DELAYED FLIGHT DISRUPTS VINERY PREPARATION

An interrupted travel schedule won't faze New Zealand Derby placegetter Danzdanzdance as she gets ready to make her Australian debut on Saturday

Ruakaka trainer Chris Gibbs will line-up Danzdanzdance (Mastercraftsman) in the Gr.1 Vinery Stud Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill on Saturday ahead of her tilt at the Gr.1 Australian Oaks (2400m) a fortnight later.

However, her trip across the Tasman didn't go entirely to plan, when her scheduled Monday flight was delayed by a day.

"There was a delay to the flight and it is what it is, there's nothing much we can do about that I'm afraid," Gibbs said.

"She seems to have settled in, but she's only been there a day. From all reports she's worked well and is eating pretty good really."

The Mastercraftsman filly goes into The Vinery in fine form

Sweynesse is a chip off the old block

Darren Beadman

Sweynesse, is a son of former champion racehorse and super sire Lonhro. Beadman rode Lonhro in most of his 26 wins and he gets to work with many of that horse's sons and daughters at Godolphin.

- A multiple Group One performer (2nd G1 Randwick Guineas, 3rd G1 Spring Champion) beating some of the best 3YO Group One winners in Australia including Kermedec, Preferment, Hampton Court, Shooting To Win, First Seal.
- Winner of first four starts including dual Group 3 wins in the Spring Stakes and Gloaming Stakes.
- A winner at only start as a 2YO.
- A top 3YO Timeform rating of 122 makes Sweynesse one of the top Australian 3YO colts of his year.
- By Lonhro -The Champion 3YO, the Champion miler, the Horse of the Year, and now a Champion sire. Lonhro set a new Australian record of 160 individual winners in a season. His son Pierro, unbeaten juvenile Triple Crown winner, was rated the best juvenile colt in Australia since 1977.
- Out of the multiple winning mare Swansea by Champion Sire Singspiel (5xG1 Winner and sire of 98SW).
- Sweynesse is a magnificent individual. He stands 16.2 hh. He has a powerful hind quarter, a strong shoulder and a great athletic walk. He is very correct.
- Sweynesse is syndicated amongst many of New Zealand's top breeders who are strongly supporting him at stud.

having placed in her two previous starts in the Gr.2 Avondale Guineas (2100m) and Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

Gibbs said he is happy with his runner leading into the race but would like to see how well she is faring after another few days.

"I am very happy with the barrier draw, so Saturday will tell us a lot. Over the next few days we just want to see her settle in properly, she's only been there a day so it's pretty hard to make a call on how well she is doing.

"We'll be a little bit wiser when she has had a few days of eating and we'll be able to weigh her."

Gibbs, who now trains on his own account after former training partner Donna Logan took out a training licence in Singapore, will travel to Sydney today ahead of Saturday's feature.

Danzdanzdance is currently an equal $8.50 fifth favourite in The Vinery market with the New Zealand TAB, behind $4.80 race favourite and last-start Gr.2 Phar Lap Stakes (1500m) winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock).

SOUTH ISLAND 2018/

NATIONAL YEARLING SALES SERIES: SOUTH ISLAND SALE
FRIDAY 20 APRIL 2018 IN CHRISTCHURCH

YOUTHFUL DUO READY FOR GROUP ONE TEST

She's A Thief is a strong contender for Saturday's Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes

The prospect of a step up in distance on a rain-affected track at Awapuni isn't expected to bother stablemates She's A Thief (NZ) (Showcasing) and Bocce (Foxwedge) on Saturday.

The two-year-olds head into unfamiliar territory distance-wise when they shoot for Group One honours in the Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m).

She's A Thief has enjoyed a rewarding first campaign with two wins and stakes placings in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m) and the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes (1200m).

In between times, the daughter of Showcasing was fourth in the Karaka Million (1200m).

"She's been terrific, a very classy filly," Gerard said. "Originally we thought she was just a two-year-old, but she'll be good at three as well – she's grown and matured."

She's A Thief has been ridden in all but one of her starts by Jake Bayliss, who will continue his association with her at the weekend.

A winner and third in the Karaka Million, barn mate Bocce finished fourth last time out in the Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m).

"He might have been better to push on and not give up the lead and he came back strongly the last bit," Gerard said.

"His work has been outstanding and we have no issues with either of them on a wet track, they've been working on them and both of them will be fine, and I don't think 1400m will be a worry."

The stable also has black type chances in the Listed Bramco Granite & Marble Flying Handicap (1400m) with Ruby Armani (NZ) (Makfi) and Sound Works (Not A Single Doubt).

