about her running a mile and she's not bred to, but as we know against their own sex and age group they often can.

"The way she ran out 1400m last time was very encouraging and she knows her way around Ellerslie so well."

Stablemate Spring Heat (More Than Ready) will also run in the Eight Carat following her explosive performance last Saturday to win the Gr.3 Bonecrusher Stakes (1400m).

"She's improving and she pulled up very well," Scott said. "We've always thought a lot of her."

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel)

Wellington centre of Sharrock's attention

A trip north for Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel) has been ruled out with the star galloper set for a return to Trentham in the New Year in pursuit of further top-flight honours.

The outstanding son of Savabeel produced a commanding performance there to win Saturday's Gr.1 Captain Cook Stakes (1600m), his sixth success on the capital city course.

"He's won seven Group Ones now and he ain't finished yet," trainer Allan Sharrock said.

"He won't be going to Ellerslie though for the Zabeel Classic, if I'm going to run him over 2000m again it will be toward the end of his season." Full story here

Stable chasing rich repeat at Ellerslie

Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards have two well-credentialed youngsters to lead the stable's defence of a prized title at Ellerslie next month.

Impressive last-start winner Al Hasa (NZ)

Al Hasa (NZ) (Exceed And Excel)

(Exceed And Excel) and the undefeated Avantage (Fastnet Rock) are on target for the Karaka Million (1200m), a race the Te Akau operation claimed last season with Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands).

"Al Hasa will go to the Eclipse Stakes on New Year's Day and he's just got to keep improving, and we believe he will, and then it will be three and a-half weeks into the Million," Richards said. Full story here

Liam Birchley

Karaka Million attracts Birchley again

Liam Birchley is plotting another crack at next month's Karaka Million (1200m) at Ellerslie.

The Queensland trainer produced Sarge in Charge (NZ) (Golan) to finish runner-up in 2009 and won the following year with Sister Havana (NZ) (General Nediym), a feat he replicated with Hardline (NZ) (Showcasing) in 2015.

This time around, his hopes rest with the Per Incanto youngster Magic Mystery (NZ), a debut second last month.

"Liam told me he's hoping to get enough money at his next start to qualify," said Sam Williams, whose Little Avondale Stud sold the colt to Birchley at Karaka earlier this year for $170,000.

Meanwhile, the Victorian filly Solar Star (Zoustar) is also in the mix for a trip to New Trainer Anthony Freedman will give the trial winner a race day opportunity in the near future to gain entry into the Karaka Million.

Solar Star is a daughter of Zoustar and was purchased out of Westbury Stud's Karaka draft for $190,000.

Group winner off to Hong Kong

Matchbreaker's (NZ) (Makfi) New Zealand racing career is over having barely begun.

The three-year-old won two of his three starts, including a last-start success in the Gr.3 Wellington Stakes (1600m) which sparked intense overseas interest that has now resulted in his big money move to Hong Kong.

Matchbreaker (NZ) (Makfi)

"It was like a feeding frenzy, they all came calling," trainer Fraser Auret said. Full story here

First-up Concorde bid

Stakes performer Jimmy Rea (NZ) (Thewayouare) will make his New Zealand debut next month.

A multiple winner in Singapore for premiership-winning trainer Mark Walker, the Kevin Hickman-bred and owned gelding is now in the Matamata stable of Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards but has yet to race here.

Jimmy Rea joined their Queensland winter carnival team earlier this year and finished third in the Listed Hinkler Quality (1200m) at Doomben.

"He's a very good horse and he'll have a trial and we plan to run him first-up in the Concorde on Karaka Million night," Richards said.
