CAMBRIDGE TRAINER HOLDS STRONG OAKS HAND

Treasure looks a serious contender for major honours in Saturday's Gr. 1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks

Tony Pike has no doubt about Treasure's (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) depths of stamina and he's also warmed to Caricature's (NZ) (Power) ability to master the classic distance.

They give him a formidable hand at Trentham in Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m), a race the Cambridge trainer won in 2013 with More Than Sacred (More Than Ready).

"Treasure just wants to stay all day and Caricature isn't bred to get a trip, but everything she has done suggests she will," Pike said.

To be ridden by Michael McNab, Treasure won the Listed Oaks Prelude (1800m) at New Plymouth before the

Mastercraftsman filly copped an interrupted run when unplaced in the Gr.3 Lowland Stakes (2100m) at Hastings.

“Savvy Coup was brilliant that day, but there were a few hard luck stories behind her,” Pike said.

“Things didn’t go to plan at Hawke’s Bay for Treasure, she needs to get out and rolling and the big, roomy track at Trentham will suit her. She’s ticking along nicely and we’ve always had a very high opinion of her.”

Caricature, a daughter of Power to be partnered by Leith Innes, was runner-up to her stablemate in the Oaks Prelude and then third in the Lowland.

“She probably had a lot more work to do at Taranaki than Treasure and still hit the line well,” Pike said. “At Hawke’s Bay she was another to get held up.

looking forward to it.”

The third member of his Oaks trio is the lightly-ried Terra Sancta (NZ), a daughter of Pierro who won on debut and ran fourth at Poverty Bay before she was eighth in the Gr.3 Sunline Vase (2100m). She will be ridden by Samantha Collett.

Pike also has the progressive Alamosa mare Anarchy (NZ) in the Listed Yealands Family Wines New Zealand St Leger (2500m).

She was a maiden winner three runs back before she claimed a Rating 65 event at New Plymouth and was a last-start fourth in the St Leger Trial (2100m) at Hastings.

“We’ve thrown her in at the deep end, but she’s a nice staying mare and gets her chance at some black type,” Pike said.

MOREIRA ALERT TO PING HAI STAR THREAT

Ping Hai Star (NZ) (Nom Du Jeu) has emerged in recent weeks as a serious contender for the Gr.1 BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) and heads into Sunday's feature with a ringing endorsement from the man who will partner one of his chief rivals.

"I think Ping Hai Star's as good as any other horse in the race," Joao Moreira said.

The Champion Jockey has held the gelding's reins in five of his six Hong Kong races, including a hat-trick of recent wins that has lifted the New Zealand-bred to a rating of 103 and a place in the final leg of Hong Kong's Four-Year-Old Classic Series. But with the Brazilian opting to stick with top-rated stablemate Nothingilikemore (Husson), Ryan Moore will fly in to take over.

"Ping Hai Star's a very nice type of a horse; he's talented, he's got so much ability; he is a bit strong, he pulls a bit, but Ryan has soft and amazing hands, and if he can get him to relax in the race, I wouldn't be surprised if he's the one dashing to run everyone else down," Moreira continued.

"After he won three races in a row,

I reconsidered my thoughts on the Derby," trainer John Size said. "Last start, he did everything pretty correctly, we couldn't wish for him to do anything better than that. So then, with his high rating of 103, I thought he deserved a shot at the race."

"We need him to switch off and do everything right, but I think he probably needs a horse to be able to follow.

"We want him to be able to settle and then track into it, and that gate (barrier 9) should allow him to get dragged into the race."

Despite his sire's evident stamina - a heavy-ground victory in the Gr.1 Australian Derby (2400m) was the son of Montjeu's pinnacle - Size is conscious of Ping Hai Star's habit of pulling in his races and the fact that his unraced dam is by the speedier Encosta De Lago. But anyone skimming the pedigree page for evidence of the requisite class and stamina might look to the bay's second dam, a Runyon half-sibling to Gr.1 VRC Australian Guineas (1600m) winner Delago Brom and Gr.2 VRC Matriarch Stakes (2000m) heroine Brom Felinity, both sired by Encosta De Lago.

