EMBELLISH BOASTS IDEAL GUINEAS PROFILE

New Zealand 2000 Guineas winner Embellish kicks off his Australian campaign at Flemington on Saturday

Experience is telling Te Akau that Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel) has the right Gr.1 Australian Guineas (1600m) profile.

Two years ago, trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards had a crack at the Flemington feature with another quality colt in Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire), who finished midfield after starting a short-priced favourite.

Embellish will open his Guineas campaign in Saturday's Gr.3 C. S. Hayes Stakes (1400m) and Autridge said the son of Savabeel had the superior credentials.

"They are different types, Xtravagant was a speed horse and Embellish settles well.

"We believe he is a better sort of horse for the Australian Guineas than Xtravagant was because he can sit off the pace and he's got a great turn of foot that will suit Flemington."

Both winners of the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m), Embellish arrived in Melbourne earlier this week in top shape.

He has raced twice since his classic success in the spring, finishing fourth when resuming on Boxing Day and he was then a close second in the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m).

"He's come through that nicely and I can't believe how well he's done since he got here," Autridge said.

"The 1400m at Flemington on Saturday will be like a mile back home so that shouldn't be a problem."

Meanwhile, stablemate Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) is ready to do battle against the fillies in Sydney in the Gr.2 Light Fingers Stakes (1200m) at Randwick.

"We've got her the best she's ever been," Autridge said. "She won very easily at Eilerslie last time out and she's come through it well.

"She'll run in the Light Fingers and a couple of weeks later in the Surround Stakes, but we haven't made any plans after that."

BUSUTTIN MOUNTS PERSIAN RAID ON NEW ZEALAND

Trent Busuttin believes that in Persian Empire (NZ) (Savabeel), he has a better Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby (2400m) contender than last year's runner-up Rising Red (NZ) (Redwood).

The Cranbourne-based Kiwi trainer made a hit-and-run raid with Rising Red in last year's classic at Ellerslie and beat all but Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) in the three-year-old Classic.

"They are very similar but if anything, I think a bit more of this horse, though Rising Red really ran out of his skin in the Derby," Busuttin said.

"We were there last year more hopeful than confident, whereas with this horse, I've got a bit more confidence about him."

Bred by Don and Rochelle McLaren, Savabeel colt Persian Empire is the first foal of unraced O'Reilly mare Persian Dynasty (NZ), a half-sister to Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m) winner Zabrasive (NZ) (Zabeel), and cost Busuttin $280,000 at the 2016 Karaka yearling sales.

"He's a nice horse and he fits the Derby criteria," Busuttin said.

"He came up a bit late for the spring in Victoria, but he won his maiden nicely and was always going to get up over a trip.

"He raced against the older horses over 2000m at Moonee Valley and was very strong, only just going down on the line and that's when we earmarked the Derby in New Zealand for him.

"There are not many opportunities to race for $1 million and in their age group, we thought it's the time to do it."

A winner of one of his seven starts, Persian Empire blotted his copybook with an unplaced run at Moonee Valley last start, hardly an ideal lead-up to Saturday's Gr.2 Electrolux Avondale Guineas (2100m) at Ellerslie, but Busuttin and his partner Natalie Young have put their faith in their horse.

"He raced below par last start but everything went wrong for him. He was taken on and attacked the entire race," Busuttin said.

"He ran sectionals early and mid-race that he just couldn't sustain so we'll forgive him that run and see how he squares up on Saturday."

Persian Empire is likely to confront a heavy Ellerslie track on Saturday but Busuttin believes he will cope with conditions.

"You never know but most of the Savabeel horses I've had, they get through wet tracks. Savabeels, they are strong, tough horses and more-often-than-not they handle wet conditions," he said.

"I go into the race fairly confident he'll handle it. He's fit and he's had three hard runs so it shouldn't concern him too much.

"He's drawn 12 and he'll put himself up on the speed and no doubt they will be getting wide by then.

"We've got a good jockey in Leith Innes and he'll do the job. He went and galloped the horse on Tuesday morning at the McKee set-up and was impressed with what he felt so fingers crossed for Saturday."

