TE AKAU SET TO DOMINATE ELLERSLIE AND KARAKA

Exciting filly Probabeel heads the Te Akau challenge in Saturday's Karaka Million 2YO

Can Te Akau Racing make it a hat-trick of Karaka Millions? Probabeely.

Te Akau will have a five-strong hand in the $1 million two-year-old race for New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sales graduates, which the stable has won the past two years through Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) and Avantage (Fastnet Rock).

"We've got some pretty exciting horses, but we've drawn barriers 12, 13 and 14, so the three outside barriers which won't help, that's for sure," Te Akau Principal David Ellis said.

"But we're in it to win. It's a race that looks to have a lot of speed so getting back might not be such a bad thing. It's a race where I've seen so many unlucky horses over the years and I don't think the barrier draw matters as much in this race as it sometimes does.

"We've drawn one and two before and been stuck on the fence and had no luck. Opie went down and galloped all our runners last Saturday and he was really happy with them, so we've got our fingers crossed. It's a race you need a lot of luck in."

Savabeel filly Probabeel (NZ) was the TAB's closing futures market favourite at $2.60 but drifted significantly to $3.70 after she drew the outside barrier and arch-rival Whiskey Neat (Denman) came up with barrier two to take over as a $2.70 favourite for Cambridge trainer Tony Pike.

"I still think Probabeel is going to go a huge race, even with the wide gate, and Yourdeel has to be some chance. He's been working enormous, all our horses have been."

Aotea Lad (NZ) (Savabeel), second to Whiskey Neat in the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day, is the TAB's $7 third favourite, while Te Akau runners Louis Luck (Dissident) and Yourdeel (NZ) (Dundeel) share $12 fourth favouritism, with Te Akau's final runner Challa (Dissident) a $91 outsider.

This is the second straight Karaka Million in which Te Akau will have five runners, with Avantage and Al Hasa (NZ) (Exceed and Excel) filling the quinella positions last year. Melody Belle was the stable's sole representative in 2017.

"[Karaka Million success] is a huge help in getting people interested in being involved in the horses we buy at the sales," Ellis said.

"We're pretty particular about what we buy. We don't buy horses that are only going to make two-year-olds. All our two-year-olds train on. We've had six champion two-year-olds and they've all gone on to be good three and four-year-olds.

"Melody Belle is a classic example. She'll probably have her best year as a five-year-old next season. Avantage is the current champion two-year-old and she's won her only start at three and is coming up really well. We're looking to take her to Australia.

"It's a good incentive now with these races though. A two-year-old can race for $1 million in the Karaka Million and a three-year-old can race for $1 million in the Karaka Million 3YO Classic."

Ellis was upbeat about the upcoming yearling sales which begin at 3pm on Sunday.

"I don't think it's any secret that from August 1 our stakes money in New Zealand will dramatically improve, so now is a really good time to invest," he said.

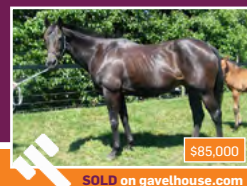

"I expect this sale to be a buyers' market. The quality is as good as I've seen in 20 years. And don't forget, we're just a three-hour flight to Sydney and Melbourne and they are racing for $7, $10 and $15 million and we're buying horses to win those races too."

BEAUTY GENERATION TOPS RANKINGS

Reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year, Beauty Generation, has been named the equal best miler in the world

Hong Kong champion Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road to Rock) has been named the equal best miler in the world, alongside Winx, in the 2018 LONGINES World's Best Racehorse Rankings (WBRR), released on Wednesday.

With a rating of 127, which he earned for an outstanding display in the Gr.1 LONGINES Hong Kong Mile (1600m) in December, Beauty Generation has also become Hong Kong's joint top-rated horse of all-time.

Winx (Street Cry) shares with Beauty Generation the top miler accolade thanks to a 127 rating earned when winning the Gr.1 Chipping Norton Stakes (1600m). The darling of the Australian turf is out of stakes-winning New Zealand-bred mare Vegas Showgirl (NZ) (Al Akbar).

"That's quite something, to match Winx as the best of the world's milers," trainer John Moore said.