Ping Hai Star's half-siblings include the Gr.2 Wellington Guineas (1500m) winner Neo (NZ), by One Cool Cat, and the High Chaparral mare Tiffany's (NZ), a five-time winner at 2000m and beyond in minor company in New Zealand.

"The opposition's OK, there's plenty of opposition there," Size observed. "It's a strong race as usual. Five horses are rated over 100, so that tells you that they are good horses and still on the way up."

Francaletta (High Chaparral)

Handicap favours Coolmore hope Francaletta

A drop in weight is a major plus for Francaletta (High Chaparral) when the quality Kiwi mare runs in Saturday's Gr.1 Coolmore Classic (1500m) at Rosehill.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained daughter of High Chaparral will carry 52kg after finishing third in the Gr.2 Guy Walter Stakes (1400m) with three kilograms more in her Australian debut at Randwick earlier this month.

"It was a terrific run in very good company," Baker said. "The Coolmore is a handicap, which will suit her much better."

Odeon (NZ) (Zacinto)

Humidor heads Blamey field

A small field will do battle in the Gr.2 Blamey Stakes (1600m) at Flemington headed by dual Group One winner Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo).

Co-trainers Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra will run Odeon (NZ) (Zacinto) and Zahra admits the four-year-old faces a challenge getting only 2kg off Humidor.

"It's probably a bit tough with the set weights and penalties but it's a bit of a stepping stone towards the Easter Cup," Zahra said.

"They are probably a step above him at this stage and they're going to be hard to beat, but we'll have a bit of a crack and see how we go."

Odeon finished sixth in the Gr.3 Shaftesbury Avenue Handicap (1400m) first-up at Flemington on March 3 and steps up to 1600m.

Odeon, winner of six of his 18 starts, was placed in the Gr.1 South Australian Derby (2500m) last year while in the spring he was tested at Group One weight-for-age level in the Emirates Stakes (2000m) at Flemington, finishing 2-1/2 lengths from the winner, Tosen Stardom (Deep Impact) who also runs in the Blamey, in eighth.

Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa)

Sprinter chasing another black type victory

National honours might be on the line for Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) in his return to Trentham on Saturday.

The Gr.1 Telegraph (1200m) winner, who also claimed the Listed Pegasus Stakes (1000m) at Riccarton in the spring, will run in the Listed Te Akau Racing Lightning Handicap (1200m).

"If he can win on Saturday then he would have to be right in line for Sprinter of the Year," co-trainer Michael Pitman said.

He will be joined in the race by the well-performed Son Of Maher (Al Maher), runner-up behind stablemate Montoya Star (High Chaparral) at Hastings last time out.

"Son Of Maher has been working terrific, possibly the distance is a bit short for him, but with Ferrando in, there will be a solid pace and we're taking a calculated gamble," Pitman said. Full story here

Savvy approach to Group One features

Michael and Matthew Pitman are following a historically-proven path to Australian Group One glory with their top

Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel)

filly Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel).

The Riccarton trainers have taken note of events of recent seasons in planning the programme of their classy daughter of Savabeel, who will strip at the top of her game for Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m) at Trentham.

Savvy Coup is a last-start winner of the Gr.3 Lowland Stakes (2100m) and she has improved since that emphatic victory at Hastings, according to Michael Pitman.

"She's stayed at Trentham all the way through and been working very well on the course proper so it's like her home track.

"We've been really happy with her, she won the Lowland in her first run for five weeks and first over ground.

"History shows the Lowland to be a very good race and there are direct flights out of Christchurch to Sydney and she's booked to go on April 4.

"Both Bonneval and Sophia Rosa ran in the Lowland Stakes, the Oaks here and then won the Australian Oaks – it's the right way to go."

master the distance of Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m) at Trentham.

The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained Encosta de Lago filly returned a solid trial when fourth behind Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel) in the Gr.3 Lowland Stakes (2100m).

"We got caught wide with no cover and she did well to stick on like she did, she pretty much ran 2400m," Bosson said. "If we can get some cover I think she can get some of it."

