PARKES LOOKING TO WALDORF FOR RYDER SUCCESS

Waldorf will look to cap a promising two-year-old season with victory in the Listed Courtesy Ford Ryder Stakes at Otaki tomorrow

Andrew Campbell and Johnathan Parkes look likely to continue their winning association tomorrow.

The Opaki trainer and the Wanganui jockey have enjoyed a hot run in recent weeks through Listed Opunake Cup success with Longchamp (NZ) (Tavistock) following consecutive wins with the unbeaten youngster Getty (NZ)

(Excelebration) at Trentham and Te Rapa.

At Otaki, they will combine with Waldorf (NZ) (Highly Recommended) who shapes as the horse to beat in the Listed Courtesy Ford Ryder Stakes.

"I'm pretty confident about his chances," said Parkes, who rode race rivals Nuclear Fusion (NZ) (Power) and Veuve

Clicquot (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop) at their last starts. "He's a smart horse and he should go very close."

Waldorf has placed in both of his runs at Te Rapa following a break having finished third when resuming behind the talented Sacred Rebel (Sepoy) and he filled the same position behind his barn mate Getty earlier this month.

Parkes has a tidy book of rides at Otaki with Lord Ernesto (NZ) (Patapan) (Ekraar at Linwood Park Stud Handicap), Leeds (NZ) (I Am Invincible) (Fasttrack Insurance Handicap), Finn (NZ) (Le Bec Finn) (Young Handicap) and Perfect Harmonee (NZ) (Nadeem) (Graham Sheldon Smellie Memorial) all in-form contenders.

"Lord Ernesto is going well and he's a solid chance and Leeds goes really well in the wet," he said.

The former was a winner three runs back and he has followed up with two placings while Leeds has placed in both of his last two appearances.

"Finn has needed a couple of runs to get him up to a distance that suits him and that was a strong win from Perfect Harmonee last time out after a long time off," Parkes said.

"I galloped him on Tuesday morning, he worked very well."

CUP SWANSONG FOR TARANAKI MARE

Gary McBeth is leaving no page unturned in his search for the perfect match for his pride and joy.

The Taranaki horseman's fine ride with Katie McKeen (NZ) (Keeninsky) is coming to an end and she will make her final appearance for the New Plymouth breeder, owner and trainer in the Listed Woods Contracting Taumarunui Gold Cup at Arawa Park on Saturday.

"It's her last race and my wife asked me where the mare will go – she said I must know every stallion in the Stud Book by now," McBeth said.

"I've got it down to three or four, I'll make a decision soon."

Katie McKeen has put together a tidy record with the smart strike rate of 10 wins from 55 starts, including a runaway success over 2000m at New Plymouth last weekend.

"She got home on Sunday night and licked the bowl clean, she came through the run really well," McBeth said.

"She was pulling her head off on Wednesday morning. It will be interesting on Saturday as there are two or three others in the field that go forward so we'll see what happens."

Katie McKeen is herself best when allowed to bowl along and those tactics saw her post a 13-length victory in last year's Kiwifruit Cup at Tauranga.

She then won by seven lengths at New Plymouth, a success she repeated this time around, before she finished fifth in the Taumarunui Cup.

"She didn't handle the track that well as it was a bit sticky," McBeth said.

Mark Du Plessis has been booked for the ride on Katie McKeen on Saturday.

Katie McKeen will have her final career start in the Listed Woods Contracting Taumarunui Gold Cup at Rotorua

SULTAN IN THE SWING OF AUSTRALIAN RACING

Sultan Of Swing (NZ) (Bachelor Duke) continues to prove his adaptability since making a smooth transition from New Zealand for ex-pat trainer Craig Ritchie.

This has been far from a standard preparation for the four-year-old gelding, who started his campaign at Ellerslie in Auckland last November with Ritchie's brother Shaune.

He made his Australian debut at Doomben in June when he ran unplaced in the Listed Singapore TC Members' Handicap (1600m).

Sultan Of Swing then finished runner-up to Louie Sea Kay (Choisir) in a 1500 metre Benchmark at Rosehill and the Ritchies decided to move him to Craig's operation at Warwick Farm.

He marked his debut for the stable with a fourth over 1600m on a heavy Randwick track on June 24 and is expected to find the going easier in Saturday's Listed Winter Challenge (1500m) at Rosehill.