"He's the pride of Hong Kong and he's the pride of our stable. Anything near Winx is something special because she is the greatest mare racing on the planet, and to be ranked around her rating is remarkable."

Beauty Generation was a graduate of Highden Park's 2014 Select Yearling draft at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale.

Purchased by Kylie Bax' Hermes Syndications for $60,000, the son of Road To Rock initially raced in Australia under the name Montaigne where he won twice and was runner-up to Tarzino in the Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m).

The outstanding six-year-old was bred by Greg Tomlinson's Nearco Stud and has now won five Group One races in Hong Kong.

VOLPE VELOCE SEEKS FURTHER KARAKA RICHES

Group One winner Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge) returns to the scene of her biggest victory when she contests the Gr.2 Westbury Classic (1200m) at Ellerslie on Saturday night.

The five-year-old mare has won 10 races from 20 starts, including four at the Auckland track and most significantly the 2018 Gr.1 Railway (1200m).

The Graham Richardson and Gavin Parker-trained mare has pleased her connections since her fourth-placing behind Santa Monica (NZ) (Per Incanto) when defending her Railway title at Ellerslie on New Year's Day and confidence in the camp is high heading into the Group Two assignment.

"I think she is well placed, 1400m especially with 58kgs on her back at set weights and penalties. She is only 3kgs above the minimum," Richardson said.

"Her work has been good and she has a good alley (barrier two) too so we are very happy with her. Michael Coleman galloped her on Tuesday and said she is pretty fit.

"We just want to make sure she gets out of those gates as she can be a bit tardy and you want to use that draw. If we are thereabouts I would be very happy."

Richardson has fond memories of Karaka Million night, having tasted success in 2017 when Volpe Veloce took out the Listed Karaka 3YO Mile (1600m).

"She won the Karaka 3YO mile a couple of years ago, it is as big of a thrill as you can get," he said. "It is a big crowd, it is a prestigious evening and it is the way of the future. I love going to those meetings."

If Volpe Veloce performs up to expectations on Saturday she will be set for another tilt at Group One glory in the BCD Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa next month.

"All going well on Saturday night she will back up on the 9th (of February) at Te Rapa in the Weight For Age 1400m. That has been my number one goal for the whole year."

Meanwhile, Richardson has another chance of gaining a black-type victory on Saturday when he lines-up Mahalo (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in the Gr.3 Preferment @ Brighthill Farm Concorde Handicap (1200m).

The six-year-old daughter of Darci Brahma was runner-up behind race rival Spring Heat over 1200m at Matamata last start and her connections are hoping she can turn the tables on Saturday.

"She is a mare a couple of friends and myself own," Richardson said. "We bought her at the sales and she has won three and should have been in the first three in the Newmarket last year.

"She loves Ellerslie but she does have an ordinary draw (barrier 10) so I am not too sure where we are going to end up."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Madison County (NZ) (Pins)

Baker-Forsman Derby hopes go on the line

Cambridge trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman will get a better idea of the strength of their Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby (2400m) hand after racing in the coming days.

The champion training duo still have seven three-year-olds in reckoning for the Derby at Ellerslie on March 2, with five of that contingent racing between Friday and Monday.

Dual Group One winner Madison County (NZ) (Pins) will look to add to his winning sequence when he tackles Saturday's $1 million Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie, while Cutadeeel (Dundeel) and The Chosen One (NZ) (Savabeel) are slated to race at Pukekohe on Friday with Bobby Dee (NZ) (Zed) and Fiery Dragon (NZ) (Iffraaj) entered for Te Teko on Monday. Full story here

Blackie buzzed up for big night

Tauranga trainer Mark Blackie could be in for his biggest day in racing when he takes a third of his team north for the Karaka Million meeting at Ellerslie on Saturday night.

The Bay of Plenty horseman only has six horses in work and he is excited to have a good representation at one of the biggest meetings on the New Zealand racing calendar.