Salsamor to take on older horses in Sydney

Salsamor (NZ) (Tavistock) will continue his path to the Gr.1 Australian Derby (2400m) via a start in Saturday's Gr.3 Sky High Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill.

The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained three-year-old will head to Sydney to take on the older horses, Busuttin saying it was a nice fit heading towards the Derby at Randwick on April 7.

"It's not a race that jumps out for three-year-olds and without being disrespectful to the tough older horses, a few of them have seen better days," Busuttin said.

"It's $350,000, 2000 metres and three weeks before the Derby.

Salsamor has met with support for the Sky High Stakes and sits on the fifth line of betting at $9.50.

Gold Spice (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop)

Lightly-tried filly thriving

Gold Spice (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop) is ready for the toughest test of her fledgling career.

The Waikato Stud-bred and raced daughter of Rock 'n' Pop booked her trip to Trentham for Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m) with a last-start second in the Gr.3 Sunline Vase (2100m).

"She's still got a bit to learn and she'll only be having her fifth start, but we're pretty happy with her," said Graham Richardson, who trains the filly with Gavin Parker.

Jake Bayliss will replace a suspended Michael Coleman aboard Gold Spice, who is currently at $12 in the Oaks market.

Trip not ideal, but 3Y0's class warrants respect

Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar) might be at a distance short of his best on Saturday, but other factors will be in his favour at Trentham.

The Karaka Million (1600m) winner will return to action in the Gr.2 Phill Cataldo Bloodstock Wellington Guineas (1400m) following an injury that forced him to miss the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

"He's nice and fresh and he's drawn well, he's got a good turn of foot and Trentham

Hello M'Lady (NZ) (Shocking)

Prendergast welcomes Cuddle challenge

Talented Matamata galloper Hello M'Lady (NZ) (Shocking) is poised to hand trainer Vicki Prendergast the biggest win of her career in Saturday's Gr.3 Wentwood Grange

Cuddle Stakes (1600m) at Trentham.

The four-year-old Shocking mare goes into the race second-up for her preparation after scampering home for eighth at Matamata resuming last month, clocking the quickest last 600m split of a race won off the front.

"She's pretty well. She ran home beautifully here last time. She just got hung out the back, but she got home well," Prendergast said. Full story here

Derby runner-up resuming

Rising Red (NZ) (Redwood) will return to racing after a long break in Saturday's Listed March Stakes (1400m) at Flemington.

The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained son of Redwood hasn't been seen since he finished runner-up to Gingernuts in last year's Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

"He did a suspensory in the lead-up to the Rosehill Guineas," Busuttin said.

"That can mean anywhere between three and nine months out and he wasn't going to be ready for the spring, so we elected to give him a long time off.

"He's come back nicely, but we're not expecting much. He hasn't had a lot of pressure put on him and as long as he gets around safely and pulls up well we'll be happy."

Bizzwinkle (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Good track crucial for Bizzwinkle

Glenn Old believes he has a stayer that can do the business in Saturday's Listed Yealands Family Wines New Zealand St Leger (2500m) at Trentham.

The Matamata trainer will produce Stratford Cup (200m) winner Bizzwinkle (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the three and four-year-olds staying feature, buoyed by the Rip Van Winkle gelding's last-start second to subsequent Gr.1 Auckland Cup (3200m) runner Excalibur (NZ) (Tavistock) in the St Leger Trial (2100m) at Hastings last month.

Felaar (NZ) (Ekraar)

Promising Felaar doing his trainer proud

Stephen Marsh took an instant shine to Felaar (NZ) (Ekraar) and time is proving the Cambridge trainer's early opinion to be on the money.

"I liked him from day one, he was a big, weak horse but he looked like he was going to be a quality handicap type," he said.

Felaar was an impressive last-start winner under 60kg over 2100m at Ellerslie for his second career success from nine outings.

His current preparation will draw to a close at Trentham on Saturday when he will step out in black type company for the first time in the Listed New Zealand St Leger (2500m). Full story here

Lee Magorrian

Gold Coast rides for Magorrian

Former New Zealand apprentice Lee Magorrian will be in action at the Gold Coast on Saturday.