"He tends to lay in under pressure on wet tracks. The forecast is in our favour. It should be a good three by Saturday," Ritchie said.

While heavy ground doesn't suit, Sultan Of Swing has shown versatility regarding his racing pattern.

"Shaune thought he would go forward at Rosehill. He ended up about second last and he got home really well," Ritchie said.

"In a fast-run race he's better off ridden off the speed."

Sultan Of Swing has settled in well at Craig Ritchie's Warwick Farm stable and will look to post his first Australian victory at Rosehill tomorrow

Sultan Of Swing has drawn barrier 10 in the 11-horse field.

Although Sultan Of Swing has never raced further than 1600m, Ritchie thinks he can branch out to 2000m, a process that starts with the Premier's Cup Prelude (1800m) at Rosehill on August 12.

"I think the way he's relaxed in his two runs here in Sydney, it shouldn't be a problem for him to get the trip," Ritchie said.

Apprentice James Innes Jr rode Sultan Of Swing for the first time at Randwick and Ritchie said he would be retained for the foreseeable future.

"He can't claim on Saturday but he was pretty taken with the horse and we are quite keen to have somebody that could stick with him," he said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Kate Louise (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Frost warming to her Ryder Stakes hopeful

Buoyed by another breath-taking feature jumps win from Sea King (NZ) (Shinko King) in Australia last weekend, Rachael Frost is turning her focus to domestic stakes success at her home track at Otaki tomorrow.

Frost shares ownership of the Patrick Payne-trained Sea King, a resounding winner of last Sunday's Brendan Drechsler Hurdle at Ballarat, and prepares promising Swiss Ace filly Kate Louise (NZ), a contender for the Listed Courtesy Ford Ryder Stakes (1200m) for two-year-olds.

In three starts, Kate Louise has twice finished second and in between was sixth in the Listed Castletown Stakes (1200m) at Wanganui after getting too far back in the running.

She closed well for second at Hastings last start over 800m, beaten a length and a quarter, an effort that convinced Frost she was worthy of a start in the Ryder Stakes.

Mr Hanks (NZ) (Showcasing)

Blinkers on Mr Hanks for Championship

Trainer James Peters has already put a line through Mr Hanks' (NZ) (Showcasing) unplaced run in the Golden Horseshoe (1200m), and hopes the real Mr Hanks will step back up to the plate in Sunday's Juvenile Championship (1400m).

"He had a few things against him on that day. He was drawn wide and that was a big negative," said Peters.

"He seems to have pulled up well. He galloped with the blinkers on last Thursday and Vlad (Duric) was happy with that. He raced with them in New Zealand."

Peters was actually quick to regroup straight after the Golden Horseshoe run, immediately setting his sights on the Juvenile Championship as the race for the Haunui Farm graduate to redeem himself.

The distance is one major appeal for the Oscar Racing Stable-owned galloper.

"I think he will be suited by the seven furlongs. The smaller field also makes things easier for him," said Michael Freedman's former right-hand man.

"If he draws a nice barrier this time, I think we will see the true Mr Hanks."

Peters has again booked Duric for the ride on Mr Hanks in the Juvenile Championship.

Gypsy Fair (NZ) (Falkirk)

Group winner close to stud career

Gypsy Fair (NZ) (Falkirk) is racing on borrowed time and she has an opportunity to advance her record at Otaki tomorrow.

The winner of seven races including the Gr.3 Merial Metric Mile will step out in the Ekraar at Linwood Park Stud Handicap.

"She was a bit disappointing last start so we've put the blinkers on," Taranaki trainer and part-owner Allan Sharrock said. "She's probably a run or two away from going to stud."

Sharrock will also be represented by Darci Mac (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in the open sprint. "He's got to be a chance. He was caught wide last start and the inside three horses were the first three home," he said.

Juvenile's honesty rewarded at Matamata

Genuine youngster Socially Excited (NZ) (Falkirk) had to work overtime before he secured the opening victory of his career in Wednesday's Matamata Hire 1200.

The Falkirk two-year-old was posted wide early before he made the lead 800 metres from home and he fought on resolutely under Matt Cameron in the straight to triumph after placing at his previous three runs.

