SAVILE ROW AN EXCELLENT PROSPECT FOR LEVIN CLASSIC

Savile Row looms as a major contender for tomorrow's Gr. 1 Randwick Meats Levin Classic

Jonathan Scully already knew owner Kevin Hickman had a smart horse on his hands in Savile Row (NZ) (Makfi) and comments from co-trainer Michael Moroney this week comparing the colt to former stable star Xcellent (NZ) (Pentire) have just confirmed it.

Scully, racing manager for Valachi Downs proprietor and Savile Row's breeder-owner Kevin Hickman, is brimming with confidence ahead of the colt's tilt at Saturday's Gr.1 Randwick

Meats Levin Classic.

"It's amazing that Mike would even contemplate comparing him with Xcellent because everyone knows how highly he rated him. It just confirms to us that we've got a pretty special horse on our hands," Scully said.

"It's great to have a home-bred colt racing in Group One races in Kevin's colours. Hopefully after Saturday, we might have a potential stallion on our hands. We don't normally keep our colts but there weren't enough people wanting to buy him at the sales so we brought him home."

Runner-up to Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) in the New Zealand 2000 Guineas, Scully believes Savile Row's edge came from his strength and maturity for his age.

"You'd think he's a four-year-old but he's only three and that for starters always holds you in pretty good stead," Scully said.

"At Ellerslie the other day, it was like he was toying with them - and that was a pretty good field of older Rating 85 gallopers.

"We've just got to try and not get too excited until he gets his Group One, but that's not easy. His win at Ellerslie took Kevin and I by surprise. We thought it would be just a nice pipe-cleaner but the way he won gave us goosebumps."

TAB bookmakers have the Michael Moroney and Pam Gerrard-trained Savile Row on the second line of betting for the Levin Classic at $4.80 behind $2.90 favourite Hall Of Fame (NZ) (Savabeel), which surprises Scully.

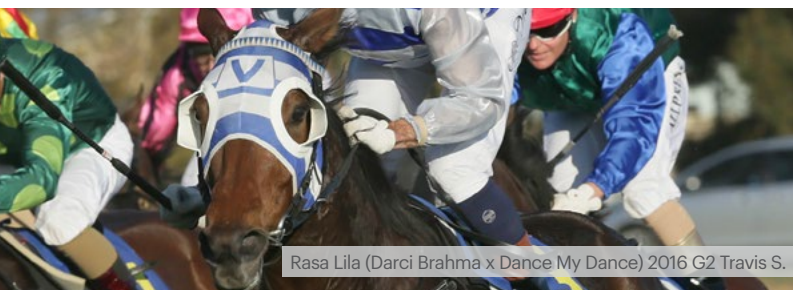

"He's at great odds. We've got the draw [barrier two] and Hall Of Fame is inside us too," Scully said.

"Pam wants him ridden a little handier than he was in the 2000 Guineas."

Savile Row is the TAB's $10 equal second favourite for the Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Deby (2400m) at Ellerslie on March 4 with Highlad (High Chaparral), in a market headed by Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi) at $5.

He is at $16 for the weight-for-age Gr.1 Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa on February 11.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hall Of Fame (NZ) (Savabeel)

Colt at peak for Group One

Hall Of Fame (NZ) (Savabeel) will strip at his best at Trentham on Saturday.

The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained colt will start favourite in the Gr.1 Randwick Meats Levin Classic off the back of his Ellerslie win on Boxing Day.

"He has improved a lot with that run and Opie (Bosson) came and rode him on Monday morning and he was happy with the horse," Te Akau racing manager Brad Taylor said.

Trentham best option for filly

Storytime (NZ) (Savabeel) will stay closer to home to make her next appearance.

Trainers Evan and J. J. Rayner have elected to run her in Saturday's Gr.1 Randwick Meats Levin Classic at Trentham in preference to the Listed NZB Insurance Karaka 3YO Mile at Ellerslie on January 29.

"The race at Wellington has dropped away a bit, it's still a good field but the Auckland race will be very tough," J. J. Rayner said.

Storytime finished runner-up last time out behind leading filly Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge) in the Gr.2 Eight Carat Classic.

