SAVABEEL GELDING A LIVE DERBY CHANCE

Live And Free looks a leading chance in Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Derby

The John O'Shea-trained Live And Free (NZ) (Savabeel) enters Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Derby (2200m) as a strong each-way chance and can provide his formidable trainer and jockey combination with a welcome return to Group One spoils.

To be ridden by James McDonald, Derby success by Live And Free would mean plenty to O'Shea and his jockey, given their trying circumstances in recent years.

A year ago, both trainer and jockey were on the sidelines.

McDonald was doing 18-months for a betting infringement while O'Shea had left his post as Godolphin's head trainer and was setting about rebuilding a stable.

On Saturday, McDonald will be back aboard a $5.50 Group One favourite, trained by the man that convinced a young fresh-faced Kiwi apprentice that he was ready to come to Australia in 2012.

"It would be a real buzz," O'Shea said.

SAVABEEL GELDING A LIVE DERBY CHANCE

“Personally, it would be very rewarding for the ownership group, many who have been with the stable for a long time, for the jockey and for me personally now that I’m back among the public training ranks.

“It would cap a much better return to public training than I’d ever anticipated in the first 12 months.

“From what I started with, I’ve been blown away with how we’ve gone and where the stable is at now.”

Originally prepared by Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman in New Zealand, where he raced under the name of Patrician, Live And Free has all the makings of a Classic winner and is looking to provide his champion sire Savabeel with his 18th individual Group One winner.

“He’s by a champion New Zealand stallion and when you get to the big trips pedigree matters,” O’Shea said. “We’re very optimistic about him because he’s got a good turn of foot, too.”

Saturday will be the first time McDonald’s been legged aboard Live And Free on raceday, but he knows the horse well having done all the work aboard the gelding since returning to trackwork and he was also aboard in a barrier trial in April.

“I’ve never seen a horse change so much and progress since I first started riding him,” he said.

“His whole demeanour, his work ethic. He’s so much sharper now, he’s stronger and now has a real presence.

Originally purchased by bloodstock agent Bruce Perry for $200,000 from the draft of Windsor Park Stud at the 2016 Karaka Sales, Live And Free had one start in New Zealand when second at Taranaki late last year over 1400m.

Bought as one of a trio of yearlings for a stallion syndicate, the decision to geld the Savabeel youngster was part of the motivation to on-sell the talented galloper.

He is now owned by a syndicate which includes a host of prominent names including Tim Worner, the Chief Executive of Seven West Media, and AFL supremo Gillon McLachlan, with the Channel 7 network regularly promoting their AFL broadcast as Live And Free.

SPIETH TO BEAT HOODOOS IN STRADBROKE

Stud-bound Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park) can break two hoodoos despite drawing the outside barrier in the Gr.1 Stradbroke Handicap (1350m) at Doomben.

The New Zealand-bred sprinter has been bought by the Aquis Farm Group to stand as a stallion next season and switched from trainer Bryce Heys to the David Hayes, Tom Dabernig and Ben Hayes Lindsay Park operation.

He's had one run for the new stable, finishing fifth in the Group One Doomben 10,000 (1200m) on May 12.

Aquis is hoping Spieth will go to the breeding barn as a Group One winner after Saturday's Stradbroke rather than being rated one of the unluckiest horses to never win in elite company.

Aquis Farms chief executive Shane McGrath points out the horse has twice been beaten by a nose in Group One races in the VRC Lightning (1000m) and Darley Classic (1200m).

"There is no denying he has been unlucky in other Group Ones. I don't think anyone would begrudge him his Group One win," McGrath said.

He said Spieth had done well after missing a few days' work when he stood on a nail.

"He was scratched from the Kingsford Smith Cup but he has since worked well," he said.

Spieth, who will be ridden by Craig Williams, has drawn barrier 21 but will come in to 16 after scratchings.

"He hit the line really well in the Doomben 10,000 and he will just need some luck," McGrath said.

He said no service fee had been set for Spieth but it could be influenced by Saturday's race.

David Hayes is also keen to end his Group One hoodoo in Brisbane.