"It was a gutsy effort after he had to do a fair bit of work from a wide draw," said Andrew Forsman, who trains Socially Excited with Murray Baker. "He stuck to it well and he's a good, honest horse. There's a lot to like about him."

The Fox (NZ) (Desert Fox)

Special day for Turner

Dylan Turner had no complaints about the wintry conditions at Wanganui yesterday.

The Stratford-based jockey hit two notable milestones in the mud and rain when he guided The Fox (NZ) (Desert Fox) to victory in the Guthrie Bowron Open Steeplechase.

It was Turner's 100th career success and his first over fences.

Chance To Dance (Teofilo)

Stakes winner to take his chance at Hawke's Bay

Well-travelled stayer Chance To Dance (Teofilo) is likely to follow a tried and true path in his quest for Group One spring glory.

The Irish-bred son of Teofilo is making good early progress toward his New

NEWS IN BRIEF

Zealand debut for trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards.

"He's in work and doing very well," Richards said. "We'll be looking at giving him a trial at Avondale and the last leg of the series at Hawke's Bay will be his aim."

The Listed Haunui Farm Karaka Classic at Pukekohe in September is being eyed as Chance To Dance's only appearance before the Gr.1 Livamol Classic at Hastings on October 7. Full story here

Kaharau (Ad Valorem)

Collett claimed for Cup

Sam Collett has been booked to ride Kaharau (Ad Valorem) in the Gr.3 eStar Winter Cup at Riccarton on Saturday week.

The 27-year-old was successful on the gelding last month when they combined to win an open handicap over a mile at Ruakaka.

Trained by Kenny and Lisa Rae and their daughter Krystal Williams, Kaharau has placed in two subsequent appearances.

Bonniegirl (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Breeding career beckons stakes winner

Injury has fast-tracked the stud career of the black type winner Bonniegirl (NZ) (Darci Brahma).

The Darci Brahma mare won five of her 16 starts from the stable of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, including the Listed NZB Finance Sprint at Hastings in what has turned out to be her final appearance.

Bonniegirl is owned by Sir Owen Glenn, although the rising six-year-old never got to race for him.

"We bought her after she won at Hawke's Bay," his Hunter Valley-based bloodstock manager Geoff Roan said. Full story here

Manhattan Flame (Manhattan Rain)

3YO beats the odds for perfect record

Manhattan Flame (Manhattan Rain) has made a red hot start to his career despite having physical issues that at one stage had his trainer doubting the three-year-old's career would get off the ground.

The Hong Kong-owned galloper remained unbeaten in three appearances after a victory at New Plymouth last Sunday that followed a debut win at Woodville and success in between times at Pukekohe Park.

"He's got quite a bad club foot and we just manage it the best we can," Cambridge horseman Shane Crawford said. "Our farrier has done an amazing job with him. Full story here

Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City)

Top mare to decide her own fate

Perfect Fit's (NZ) (Elusive City) first two appearances next season will decide the Group One winner's future.

"She had her first run along yesterday morning and she'll go to the Te Teko trials next Tuesday," said Mark Chitty of Haunui Farm, who bred the Elusive City mare and remains in the ownership.

"All going well, she'll run in the Foxbridge Plate and then the Tarzino Trophy. What happens after that will be determined by her performances."

Trained by Ken and Bev Kelso, Perfect Fit broke through at the top level when she won the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes in 2016 and this term she placed in the Gr.1 Railway and the Gr.1 Telegraph.

Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking)

Spring hopeful set for first test

Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking) is closing in on a trial outing that will kick start her Melbourne spring campaign.

The Group One-winning New Zealand mare is progressing well at Lindsay Park, the Victorian operation of David Hayes, who trains in partnership with Tom Dabernig and Ben Hayes.

"She's had a couple of gallops and David is very happy with her," Taranaki breeder-owner Sean Kiernan said. Full story here

Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Group One eludes quality mare

Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has been retired without a top-flight victory to her credit, but those closest to her have no doubt that only bad luck denied her the perfect breeding CV.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"She was such a good horse and it's a real shame she didn't win a Group One – she was definitely good enough to," said Julia Ritchie, who trained the Darci Brahma mare with Steven Ramsay.

