TRAINER MAKES THE MOST OF HIS SECOND CUP CHANCE

Chenille and Leith Innes charge away with the victory in yesterday's Gr. 1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup

Second chances don't come along very often and Tony Pike turned his into a Group One victory with Chenille (NZ) (Pentire) at Ellerslie on Thursday.

The Cambridge trainer was on the verge of scratching the Pentire mare from the Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup on Saturday before rain forced the rescheduling of the event and gave him a shot at take two.

It was an emotional win for Pike, who shares in the ownership syndicate as does his father Wayne, who is battling ill health at present, and his mother Vicki.

"I'm just glad we got a second chance and the track came back," he said. "It's a huge buzz for my parents.

"Leith (Innes) rode her perfectly and he got her to drop her head down the back and she was bolting on the corner."

Chenille improved from midfield with 600 metres to run and she came widest into the straight to hit the lead early in the run home.

“She looked a good thing on the turn,” said Pike, who prepared Rock Diva (NZ) (Lucky Unicorn) to win the Cup in 2015. “She probably got to the front too soon, but she’s a very good staying mare.”

Chenille held a strong gallop over the closing 300 metres to defeat El Pistola (NZ) (El Hermano) and Jacksstar (NZ) (Zed) with Megablast (NZ) (Shinko King) the next runner home.

“She’s entered in the Sydney Cup, but whether we head that way or not we’ll wait and see,” Pike said.

For Innes, it was the 28th Group One win of his career and his first in the Cup.

“I had so much faith in this mare, she’s a class horse,” the 38-year-old said.

LIZZIE UPSETS THEM IN THE BONECRUSHER STAKES

Promising mare Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) upset the appiecart when she out-stayed her rivals to snare the Gr. 1 Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes at Ellerslie.

The rugged Zabeel four-year-old overcame a torrid beginning that saw her buffeted among runners as riders jostled for a handy position in the early stages of the contest.

That initial melee ended up playing in the mare's favour as the field opened up, allowing rider Matt Cameron to slot her into a handy position just ahead of midfield.

In a muddling run race, Cameron bided his time before asking his charge to swoop into contention on the point of the home turn.

Punters who had backed multiple Group One winner Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel) into a $1.75 favourite were giggling at this stage as the Taranaki visitor was trucking in the trail and just needed space to make his final challenge. Grins turned to groans, however, as the gaps closed and left the favourite in a pocket that eventually saw him see daylight when the race was all but over.

By then Lizzie L'Amour had swept to the lead with former Brisbane Cup winner Benzini (Tale of the Cat) in hot pursuit. The pair settled down to a knock-em down, drag-em out struggle that saw the mare prevail by a bare half head at the line from Benzini with Sound Proposition (NZ) (Savabeel) nabbing third from Consensus (NZ) (Postponed) and Kawi.

An overjoyed Lorna Moore who bred and co-owns the mare with husband Gary was finding it hard to take in what her star performer had just achieved.

"This is unbelievable and I'm just so thrilled," she said.

"It's not only a Group One for us and Lizzie, but it's also for Zabeel who was tied with his sire Sir Tristram for individual Group One winners up until now so this one is for him as well.

"I would have been happy to just run a place but this means everything to a small breeder."

Co-trainer Andrew Forsman, who prepares the mare with Murray Baker at Cambridge, was also sporting a wide smile after the victory.

"It was a very good effort as they went hard at it leaving the straight the first time and it got quite messy," he said.

"It actually panned out alright as they went a lot harder than we thought which suited her as she's a real staying mare.

"It became a staying test with two of the better ones fighting it out."

Forsman admitted the stable had been confident of a good performance.

"We knew she was good enough, it was really a matter of whether she was ready this time in or was it going to be in her next preparation," he said.

"Thankfully she got the job done and is a Group One winner now. She's got it all ahead of her so now it's a matter of finding the right distance for her as if she can get to 2400 metres then a Caulfield Cup could be a spring target for her."

Lizzie L'Amour joins a star-studded cast on the race's honour roll including Silent Achiever (NZ) (O'Reilly), Ocean Park (NZ) (Thorn Park), Xcellent (NZ) (Pentire), La Mer (NZ) (Copenhagen II), Balmerino (NZ) (Trictrac) and the mighty Bonecrusher (NZ) (Pag-Asa) who won it on two separate occasions.

RIDE OF A LIFETIME CONTINUES FOR TEAM GINGERNUTS

Gingernuts parades while his huge support crew celebrates during the presentation ceremony for the Vodafone New Zealand Derby

Another chapter will be added to a remarkable story when 2017 New Zealand Derby winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) tackles the Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas in Sydney this weekend.