Hayes has won 92 Group One races in Australia, Hong Kong and Japan but the cupboard is bare in Brisbane.

PLAIN SAILING FOR STAKES CONTENDER

Two false starts haven't interfered with Sol Invictus' (NZ) (Haradasun) lead-up to his black type debut at Te Rapa.

The Haradasun colt will step out in Saturday's Listed Ssanyong Auckland Futurity Stakes (1200m), which was originally scheduled to be run at Pukekohe last month only for the meeting to be abandoned.

An attempt to programme the event at Te Rapa last Sunday was again thwarted when visibility issues brought a premature end to the fixture.

Trainer Stephen Marsh said the abandonments had been more of a help than a hindrance for Sol Invictus.

"He's only had the one run so he's only getting better, unlike some of the others who have been up for a while."

Sol Invictus was originally to have met stablemate Van Irving (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the race, but the Rotorua winner has been spelled.

"She was going through a growing stage so she's having a nice break," Marsh said.

Sol Invictus had trialled well before he went south to make his debut at Waipukurau where he finished third behind Grand Ariana (NZ) (Snitzel).

"He was good first time out and he's improved since," Marsh said. "I really like the horse, he's a big boy and more of a staying three-year-old type.

"He'll go out for a break after Saturday, he won't need too long out and then we'll get him ready for the spring.

"He's one of our better chances, him and Snitz Of Time in the maiden mile."

The latter is a daughter of Snitzel and will attempt to go one better in the Become A Member of the WRC For The 2018-19 Season (1600m) after runner-up finishes at Matamata, Avondale and Ruakaka.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Derryn (Hinchinbrook)

Speedy Derryn ideal fit for Grangewilliam

A sprinting specialist who met and matched the best Australian short course performers is bound for New Zealand. Hinchinbrook's well-performed son Derryn has been secured for duty by Mark and Jane Corcoran's South Taranaki operation Grangewilliam Stud at Waitotara.

"I approached New Zealand Bloodstock to keep an eye out for a new stallion and I was keen on a speed horse," Mark Corcoran said.

Mark Du Plessis

Important booking for Du Plessis

Mark Du Plessis' decision to base himself in Brisbane for the winter has been rewarded with a Group One opportunity.

The New Zealand jockey has been booked to partner the Tony Gollan-trained Most Important (I Am Invincible) in Saturday's Stradbroke Handicap (1350m) at Doomben.

"He can ride 53kg without any trouble, which is a big plus," Gollan said.

The winner of nine races, Most Important will have to turn his form around in the Stradbroke after tailing the field home in the Gr.1 Kingsford Smith Cup (1350m).

"He seemed to have swallowed a lot of dirt and mud during the race so there was an excuse," Gollan said. "This is his grand final on Saturday and he is much better off at the weights."

Werther (NZ) (Tavistock)

Japan in mix for Kiwi star

New Zealand-bred star Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) is in line for a trip to Japan.

Hong Kong trainer John Moore will give the multiple Group One-winning son of Tavistock another gallop before confirming a tilt at the Gr.1 Takarazuka Kinen (2200m) at Hanshin on June 24.

In his first appearance since bleeding in the Gr.1 Hong Kong Gold Cup (2000m), Werther finished sixth last Sunday in the Gr.3 Lion Rock Trophy (1600m) at Sha Tin.

Distance query with Kiwi-bred

Tavistock's son Greycliffe (NZ) still has trainer Matt Cumani unsure of the three-year-old's pet distance.

The New Zealand-bred Listed Port Adelaide Guineas (1800m) placegetter is set to provide an answer at Flemington on Saturday when he runs in an age group event over 2000m following a last-start third over 2100m at Sandown.

"I've still got a bit of a question mark over what his perfect trip is," Cumani said.

"I just wanted to have it confirmed the way we rode him last time, a bit quieter than up in the lead, works and hopefully if we can run a few times over that distance we'll start to really see a pattern with him."

Light winter planned for talented Dolcetto

Group winner Dolcetto (NZ) (Per Incanto) will be sparingly raced over the winter to ready him for further stakes challenges later in the year.

