CUP CONDITIONS A WEIGHTY ISSUE FOR MATHEWS

The Howie Mathews trained Sampson will contest tomorrow's Listed Gallagher Marton Cup at Trentham

Otaki trainer Howie Mathews has warned that the Wellington Cup could become a "glorified hack race" unless something is done to change the handicap conditions of the race.

Mathews withdrew Sampson (NZ) (Dubai Destination) from the Gr.3 Wallaceville Estate Wellington Cup (3200m) at Trentham on January 21 when it became apparent the seven-year-old gelding would carry 60kg as a 90-rated galloper.

As it now stands, the Kenny and Lisa Rae and Krystal Williams-Tuhoro-trained Kaharau (Ad Valorem) is the highest-rated entry on 89 rating points.

"We've pulled him out. He's a 90 rating horse with 60 kilos. It would have been a waste of our time and money," Mathews said.

A WEIGHTY ISSUE FOR MATHEWS

"I'd like to have a bit of longevity with the horse and he's not up to carrying 60 kilos in a two-mile race. He's no Mainbrace. Champions can do it but he's no champion.

"We all wanted the Wellington Cup back to a two-mile race but this year we'll end up with a topweight on 88 or 89 rating points."

Two of the time-honoured Wellington carnival handicap features, the Gr.1 J.R. & N. Berkett Telegraph (1200m) and the Gr.1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile, have been changed to set weights and penalties conditions in recent years, while the Gr.3 Mills Reef Winery Trentham Stakes is also run under set weights and penalties conditions, when traditionally it was a weight-for-age race.

Sampson will carry 60kg in Saturday's Listed Gallagher Marton Cup (2200m) at Trentham and while Mathews says he doesn't think his stayer can win under that weight, the race serves as a suitable leadup to the Trentham Stakes, in which he will carry 55kg, and then on to staying features in the north which in recent months have attracted higher-rated topweights.

"He's going around this weekend with 60 kilos against horses with 53 [kilograms] with winning form," Mathews said.

"He went a terrific race for fourth in the Manawatu Cup but there again he carried a big weight and the horses that finished first and second carried 53 kilos and we've got to come up against them again this weekend.

"It'll be hard to beat Jacksstar and Balham again on Saturday but he's a good chance of a third or fourth placing. If he runs well, I'll probably back up in the Trentham Stakes then look at the Karaka Stayers Cup [at Ellerslie on January 29] and the Avondale Cup."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Stakes challenge for The Great One

Dual race winning three-year-old The Great One (NZ) (Nadeem) will get his first chance at stakes success in the Gr.3 Cartier Politician Stakes (1800m), a lead in to the Gr.1 Investec Cape Derby, at Kenilworth in South Africa on Saturday.

The Great One is one of three runners in the race prepared by Cape Town-based Brett Crawford and he will be ridden by stable jockey Corne Orffer.

Record priced yearling Horizon (Dynasty) who cost R5.2 million at the Cape Premier Yearling Sale is considered the horse to beat following a luckless second placing in the Listed Grand Foods Jet Master Stakes.

Exquisite Jewel (NZ) (Lucky Unicorn)

Trentham on Saturday.

The Foxton horsewoman, who trains in partnership with Bruce Gregory, was involved in a nasty incident on Thursday morning.

"She smashed her shoulder when she was unloading one off the float," Gregory said. "It reared over and flattened her."

Exquisite Jewel will return from her own injury woes this weekend and while expectations aren't sky high, she is a quality performer. Full story here.

Kiwi galloper strikes at Wyong

Former Ruakaka galloper Segenhoe (NZ) (Ekraar) has opened his account in Australia.

Segenhoe won his maiden last season from the yard of Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs before joining Richard Collett's satellite stable at Warwick Farm.

Segenhoe was making his third appearance in New South Wales on Wednesday when he was successful in a $A30,000 handicap at Wyong in the hands of Collett's son Jason.

Sandown winner likely to head offshore

Robert Smerdon's midweek Sandown victor Let's Go To Rio (NZ) (Captain Rio), winner of the Splashland Plate is likely to head to Asia.

Let's Go To Rio is owned in Hong Kong by David Price and Smerdon expects the Hallmark Stud graduate to do his future racing overseas.

After second placings in maiden company at Cranbourne and Mornington, Let's Go To Rio led throughout in the 1300m maiden on Wednesday.