One of the lingering images from that Derby victory earlier this month was the massive support team invading the Ellerslie birdcage, resplendent in their orange “G Nuts” caps, as their pride and joy returned to the winners enclosure.

Front and centre amongst the throng was Blair Alexander, one of the prime movers in assembling the 42 strong contingent who share in the ownership of the Iffraaj three-year as the Te Akau Gingernuts Syndicate.

Although Alexander is no stranger to success with thoroughbred ownership through his involvement with leading galloper Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock), he does admit the journey to date with their chestnut pride and joy is something right out of a fairy-tale

“The last few weeks have been a little bit of a blur as everything about and around the horse has just taken off. I know for a number of the syndicate it has been a whirlwind of activity and certainly far in excess of our wildest expectations.”

The Gingernuts story started in late November 2015 when Blair got a call from Te Akau Racing boss David Ellis.

“David rang and said he had bought a horse at the Ready To Run Sale at Karaka which might be a good one to get a bunch of people together to race and was I interested,” he explained.

“When he told me he paid $42,500 for him I thought that would be a great way for a whole bunch of new people to get involved at an affordable level. I had had plenty of interest in racing from my work colleagues through the success of Hasselhoof so I sent out a bunch of emails and made some calls and it took off from there."

Alexander works at the Auckland office of FCB New Zealand, a well-known player in the advertising and marketing world and soon had a group ready to take the plunge into horse ownership.

"I think in the end through friends of friends and a few people from a couple of other advertising agencies we know, our group has just on 72.5% of the horse," he noted.

"The remainder are some of Te Akau's clients and other interested people so all in all, with partners included, there are 42 of us involved. The majority are first time owners along with a couple of regulars including one guy who has got back into the game after not being involved for over a decade.

"What has happened is just great for racing as these people are having the time of their lives and have achieved far beyond what we had hoped when first setting the syndicate up."

Managing growing expectations is one of Alexander's latest tasks and he has been quick to point out to the new entrants the significance of what has taken place to date.

"I think one of the main messages we tried to give to people in the aftermath of the Derby win was just what a feat it took to be standing there as the victor," he said.

"David had been trying for over 30 years to get a Derby winner and here we were doing it with our first horse. I think it really hit home when they saw the emotion from David and Stephen (Autridge) after the race."

Having thoroughly celebrated their good fortune it is now onwards and upwards for the team as they look forward to Saturday's Rosehill Guineas.

"I'm heading across to Rosehill with another couple of people from the syndicate but I think most of the rest will be gathering somewhere around a television to cheer him on," said Alexander.

"With the rain about in Sydney we think he should be well suited this weekend so there is a degree of confidence. You just don't know how he will measure up to the good Aussie three-year-olds so the nerves are there however he is fit and well and ready to go.

"Even though it's a Group One race this is his dress rehearsal for the big one, the Australian Derby on the 1st of April. Provided he goes well on Saturday I know there will be a large group booked to fly-over to cheer for him on Derby day."

With their orange caps proudly bearing the moniker 'he's got the bickies', another Derby victory could well ignite a birdcage invasion to match the greatest celebrations of all time!

NEWS IN BRIEF

Summer Passage (Snitzel)

Shinn hot on Summer Passage's future prospects

Blake Shinn says the sky's the limit for Summer Passage (Snitzel), who provided the leading Sydney jockey with a memorable victory at Ellerslie.

His aggressive ride aboard the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained and Hong Kong-owned colt paved the way for their dashing victory in Thursday's Gr.1 Sistema Stakes.

"He's an exceptional two-year-old and it's a big thrill to get my first Group One winner overseas," Shinn said. Full story here.

Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Another Group title for gallant grey Thee Auld Floozie's (NZ)

(Mastercraftsman) outstanding five-year-old season got even better at Ellerslie on Thursday with further feature race success.

The Group One winner of the Thorndon Mile at her previous appearance, the game grey produced a determined performance to add the Gr.2 Westbury Classic to her record for part-owner and trainer Stephen Marsh.

"There wasn't much in it, she was brave," the Cambridge horseman said. "She knocked up the last bit and she will be perfect for the Breeders' Stakes at Te Aroha now, that's the logical race for her. Full story here.

Music Magnate top weight for Galaxy

Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon) tops the weights for the Gr.1 The Galaxy (1100m) as one of 14 runners in the big Rosehill sprint.

Bjorn Baker's Gr.1 Doomben 10,000 winner drops in trip after finishing fifth in the Gr.1 Canterbury Stakes (1300m) last start, but will have to shoulder top weight of 58kg under Jason Collett.