All roads will lead to the Hawke's Bay carnival for the Per Incanto five-year-old, who will resume in Saturday's Randwick Meats Handicap (1200m) at Trentham.

Dolcetto (NZ) (Per Incanto)

"He's very well, but it's a bit of an ask on a heavy track although he has handled them in the past," part-owner and trainer Sylvia Kay said. Full story here

Amanood Lad (NZ) (Germano)

National goal for Amanood Lad

Top jumper Amanood Lad (NZ) (Germano) will open his winter campaign with a run on the flat at Trentham on Saturday.

The rising 14-year-old will be ridden by Michelle Northcott in the Fasttrack Insurance Amateur (2200m).

"We'd like to run him in the National later on if all goes well," trainer Paul Nelson said.

Amanood Lad has won seven times over the big fences, including the Great Northern Steeplechase (6400m), the Wellington Steeplechase (5500m), a Pakuranga Hunt Cup (4900m) and two editions of the McGregor Grant Steeplechase (4150m).

Caution a wise play, says Connors

It won't be a lack of stamina or conditioning that will have Wise Men Say (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) beaten in Saturday's Irvines McGregor Grant Steeplechase, according to owner-trainer Raymond Connors.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Wise Men Say (NZ) (Yamanin Vital)

However, the Wanganui farmer admits 4000m around Trentham's figure-eight steeplechase course might be a bit sharp for his jumps star.

"For him it's a case of the wetter, the better. He's not a fast horse but he's got stamina and that's his key edge," Connors said. Full story here

Notabadrooster (NZ) (Thano)

Pub buy chasing sentimental victory

A horse bought over a drink will be the toast of Wellington if he can open his jumping account in Saturday's K. S. Browne Hurdle (3200m).

Notabadrooster (NZ) (Thano) will deliver a fitting outcome for part-owner and trainer Christopher Faulkner, who has the fondest of memories of the venue.

"I got married at Trentham so it would be a royal result," he said. "I bought this horse in the pub off a bloke crying into his beer." Full story here

2YO allays concerns with dashing debut

The connections of Reevederci (Reliable Man) pulled the right rein when they let the youngster take his chance at Avondale.

They had concerns about the heavy going on Monday, but rolled the dice and the grey coasted to a debut victory in the New Zealand Bloodstock Insurance Pearl Series Race (1200m).

Reevederci (NZ) (Reliable Man)

Reevederci sat back off the pace before he was angled off the rail and he bounded to the lead 200m from home and then cleared out to score by a widening eight and a-half lengths from Team Rogerson's Quintana (NZ) (Duelled). Full story here

Switch In Time (NZ) (Remind)

Avondale treble sets up winter assault

Nigel Tiley isn't lacking firepower for the winter, as evidenced by a standout day at Avondale where he trained the last three winners on the eight race card.

The country's leading jockey Samantha Collett kicked home Call Me Bob (NZ) (Gold Mine) in Monday's West Brook Wines 1360 and Lupelani (NZ) (Nom Du Jeu) in the Westbrook.co.nz 1200, while Matthew Cameron was victorious aboard Switch In Time (NZ) (Remind) in the Avondale Sunday Markets 1360.

Tiley's results were particularly pleasing for the stable, who also enjoyed a Group Two placing with stable representative Megablast (NZ) (Shinko King) in the P. J. O'Shea Stakes (2200m) at the Sunshine Coast on Saturday. Full story here

Walls' services honoured

New Zealand Bloodstock chairman Joe Walls has been made a member of the New Zealand Order of Merit.

Joe Walls

His services to the thoroughbred industry were acknowledged in the Queen's Birthday honours list.

"When I got the note, I sort of thought there must be other people who have made greater contributions than me," Walls said.

"I'm a bit flattered that they picked me. It was nice that I got that sort of recognition."

Walls began selling yearlings at Trentham before the National Sale was relocated to Karaka in 1988 and retired from auctioneering in 2017.

Lot 156 Karaka 2018

NEWS IN BRIEF

NZ Thoroughbred Horse of the Year awards dinner at Ellerslie

The New Zealand Thoroughbred Horse of the Year Awards return to Auckland in 2018 but at a different venue.