Newgate makes its mark in NZ

The colours of the Australian breeding operation Newgate Stud Farm were to the fore in New Zealand this week.

They were successfully donned on Tuesday by Masa Tanaka when he guided the Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained Play For Time (Foxwedge) to victory at Omakau.

Play For Time (Foxwedge)

The well-bred filly, who had placed in one of her three previous starts, was making her first appearance since October when she coasted home by five lengths.

"It's really pleasing for the owners - she's a very valuable filly and now as a winner she has even more value," Richards said. Full story here.

Another winner for broodmare gem

New Zealand Broodmare of the Year Parfore (NZ) (Gold Brose) has maintained her perfect record.

She produced her ninth winner from nine foals when the Zabeel four-year-old Balestrand (NZ) was successful at Kembla Grange on Tuesday.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained gelding's half-brothers include the Group One winners Terravista (Captain Rio) and Tiger Tees (NZ) (Dubawi) as well as Group Two winner Ball of Muscle (Dubawi), Singapore Horse of the Year Super Easy (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and stakes-winner Our Lukas (NZ) (Faltaat).

The last foals of Parfore are a two year-old Darci Brahma filly named Janicemarie (NZ) that will be trained by the Snowdens and a yearling colt by Rip Van Winkle.

Du Plessis lands plum mount at Trentham

Mark Du Plessis has been handed a gilt-edged opportunity to bag a Group One feature.

He has been locked in as the rider of the talented colt Savile Row (NZ) (Makfi) in the Randwick Meats Levin Classic at Trentham on January 14.

Sweepstake (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Classic aims for promising Breslin youngsters

Palmerston North trainer Mike Breslin will give two three-year-olds their chance to press claims for staying Classics when they race at Trentham on Saturday.

Breslin will produce Sweepstake (NZ) (Per Incanto) and Stephenstihls (NZ) (Smart Missile) in the Norbrook Laboratories 3YO Premier (1400m), hoping to use the race as a launching pad to the Gr.1 Wellfield New Zealand Oaks (2400m) back at Trentham on March 18 and Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby (2400m) at Ellerslie on March 4 respectively.

Both youngsters campaigned with credit at Canterbury through the spring, with the Per Incanto filly Sweepstake following her impressive Waverley maiden win with a fourth placing in the Listed Barneswood Farm Stakes (1400m) at Ashburton and third placing in the Gr.1 1000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton, both times chasing impressive winner La Diosa (NZ) (So You Think). ## NEWS IN BRIEF

Savile Row (NZ) (Makfi)

The Karaka-based jockey has been booked as a replacement for Michael Coleman, who rode the three-year-old to an impressive last-start win against the older horses, but a subsequent suspension ruled him out of the Wellington meeting.

Savile Row's Ellerslie success at the end of last month marked his first appearance since he finished runner-up behind Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) in the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas in November. That performance earned him a hefty 20 rating points. Full story here.

Brighton (NZ) (Buffalo Man)

Brighton books his trip south

Under-rated galloper Brighton (NZ) (Buffalo Man) has earned himself a trip to Wellington.

Although unplaced in the Gr.1 Railway Stakes, he did enough to warrant a crack at the Gr.1 J. R. & N. Berkett Telegraph.

"If he had drawn a better barrier and didn't get quite so far back he could have been in the thick end of it," trainer Nigel Tiley said. "He can run a fast sectional at the end of his races."

Tiley also confirmed that he will have two runners in the Gr.1 Harcourt's Thorndon Mile – The Justice League (NZ) (I Am Invincible) and Girl Of My Dreams (NZ) (Gold Centre).

"The Justice League is thriving," he said. "I've never made any secret about what I think of him and Girl Of My Dreams is as tough as nails."

Smerdon on Telegraph watch

Robert Smerdon is keen on a crack at the Gr.1 J. R. & N. Berkett Telegraph with his in-form sprinter Odyssey Moon (Snitzel).

"He's Group One placed and if he could win one it would add to his CV," the Caulfield trainer said.

Odyssey Moon has won four races, including the Gr.3 Standish Handicap at Flemington on New Year's Day. The son of Snitzel has also runner-up in the Gr.1 Sires' Produce Stakes at Rosehill as a two-year-old.

Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Turn Me Loose shapes well for Futurity defence

Group One star Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj) is on track to defend his title in the Gr.1 Futurity Stakes at Caulfield.