Sold from Westbury Stud's 2013 NZB Select draft for $45,000, Music Magnate has won seven times from 15 starts.

Kiwi-bred's out for Ranvet honours

A small field of eight will face off in the Gr.1 Ranvet Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill tomorrow headed by Godolphin's Hartnell (Authorized).

Four New Zealand bred runners will contest the A$700,000 feature with Antonio Giuseppe (NZ) (Shocking) the more favoured of the group.

A last start second in the Gr.3 Sky High Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill, the Chris Waller-trained four-year-old has drawn the widest gate and will be partnered by Tye Angland.

Waller will also saddle Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel) who has won a trial since running a disappointing last in the Gr.1 Chipping Norton (1600m).

Stephen Marsh's Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi) comes in off a last start third in the Gr.1 Haunui Farm Classic (1600m) and has Blake Shinn booked for the ride, while He's Our Rokkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) has drawn barrier two with Dwayne Dunn.

Dunn is back aboard He's Our Rokkii for the Ranvet and believes the Toorak Handicap-winning gelding has been looking for 2000m, a distance he hasn't raced over since winning the Frank Packer Plate in Sydney last autumn on soft ground.

"He should be very competitive in the race," Dunn said.

Life's a beach for Ritchie's Oaks hope

Ahead of one of the most important weeks of the year, Shaune Ritchie is heading to the beach.

But there's good reason - and the last thing on the Cambridge trainer's mind is holidaying.

A key factor in his approach is needing to find an edge for his Gr.1 Wellfield New Zealand Oaks (2400m) contender Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma) against the reigning favourite Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi). Full story here.

Moseley to guide Oaks contender

Terry Moseley has been confirmed as Zigwig's (NZ) (Zacinto) rider in tomorrow's Gr.1 Wellfield New Zealand Oaks.

The Christchurch-based jockey has won two races on the filly, including the Listed Champagne Stakes, and he will be reunited with Inglewood Stud's daughter of Zacinto following her last-start success at Ashburton under Alysha Collett.

Trained by Nick Wigley, Zigwig has won three of her 11 starts.

Top Prospect (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Collett has two leading prospects in Guineas

Richard Collett has two chances to ace Saturday's Gr.2 Grant Plumbing Wellington Guineas (1400m) at Trentham.

The Pukekohe trainer will produce Top Prospect (NZ) and Swissta (NZ), both by Westbury Stud stallion Swiss Ace, in the three-year-old sprint, confident he has two horses capable of winning the race.

"They should be two competitive chances," Collett said. Full story here.

Cut Me Loose (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Ritchie well represented at Trentham

Trainer Shaune Ritchie has a strong-hand at Trentham on Saturday headed by Gr.1 Wellfield New Zealand Oaks contender Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and his support-card runners also look to have strong winning prospects.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Cambridge conditioner will also shoot for Group-race success at Trentham with Cut Me Loose (NZ) (Swiss Ace) in the Gr.2 Grant Plumbing Wellington Guineas (1400m) and Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the Gr.3 Wentwood Grange Cuddle Stakes (1600m).

Last-start New Plymouth winner Let Her Rip was also entered for the Gr.2 Westbury Classic (1400m) at Ellerslie but Ritchie was keen to test her over 1600m with an eye towards the Gr.1 Fiber Fresh New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Te Aroha on April 8. Full story here.

Mystery Show (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret)

Guineas test for gifted filly

Mystery Show (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret) will hit the road in her quest for a maiden black type victory.

The talented three-year-old has understandably made a strong impression on her new trainer, who believes he has found a gilt-edged Group Two opportunity for the filly at Trentham on Saturday.

"She'll run in the Wellington Guineas, the 1400 metres should suit her ideally at this stage," Stephen Marsh said. Full story here.

Rock On (NZ) (Road To Rock)

Awapuni galloper on the improve

Gary Vile's Rock On (NZ) (Road To Rock) is a leading hope in the Listed Lincoln Farms New Zealand St Leger at Trentham tomorrow.

Vile considers the graduate of Wellfield Lodge's 2014 NZB Select draft to be a genuine feature cups contender next season.

"With the blinkers back on and a clear run I think he's going to be a huge chance," he said.

Despite an unfortunate habit of missing the kick, Rock On has been in the money in each of his last 10 starts.

Most recently, Vile took the blinkers off the four-year-old when he finished fourth in the St Leger Trial at Otaki.

"He jumped out better, but he wandered around a bit so he'll have the blinkers back on to keep him a bit more focussed," he said.

