JUNIOR BAKER CHASING BRAGGING RIGHTS

Bonny O'Reilly looks a leading chance to add another Group One victory to the record of ex-pat kiwi Bjorn Baker when she lines up at Doomben tomorrow

Bjorn Baker is chasing his father, Murray, and wants bragging rights for this season in terms of winners, with a late-season charge that has him turning up with three last-start winners at Randwick on Saturday and a strong Group One hand in Queensland.

The pair are locked on 106 winners each for the term (including Australian and NZ winners), with Baker senior, who trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman, having the edge in prizemoney and Group One success courtesy of his Australian Derby-Oaks double during The Championships.

"There isn't much friendly about it," Bjorn Baker said jokingly

"I have been on the phone telling him I will get him.

"But seriously, to get this deep in the season and both have 100 winners is amazing. Dad has the edge on me with those big wins over here [in Australia].

Baker has been the King of June with 12 wins at a rate of 30 per cent, including his best day in Sydney in the half-dozen years since setting up his Warwick Farm stable, as he had a treble from Test The World (NZ) (Testa Rossa), Collateral (Excellent Art) and Sir Plush (NZ) (Pins) last Saturday.

"We are confident we have horses that are going to go very well over winter," Baker said. "It is good to get on a run like this because you go to the races a bit confident.

"Last week I went with three chances and they all won. That isn't going to happen every week, but I'm taking five to Randwick and would think there would be a winner there somewhere.

Baker will be in Brisbane where he is after a second career Group One in his own right when Egyptian Symbol (Stratum) and Bonny O'Reilly (NZ) (O'Reilly) line up in the Tatts Tiara at Doomben.

"They didn't draw that well but I'm not too worried about that. Bonny O'Reilly [Gate 17] has the speed to lead 1200-metre races, so I think she should be able to get across them and control the race," Baker said.

"Egyptian Symbol [Gate 20] will need a bit of luck to get in but I think they are both up to being in the finish.

"In Her Time is the one to beat but they are a very even bunch."

PEMBERLEY CHASING GROUP THREE GLORY

The Ciaron Maher-trained, Pemberley (NZ) (Darci Brahma), heads to the Gr.3 Tattersall's Cup (2200m) at Doomben on Saturday as a leading chance.

The Maher stable has been in great form over the Brisbane Winter Carnival. Ruthven (Domesday) claimed the Queensland Derby in dominant fashion and former New Zealand-trained galloper Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) was a narrow second in the Group 1 JJ Atkins.

Pemberley, a New Zealand-bred son of Darci Brahma, has excelled in his five-year-old season. He won the Murtoa Cup in September before earning a Caulfield Cup start with a close third in the Group 2 Herbert Power.

Pemberley is building to a win in this campaign. At his first three starts he got too far back before closing off well. Most recently, he was able to take a more forward position in the Gr.2 Brisbane Cup (also over 2200m at Doomben) when finishing third behind Chocante (NZ) (Shocking).

Jockey, Corey Brown has forged a strong bond with Pemberley this campaign and will again take the ride on Saturday. In the small field, Brown can use Pemberley's tactical speed to advantage and ensure he is afforded every chance to be right in the finish.

Pemberley has continued to thrive in the Queensland sun and heads into Saturday's contest in tremendous order. After a consistent preparation, the Tattersall's Cup looks an ideal opportunity for him to re-join the winner's list.

Pemberley will spearhead the in-form Ciaron Maher team at Doomben

NEWS IN BRIEF

Iffraaj (Zafonic)

Iffraaj Makes A Royal Impact At Ascot

Haunui Farm's shuttle stallion Iffraaj (Zafonic) added to his Group One tally on the opening day of the Royal Ascot carnival when his son Ribchester posted a track record breaking win in the Queen Anne Stakes.

Previously successful at the highest level in the Prix Jacques Le Marois at Deauville and the Lockinge Stakes, the Richard Fahey-trained and Godolphin-owned four-year-old produced a stirring performance under jockey William Buick to run the mile in a new mark of 1.36.60.

"Ribchester is just an exceptional horse," Fahey said. "He has to be the best horse I have ever trained."

"The Sussex Stakes is where he has to go next really. The French race (Prix Jacques Le Marois) which he won last year, is only 10 days after the Sussex so we can't go to both. I was always hoping that he would stay further but at the moment, I don't need to go further."

Shum Shines With Former Kiwi

Trainer Danny Shum produced former New Zealand-trained galloper Lucky Wan Feng (NZ) (Darci Brahma) to win the Class 3 Manawatu Racing Club Challenge Trophy Handicap (1200m) at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

Lucky Wan Feng raced as Parallel Universe in New Zealand for trainer Shane Crawford and was a winner of two races in May of last year before his sale. The son of Darci Brahma scored a strong half-length victory as a $3.80 second favourite in the night's feature event. Read full story here.