The 2018 event will be held at the Ellerslie Event Centre, Ellerslie Racecourse, on Sunday, August 26.

The awards evening enables the racing community to acknowledge the high achievers, both equine and human, from the previous season.

The 2018 function will also mark the return of the Newcomer to Training award, sponsored by gavelhouse.com.

The Newcomer to Training award was resurrected by the New Zealand Trainers' Association for the 2017-18 season, after being discontinued in the 1990s. NZ Trainers' Association Executive Officer Wendy Cooper is thrilled the award is being presented at the HOY function.

"It is great we are recognising those new to the training ranks and promoting the up and comers in the industry. It is appreciated that it's a huge undertaking for someone to become a trainer and this is one way of rewarding those who make the commitment."

For further information and to purchase tickets (on-sale mid-June), visit www.nzracing.co.nz/awards

Daytona Red (NZ) (Sebring)

Cup bid on Daytona Red's radar

A trip to Riccarton is the long-term plan for the progressive stayer Daytona Red (NZ) (Sebring).

The four-year-old won three races during his last campaign and was turned out after an impressive performance to claim top honours at the expense of the highly-regarded Felaar (NZ) (Ekraar) in the Listed New Zealand St Leger (2500m) at Trentham.

"He's been back in work for a week and his main goal will be the New Zealand Cup," trainer Shaune Ritchie said. Full story here

Demonetization (All Too Hard)

Demonetization returns

Demonetization (All Too Hard), one of this season's most promising three-year-olds, has returned to the Pukekohe barn of trainer Nigel Tiley in preparation for a race day return.

The son of All Too Hard won three of his four starts in his classic season, including a last-start victory in the Gr.2 Auckland Guineas (1600m), and was runner-up in the Listed Eagle Memorial 3YO (1500m) in his only defeat.

Tiley is excited to have Demonetization back in the stable, but is in no rush with the colt.

"He came back into the stable on Tuesday," he said. "We'll just give him a nice, long slow build-up and hopefully have him going again in the spring."

"He's had an injury, so at this stage the most important thing to concentrate on is his rehab. Once we have got him through his first couple of months of long steady work then we will start to look at some targets for him."

Breeders dig deep for prime land

Two prominent Waikato thoroughbred operations have signalled a major vote of confidence in the future of the industry.

In a multi-million investment, Tony Rider's Milan Park and the Hawkins family's Wentwood Grange have paid a record price of $11.1 million for a Cambridge dairy farm.

The 92.5-hectare operation, located between Maungatautari Road and the Waikato River, was recently sold at auction and will be split into two properties. Full story here

WFA targets for Group winner

Ocean Emperor's (NZ) (Zabeel) New Zealand future is likely to focus on weight-

Ocean Emperor (NZ) (Zabeel)

for-age racing.

The multiple stakes winner will be on his way home later this month from Singapore following his eighth placing in the S$1.5 million Invitational Kranji Mile (1600m).

"He's in quarantine until June 17 and then he'll come back and spend another two weeks in quarantine," part-owner and trainer Gary Hennessy said. Full story here

Rising Red (NZ) (Redwood)

Kiwi-bred stayer withdrawn

Rising Red (NZ) (Redwood) has been scratched from Saturday's Gr.2 Brisbane Cup (2200m).

Co-trainer Trent Busuttin said the New Zealand-bred son of Redwood had heat in one of his joints following a track gallop on Tuesday.

Rising Red had galloped into Cup contention with a last-start victory in the Gr.3 Premier's Cup (2200m).

"Connections are disappointed not to be running but the horse's welfare comes first," Busuttin Racing said.

Last year's Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) runner-up returned to racing earlier this year after a year off the scene through injury.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The four-year-old, who is raced by a syndicate which includes his Kiwi breeders John and Victoria Carter, has raced five times this preparation and was placed in the Gr.3 JRA Plate (2000m) at Randwick and the Gr.3 Chairman's Handicap (2000m) at Doomben before winning the Premier's Cup.