Magorrian is now with Chris Waller and has ventured to the premier trainer's Queensland stable for the week.

The Irish-born apprentice, who has ridden

96 winners in New Zealand, joined Waller on a two-week scholarship last year, but that soon turned into a full-time stay.

Magorrian has since ridden 18 winners, including 11 in the metropolitan area, and will be aboard Exoteric (Champs Elysees), Lay Down the Law (Refuse To Bend), Brotherly Secret (Barely A Secret) and Mogador (Lonhro) this weekend.

Magorrian is on a flying visit to have a look at the Queensland operation.

"He is staying with me for the week. A couple of my staff are on holidays and he has been working and riding track work," said Paul Shailer, Waller's Gold Coast manager.

"Lee is a hard worker and has some nice rides on Saturday. There was some talk about him moving up here, but there is nothing definite."

Perroquet (NZ) (Ocean Park)

Filly making up for lost time

Perroquet (NZ) (Ocean Park) had an inglorious start to her career, but she's quickly made up for a debut to forget.

The well-bred daughter of Ocean Park and the Group One winner Pernod (NZ) (Centaine) was pulled up in her first appearance and then finished fourth before an impressive last-start win.

"She just never hit out that day at Matamata, it was a strange one, but then she was very good at Avondale and that gave us confidence that she would run well at Hastings," said Andrew Scott, who trains with Lance O'Sullivan. Full story here

Potential Melbourne Cup campaign for Kiwi mare

It has been nearly a decade since Rich Hill Stud stallion Shocking won the Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) and this year he could have a contender in the race in the form of his Group One-winning daughter

Sean Kiernan (leading Fanatic)

Fanatic (NZ).

The Lindsay Park-trained mare once again showed her class over two miles when winning the Gr.2 Adelaide Cup on Monday and her camp believes she is a genuine star over that distance.

Bred and owned by Taranaki dairy farmer Sean Kiernan, the five-year-old mare will now be set for the Gr.1 Sydney Cup (3200m) next month before a possible campaign toward the Melbourne Cup in the spring.

Handsome Rebel (Denman)

Rebel with a Group One cause

A drop back in class enabled Handsome Rebel (Denman) to post the first winning strike of his career at Matamata with a performance that is likely to see him back to stakes company next time out.

The youngster had placed in all four of his previous runs, two of them at black type level, before breaking his maiden with a minimum of effort for rider Opie Bosson in the Retox Sports Bar & Tokoroa Cosmopolitan Club 1200m on Wednesday.

"He's a pretty promising horse and he had been getting back and a bit field shy," said Jamie Richards, who trains Handsome Rebel with Stephen Autridge. Full story here

Concert Hall (NZ) (Savabeel)

Concert Hall hits top note

Savabeel filly Concert Hall (NZ) carried her winning trial form over to race day on Wednesday when she made the perfect start to her career at Matamata.

The three-year-old produced a timely finish along the fence under jockey Shaun McKay to triumph in the Team Wealleans 1400m.

"It was a nice ride and he saved all the ground," trainer Roger James said. "She's a filly who is still learning and when he let the brakes off she was very good.

"She's been handled patiently and, as long as she comes through each run well, I don't see any reason why we won't push on with her."

Boss (NZ) (Towkay)

Winning like a Boss at Hawera

The Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard-trained Boss (NZ) (Towkay) lived up to his hype when winning the Holly D R (Jack) Gray Painters Maiden (1200m) at Hawera.

The Towkay three-year-old jumped away well to sit parked before jockey Samantha Collett pushed on for the lead. The Otaki gelding went clear at the top of the straight to leave the rest of the field in his wake, winning comfortably by six lengths over Midnight Poetry (Dylan Thomas) with Crafty Crim (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) back in third.

"I've thrown some big words around about this horse, like he might be the best one I have sat on," said Wynyard. "With the horses that have come through our stables, that's a very big thing." Full story here

Stallion's future locked in at Highview

Wrote's long-term New Zealand future is guaranteed following a successful move by Highview Stud.