"I haven't been back training long and to have two running on Karaka Million night, one with a real genuine chance and the other with a bit of a chance, where you are on the big stage is a bit of a buzz," Blackie said. Full story here

Santa Monica ready to tango with the Aussies

Te Awamutu trainer Stephen Ralph scored the biggest result of his career at Ellerslie

Santa Monica (NZ) (Per Incanto)

on New Year's Day when Santa Monica (NZ) (Per Incanto) took out the Gr.1 Railway (1200m) and he believes his mare has improved since that run.

The five-year-old daughter of Per Incanto will contest the Gr.3 Preferment @ Brighthill Farm Concorde Handicap (1200m) at Ellerslie on Saturday and he is expecting more of the same from his stable star.

"She has been extremely well, if anything she has definitely improved," Ralph said. Full story here

The Precious One (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Telegraph result boosts Anderton's confidence

Wingatui trainer Claire Anderton is heading into the Listed Speight's Timaru Stakes (1400m) at Riccarton on Saturday with a boost of confidence after last Saturday's Gr.1 Telegraph (1200m) result at Trentham.

She will contest the Riccarton feature with regally bred mare The Precious One (NZ) (Darci Brahma) who finished runner-up to Sensei (Dream Ahead) last-start in the Listed Hazlett Stakes (1200m), with three of the runners in that race placing in the Telegraph.

"She has done really well since her last race, I am really happy with her effort at Wingatui," Anderton said.

"It was a super run, she finished it off really well. The form out of the race is good. Three of them went up to Wellington out of that race, finishing first (Enzo's Lad) and the other two (Sensei and Signify) dead-heating for third in the Telegraph."

The Precious One, who is out of dual Group One winner The Jewel, will continue her association with jockey Brett Murray on Saturday and Anderton thinks the pair's biggest threat in the race is Group Three winner Kiwi Ida (Squamosa).

"Brett is sticking with her and he knows her now and knows how to ride her," Anderton said.

"We have got to turn the tables on Kiwi Ida from last time (Gr.3 Canterbury Breeders' Stakes), she looks the one to beat, but I am pretty happy with my horse."

Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock)

Long Leaf set for million dollar challenge

Lindsay Park Racing have their sights set on the Million dollar prize at Ellerslie on Saturday when they contest the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) with dual stakes winner Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock).

The three-year-old colt, who was purchased out of Curraghmore's 2017 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale draft for $750,000, was favoured in Melbourne over the spring and David Hayes, who trains in partnership with son Ben and Tom Dabernig, said Saturday's contest has been in the pipeline for some time for his charge.

"I brought him over for those wonderful New Zealand dollars at the Karaka Million meeting," Hayes said. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Sir Nate (NZ) (Nadeem)

Latta on target for Karaka meeting

Sir Nate (NZ) (Nadeem) will be back for a second crack at the principal share of $1 million as part of a three-pronged attack on the prestigious Karaka Million meeting by Lisa Latta.

Sir Nate finished an unlucky seventh to Avantage (Fastnet Rock) in last year's Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) after being held up in the home straight and on Saturday at Ellerslie he will contest the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m), another restricted Listed feature.

Following on from Secret Allure's (NZ) (Zacinto) stylish win in the Gr.3 Desert Gold Stakes (1600m) at Trentham, Latta will also be heading north with Five To Midnight (NZ) (Domesday) for the Collinsonforex Karaka Cup (2200m) and the promising filly Princess Amelie (Snitzel) for the Gr.3 Mongolian Khan Trophy (1200m). Full story here

Whiskey Neat (Denman)

Pike thrilled with Karaka Million hopes

Tony Pike is pleased he took advantage of Monday morning's gallops session at Ellerslie to further educate the unbeaten Whiskey Neat (Denman) in preparation for Saturday's Karaka Million 2YO (1200m).

The Cambridge trainer took five of his possible six runners for Saturday's Ellerslie meeting to work in company and said he couldn't be happier with their hit-outs, particularly his two $1 million feature candidates Whiskey Neat and Surely Sacred (Karaka Million 3YO Classic).

"The track was perfect after they put a bit of water on it overnight and they all went well," Pike said. Full story here

Media Sensation (I Am Invincible)

Media Sensation to bounce back in Million

Connections of Group One winning filly Media Sensation (I Am Invincible) are confident she can bounce back to her best when she lines up in Saturday's Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie.

The Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m) winner was one of the first horses beaten when trailing the field home in the Gr.2 Eight Carat Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day on a puggy Heavy10 track.

"We couldn't find anything wrong with her so we are putting it down to the track," Peter Williams, who trains in partnership with wife Dawn, said. Full story here

Ever Loyal (Sebring)

Ever Loyal resuming

Cambridge galloper Ever Loyal (Sebring) is set to make a long-awaited return to racing back at the Karaka Million racemeeting at Ellerslie on Saturday.

It was at the corresponding meeting 12 months ago that the son of Sebring last raced when finishing fifth in last year's Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) before being sidelined with a tendon strain.

A stakes winner who was third behind Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel) in the 2017 Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton, Ever Loyal reappeared with a fourth at the recent Cambridge trials and was part of trainer Tony Pike's contingent who galloped at Ellerslie on Monday morning.

Ridden by Michael McNab, Ever Loyal worked with Pike's Karaka Million 3YO candidate Surely Sacred (NZ) (Rock 'N' Pop) and the pair recorded the quickest last 600m (34.62) of the morning.

"He's been in work for a long time and we've gradually brought him up," Pike said.

"He was high-class as a three-year-old, but struggled a bit at 1600m. He's coming up really well and he'll be kept at 1200m to 1400m for now."

Ever Loyal will contest Saturday's Gr.3 Preferment@Brighthill Farm Concorde Handicap (1200m), drawing well in barrier 4 with Jake Bayliss to ride.

Superich (NZ) (Red Giant)

Superich for Purton in Hong Kong Classic Mile

Zac Purton sides with Superich (NZ) (Red Giant) in Sunday's Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m) at Sha Tin and the reigning champion jockey has high hopes and niggling reservations in equal measure ahead of the four-year-old generation's first big test.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"Prior to his last start, I thought he had shown enough to be winning a Classic Mile," Purton said.

Frankie Lor's charge opened this season with a Class 3 win over 1200m; he followed that with two good-looking placed efforts at 1400m before running second to the re-opposing Mr So And So (So You Think) at the same distance at the end of December.

"All his runs this season up to that point had been terrific performances, really solid efforts," Purton said. "He gave the look, the feel and the impression that he was going to be able to measure up in a race like this."

But with Superich's berth booked in the first leg of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series, Purton is ruminating over what he feels was a "disappointing" last run.

Lor, though, has applied a piece of equipment that both trainer and rider hope will help the son of Red Giant find his peak this weekend.

"We put the cheek-pieces on him Monday morning," Purton said.

Purton believes the New Zealand-bred has the ability to be a leading player but only if he raises his game from that latest run.

"Hopefully the cheek-pieces encourage him to travel better. If that's the case, hopefully at a mile, with a bit more rhythm, we can see him go and do it. He does need to improve on his last effort."

A whitewash at Moe

The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained Grand Bernini (NZ) (Shamexpress) scored his maiden victory at Moe on Wednesday, which was nearly as eye-catching as his colour.

The white son of Shamexpress disappointed on debut when tailing the field home at Bairnsdale last month. However, he more than made up for that performance at Moe on Wednesday, winning his 1014m maiden contest by five lengths.

"Being a small field we got away well and it was important to get him into a good rhythm. He had a few gear changes today, which also helped him," jockey Jye McNeil said. Full story here

Sydney double for Ocean Park

Waikato Stud stallion Ocean Park received a timely boost ahead of next week's New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale.

Ocean Park

The Gr.1 Cox Plate (2040m) hero's progeny recorded a winning double at Canterbury on Wednesday, adding to his nine winners in the past seven days and 21 in the past 30.

Sydney champion trainer Chris Waller combined with champion jockey Hugh Bowman to win with three-year-olds Kolding (NZ) and Matowi (NZ), who were purchased out of the 2017 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale for $170,000 and $200,000 respectively.

Kolding broke his maiden with a short-neck win over 1200m as favourite, while Matowi posted his second win from seven starts when scoring by half a length over 1550 metres.

"They're quite similar horses actually," stable foreman Charlie Duckworth said. "Both are still learning how to switch off and relax but are showing plenty of promise."