Juicy Rewards Await Pacorus

Rotorua Cup winner Pacorus (NZ) (Tavistock) is set to make his presence felt in Saturday's Orora Kiwi Packaging Kiwifruit Cup at Tauranga, according to Cambridge trainer Chris Wood.

Pacorus (NZ) (Tavistock)

The Tavistock five-year-old gelding has established himself among the country's best winter stayers and he ranks as the horse to beat in the 2100m feature, despite carrying 58kg.

"He's drawn an awkward alley in barrier 11, but he's thriving at the moment and with the rain forecast he'll get conditions to suit," Wood said.

"He's come through his last run pretty well. He's bright and he should go another good race." Read full story here.

Dynamic Gets The Nod

Riccarton trainers Michael and Matthew Pitman hold a strong hand in the open sprint on their home track on Saturday.

They will be represented in the Sonia & Garry Thompson Handicap by the in-form pair of Flying Ibis (Nadeem) and Dynamic (NZ) (Perfectly Ready), with the latter getting the nod.

"Dynamic is such an honest horse and he is more of a 1200 metre type than Flying Ibis," Michael Pitman said. "He's come through the grades quickly and the claim helps."

Parvesh Shaikh will lighten Dynamic's load by two kilos and the apprentice has a fine record on the horse with three wins and two seconds from their last five outings.

Harris Setting Himself Lofty Goals

Impending fatherhood has motivated Troy Harris to make another fist of his riding career.

The 29-year-old Cambridge jockey was a former champion apprentice and dual Group One-winning rider before losing the battle to keep his weight under control.

He took to jumps riding with success, but has made an impressive transition to flat racing in recent months as a sleeker, trimmer jockey, capped by a winning double at Pukekohe on Wednesday.

"My fitness is good. My weight is good. I've been working hard on it," said Harris, whose partner Chantelle is due to give birth to the couple's first child in October.

Carston Attacking On Two Fronts

Andrew Carston has set stable runners significant home and away targets this weekend.

The Riccarton trainer will be represented by the last-start winner Pretty Good Excuse (NZ) (No Excuse Needed) in Saturday's Greenwood Amberley Cup while Meursault (NZ) (Ekraar) has gone north to tackle the Listed Seeka Tauranga Classic.

Meursault is in a consistent run of form with a stakes placing in the Listed Great Easter Stakes before finishing fourth in the North Island Challenge Stakes at Trentham.

Spring plans for Spieth

Group One sprinter Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park) has returned to Bryce Heys' Warwick Farm base and is on target to trial in mid-August with either the Concorde Stakes on September 2 or The Shorts on September 16 to kick-off.

"He can either have one trial and resume in the Concorde or have two trials and be ready to go for The Shorts," Heys said.

"I'd say he would run in one of those races, unlikely to be both.

Smart 3yo's Future Yet To Be Decided

The unbeaten Manhattan Flame's (Manhattan Rain) future has yet to be confirmed.

The Shane Crawford-trained three-year-old followed up his Woodville debut win with an impressive victory at Pukekohe Park on Wednesday for Hong Kong owner Tony Chan.

"Whether he passes a vet to get up there we'll have to wait and see," Crawford said.

Corks ready to pop for Veuve Clicquot

Racing manners will be the key for Veuve Clicquot (NZ) (Rock 'N' Pop) when she lines up in the NZB Insurance Pearl Series at Otaki today.

The two-year-old has really impressed her trainer Tony Bambry, who purchased her out of Mapperley Stud's draft at the 2016 NZB Select sale for just $12,000.

"She's got a wonderful physique, a big strong filly with a lot of natural muscle on her," Bambry said.

A lack of trial and jump out opportunities in the Central Districts showed in her first start at Trentham on June 10 when she raced greenly to finish third.

"I know she has heaps of ability, but she just hasn't had any practice.

"The blinkers are going on today just to get her focused. If she runs straight I think she is a really good chance."

Top Trainers Bring Up Century

The country's leading trainers notched their 100th winner of the season at Pukekohe Park on Wednesday afternoon.

Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman hit the century mark when they produced Checkout (NZ) (Savabeel) to land the New Zealand Bloodstock Insurance Pearl Series Race.

"It's been a good season, obviously, but a bit frustrating in the last week with a few seconds," Forsman said. "We're thankful to all the owners who have supported us and to all of our staff."

The three-year-old Checkout has improved with each run this preparation and her maiden victory came off a third at Hawera over 1200m.

"The step up to the mile was the key and it was a good effort, she dug deep," Forsman said.

Raced by breeders Waikato Stud, Checkout is a daughter of Savabeel and the Group Two winner Shopaholic.

