MARSH TABLES FOUR-OF-A-KIND FOR THORNDON

Stephen Marsh will step into uncharted territory at Trentham on Saturday when he saddles four runners for the Gr.1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile.

The Cambridge trainer will still be pinching himself as he watches the quartet of Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman), Seize The Moment (NZ) (Pins), Ruud Not Too (NZ) (Bernardini) and Serious Satire (More Than Ready) head down to the start.

"We've got four in and they are all running," Marsh said.

"It's very exciting and it's created a bit of talk too. It feels pretty good to have been able to get all four in there. It was always something we'd worked towards.

"They all had their final gallops at Cambridge Thursday morning and they all worked exceptionally well too. They are in great order and we just need a bit of luck in running now."

Ruud Not Too heads the Marsh runners in the TAB's final field market for the Thorndon at $6, with Thee Auld Floozie rated a $10.50 chance, Seize The Moment at $18 and Serious Satire at $28.

Four-year-old mare Ruud Not Too goes into the race as a winner of five of her 13 starts, including three of her last four, culminating in her Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile triumph at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

"The sting out of the track probably doesn't help her but you can't fault her form," Marsh said.

"She's not ideally suited with the set weight and penalties conditions, going from carrying 52 kilos in a Group Two to carrying 55 in a Group One, but she is racing well.

"The conditions really suit Thee Auld Floozie. She's rated 99 and carries 53.5kg, the same as Serious Satire. Her and Seize The Moment get into the race brilliantly."

Seize The Moment has won three of his four starts at Trentham and accounted for Thee Auld Floozie in winning the

Cambridge trainer Stephen Marsh will launch a four-pronged attack on the Gr. 1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile at Trentham tomorrow

Gr.3 Anniversary Handicap (1600m) at the course a fortnight ago at the same weights.

"He's in really well with 55 kilos and while he's drawn the widest of my runners [barrier 10], we couldn't have fared any better with the draws," Marsh said.

"Serious Satire isn't really suited by the conditions but she deserves her chance. She's been racing well and has earned her place in the race - and any rain around will help her. It's her first go at 1600m but I've always thought she'd be better suited by more ground. I think she'll get 2000m later on too."

Marsh will chase further stakes success at Trentham with impressive last-start Ellerslie winner Rube Bridges (NZ) (Darci Brahma) contesting the Gr.3 Wellfield Desert Gold Stakes (1600m).

"She's a really progressive filly. She had to be good to win that special conditions race at Ellerslie last start and we think she'll be competitive down there," Marsh said.

MCKEE IN FAMILIAR LEAD-UP TERRITORY

Ardmore trainer Stephen McKee is treading a familiar path to the Karaka Million.

He was successful 12 months ago with Xiong Feng (NZ) (Iffraaj) and he will be represented on Sunday by Star Treasure (NZ) (Lonhro), who is from the same family as last year's winner and who races in similar ownership, and Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel).

Both youngsters will go into the Ellerslie feature at the top of their games as last start winners on the course.

"Neither of them have done too much since their last races, just easy run alongs," said McKee, who topped off their preparations with a Wednesday gallop at Ellerslie as he had also done last year with Xiong Feng.

Star Treasure qualified for the Karaka Million with a strong performance to win decisively on Boxing Day following an encouraging debut placing before an under-par effort.

"We rode him handy at Pukekohe where he drew one and he's a very long-legged horse and it probably wasn't the right thing to do," McKee said. "He's a smart colt."

Hasahalo has also won once from three outings and she followed up her narrow defeat by Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power) in the Gr.2 Wakefield Challenge Stakes with a revenge victory in the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes on New Year's Day.

McKee said he found it difficult to split his pair ahead of the Karaka Million.

"Both my horses are pretty similar in their racing patterns, although Hasahalo has raced in the stronger company," he said.

"They both have powerful finishes and they look suited to a pressure race like the Karaka Million."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Werther (NZ) (Tavistock)

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock)

Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Werther in good shape for return

John Moore is confident that Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) is ready for a bold showing in Monday's Gr.1 Stewards' Cup at Sha Tin.

Werther, who is Hong Kong's reigning Horse of the Year, has worked in fine style this week under Sam Clipperton ahead of his return following injury.

"He galloped very, very well with Joyful Trinity," Moore said. "Werther worked the place down - Sam was excited to be on him."

"He's very clean-winded, but there'll be further improvement, fitness-wise, from this race. The Hong Kong Gold Cup next month would be the target for him."

Racing team on the Go on two fronts

The Go Racing team will be out in force this weekend.