Imposing Lass (NZ) (Makfi)

Baker's belles line up at Gosford

In-form Warwick Farm trainer Bjorn Baker has two representatives in Australia's sole Group status race this week, the Gr.3 Belle of the Turf Stakes (1600m) at Gosford today.

Makfi four-year-old Imposing Lass (NZ) looks a genuine chance after her second over 1400m at her home track on January 7.

The Westbury Stud graduate has a career record of four wins, two seconds and a third from her ten starts to date.

Her latest win was in May last year at the Gold Coast when she took out the Listed Gold Coast Bracelet (1800m), which led to her Gr.2 The Roses (2000m) second at Doomben and sixth in the Group 1 Queensland Oaks (2400m).

Baker will also saddle Sewreel (NZ) (Savabeel) who has recently transferred from the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman stable. The four-year-old mare will jump from barrier five with James Doyle to take the ride.

Promise To Reign (Manhattan Rain)

Trentham holds promise for talented mare

Promise To Reign (Manhattan Rain) has just a solitary maiden three-year-old win from this time last year to her credit but that belies her standing among the leading gallopers in the country.

The Moira and Kieran Murdoch-trained mare tackles Saturday's Gr.3 Mills Reef Winery Trentham Stakes (2100m) from the 53kg minimum and looks a strong contender after her fast-finishing last-start fifth in the weight-for-age Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

"It was a super run," Moira Murdoch said.

Airalign earns chance at Chester Manifold

Apprentice Ben Thompson has had plenty to do with Airalign (NZ) (Align) and is looking forward to reuniting with the seven-year-old when the gelding faces his biggest test at Flemington.

The Tom Cowan-trained Airalign steps up to stakes company for the first time in Saturday's Listed Chester Manifold Stakes (1400m) and is among the early favourites after back-to-back wins in lesser grade this campaign.

Airalign (NZ) (Align)

Thompson was not aboard Airalign in his wins at Kilmore and Sandown this preparation but is his regular trackwork partner and has ridden the gelding in six of his 20 starts including metropolitan wins at Sandown and Sale last campaign.

"He's been a real late maturer. He's probably one of the older boys out there but he feels like a two-year-old on the track and he's going super," Thompson said.

"He's very tough. He loves a fight and he deserves a shot at the competition on Saturday."

"With 54 kilos on Saturday and being a 1400 metre specialist, surely he's in with a bold show."

Princely mount for Panya in Gosford Cup

Emerging apprentice jockey Deanne Panya has been retained to partner Foreign Prince (NZ) (High Chaparral) in the Listed Gosford Cup (2100m).

Foreign Prince's forward racing style suits Panya who has a knack for getting front-runners home.

She scored back-to-back wins on the horse in June and partnered him again when he finished second to the Gerald Ryan-trained Red Excitement (Excites) in the Group Three Summer Cup at Randwick on Boxing Day.

"It's a tough field but he'll be competitive," trainer David Payne said.

"He's going in nice and well so expect a good run from him."

Payne purchased Foreign Prince from the draft of Seaton Park at the 2012 NZB Premier Yearling sale for $100,000.

Seven entries remained after extended nominations for Friday's $150,000 Cup, headlined by the Kris Lees-trained Villiers Stakes winner Sense Of Occasion (Street Sense).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Moor heads to Sydney for Randwick ride

Victorian jockey Daniel Moor will make a rare trip to Sydney to continue an association with the Danny O'Brien-trained Portman (NZ) (Makfi) at Randwick.

Moor won on Little Avondale Stud graduate Portman at Bendigo two starts ago and was happy to answer the call from O'Brien to head north to ride the four-year-old in Saturday's Hyland Race Colours Handicap (1600m).

Portman is part-owned by Qatar Bloodstock and also O'Brien.

"Craig Williams has got commitments at the Gold Coast - he's obviously the number one choice for Qatar Bloodstock in Australia - but having won on Portman before, Danny wanted someone who knew the horse and I'm happy to be going up to ride him," Moor said.

Portman has had six starts for two wins and two placings.

"He's quite progressive and relatively untapped," Moor said.

"He's a nice talented horse going forward and hopefully he can just keep going through the grades."