Flamingo (NZ) (Pins)

Flamingo returning soon

Stakes performer Flamingo (NZ) (Pins) has returned to pre-training at Waikato Stud, who bred and race the filly.

The Pins three-year-old won her first two starts impressively for Foxton trainers David and Emma Haworth before she powered home for third behind Sweet Leader (NZ) (O'Reilly) and Honey Rider (NZ) (Pins) in the Gr.3 Cambridge Breeders' Stakes.

"She'll be coming down to us in a couple of weeks," Emma Haworth said. "Dad went up and saw her last week and he said she looks great. She's very exciting."

Apprentice To Enjoy Winter Spell In Queensland

Rebecca Goldsbury is broadening her racing horizons in Australia.

The New Zealand apprentice accepted an offer from Queensland's leading provincial trainer Ben Currie to further her riding experience.

"I got here on Sunday and I'll be staying for three weeks and I'm really looking forward to it," Goldsbury said.

Aerovelocity (NZ) (Pins)

Aerovelocity to get Sha Tin send off
Star Hong Kong sprinter Aerovelocity

(NZ) (Pins) will enjoy a well-earned retirement at Muskoka Farm in Australia after a farewell ceremony at Sha Tin racecourse this Sunday, when his army of fans will have one last opportunity to salute one of the toughest horses ever to have competed on the Hong Kong circuit.

The 2015 Hong Kong Champion Sprinter and four-time G1 victor retires as the only locally-trained horse to have won G1 races in three different jurisdictions, his record of 11 wins from 24 career starts yielding prize money of HK$45,252,368. But there was always more to Aerovelocity than his latent ability.

Every sports fan loves a fighter, especially one that rises through the ranks, defying expectations and reputations along the way. Paul O'Sullivan's charge had all of that, as well as a heavy dose of brute charisma.

"He was just a warrior, really, a real bulldog," said Zac Purton, the man who rode him in his last 20 races. "He's probably the toughest horse that I've ever ridden, he goes out there and he leaves everything on the track."

Star Treasure (NZ) (Lonhro)

Trainer Looking Forward To The Spring

Talented youngsters Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel) and Star Treasure (NZ) (Lonhro) are putting a spring in the step of their trainer Stephen McKee.

"They are both back in work and doing very well," the Ardmore trainer said.

Hasahalo won the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes before she finished runner-up behind Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) in the Listed Karaka Million. Read full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Taranaki Target For Artaxerxes

Well-related three-year-old Artaxerxes (NZ) (Keeper) is on target for an age group event at New Plymouth next month.

The half-brother to the multiple black type winner Nymph Monte (NZ) (Tavistock) has been set for the $40,000 New Zealand Bloodstock Leasing & Financing 3YO on July 22.

The Keeper gelding has a win and two placings from his five starts and a record that has attracted overseas attention.

"He was sold, but he failed the vet," part-owner and trainer Grant Nicholson said.

Winning debutante to Australia

Hawke's Bay debut winner Moscow

Mistress (NZ) (Road To Rock) will continue her career in Victoria.

"She's been sold to Australian interests and she's going to Henry Dwyer's stable," said former trainer John Bary, who also had an ownership interest in the filly.

He produced the daughter of Road To Rock to score at the first time of asking on her home track over 1400 metres last month.

Bary, who won four races with the dam Miss Faberge (NZ) (Ustinov), believes Moscow Mistress has a bright future over more ground.

The Shinko King five-year-old finished a close second at Moonee Valley last weekend and will back-up at Flemington on Saturday in a handicap over 2520m.

"We've come here (Melbourne) because we're seriously considering bringing him back in the spring and we just wanted to bring him over and see where he sat class-wise and see how he handles the different tracks," Tiley said. Read full story here

Bull team thriving in QLD

Hunterville horseman Harry Bull enjoyed success in Queensland last Saturday with the talented William Wallace (NZ) (Darci Brahma) while stablemate Benzini (Tale Of The Cat) turned in another brave effort to finish runner-up in the Listed Ipswich Cup.

Their performances have convinced Bull, who trains the pair in partnership with his father Adrian, to extend his stay across the Tasman.

Benzini will make his next appearance in the Listed Caloundra City Cup on July 1 and the gelding is then likely to take aim at the Listed Grafton Cup a fortnight later.

Meanwhile, Bull is keen to lift the bar for William Wallace in the wake of his Ipswich success, eyeing a start in the Listed Glasshouse Handicap on July 1.

David Peake: The ultimate professional over 40 years in the saddle

David Peake first appeared on the winning jockeys' list of 1962-63 and retired

40 years later as the winner of 2,085 races in New Zealand, the third largest tally in New Zealand history.

David won six NZ Jockey Premierships, rode the most winners of any jockey in the 1970s (794) and held the course record for winners at Ellerslie (392) until topped by champion