The syndication company's blue and white colours should be prominent in feature races at both Trentham and Ellerslie.

Go Racing will have two form runners in Seize The Moment (NZ) (Pins) and Ruud Not Too (NZ) (Bernardini) in the Gr.1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile at Trentham tomorrow and will also have Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel) and Sophie's Choice (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in the Karaka Million at Ellerslie on Sunday.

In addition, Go Racing have Rip Into Ghia (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the Gr.3 Wellfield Desert Gold Stakes at Wellington and What A Diva (NZ) (Pentire) in the $100,000 Karaka Stayers Cup at Ellerslie. Full story here.

Stable star in top order for Trentham

The Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs stable can't fault Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) ahead of Saturday's Gr.1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile.

The Ruakaka-trained galloper, who will have to give weight to all of his rivals, has done particularly well since he finished runner-up in the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

"He's in great shape, but he's not particularly well in on Saturday although it's better than him carrying 64kg at Pukekohe," Logan said. "The race will keep him right up to the mark for the Herbie Dyke Stakes."

Shadow Fox (NZ) (Keeninsky)

Thorndon highlight for Gulliver

Steve Gulliver is heading into unknown territory at Trentham this weekend.

The Stratford trainer will saddle his first Group One runner when Shadow Fox (NZ) (Keeninsky) takes aim at tomorrow's Harcourts Thorndon Mile.

"It's just really nice to have a horse good enough to be in a race like this," Gulliver said.

Shadow Fox has come a long way in a short time with four wins from his 11 career starts and he earned his Thorndon spot with a successful open class debut at Trentham earlier this month. Full story here.

Baker Turns screws on star sprinter

Three-time Group One winner Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj) is in terrific order ahead of his first-up run in tonight's Gr.2 Australia Stakes (1200m) at Moonee Valley.

Cambridge trainer Murray Baker reported that the five-year-old Iffraaj entire had travelled to Australia well and settled in quickly to his stabling at Flemington.

"Everything's fine with him. He'll run in this race and then go on to the Orr and the Futurity," Baker said.

"Tonight's race will probably be too short for him, but the mission is the other two races. He ran fourth in the Orr last year then won the Futurity. He's working well and looks a treat."

The Gr.1 CF Orr Stakes (1400m) is run at Caulfield on February 11, a fortnight before the Gr.1 Futurity Stakes (1400m) at the same track.

Kuro (NZ) (Denman)

Kuro aims to stop the Music in Expressway

Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon) is the dominant favourite to win the Expressway Stakes but Kuro's (NZ) (Denman) jockey Josh Parr is counting on his mount's fitness to spur an upset.

The Bjorn Baker-trained Music Magnate will be looking for a first-up Group Two win, and is the only runner with a Group One win to his name having won last year's Doomben 10,000.

Kuro is the horse most favoured in the market to rain on Baker's parade, rated a $4.60 chance to win the 1200m race.

"Obviously Music Magnate is a very talented horse but we've got the race fitness on our side," Parr said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Kuro has won two stakes races during his consistent campaign which kicked off with two metropolitan second placings.

His only disappointing performance came on a wet track and trainer Joe Pride later admitted exposing him to a wet surface denied him a chance to show his best.

Parr was successful on him in his last start win in the Listed Takeover Target Stakes (1200m) at Gosford and sticks with him for the sixth start of his campaign.

"His turn of foot was electric," Parr said.

"I travelled off the speed which I think is suiting him this preparation.

"He's really hard to fault because he's won two black-type races this preparation."

Centenary Sprint

Three New Zealand bred runners will line up in Monday's Gr.2 Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) at Sha Tin.

Leading the trio is Windsor Park Stud graduate Aerovelocit (NZ) (Pins) who will be defending his title after winning the race last year. The Paul O'Sullivan eight-year-old comes into the race having won his last start at Group One level in the Longines Hong Kong Sprint (1200m) on December 11.

Amazing Kids (NZ) (Falkirk) is another coming in off a winning run, though it will be a step up in class from his last start victory in the Gr.3 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy (1000m).

Merion (NZ) (O'Reilly) rounds off the New Zealand representatives. Despite winning two races at stakes level in Australia the five-year-old is yet to win since making his Hong Kong debut this time last year. Merion is a graduate of Valachi Downs' 2013 NZB Premier draft and is a half to Princess Sapphire (NZ) (Savabeel) who will contest Saturday's Gr.3 Wellfield Desert Gold Stakes.

Baker quartet panning for Trentham gold

There's just one target for Cambridge trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman at Trentham tomorrow but they will mount their attack on multiple fronts.