Esteban (NZ) (Encosta De Lago)

Esteban building towards trio of Cups

Caulfield and Melbourne Cups are promising stayer Esteban's (NZ) (Encosta De Lago) focus but John Sargent believes the exciting prospect has attributes which could make him a weight-for-age star.

"He's not a grinding stayer. I've had a lot of those but he's more a horse that you'd think would be a weight-for-age horse in time," Sargent said.

"The weight-for-age horses have got a sprint off a fast pace. He's a horse that can do that."

Saturday's 1400m benchmark handicap at Randwick will be his second run for the campaign after he resumed over 1200m at Rosehill on Christmas Eve.

"I'm expecting a nice run without thinking he's a winning chance. He should be hitting the line strongly," Sargent said. Full story here.

Peaceful Falls to benefit from blinkers

Trainer Steven Cole believes the addition of blinkers will benefit Peaceful Falls (NZ) (Niagara) in Saturday's Wellington Provedoring 2YO Premier (1200m) at Trentham.

The Niagara gelding showed promise when finishing third to Excelleration (NZ) (Exceed and Excel) at Counties on debut in November but his performance at Ellerslie on Boxing Day was less encouraging.

"His run at Ellerslie on Boxing Day was probably a bit better than it reads on paper," said Cole. "He was just a bit green so the blinkers will be applied on Saturday."

"His work has been first class so we're going down there with a bit of confidence in him so long as he can do everything right."

"He's a nice horse, he's not overly big but he always tries."

Orange Shore (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Debut success saves the day

Orange Shore (NZ) (Swiss Ace) proved to be a saviour when she was triumphant on debut and the filly gets an opportunity to double her tally at Matamata today.

She is prepared by Peter McKay for breeder Gerry Harvey, who stands her sire Swiss Ace at his Westbury Stud operation at Karaka, and the three-year-old was his first training success for her Australian-based owner.

"I did have two horses for him, but I had to sack Tyrion the same day that Orange Shore won," McKay said. Full story here.

Jacqui's Joy breaks drought at Sandown

Jacqui's Joy (NZ) (Real Saga), who raced as Annette's Joy in New Zealand, has returned to the winner's circle for the first time in a year at Sandown, giving apprentice Ethan Brown his first city winner.

Jacqui's Joy won her first three starts in Australia last summer and gave co-trainer Mitchell Beer the first city wins of his training career at Caulfield.

But the mare had gone winless in nine starts since and Beer, who trains in partnership with Max Hinton at Mornington, said Wednesday's victory in the Ladbrokes Handicap (1600m) brought both happiness and relief.

"She was my first city winner and it's great for Ethan for her to be his," Beer said.

"It's fantastic all round and it's great for her owners as well. They love this horse more than anything, so it's great for them."

"She won really nicely."

Miranda Dravitzki

Change brings success

Miranda Dravitzki enjoyed a visit to the winner's stall at Wanganui in a new role.

The New Plymouth-based horsewoman celebrated her first success as a trainer when Rhiza (NZ) (Pins) broke her maiden on Thursday in the hands of Jonathan Riddell.

"It's a lot more nerve-wracking being a trainer than riding," Dravitzki said.

The 29-year-old rode 101 winners, including the Gr.3 Winter Cup at Riccarton aboard Karla Bruni (NZ) (Pins), before she handed in her jockey's licence.

Cup mission possible for returning Kiwi-bred

Trentham on Saturday week for the five-year-old gelding.

"He flies out tonight – he's a genuine two miler, the further the better for him," Laming said.

Sly Romance's depths of stamina are emphasised by his victories over 4000m at Caulfield, 3400m at Mornington and his latest runaway success, under topweight of 59kg, last month at Moonee Valley over 3000m. Full story here.

Snow Secret (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret)

Snow Secret to peak in Cup

The Gr.3 Wallaceville Estate Wellington Cup (3200m) on Saturday week has long been a target race for the Shaune Ritchie-trained Snow Secret (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret).

The five-year-old mare finished runner up to Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) in the Gr.3 Waikato Cup two starts back, before a midfield finish in the Gr.3 City Of Auckland Cup on New Year's Day.