"Being by Ocean Park you would expect them to get over a bit further. The sire is going super which is great because we have plenty in the stable."

Sistabeel (Savabeel)

Broodmare paddock beckons Sistabeel

The Lance Noble-trained Sistabeel (Savabeel) added a third win to her record when taking out the NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race (1200m) at Avondale on Wednesday.

Sistabeel jumped away well from the ace barrier and settled in the trail behind pacemaker Cin Cin (NZ) (Falkirk) for jockey Leith Innes.

Innes was able to find some clear racing room down the straight where Sistabeel was able to lengthen and win by 1-1/4 lengths over Cin Cin, with a further three quarters of a length back to Witchery (NZ) (Savabeel) in third. Full story here

Press Release (NZ) (Dalghar)

Press Release clears maidens

The Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard-trained Press Release (NZ) (Dalghar) was installed a $1.70 favourite for the Aquashield Roofing 1200 at Otaki on Monday and duly delivered for his supporters.

The three-year-old son of Dalghar had finished runner-up in his two recent starts and he was made to work for his maiden win, having to run down pacemaker Wallaceville (NZ) (He's Remarkable) in the straight to record a 1-1/2 length victory.

"He was good today because he probably got a bit keen there early doors, but Sam (Collett) switched him off and she never panicked. That horse (Wallaceville) gave a really good kick, so it was no mean feat to pick him up and go on with the job."

While pleased with the maiden victory of Press Release, Benner doesn't plan on having the colt in his stable for long, with the promising galloper being placed on the market for sale.

"He is a very talented horse and he will keep on improving, but he's on the market."

"He'll probably come back here on Group One day (February 23) in a three-year-old 1200m (race) and hopefully get his rating up and (we will then) move him on."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Sensei (Dream Ahead)

International plans for Pitman speedsters

Riccarton trainer Michael Pitman is eyeing a start in the Gr.1 Oakleigh Plate (1100m) with his Group One performed sprinter Sensei (Dream Ahead).

Pitman prepares the son of Dream Ahead in partnership with his son Matthew and was delighted with the entire's effort to dead-heat for third in Saturday's Gr.1 Telegraph (1200m) behind stablemate Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa).

"Enzo's Lad's owners won't be disappointed in me saying this, but Sensei is the better horse, he is only a four-year-old," Michael Pitman said.

"He has started to get to where I have always rated him and everyone that has ever ridden him thinks the same.

"I thought Sensei's run the other day was unbelievable, and the run before."

Sensei raced wide throughout with no cover in the Telegraph after drawing barrier 17. He has won five of his 17 starts, with a further 8 placings and Pitman said Sensei was likely to head straight to the Oakleigh Plate without another run.

"He won't have another run because we have learnt over the last six months that he is probably better off just aimed at a certain race and he doesn't seem to pull too hard if we don't race him as often.

"Maybe that is the reverse of what most people would think but he is still an entire and he won't need a run because it is only five weeks away."

Pitman is hoping to campaign his back-to-back Telegraph winner Enzo's Lad internationally as well and has already spoken with a representative of the Hong Kong Jockey Club regarding a start in the Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) on April 28.

Bholah on the mend

Apprentice jockey Zubair Bholah is on the mend and recuperating well after his fall at Kumara earlier this month according to his employer, Wingatui trainer Steve Tyler.

The Mauritius-born rider suffered serious injuries after his mount, Morena Roc (NZ) (Roc de Cambes), clipped heels and fell at the South Island track.

Zubair Bholah

He was diagnosed with three fractures in his neck, a broken collarbone and shoulder along with suffering a severe laceration around his jaw and chin.

He was airlifted to Christchurch and has since been transferred to Dunedin hospital.

"He's doing really well, I am really proud of him. He's got all of his memory back and he's walking himself to the toilet and shower," Tyler said.

"He is still obviously very sore, with all the breaks and injuries he has got, but I'm so proud of him, he is doing so well and will make a full recovery.

"It might be a little bit of time yet, but talking with him yesterday, all he can talk about is getting back on the horses.

"He's doing really well and thanks to everyone for sending through messages to him, it has been huge."