Baker Racing will produce four fillies in Saturday's Gr.3 Wellfield Desert Gold Stakes (1600m), with the quartet of Street Ranger (Street Cry), Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi), Nicoletta (NZ) (Savabeel) and Princess Sapphire (NZ) (Savabeel) making up a significant portion of the 14-horse field.

"We're after the black-print with these fillies and that's why we're there with numbers. We want to give them all their chance," Baker said. Full story here.

Lansdowne makes presence felt in Ellerslie feature

A pair of precocious youngsters have got Lansdowne Park over the Karaka Million try line twice.

Dave Duley's Mystery Creek operation is justifiably proud of their graduates Te Amo (Not A Single Doubt) and Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy) making the line-up for Sunday's feature at Ellerslie.

"To have two in a field of 14 gives us great pleasure – we're obviously doing something right!" said the former Waikato Chiefs lock.

"We have been selling for about 10 years after starting off with one or two and we have slowly built it up. We prepare around about a dozen every year now." Full story here.

Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi)

Pike's stable out in force at Ellerslie

Tony Pike will have numbers on his side at Sunday's high-profile meeting at Ellerslie.

Among his representatives will be the glamour three-year-old Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi) in the NZB Insurance Karaka Mile, his unbeaten stablemate Felton Road (NZ) (Pins) in the Karaka Million while Chenille (NZ) (Pentire) and Sacred Shot (NZ) (Savabeel) will be rivals in the Windsor Park Karaka Stayers Cup.

Sacred Elixir's return might rival the Karaka Million as the high point of the evening.

Four graduates for Haunui Farm in Karaka Million

The field for the Karaka Million is set and of the 14 runners, four will carry the hopes of the team at Haunui Farm who are looking for success for the fourth year in a row.

"The Karaka Million has actually been a great race for us," said Haunui Farm Managing Director, Mark Chitty. "Vespa won it in 2014, he was by Elusive City who we stood. Hardline gave us the dream result in 2015 winning as a member of Showcasing's first crop and last year, Xiong Feng won it for Ifrraaj with Showmeyamoneyhoney finishing runner-up."

The 2017 rendition of the Karaka Million will feature Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) bred by Marie Leicester and sold by Haunui Farm in the Premier Session at Karaka 2016. A $57,500 purchase by David Ellis, she will race in the Te Akau colours and comes into the race as a Group Two performer and has drawn barrier three. Full story here.

Ellerslie to decide leading colt's future

Heroic Valour's (Fastnet Rock) performance at Ellerslie this weekend will determine the future direction of his three-year-old career.

The Group One-winning colt has improved with his first-up run and he will strip a fitter horse for Sunday's Listed NZB Insurance Karaka 3YO Mile.

"He worked extremely well Tuesday morning and we're pretty confident he will run very well," Te Akau principal David Ellis said. Full story here.

Romancer (NZ) (Redwood)

Forget Guineas debacle, says Logan

Donna Logan has sounded a warning to punters to ignore Romancer's (NZ) (Redwood) last visit to Ellerslie.

She said his seventh placing in the Gr.2 Great Northern Guineas on New Year's Day was no reflection of the three-year-old's ability.

"You can just forget that race – they walked in front when he got back and he over-raced and he had absolutely no hope from that position," said Logan, who trains in partnership with Chris Gibbs at Ruakaka.

"Fortunately, he came out of the race in good shape and he's super well now. He'll run in the Karaka Mile, and that's going to be a hot line-up, and then the Avondale Guineas on the way to the Derby." Full story here.

Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire)

Xtravagant to stand at Newhaven Park

Dual Group One winner Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire) has been sold and is set for a stud career at Newhaven Park in New South Wales.

Newhaven Park have announced they have secured the former Champion New Zealand 3YO who has been retired and will take up stud duties for the 2017 breeding season.

"He was a breathtaking racehorse with phenomenal speed," said stud principal John Kelly.

"You don't often see horses win by eight and nine lengths in Group One company which he did."

A good looking son of Pentire out of the Zabeel mare Axiom, Xtravagant was a $375,000 purchase at the 2014 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale by Te Akau's David Ellis.

Unfurl (NZ) (Raise The Flag)

Weir unfurls another winner

It is a rare day indeed when a Burrumbeet Cup winner can win a city race in the same preparation, but the feat proved simple enough at Caulfield on Thursday for the rampant record-breaker Darren Weir.

In what turned out to be an omen bet of sorts for the first race at Caulfield on Australia Day, the mare Unfurl (NZ) (Raise The Flag) was backed in from $10 to $7 and then produced a huge finish from last to win running away.