"I felt her run in the Waikato Cup was excellent and she was taking ground off the winner," Ritchie said.

"Her run in the City of Auckland Cup was the run of a horse looking for 3200m. When they quickened up, she kept plugging away to the line and I think the two-miles at Trentham will really suit her.

Snow Secret finished fourth in the Wellington Cup last year behind Mister Impatience (Hernando) and Ritchie said she had strengthened enormously over the past 12 months.

"She performed very well in the race last year as a soft four-year-old mare. She's certainly a much more developed, much stronger horse this season," he said.

Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Crack galloper turns it on at trials

Top class sprinter-miler Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj) warmed up for another Melbourne campaign with a successful, and much-needed, outing at Tuesday's Cambridge trials.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained star won his open 935m heat in the hands of Matt Cameron from the two-time Group One winner Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire) and the winner's stablemate Honey Rider (NZ) (Pins) finished third.

"He's still a bit fat and he will take a lot of improvement from that," Forsman said. "He'll be going straight over to Australia."

Turn Me Loose's first-up run across the Tasman is likely to be in the Gr.2 Australia Stakes at Moonee Valley on January 27. Full story here.

Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder)

Thorndon off the programme

A shot at a Group One Trentham double has been all but ruled out for Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder).

The Wanganui galloper will attempt to add the Gr.1 J. R. & N. Berkett Telegraph to his Gr.1 Railway Stakes title, but a start in the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile is highly unlikely.

"I don't think he will be running in both," said J. J. Rayner, who prepares the six-year-old at Wanganui with her father Evan.

Start Wondering is more likely to be aimed toward the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic at Otaki following his Trentham outing.

Rayner said the gelding had picked up well since his defeat of Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

"He was really tired when he got home, but we all were, and he has recovered well. He's doing fine."

Alinko Prince (NZ) (Alamosa)

Cup contender in fine fettle

Alinko Prince (NZ) (Alamosa) has breezed through his winning run in the Listed Marton Cup at Trentham at the weekend.

"He's a box of birds and he really has pulled up tremendously well," trainer Fraser Auret said.

Saturday's outing was Alinko Prince's final lead-up to the Gr.3 Wallaceville Wellington Cup, for which he is currently the equal $7 second fancy behind the $4.50 favourite Bloodstream (Duelled).

"He's going to appreciate the two miles and it's just a matter of keeping him in cotton wool until then," Auret said.

What Choux Want (NZ) (Jimmy Choux)

NEWS IN BRIEF

The three-year-old doubled her winning tally when she produced a dominant first-up performance to score at Waikouaiti on New Year's Day.

"It was a relief more than anything, we expected her to run very well and it had been 15 months since she last won a race so we can go to the Gore Guineas with more confidence," trainer Andrew Carston said.

What Choux Want finished third in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes last season as well as a Listed placing in the Welcome Stakes and she also ran fifth in the Karaka Million.

Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Spieth Tees Off At TJ Smith Stakes

Trelawney Stud graduate Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park) was the name on the lips of many punters at the back end of the spring carnival and he's set to make his mark over the autumn, with the A$2.5m TJ Smith Stakes firmly in his sights.

"He had a month off and is in the preliminary stages of his fast work now. We'd like to trial him at the end of the month," Bryce Heys said of his stable star.

"The last 12 months he has been programmed as a four-year-old into the Sydney autumn. He's a four-year-old stallion and he has furnished into a magnificent colt. We're certainly happy with where he is at."

The Thorn Park sprinter will kick off his campaign in Melbourne in mid-February before aiming up at what shapes to be a crack edition of the TJ Smith.

"He'll run in the Lightning (Feb 18) and depending on what he did in the Lightning, the Newmarket, and if he proved himself in those two runs and is good enough to compete with the best of them, then we'd love to run him in the TJ."

Ivl joins Racing.com

Talented New Zealand television presenter and producer Jayne Ivl is relocating to Victoria to join the Racing.com broadcast team.

While New Zealand racing fans have enjoyed Ivl's presenting roles, either on horseback or birdcage-based, she has been

At her previous debut appearance, Princess Rihanna had posted a convincing win at Otaki where she raced on the speed.