A wet winter played havoc with Turn Me Loose's spring preparation and led to a contracted campaign of just the Gr.2 Schillaci Stakes and Gr.1 Darley Classic in Melbourne over distances short of his best.

However, Cambridge trainer Murray Baker couldn't have been more upbeat in assessing his stable star.

"He's going as well as he's ever gone," Baker said. Full story here.

Starvoia (Starcraft)

Starvoia chasing Triple Crown series

Talented Canterbury filly Starvoia (Starcraft) will have three upcoming opportunities to add further black type to her burgeoning record.

The three-year-old has won three of her five appearances, including a last-start defeat of the North Islander Midnight Gossip (NZ) (Showcasing) at Wingatui on Boxing Day.

"You'd have no idea of the blood, sweat and tears that went on before that last win," said Karen Parsons, who trains the daughter of Starcraft with her husband John.

"We've had issues with her feet and the owners watched her work one morning and her feet were good and then that night she had one foot in the air. She'd screwed a plate and ran it into her foot.

"We got her to the races in the end and it was a big relief. She'll be going for the Triple Crown series now."

Parsons was referring to the Gore Guineas on January 21, the Dunedin Guineas on February 4 and the Southland Guineas a fortnight later. They are all Listed events.

Sacred Shot (NZ) (Savabeel)

Stayer has a shot at the big time

Cambridge trainer Tony Pike expects Sacred Shot (NZ) (Savabeel) to be competitive in some serious staying races next season.

He holds the four-year-old in high regard and he is confident the gelding will make his mark in top company in time.

"He's a really progressive horse and we think he is well above average, very talented," Pike said.

Sacred Shot has been a late starter, but he is quickly making up for lost time and at Ellerslie on New Year's Day he won for the second time in four appearances for owners Raffles Racing. Full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Benzini (Tale Of The Cat)

Bulls planning next trip for Benzini

Seasoned traveller Benzini (Tale of the Cat) is likely to be on the move again later this year.

The seven-year-old is yet to return home from his latest overseas sojourn, but plans are already in place for his next offshore jaunt.

Benzini's most recent tour of duty resulted in a creditable sixth, against quality international opposition, in the hands of Rosie Myers in the Gr.1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin last month.

"It was a great experience and the horse tried really hard," said co-trainer Harry Bull, who accompanied Benzini to Hong Kong.

White Robe's long and winding road to Karaka

Three fillies at the New Zealand Bloodstock Select sale will have a unique claim to fame.

The trio who make up White Robe Lodge's 2017 draft will have clocked up the longest Kiwi road trip by the time they check into Barn 1 at Karaka.

Accompanied by White Robe Lodge stud manager Wayne Stewart, the fillies will set out from Wingatui around January 20 with a long and winding trip ahead of them.

"We will travel to Christchurch, stay the night and then, early morning about 4am head to Blenheim," Stewart said. "Previously we would connect with the ferry and get as far as Bulls that night. Now we stop at Blenheim and get the ferry the next morning." Full story here.

Smart 3YO's NZ career over

Promising three-year-old No Fuss Gus (NZ) (Savabeel) has been sold to overseas interests.

The stakes placed gelding won't run again in New Zealand after a deal was recently brokered by central districts agent Phill Cataldo on behalf of a Hong Kong client.

"They are hoping to set him for the Hong Kong Derby," Cataldo said. "He's lightly-raced and by the right stallion."

No Fuss Gus was trained by Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard for Sydney-based owner Max Whitby to win one of his three starts. The son of Savabeel also finished third at his last appearance in the Gr.3 Wellington Stakes.

Risque (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Bright autumn ahead for Risque

Risque (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has been tipped to enjoy a lucrative autumn campaign.

The four-year-old mare won the Gr.3 Kevin Hayes Stakes in her Australian debut, but she subsequently suffered a setback during the Sydney autumn carnival.

"She had a bone chip taken out of her fetlock following her last run in Sydney," co-trainer David Hayes said. "She's back in work and will be ready to race in February.

"We'll probably kick her off in mares grade, but I think she'll end up in open company without too much trouble, I've always thought she was up to Group One level."

After winning the Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas in 2015, Risque was purchased by Australian interests.

Trentham beckons Nashville

Nashville (NZ) (Darci Brahma) is likely to defend his Gr.3 Mills Reef Winery Trentham Stakes crown later this month.

While the Hunterville galloper may not be the force he once was, his connections believe him to be a black type contender in the right races.