"It's a huge step up for both of them, but Sound Works has been super in her last two runs and Ruby Armani is a talented mare who has had to put up with terrible draws," Gerard said. "They deserve their chances."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour)

Aloisia cops outside gate in Vinery Stud Stakes

The Aaron Purcell-trained Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) has come up with the outside gate for Saturday's Gr.1 Vinery Stud Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill.

To be ridden by Mark Zahra she will jump from gate 13 following the scratching of the John Sargent trained Luvaluva (NZ) (Mastercraftsman).

The highest rated filly in the field, Aloisia disappointed somewhat at her last start when finishing 8.5 lengths from Grunt (NZ) (O'Reilly) in the Australian Guineas (1600m).

Victory in Saturday's contest would add a second Group One title to her record after she won the 1000 Guineas (1600m) at Caulfield last October.

"She galloped on Tuesday morning and Mark Zahra went up to Sydney for it, and he was rapt with her and fitness-wise she's primed," said Purcell.

"[Barrier] 14 wasn't the number I wanted to see, but she's a horse who likes to race amongst horses competitively so there are options as to where we end up, we'll have to let Mark [Zahra] work that out."

Sound Proposition (NZ) (Savabeel)

Doncaster berth on the line

A higher prize beckons the New Zealand

Group One winner Sound Proposition (NZ) (Savabeel) if he is successful on Saturday.

The son of Savabeel will be exempt from the A$3 million Gr.1 Doncaster Handicap (1600m) ballot if he can claim top honours in the Gr.3 Doncaster Prelude (1500m) at Rosehill.

Sound Proposition won the Gr.1 Easter Stakes (1600m) from Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott's Matamata stable before he joined Kris Lees' operation. He has won twice for the Newcastle trainer and finished runner-up in the Gr.3 Cameron Handicap (1500m).

Baker/Forsman duo ready for Tulloch Stakes

Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman's Derby hopefuls Mongolian Marshal (NZ) High Chaparral) and Weather With You (Teofilo) line up in Saturday's Gr.2 Tulloch Stakes (2000m).

"They're both fit and well," Forsman said.

Mongolian Marshall has won his last two starts at Avondale and Ellerslie while Weather With You finished fifth over a mile at Warwick Farm at his most recent outing.

He's Our Rokkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes)

Lindsay Park goes all out in Victoria Hcp

Lindsay Park's depth of sprinter-milers will see it represented with a quarter of the field in the Victoria Handicap at Caulfield.

He's Our Rokkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) is one of four runners for the David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig stable in Saturday's Gr.3 Victoria Handicap (1400m) at Caulfield.

Ben Dabernig said the stable is hoping for a little give with He's Our Rokkii who has good form at the course.

He's Our Rokkii last raced in Canberra and it was the stable's intention to head to Sydney, but his form wasn't up to scratch.

"Physically there's no reason why he's lost form so we've tried to switch him on mentally by doing some jumping," Dabernig said.

"One thing I would say is that he's probably needed a couple of runs now that's he's got older."

Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon)

Music Magnate on song for Meydan

Trainer Bjorn Baker believes his gun sprinter Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon) is "ready to run a race" in the $US1 million AI Quoz Sprint (1200m) at the Dubai World Cup meeting this weekend.

Baker arrived in Dubai in the early hours of Wednesday morning local time, laying eyes on the six-year-old gelding when going through his paces on the course that awaits him on Saturday.

"I saw the horse when I arrived on Wednesday and he looks really well, he looks as good as he's ever looked," Baker said. Full story here

Bel Ragazzo (Helmet)

Classic deciding race for 3YO

An overseas trip hasn't been ruled out for Awapuni black type contender Bel Ragazzo (Helmet).

His performance in Saturday's Gr.3 Higgins Concrete Manawatu Classic (2000m) will decide the remainder of his three-year-old future.

"If he happened to win impressively then we might look at the South Australian Derby, but I'm probably leaning toward turning him out," trainer Shane Crawford said.

"I'm really happy with the horse, he's just got to grow up a little bit and since the Derby he's really come on. I'm quite confident he will run well."

Bel Ragazzo beat the older horses when he broke his maiden ahead of an unplaced run in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

"He copped all the interference available, but he learned a lot so we'll see what happens on the weekend."

Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Awapuni swansong for Group winner

Talented mare Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) will close out her New Zealand career at Saturday's Manawatu meeting.

She will make her final appearance in the Listed Bramco Granite & Marble Flying Handicap (1400m) at Awapuni.