TAB bookmakers don't share Busuttin's confidence and have Persian Empire on offer as a $31 outsider in a market headed by last-start Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) winner Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar) at $3.40, last week's Gr.2 Waikato Guineas (2000m) runner-up Mongolianconqueror (NZ) (Ocean Park) at $5 and last-start Te Rapa winner Mission Hill (Teofilo) at $5.

Busuttin was delighted how well Persian Empire had travelled to New Zealand and settled in and was optimistic his horse could figure in both his upcoming assignments.

"The Avondale Guineas paints a picture for the Derby. Last year Gingernuts wasn't even in the Derby picture before he came out and did what he did. We're just hoping he runs well."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Addictive Nature (Savabeel)

Conditions to suit Addictive Nature

Trainer Bjorn Baker is happy for his three-year-old colt Addictive Nature (Savabeel) to take on the older horses at weight for age conditions in the Gr.2 Apollo Stakes (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday.

Addictive Nature has drawn barrier five in the nine-horse field and will be ridden by Adam Hyeronimus who replaces Jason Collett who will be aboard the Chris Waller trained Comin' Through (Fastnet Rock).

Collett was aboard the Savabeel colt when he finished a first up third in the Gr.2 Expressway Stakes (1200m) at Rosehill on February 3 and Baker said being back on top of the ground would be to his advantage.

"We threw him in the deep end and if he can run in the money again we will be thrilled," Baker said.

"We are yet to see the best of him and hopefully that will be Saturday. I'm very confident he is better on top of the ground.

"As long as he runs a good race we are on target and we have options going forward."

The Mark Newnham trained Lanciato (NZ) (Per Incanto) is racing in outstanding form with wins at his last two starts and will jump from barrier six.

Derby-bound stablemates hard to split

Mission Hill (Teofilo) has had the better of his barn-mate Vin De Dance (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) in two previous meetings, but the stable isn't reading too much into that just yet.

The three-year-olds will square off again in Saturday's Gr.2 Electrolux Avondale Guineas (2100m) at Ellerslie and co-trainer Andrew Forsman said there is little between the pair.

"It's been a case of Mission Hill being a bit sharper at the shorter trips, he's been ready for a while." Full story here

Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Time for star's brother to shine

Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards are hoping history can repeat in Saturday's Gr.2 Avondale Guineas (2100m).

The Matamata trainers produced Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) to claim the Electrolux-sponsored feature 12 months ago, a performance that was the springboard to Group One successes in the New Zealand Derby (2400m) and the Rosehill Guineas (2000m).

The Iffraaj gelding subsequently won the Gr.1 Windsor Park Plate (1600m) last spring before he returned to Australia, only to suffer a fractured pastern on the way to the start of the Gr.1 Emirates Stakes (2000m) at Flemington.

The four-year-old is home spelling at Te Akau and the stable are now looking to his younger sibling Griffin (NZ) to pick up the mantle. Full story here

Main Stage (NZ) (Reliable Man)

Derby bases covered

Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young have autumn hopes of a trans-Tasman classic double.

Persian Empire (NZ) (Savabeel) will run in Saturday's Gr.2 Electrolux Avondale Guineas (2100m) at Ellerslie ahead of the Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby (2400m) while two stablemates kick off their Gr.1 ATC Derby (2400m) campaigns at Flemington.

Sully (NZ) (Reliable Man) and Main Stage (NZ) (Reliable Man), second and fifth respectively in the Gr.1 VRC Derby (2500m), resume in the Gr.3 C. S. Hayes Stakes (1400m).

"I really can't split them, they've done all their work together all the way through and they've trialed up together and we can't separate them in the trials," Busuttin said.

"Sully might be a touch sharper over 1400m, he's won over 1400m and a mile before. They are there to win if they are good enough, it's a Group Three and they are hard to get."

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour)

Guineas-bound Aloisia to resume in Vanity

Group One winner Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) will put her Australian Guineas credentials on display when she makes her return in the Gr.3 Vanity (1400m) at Flemington.

Saturday's 1400m-race for three-year-old fillies will be her lead-up to the Group One Australian Guineas (1600m) against her male counterparts two weeks later.

"She's had a couple of soft jump-outs, a couple of strong gallops and she's fit enough to run a good race," trainer Aaron Purcell said.

"Obviously she's going to improve from the run which she normally does, but she's done enough to run well.