"Getting back at Ellerslie wasn't to plan, but she finished off really well," Scott said.

Oscar Eight (NZ) (Showcasing)

Tiley likely to take a blinkered approach

A gear addition may provide the edge that Oscar Eight (NZ) (Showcasing) needs to sign off his New Zealand career in style.

The lightly-tried youngster will make his final appearance for Nigel Tiley in the Karaka Million at Ellerslie on January 29.

"He'll be heading off to Singapore after that," the Pukekohe Park trainer said. "That was always the plan."

The son of Showcasing, who is raced by prominent owner and Karaka supporter Chian Kin (C. K.) Phua, has finished in the money in all three of his starts, including a most recent fourth at Ellerslie last month.

David Walsh

Record-breaking rider calls time

The jockey who has ridden more New Zealand winners than any other has confirmed his retirement from the saddle.

David Walsh, who has been off the scene through ill health this season, made his decision public on Wednesday.

"Retiring has been on my mind for a while, but I didn't want to make the call until I felt better and now the time is right," he said.

"I haven't got anything lined up at the moment, but I'm hoping to stay in the game whether it be in a steward's role or working with apprentices. It would be nice to think there might be something." Full story here.

Million hope adds another string to her racing bow

Talented youngster Princess Rihanna (NZ) (Showcasing) showed she was no one trick pony with her latest performance at Ellerslie.

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained filly blew the start in the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes on New Year's Day before she got home well to finish fourth behind Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel).

Swissta (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Surprise Derby package in fine form

A horse bought for a crack at the country's biggest pot of juvenile gold is now making smooth progress toward the richest three-year-old prize.

High early hopes went unfulfilled with Swissta (NZ) (Swiss Ace), but his connections now only have eyes for the $1 million Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby.

Amazing Kids (NZ) (Falkirk)

Size eyeing Dubai feature with Kiwi speedster

John Size may be forced to look further afield with his New Zealand-bred sprinter Amazing Kids (NZ) (Falkirk).

He produced the son of Falkirk, who as Cousin Colin was a juvenile winner for Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta, for a barnstorming win in the Gr.3 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy Handicap at Sha Tin on Sunday.

Size said the Gr.2 Centenary Sprint Cup on January 30 would be the next port of call for Amazing Kids, but that limited options between then and the Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize in May could force him to look at overseas options.

"I spoke to the owner last week and, provided he's fit and well, we will look at the Al Quoz Sprint in Dubai. They've extended it from 1000m to 1200m and it would be a good race for him, I think.

"He's shown that he can accelerate well down the straight and nothing really fazes him so he would be the right type of horse to travel."

Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock)

Highden Park hoping for Hong Kong Derby repeat

Highden Park's Sam and Libby Bleakley have their sights firmly set on the Gr.1 Hong Kong Derby.

Last year the Palmerston North boutique establishment was represented by Werther (NZ) (Tavistock), whose winning effort helped his dam and resident broodmare Bagalollies (NZ) (Zabeel) capture 2015-16 NZ Broodmare of the Year honours.

On Sunday night, Highden Park graduate Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock), who raced in Australia as Montaigne, notched his first win in Hong Kong. The four-year-old ran second at his debut in Hong Kong over 1400m and stepped up to 1600m in the Violet Handicap on Sunday to score a hard-fought victory. Full story here.

New Zealand Chinese Jockey Club to Launch at Karaka Million

A group of private investors have established the New Zealand Chinese Jockey Club to cater for the high level of interest in racehorse ownership by the Chinese community, both in New Zealand and internationally.

Headed by Mr Joshua Zong, a prominent Chinese business owner and property developer based in Auckland, the New Zealand Chinese Jockey Club will be officially launched on the eve of New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sales Series at a function to be held at the Karaka Million Twilight Meeting on Sunday 29 January at Ellerslie.

"Chinese see the opportunity for racehorse ownership as an investment opportunity, but more importantly as a way in which they can network with other like-minded people who want to enjoy the thrill and excitement of owning and racing a horse" Zong commented.

"Having purchased a horse at the recent Ready to Run Sale, I now look forward to helping make the dream of owning a racehorse a reality for other Chinese based both here in New Zealand and in China" he concluded.