Rising Red's scratching leaves a field of nine for the Brisbane Cup.

No Derby for Another Dollar

Trainer Chris Waller has decided against running the New Zealand-bred filly Another Dollar (NZ) (Ocean Park) in Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Derby (2200m) at Doomben.

"She has come through her narrow defeat in the Queensland Oaks without any issues, however I feel it would be best to give her a break now and prepare her for the spring with a likely tilt toward the Epsom Handicap," he said.

The daughter of Ocean Park finished runner-up to stablemate Youngstar (High Chaparral) in the Oaks.

"Youngstar has pulled up well and the decision has been made to push on to the Queensland Derby," Waller said.

Tavistock colt tops Gold Coast Sale

A colt by New Zealand based sire Tavistock led the way to top Day Two of the Magic Millions Gold Coast National Yearling Sale on Wednesday.

Consigned by Amarina Farm, the colt was knocked down to the bid of Jason Abrahams of Champion Thoroughbreds for $250,000. Abrahams said he and trainer John O'Shea had seen the colt late last year as he was being prepared for the Karaka Sales, but after a pre-sale setback he was redirected to the Gold Coast.

"We really liked the colt when we first saw him in New Zealand previewing yearlings for Karaka on farm and then we noticed he was in this sale," Abrahams said.

"We flew up to have a look at him among the others and he had really come on well in those six months. He's full of quality with a good female line. He's big and strong and has a deep and strong hip and hindquarter."

From the lightly raced Echo of Light mare Lithograph, the colt hails from the family of former outstanding racehorse and multiple Group One winning sire Starcraft.

The colt was bred by Stephanie Hole from Acacia Grove in Blenheim.

Samantha Collett

Collett past the post

Samantha Collett followers will be receiving an early pay out.

She is a runaway leader in the race for the jockeys' premiership and the TAB will be paying out all investments on her for the most wins for the 2017-18 season.

After racing at Riccarton on Wednesday, Collett had ridden 114 winners to be 23 clear of her nearest rival Chris Johnson, who will be serving a suspension from June 11 to June 21 inclusive.

Redoute's Choice mare a highlight in latest gavelhouse.com catalogue

Well-related Redoute's Choice mare Redscilla is offered in foal to four-time Group One winner Turn Me Loose in the latest gavelhouse.com New Zealand auction.

Placed at three in Australia, Redscilla is out of Listed winner Luscilla who is a half-sister to Mulan Princess, the dam of Group One Australian Oaks winner and multiple Group One performer Royal Descent who is also by Redoute's Choice.

Redscilla has been mated to quality stallions to date, her first two to race are by I Am Invincible and Poet's Voice. Both these runners look capable of providing further improvement to the pedigree with Drunk In Love a winner at two in Australia and Juliette fourth at Listed level while breaking her maiden impressively with a 4.5L winning margin on Saturday.

Redoute's Choice is not only an outstanding sire but a great broodmare sire, laying claim as the dam sire to the likes of Sacred Falls, Zoustar, Ace High, Kementari, D'Argento and five other Group One winners plus a host of stakes winners thus far.

Offered on account of Matamata-based Blandford Lodge, Redscilla carries a positive pregnancy test as of this week to Turn Me Loose who commanded a $17,500 + GST service fee at Windsor Park Stud in his first season at stud. The outstanding son of Iffraaj was well-received by breeders in the spring, serving over 140 mares.

Redscilla is just one of the 44 Lots offered in the current online catalogue, among that are 18 broodmares offered in foal to the likes of Complacent, Contributor, Ekraar, Highly Recommended, Jimmy Choux, Niagara, Ocean Park, Per Incanto, Pins, Preferment, Proisir, Pure Champion, Redwood and Sweynesse.

The current 44-Lot gavelhouse.com New Zealand catalogue is set to close from 7pm, Monday 11 June. Meanwhile entries for the next fortnightly gavelhouse.com Australia auction are set to close at 7pm AEST Monday 11 June with the catalogue set to go live at 5pm on Tuesday 12 June and close from 7pm on Monday 18 June.