"She's drawn awkwardly (11 of 11) so she'll probably go back from the gate and I expect her to be hitting the line really hard.

"If she's winning that would be great. If she's not and is just running strong to the line that would also be good enough.

"I definitely think she's going well enough to win, but I won't be devastated if she gets beaten."

NEWS IN BRIEF

The filly is the current favourite for the Australian Guineas ahead of two important lead-up races on Saturday.

Along with The Vanity for fillies, the Flemington program also includes the Gr.3 C S Hayes Stakes (1400m) for three-year-old colts and geldings which features a host of Guineas hopefuls.

Purcell believes Aloisia is on track for the Guineas.

"I expect her to make good improvement from the run and if all goes to plan she should be pretty hard to beat in the Guineas, I think," he said.

Aide Memoire (NZ) (Remind)

Australian debut for Aide Memoire

New Zealand Group One winner Aide Memoire (NZ) (Remind) will carry top-weight when she makes her Australian debut for trainer Kris Lees on Saturday in the Gr.3 Triscay Stakes (1200m) at Randwick.

The daughter of Remind has impressed her Newcastle trainer in the two months she has been with him, but he believes she will be suited to softer track conditions than the Good 4 surface Randwick is currently rated.

"She's a Group One winner in New Zealand and she's not a very big mare so carrying 58 kilos will be against her as well," Lees said.

"She'll be better suited I feel when we do start getting some softer ground, so she's one to follow in time."

Aide Memoire was prepared in New Zealand by Fraser Auret to win the 2016 Gr.1 Captain Cook Stakes (1600m), while she also finished runner-up in last year's Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m).

Colt to show more grunt over ground

Mick Price is expecting Grunt (NZ) (O'Reilly) to show his serious side when the New Zealand-bred son of O'Reilly steps up in distance.

The Caulfield trainer has reservations about the colt's chances in Saturday's Gr.3 C. S. Hayes Stakes (1400m) with the Flemington outing a means to an end.

"You'll see him go a lot better in the Australian Guineas over a mile and even better over 2000m," Price said.

"I really like the horse, but I don't think 1400m is ideal for him, so I guess we'll see him balance up in the back half (of the field) and with a bit of room he can run on."

Grunt won two of his three starts last season and has trialled ahead of his three-year-old debut at the weekend.

Rattan (NZ) (Savabeel)

Rattan's ready to face his Classic test

Rattan (NZ) (Savabeel) has posted a series of exciting performances in the handicap grades this term and on Sunday the late-dashing gelding will test his mettle against the best of his peers in the set-weights HK$10 million Hong Kong Classic Cup (1800m).

"Rattan's an excellent athlete," trainer Richard Gibson said. "His preparation this year has been really good, he races well and I'm very happy with him."

The Savabeel gelding tied up a hat-trick of Class 3 wins at Sha Tin over 1400m and a mile earlier this term before coming up a half-length short in a 1600m Class 2 in December. Late last month, the New Zealand-bred stormed home from deep for second-place behind the pace-stealing Sergeant Titanium (Rock of Gibraltar) in an 1800m Class 2 - his closing 400m splits in both races were faster than any of his rivals.

Chad Schofield partnered Rattan in all of those races but will side with Hong Kong Classic Mile runner-up Singapore Sling (Starcraft) on Sunday, with Alexis Badel taking the reins instead.

"It's for Rattan to prove his worth," Gibson said. "I think the only thing that's important is the horse's race-record and his record is excellent."

Magic Chai (Magic Albert)

Ellerslie test for progressive stayer

Magic Chai's (Magic Albert) quest for another feature staying event rests with his performance at Ellerslie on Saturday.

"He's entered for the Nathans and we'll decide on an Auckland Cup start after that," trainer Tony Pike said.

Magic Chai's rise through the grades was crowned at Trentham last time out when he won the Gr.3 Wellington Cup (3200m).

"He came through his Trentham run in great order and he galloped well this morning," Pike said.

Patience rewarded with Heptagon

Heptagon's (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) win at Sandown on Wednesday sparked a celebration at Matamata's Bradbury Park.

The Mick Price-trained four-year-old son of Jimmy Choux was having his fifth start and took his record to two wins and two seconds.