Just two starts ago on New Year's Day, Unfurl won the Burrumbeet Cup to earn her connections A$11,000 - which was exactly 25 per cent of what she managed to secure by beating fellow mares at Caulfield 25 days later.

Weir said Unfurl had always shown him some staying talent.

"She was going to be a pretty smart horse but then she had knee surgery which has held her back a bit so it's great to get another win out of her," Weir said.

Buyers descend on Karaka

The countdown to the New Zealand thoroughbred industry's most important week is on, as a host of the world's most prominent racehorse owners, agents and trainers descend on Auckland ahead of the 91st New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sales Series at Karaka.

The vibrant Karaka Million twilight races at Ellerslie on Sunday herald the start of festivities, with Prime Minister Bill English set to officially open Karaka 2017 on Monday morning.

A total of 1347 yearlings will go under the hammer across three sales sessions as local and international buyers look to secure a future champion from the cream of the New Zealand thoroughbred crop. Full story here.

Hall Of Fame (NZ) (Savabeel)

Derby hope in tip-top order

Hall Of Fame (NZ) (Savabeel) hasn't missed a beat since he triumphed in the Gr.1

Levin Classic at Trentham last time out.

"He'll go to the Waikato Guineas and the Avondale Guineas and then on to the Derby," Te Akau's David Ellis said.

Hall Of Fame is currently a $9 chance in the Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby market behind the $5 favourite Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi).

Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto)

Top Kiwi 3YO loving life in Sydney

Star New Zealand three-year-old Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) is thriving in his new surroundings.

The Group One winner continues to impress his new trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, who have confirmed his autumn programme.

"Everything is going well and they are really happy with him," said Jonathan Scully, who manages part-owner Kevin Hickman's Valachi Downs operation at Matamata.

"He's settled in very well in the stables and he'll have his first barrier trial in early February. Full story here.

Queensland on blueblood's radar

A trip to Australia later this year is a possibility for the regally-bred filly Fashionably (Redoute's Choice).

"It would be nice to think we could get some black print with her in the next year or so, the mare was a bit later maturing so she might yet be a Queensland filly," part-owner Garry Chittick, of Waikato Stud, said.

A daughter of Redoute's Choice and the Group One-winning Savabeel mare Scarlet Lady (NZ), Fashionably opened her account for trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards at her third start at Te Rapa last Sunday.

"I think she'll start to put it together now, it's a pity it's taken so long because she's missed out on most of her three-year-old career, but the owners are very patient people and there are some nice races coming up," Autridge said. "She's improving so there's plenty of upside."

Pacorus (NZ) (Tavistock)

Wood eyeing major Sydney prize

Chris Wood has set his progressive stayer Pacorus (NZ) (Tavistock) a million dollar autumn target.

"We're going to try and get him to the Sydney Cup," the Cambridge trainer said.

Pacorus stamped himself as one of the country's leading middle distance talents last year when he won six races, including the Mitchelson and Egmont Cups.

"The form around him is pretty good and he'll probably have his first run back sometime next month," Wood said. Full story here.

Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Kiwi sprinter set for Lightning

Group One performer Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park) is making good progress toward his return to racing in the Gr.1 Lightning Stakes at Flemington on February 18.

The Trelawney Stud graduate placed at the Warwick Farm trials this week ahead of his resuming run.

"We don't need to be over-exerting him and asking him for too much at present," trainer Bryce Heys said.

"He'll run in the Lightning and the Newmarket looks the logical progression for him."

Spieth is the Listed winner of five races and he also finished runner-up in the Gr.1 Darley Classic at his last appearance.

Top trainers reaping the benefits of selling with gavelhouse.com

The change to offering fortnightly gavelhouse.com online auctions is proving a valuable move for Kiwi bloodstock buyers and sellers alike.

"With the state of the industry as it is at the moment, it's saving our owners valuable funds being able to reduce costs by moving horses on quickly once the decision is made to sell them," said 2013/14 champion New Zealand trainer and gavelhouse.com user Lisa Latta.

The Latta stable's most recent listing, Platinum Monarch, fetched $8,850 after flying past her $2,000 reserve earlier this week.

Fellow Kiwi and champion trainer Chris Waller has also been quick to recognise the benefits of what the site has to offer since its launch in Australia last month, selling horses for up to $25,000 to date. The stable currently has three horses in the site's Australian auction looking for easier racing environments than the competitive metropolitan jurisdictions his team need to be performing in.

Entries for the next gavelhouse.com New Zealand auction close at 7pm on Monday 30 January.