Nashville (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

"He's not quite up to those top ones now, but he still wants to be competitive so it's about placement with him," said Harry Bull, who trains Nashville at Hunterville with his father Adrian.

Nashville, who made late ground for a last-start seventh in the Listed Timaru Cup, won the 2013 and 2014 editions of the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic.

Ryan Mark (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Ryan Mark's career over

Persistent knee problems have forced the retirement of the Group One winner Ryan Mark (NZ) (Thorn Park).

The 2016 Railway Stakes winner's defence of his title on New Year's Day was over before it began with the son of Thorn Park scratched on veterinary advice behind the barrier.

"He's been a wonderful horse to us and I'm happy as a sand boy that it's now all over," co-breeder, part-owner and trainer John Morell said.

"It's actually a relief, we've done everything possible to keep him going but it had to end somewhere and I'm pleased that he's home now."

Ryan Mark won eight of his 21 starts and more than $350,000.

NEWS IN BRIEF

El Padrino (NZ) (Mr Nancho)

Michael Dee

El Padrino retired

History-making galloper El Padrino (NZ) (Mr Nancho) will not be seen on a racetrack again after being retired due to coffin bone issues.

Originally known as Ip Man, El Padrino was first prepared by David Kok before being handed over to Steven Burridge, and then spent the remainder of his career in the stable of Alwin Tan.

Among El Padrino's wins were three Singapore Group Three victories (Two Merlion Trophy wins in 2014 and 2015), a win in Dubai under the care of Burridge, and he was the first Singapore-based horse to claim a win in South Korea.

El Padrino has retired with the proud record of 10 wins and 13 placings from 48 starts.

Dee takes lightweight plunge in Sydney

Melbourne-based former New Zealander Michael Dee outrode his claim last month and started life as a senior rider on December 24.

Based with Caulfield trainer Mick Price

during his apprenticeship, Dee was highly sought after and importantly, could also ride light.

Unfortunately for Dee he was unable to pick up a ride at Saturday's Caulfield meeting and so with the new 53kg limit weight in Sydney his manager switched his attention to Sydney.

The new weight minimum has helped Dee pick up the ride on Queensland three-year-old Sundance (I Am Invincible) in the Summer Sprint at Warwick Farm for Toby Edmonds.

"I didn't have any rides down here on Saturday so with the new light weights up in Sydney my manager chased the ride," Dee said.

While he may only have the one ride on Saturday, Dee enters the meeting hopeful Sundance, who is entered for the Magic Millions meeting at the Gold Coast on January 14, will prove to be a good one.

Latest gavelhouse.com NZ auction online

The latest Kiwi offering from online auction house gavelhouse.com was released last night. With tweaked sale dates after the holiday period, this quick-fire auction is online now with bidding open until Monday night at 7pm (NZ time).

Included in the catalogue is a winning Exceed and Excel mare on account of Te Akau Racing offered as a breeding prospect and a progressive young stayer by Shocking in Scandalo on account of Brian Court. Other sires represented include Burgundy, Captain Rio, Jimmy Choux, Keeper, Kings Chapel, Pins, Red Giant and Tavistock. View catalogue.

Soft track to help Panno Rossa at Coast

The rain which has soaked the Gold Coast this week is music to the ears of trainer Kelly Doughty.

The Gold Coast has had a mixed bag of weather this week with heavy rain early and then good drying weather on Wednesday and Thursday.

The track was rated in the soft range on Thursday but showers are predicted for Friday and Saturday.

Doughty has promising stayer Panno Rossa (NZ) (Testa Rossa) stepping up to a middle distance for the first time this campaign in the First National Real Estate Open (1800m) tomorrow.

In the late winter and early spring, Panno Rossa worked his way up to open company before having a break.

The Testa Rossa gelding is out of a Zabeel mare and Doughty is hoping he will be competitive in races up to 2400m. Full story here.

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Bill Sanders

A meticulous master trainer.

In partnership with his son Graeme for more than a decade, Te Awamutu based Bill Sanders was the second trainer (after Rex Cochrane) to train a thousand winners – which numbered 1001 at his retirement in 1985.

Turning professional in 1960, Graeme took his son into partnership a decade later and the combination dominated the 1970s, winning five successive premierships.

Bill and his son produced a grand stream of racehorses over the years. Sanders Senior's philosophy was simple – feed 'em hard, work 'em hard, race 'em hard – and this was vindicated with results.