Last year's Captain Cook Stakes at Trentham had loomed as Rasa Lila's big opportunity to break through at the highest level, only to have it snatched away days before the event. Full story here

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock)

Group One winner for HB mile

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) will make at least one appearance at the Hawke's Bay carnival.

The multiple Group One winner is in fine fettle as trainers Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs are counting down to the Tavistock gelding's return to racing next month.

"At this point he will probably run in the Foxbridge Plate and then on to the mile (Windsor Park Plate) at Hastings," Gibbs said.

"Whether we go back for the 2000m (Livamol Classic) I'm just not sure yet. I don't think we've ever had him better, he's in beautiful order."

Cha Siu Bao (Smart Missile)

Cha Siu Bao back in business

Surgery has worked wonders for the rising four-year-old Cha Siu Bao (Smart Missile).

"He was gelded after the Derby and we gave him a three-month spell," said Lance O'Sullivan, who trains the son of Smart

Missile with Andrew Scott.

"He's back and done a few weeks' work. He looks great, he's a completely different horse."

The winner of two of his 10 starts and fourth in the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas, Cha Siu Bao hasn't raced since the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby when he turned on a rodeo performance out of the gates.

Sargent rates filly highly

Expatriate New Zealand trainer John Sargent holds debut winner Luvaluva (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in the highest regard.

He produced the Kiwi-bred daughter of Mastercraftsman for an impressive victory at Goulburn on Monday and his thoughts immediately turned to the Melbourne spring carnival.

Sargent won the GR.1 VRC Oaks with Kirramosa (NZ) (Alamosa) in 2013 and the following year Thunder Lady (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) finished runner-up and it is the Flemington fillies' classic that he believes Luvaluva will be ideally-suited to.

"Fillies like this only come around every couple of years and I think she is top class," he said.

Fast Catch (NZ) (Faltaat)

Hurdling newcomer continues to impress

Lightly-ried jumper Fast Catch (NZ) (Faltaat) is quickly making a name for himself in his new role.

The five-year-old took on a well-performed line-up in the Patron Paddy's Open Hurdle at Te Aroha on Monday and dealt to them in fine style.

Fast Catch is part-owned by Eamonn Green, who prepared the son of Faltaat to win twice on the flat before sending him to Samantha Logan's Cambridge stable. Full story here

All roads leading to Sydney

Lightly-ried stakes winner All Roads (NZ) (Road To Rock) is on his way to Australia.

The progressive five-year-old has enjoyed

All Roads (NZ) (Road To Rock)

a lucrative season from the Ruakaka stable of Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs, which has prompted connections to try their luck further afield.

"He's going to go over to Chris Waller in mid-August," Logan said. "He's in work with Tony Cole and they think it's worth having a tilt in Sydney."

All Roads began his career with Cole before he shifted north last year to take advantage of the better tracks. That move quickly paid off with four wins and a second from five starts on his adopted home track.

The Road To Rock gelding subsequently finished runner-up in the Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile before he won the Gr.2 Japan-New Zealand International Trophy. His last appearance resulted in a close sixth in the Gr.2 Easter Stakes.

Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock)

Time called on Hasselhoof

The brief career of Group winner Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock) is over.

The veteran of just 13 starts, the Tavistock gelding last raced when unplaced in the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

"He's just had some ongoing issues," co-trainer and part-owner Donna Logan said. "We didn't want the risk of sending him out on to the racetrack and not having him come home – he means too much to us for that."

NEWS IN BRIEF

"We had some big discussions with the owners and decided the safest thing to do would be to retire him."

Hasselhoof won six races, including the Gr. 2 Rich Hill Mile and ran third in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic.

"He gave us so many thrills along the way, but it's disappointing that we never saw the best of him," Logan said.

Signify (NZ) (Perfectly Ready)

Quality sprinter thrives during time out

Group One-winning sprinter Signify (NZ) (Perfectly Ready) has moved up a weight division.

The gifted short course performer has been back in Alex Cowan's Ashburton stable for a couple of weeks after returning from a good break in grand order.

"He went out a fit and happy horse after he won the Lightning at Wellington," said Cowan, who trains the Telegraph winner for his wife Tracey.

"He looks terrific and he's weighed in at 568kg and last time around he was 554 when he first came in. He's a much better version now." Full story here