"She'll take her place and a few days after that she's on a plane to Sydney where she'll be sold," trainer Shaune Ritchie said. Full story here

Larrikin (NZ) (Raise The Flag)

Cup start a means to an end

Robyn Mauger is running the promising stayer Larrikin (NZ) (Raise The Flag) out of his grade on Saturday by necessity rather than choice.

The Rangiora trainer has a goal in mind for the lightly-ried five-year-old and a run in the Listed Carriers Arms Riverton Cup (2147m) fits in with the programme.

"It's a step toward a 2500m race at Riccarton on May 5," Mauger said. "There aren't enough stayers' races and he really needs more ground than 2000m. Full story here

Dal Cielo (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Dal Cielo pleases Lees in barrier tests

Group One winner Dal Cielo (NZ) (Per Incanto) has passed two barrier trial tests and is ready to resume his roller-coaster career on Saturday at Doomben in a 1050m race.

Dal Cielo did his early racing from the stable of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman where he won the Gr.1 Diamond Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie as a two-year-old before transferring to the Newcastle stable of Kris Lees.

When Dal Cielo resumed at Warwick Farm in February he stood in the barriers and refused to take part in the race.

Stewards slapped a race ban on Dal Cielo and said he must trial twice before racing again.

"He has had those two trials for a second and then he won the latest at Newcastle," Lees said.

Lees is confident Dal Cielo has mended his ways and will race well on Saturday.

"I have made no secret of the fact I think he is a pretty smart horse but I don't want to rush him."

Yabadabadoo a rock-solid chance in Singapore Sprint

Jockey A'Isisuhairi (Harry) Kasim's hand went bolt upright when he was approached to ride Yabadabadoo (NZ) (Makfi) in tonight's S$250,000 Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (1200m).

Yabadabadoo (NZ) (Makfi)

A'Isisuhairi, a former two-time Singapore champion apprentice jockey, was prepared to be watching the first Leg of the Singapore Three-Year-Old Challenge from the jockeys' room this year until offered the ride on the New Zealand-bred son of Makfi.

"Chopsy (Michael Clements' assistant-trainer Michael White) texted me two weeks ago and asked me if I had a ride in the 3YO Sprint," A'Isisuhairi said.

"I said I didn't have a ride and he mentioned about Yabadabadoo. I put my hand straight up."

At his seventh full season in Singapore since returning from his apprenticeship in New Zealand, A'Isisuhairi said he had been busy familiarising himself with Yabadabadoo.

"I've been working him in the last two weeks, and I galloped him last Thursday. He is a very nice horse who does what he has to do," he said.

of runners for Shane Baertschiger in the S$250,000 Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (1200m) tonight.

Two days later, Baertschiger returns with Best Tothelign (NZ) (Align) in the S$200,000 JBBA Rocket Man Sprint (1200m).

Baertschiger has booked stable jockey and regular partner John Powell for Be Bee while Matthew Kellady jumps on Best Tothelign.

"The 1200m is a bit short for Best Tothelign, he prefers 1400m to a mile. But if they go along, he can finish in the first four with a bit of luck," Baertschiger said.

Byzantine (NZ) (Savabeel)

Lord of Cloud hoping to continue Young's winning run

Desmond Koh's former assistant-trainer Young Keah Yong has been running his own yard since July last year, but had to wait until January 14 to saddle his first winner.

The winning momentum has stayed on the up since with four more winners joining the list shortly after, the latest being Lord Of Cloud (NZ) (Niagara) in a Class 4 Non Premier race over 1000m on March 4.

Lord of Cloud could be the one to give the 40-year-old handler another milestone in the S$250,000 Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (1200m), the first Leg of the Singapore Three-Year-Old Challenge.

With no three-year-old a cut above in this year's batch, Young is heading into today's race with an open mind, but above all, proud to be standing at the threshold of such a significant moment in his young career.

"I actually thought the 1000m would be too short for him at his first race for me, but he still ran well. I think the 1200m of the first Leg is still short for him, but fingers crossed, it'll be okay.

"He won over 1400m for Leticia, and I think that's his best trip. Still, we'll see how he goes on Friday before making any plans about the other Legs – one race at a time."

"He's pulled up well after his last run. Yesterday Troy See (race-rider) galloped him and I was satisfied with his work," Young said.

"My horse has drawn okay in five, but he does not have much gate speed. He won't go forward, Troy will just settle him where he is comfortable."

Colt posts poignant win at Matamata

Emotions ran high in the Matamata birdcage after Byzantine (NZ) (Savabeel) won Wednesday's two-year-old event in the hands of Opie Bosson.