"After protracted negotiations we have managed to buy him outright," he said. Full story here

Underthemoonlight (NZ) (El Hermano)

Sydney target for Matamata mare

Group Two-winning and Group One-placed El Hermano mare

Underthemoonlight (NZ) will kick off her autumn campaign in the Gr.1 All-Aged Stakes (1400m) at Randwick on April 21.

Co-breeder and part-owner Hamish McQuade said the Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m) placegetter was thriving in the early stages of her preparation.

"I've never seen her come up so well or so sound," said McQuade, who bred Underthemoonlight with his wife Karyn, the mare's trainer. The couple race her with Cliff Solomon.

A winner of five of her 25 starts, including the Gr.2 Foxbridge Plate (1200m) at Te Rapa and Gr.3 Taranaki Breeders' Stakes (1400m) at Hawera, Underthemoonlight has a terrific record fresh and handles all types of track conditions.

Chance for smart 2YO to bounce back

Pukekohe two-year-old Melt (NZ) (Iffraaj) is to be given her shot at Group One redemption.

Melt (NZ) (Iffraaj)

The daughter of Iffraaj was unbeaten in her first two starts, both in black type company, before she finished sixth in the Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie.

"The track came up too firm for her and Michael (McNab) said she never let down," trainer Nigel Tiley said. Full story here

Kapoor (NZ) (Reliable Man)

Tragedy strikes Oaks-bound filly

Connections of talented three-year-old Kapoor (NZ) (Reliable Man) were dealt a crushing blow on Monday morning when the filly shattered a fetlock during a routine gallop and was humanely euthanised.

The high-class daughter of Reliable Man had been on target for Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m) after closing strongly for fourth in the Gr.3 Sunline Vase (2100m) last start.

"It's absolutely devastating," trainer John Bell said. "She was just working so brilliantly and was a beautiful filly." Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Sword Of Osman (NZ) (Savabeel)

The talented two-year-old stablemates are confirmed runners in the Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) on March 31.

The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained pair have met twice with Avantage taking top honours when winning the Karaka Million (1200m) before Sword Of Osman evened the score with his defeat of the filly in Saturday's Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie. Full story here

Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi)

Encouraging update on Bonneval

The recovery signs are looking good for the side-lined New Zealand Horse of the Year Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi).

The multiple Group One winner's proposed autumn campaign in Australia was halted by a suspensory ligament issue, but the outlook is encouraging.

"We had another scan done 10 days after the initial scan and things look fairly positive at this stage," said Andrew Forsman, who trains Bonneval at Cambridge with Murray Baker.

"She'll have a good break and hopefully, all going well, we can get her back to the track in the spring."

Miss Valencia (NZ) (Ocean Park)

Bright future tipped for filly

It's job done for the highly-regarded filly Miss Valencia (NZ) (Ocean Park), who has been rewarded with a break.

The daughter of Ocean Park ran third in her first appearance at Wanganui before winning last time out at Trentham.

"She's a lovely filly and she won well, we felt a spell now was in her best interests," co-trainer Johnno Benner said.

Miss Valencia held a nomination for the Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m), but connections felt that may have been a step too far at this stage.

"It would have been too much of an ask for her, she's going to make a really nice three-year-old," Benner said.

Jakkalberry ex Double Elle filly

Half-sister to Gingernuts for sale on gavelhouse.com

A half-sister to Te Akau Racing's cult-hero and multiple Group One winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) is a highlight in the latest gavelhouse.com New Zealand catalogue.

Offered on account of her breeder Chris Thompson as Lot 11, the filly is also a half-sister to juvenile winner and gavelhouse.com graduate Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj), who last year ran fourth in the Gr.2 Hawkes Bay Guineas.

The aforementioned trio are out of Generous mare Double Elle (NZ) who has had four in total to race, all being winners while the yearling filly on offer is by Novara Park's ill-fated Jakkalberry. With only his juvenile crop to the races Jakkalberry has pleasantly surprised connections with the champion stayer already the sire of recent Gr.3 Matamata Slipper runner-up Thomas Aquinas (NZ).