Saracino (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Sydney beckons Guineas contender

A bold showing at Trentham tomorrow will confirm a return visit to Australia for Saracino (NZ) (Per Incanto).

"He'll run at Trentham over 1400 metres against his own age group and all going well he'll then go to Sydney for the Arrowfield 1200," said owner Lib Petagna's racing manager Bruce Perry.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained Saracino, winner of the Gr.2 Danehill at Flemington in the spring, has the Gr.2 Grant Plumbing Wellington Guineas on his immediate programme.

"He's quite a hard horse to place now," Perry said of the Per Incanto colt.

Sultan swings into winning action

The Sultan Of Swing (NZ) (Bachelor Duke) team got their front-running tactics spot on to claim major honours in the opening event at Ellerslie yesterday.

The Bachelor Duke four-year-old was never headed under apprentice Sam Weatherley to down Light Shadow (Holy Roman Emperor) and the well-supported Ja Ja Binks (NZ) (Falkirk) in the Crombie Lockwood 1200.

"We thought with no pace in the race it was the way to go," trainer Shaune Ritchie said.

"We'd like to get him into a race like the Easter, although he'd have to win another one between now and then."

Joyfilly (NZ) (Highly Recommended)

Joyfilly confirms Group One start

Cambridge juvenile Joyfilly (NZ) (Highly Recommended) booked a trip to the central districts for a Group One feature with her victory at Matamata on Wednesday.

"She had raced well here before and it's a nice stepping stone to the Sires' Produce," trainer Chris Wood said. "She's a really nice filly with the greatest attitude and she tries hard."

The Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes will be run at Awapuni on April 1.

Joyfilly, runner-up in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes at her previous outing, raced in second spot to the turn before asserting her superiority under rider Mark Hills in the run home.

Don Carlo (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Sprint targets in place for talented Don Carlo

Stakes goals for next season have already been identified for the exciting Don Carlo (NZ) (Per Incanto).

The son of Per Incanto has fashioned a smart record with three wins from his first six appearances and black type targets during New Zealand Cup week are on his four-year-old programme.

"At this stage he's going to Riccarton on Saturday week for a 1000 metre race," trainer Michael Daly said. Full story here.

Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Eleonora (NZ) (Makfi)

Frost's stable in record form

Rachael Frost has completely turned her training fortunes around.

The Otaki horsewoman endured a nightmare 2015-16 season when she went winless from 51 starters, but this season has seen a complete reversal.

Frost is now sitting on a personal best tally of 10 victories and has plans in place for the talented Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) to head to Brisbane later in the year. Full story here.

Cruel injury blow for top 3YO

Injury has counted the leading filly Eleonora (NZ) (Makfi) out of a return trip to Australia.

"She was lame after she galloped on Saturday and she's got a slight muscle tear," said Andrew Forsman, who prepares the daughter of Makfi with Murray Baker.

Eleonora's setback is a bitter blow as she had showed she was on target for the $A1 million Gr.1 Australian Oaks with a resuming second against the older horses last month and then went one better to claim the Gr.3 Sunline Vase.

"It's gutting, but at least it's not a long-term issue and she'll be fine in time," Forsman said.

Stakes placed last season, Eleonora broke her maiden at Geelong in the spring before she won the Gr.3 Ethereal Stakes at Caulfield and finished third in the Gr.1 VRC Oaks.

NEW ZEALAND RACING
HALL OF FAME

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes Desert Gold

The fierce front running first lady of NZ racing, Desert Gold was trained by Fred Davis for Mr T.H. (Tom) Lowry; the first of three Tom Lowry's to be the squire of Okawa Stud in the Hawke's Bay.

In 1914, as a two-year-old she won the Great Northern Foal Stakes and Royal Stakes, the Manawatu Sires Produce Stakes (in race record time) and the North Island Challenge Stakes.

At three Desert Gold had 14 starts and won all of them, five of them in race record time.

As a four-year-old Desert Gold took her winning sequence through to 19 with weight-for-age wins at Trentham, Ellerslie and Riccarton.

At five she was still the weight-for-age queen – she won the Awapuni Gold Cup at three, four and five years – and she made several trips to Australia where, during those First World War years, she was tremendously popular through her owner donating her winnings to the War Relief Fund.

At six years of age, coming to the end of her wonderful career, Desert Gold had three virtual match races on the then-strong Taranaki circuit with the rising young star Gloaming. They won one apiece before Gloaming proved too good in the third.

Desert Gold retired with a record of 59 Starts: 36-13-4 and earnings of £23,239.