"He had soundness issues early on after winning his first start and has had a couple of long breaks," Bradbury Park's Casey Dando said. "It's great for his patient bunch of owners."

Heptagon was raised and sold at Karaka in 2015 by Bradbury on behalf of Nearco Stud to Price for $150,000. Full story here

Cambridge Stud buys into another top colt

Group One winner Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock) will take his place on the Cambridge Stud stallion roster at the conclusion of his racing career.

Te Akau principal David Ellis has confirmed the son of Fastnet Rock has been secured for duty by the farm's incoming owners Brendan and Jo Lindsay, in partnership with the three-year-old's current ownership syndicate.

Mongolianconqueror (NZ) (Ocean Park)

Rider Horse holds strong hand in Derby

The Inner Mongolia Rider Horse Group has a special affinity with the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby and this year they hold a strong hand leading into the prestigious 2400m contest.

The Group, led by chairman and chief executive Mr Lang Lin, commonly known as Mr Wolf, won the 2015 running of the event with their poster-child Mongolian Khan (Holy Roman Emperor) and this year will be represented by quality Ocean Park gelding Mongolianconqueror (NZ).

The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained runner is currently a $7 equal second-favourite on the TAB's Derby futures market after his strong runner-up performance to Xbox (NZ) (Niagara) in the Gr.2 Waikato Guineas (2000m) at Te Rapa on Waitangi Day. Full story here

Kirkland (NZ) (Highly Recommended)

Guineas placegetter Kirkland worth waiting for

Time is expected to bring out the best in the lightly-tried stakes performer Kirkland (NZ) (Highly Recommended).

The son of Highly Recommended showed his talent when he finished runner-up to the now Hong Kong-based Waldorf (Highly Recommended) in the Listed Wanganui Guineas (1340m) before two unplaced performances.

"Everybody was telling me that he was a Derby horse, but then he ran a couple of shockers," part-owner and trainer Alexander Fieldes said.

Kirkland was subsequently sent to the paddock after receiving a clean bill of health. Full story here

Carnival (NZ) (Showcasing)

Lightning target for southern speedster

Smart sprinting mare Carnival (NZ) (Showcasing) is on a return path to Wellington.

The Riccarton-trained four-year-old has the Listed Te Akau Lightning Handicap (1200m) on her programme to open a possible two-start North Island campaign.

"She'll go up for the Lightning and then maybe a Listed 1200m sprint at Hawke's Bay," said Kevin Hughes, who trains the daughter of Showcasing with his wife Pam.

"We're running out of options for her really. We were toying with the idea of going to the Sydney carnival for a Group Three fillies and mares on the last day, but we're in no rush.

"She will get stronger with more time so we'll wait and look at Australia next season, we think she's good enough."

Carnival has won four of her 11 starts, including the Gr.3 Stewards' Stakes (1200m) at Riccarton in the spring.

Boots 'N' All (NZ) (Perfectly Ready)

Group One beckons southerner

Lance Robinson is keen to test his stable star Boots 'N' All (NZ) (Perfectly Ready) in top northern company.

"The Otaki Group One is a good opportunity to race against the best and see where we're at," the Riccarton trainer said, referring to the Haunui Farm WFA Classic (1600m). "He's a very, very consistent horse and he's getting difficult to place here now."

Boots 'N' All has won seven races, including the Listed Timaru Stakes (1400m) and a third in the Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m) in the spring, and will head to Otaki off the back of an 1800m success on his home course last Saturday.

Stakes goal for youngster

The Listed Berkley Stud Champagne Stakes (1200m) at Riccarton on May 5 is the longer-term aim for the precocious youngster Xpressmymind (NZ) (Shamexpress).

The Shamexpress filly credited her Windsor Park Stud-based sire with his first win when she led all the way to score at Riccarton last Saturday at her second appearance.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Xpressmyind (NZ) (Shamexpress)

"She's come through the race really well and, at this stage, she'll go to Dunedin next," part-owner and trainer Andrew Carston said.

Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Tauranga tune-up for quality mare

A start at Tauranga on March 24 will set up Thee Auld Floozie's (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) chase for another Group One title.

"She'll run in the Japan Trophy and then the Breeders' Stakes at Te Aroha two weeks later," trainer Stephen Marsh said.

Thee Auld Floozie won the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m) last season before she claimed the Gr.2 Westbury Classic (1400m) and finished runner-up in the Gr.1 New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) behind Charmont (High Chaparral).

The Mastercraftsman mare has enjoyed time off since she successfully retained her Westbury Classic title at Ellerslie last month.

Injury side-lines Dijon Bleu for season

Top filly Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy) is out of the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m) and won't race again this season.

She was the pre-post favourite for the Trentham feature following her hollow win in the Gr.2 Sir Tristram Fillies' Classic (2000m)

Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy)

at Te Rapa.

"Dijon Bleu has been officially withdrawn from the New Zealand Oaks and will be turned out for the rest of the season," trainer Lisa Latta said.

"We thought after the Waikato race she had simply knocked a leg, but after consultation with my vet and taking the horse's best interest into consideration, we have decided it is best to send her for a spell. We are looking forward to seeing her back as a four-year-old."

Group One meeting to Hawke's Bay

The Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic meeting on February 24 has been moved from Otaki to Hastings.

The decision to transfer the fixture was made by the Otaki-Maori Racing Club, in conjunction with New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing, following concerns over the state of the track.

"There were a combination of reasons for the decision to transfer," Otaki-Maori Racing Club general manager Ben Jamison said. "The weather has not been on our side, with floods through the winter, which aggravated a drainage problem in the back straight, followed by a semi-drought.

"This led to problems with the grass growth and there was also less time than usual between the two harness meetings and the Haunui Classic meeting."

Vase next for Oaks hope

The Gr.3 McKee Family Sunline Vase (2100m) at Ellerslie on March 3 has been confirmed as Gold Spice's (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop) next move.

"She'll run there and all going well on to the New Zealand Oaks," said Graham Richardson, who trains the filly at Matamata with Gavin Parker.

A daughter of Rock 'n' Pop, Gold Spice has been lightly-ried and overcame a heavy track last time out at Pukekohe to break her maiden at her third appearance.

Gold Spice (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop)

"She hated the ground and was never travelling like a winner so it was good to see her get the job done, we've always liked her," Richardson said.

I Am Poppy (I Am Invincible)

Baker takes charge of smart 4YO

Talented mare I Am Poppy (I Am Invincible) is continuing her career in Sydney.

The four-year-old suffered a bleeding attack when she last raced in the spring with Taranaki owner and former trainer Warren Bolton then deciding she was best-placed across the Tasman.

"It was in the Counties Bowl and she got a three-month stand down so I decided to send her over there," he said. Full story here

Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto)

Weight worries send Boxachocolates to Melbourne

The connections of Boxachocolates (NZ) (Alamosa) have sent the lightly-ried stayer to Australia for a sweeter future.

They believe the Alamosa five-year-old has become too difficult to place in New Zealand and he has headed to Melbourne where he will be trained by Stephen Brown at Flemington.

"I've got 25 horses and we looked after Boxachocolates and now he's gone instead of running in our cup races," former trainer Mike Breslin said. Full story here

Sensible plan for talented mare

Plans are in place for the talented mare Sensible Princess (NZ) (Street Sense) to add to her family's roll of honour.

She made excellent progress during her last preparation when she won races at Wanganui, Otaki, Awapuni and New Plymouth before she beat Francaletta (High Chaparral) and Coldplay (NZ) (Savabeel) in the Gr.2 Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1400m) at Pukekohe.

Auret said the emergence of the daughter of Street Sense didn't surprise him. Full story here

Matamata return for Ugo Foscolo

Group One winner Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) will be back on track on Saturday week.

"He was going to trial at Matamata, but they were cancelled, so he'll go straight to the open 1200m on Matamata Cup day," trainer Stephen Marsh said. "He looks great and it's great to have him back."

Marsh prepared Ugo Foscolo to win five of his first six starts, including the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m), before the son of Zacinto transferred to the Sydney stable of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott.

Muscle soreness restricted him to just one unplaced run before he returned home.

Mare Returns due

2017 mare returns are due by 28 February 2018.

Owners are responsible for registering their mare as a broodmare after she is covered for the first time and for maintaining her registration in the Stud Book until she is retired from breeding or is sold or leased out.

Owners must lodge a return every season even if the mare does not produce a live foal or isn't covered.