Jockeys wore black armbands in respect of the recent passing of Gloria Autridge, whose son Stephen trains the successful son of Savabeel in partnership with Jamie Richards.

"It means a lot to me to win this race in memory of Gloria, she was a big part of my life growing up," Bosson said. Full story here

Autridge hits milestone on sad day

The Chaser (NZ) (Swiss Ace) produced a bright moment on the saddest of days when he handed Stephen Autridge with his 1000th training success.

While the four-year-old was posting a milestone victory at Wanganui on Thursday, Autridge was attending the funeral of his mother Gloria.

"Obviously it was a tough day sending off Steve's mother Gloria, but for Steve to get his 1000th winner is really good," his training partner Jamie Richards said.

"We planned to go forward from barrier 10 and he got caught out three wide, but Shafiq (Rusof) kept him nice and balanced, got into a rhythm and he quickened for an impressive win."

By Swiss Ace, The Chaser is raced by breeder Gerry Harvey who stands the gelding's sire at his Westbury Stud operation.

"Karyn and I went to the funeral today for Steve's mum, Gloria, at the Matamata Racecourse, where there was a huge crowd to support the family," Te Akau principal David Ellis said.

"For Steve to get his 1000th shortly afterwards is a terrific effort on such a significant day."

Group One filly chasing Adelaide double

Belle du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man) has headed to Australia with fresh legs for a two-race Adelaide campaign.

Belle Du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man)

The Group One performer arrived safely in Melbourne on Wednesday night and was accompanied by her stablemate Monarch Chimes (NZ) (Shinko King).

Runner-up in last season's Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes, Belle du Nord added another top-flight placing to her record this term in the Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m) before finishing a last-start seventh in the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m). Full story here

Alysha Collett

Collett's Singapore hopes realised

A nervous wait for Pukekohe-based jockey Alysha Collett has come to a dream end.

Her long-held hopes have been fulfilled with confirmation that she has been granted a licence by the Singapore Turf Club.

"I'm really stoked, I applied about two months ago so it's been quite nerve-racking," Collett said. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Prom Queen (NZ) (Super Easy)

"She'll run at Te Rapa on April 14 and then into the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes two weeks later," said Kenny Rae, who trains the multiple stakes winner with his wife Lisa and their daughter Krystal Williams.

"After that we'll decide whether she goes to Brisbane. We need to make sure she's on target for a trip." Full story here

Darscape Princess (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Parkes back aboard exciting mare

Johnathan Parkes will renew his association with Darscape Princess (NZ) (Darci Brahma) when the gifted mare attempts to go one better at Group One level next time out at Te Aroha.

The Wanganui jockey has partnered the Marton-trained four-year-old in all five of her wins, but missed the ride last time out at Ellerslie where she passed the stiffest test of her 12-start career with flying colours.

He was committed to Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder), who finished fifth, in the Gr.1 New Zealand Stakes (2000m) while the Queensland-based expatriate Kiwi rider Damian Browne guided Darscape Princess into second. Full story here

Mares on target for Group One

Stablemates Thee Auld Floopie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) and Ruud Not Too

Thee Auld Floopie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

(NZ) (Bernardini) are both in top order ahead of the Gr.1 Fiber Fresh New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Te Aroha on Saturday week.

The Stephen Marsh-trained duo were both unplaced in their lead-up outings in the Gr.2 Japan-New Zealand Trophy (1600m) on rain-affected ground.

"They've come through it well, they both look great and are better for the race, and all they need at Te Aroha are good draws and a good track," Marsh said.

Coulee (NZ) (Gallant Guru)

Time called on Coulee

The racing days of the multiple southern stakes winner Coulee (NZ) (Gallant Guru) are over.

The Gallant Guru mare was retired after she was unplaced when attempting to claim three consecutive Gr.3 South Island Breeders' Stakes (1600m) titles.

"She has been a great mare and has nothing left to prove," said co-trainer Brian Anderton, who bred Coulee with his wife Lorraine and they share in the ownership.

"We could have kept her going, but with the easing of the ground there is not much point really."

Coulee, whose 10 wins also feature the Gr.3 White Robe Lodge Handicap (1600m), is likely to be mated with White Robe Lodge resident Ghibellines in the spring, according to Anderton.

Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel)

Multiple Group One winner Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) won't be part of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman's team in Sydney.

The Zabeel mare has been turned out following her last-start seventh placing in the Gr.1 New Zealand Stakes (2000m).

"She's gone for a spell. She felt the hard track at Ellerslie and that put us on the back foot and ruled out Sydney," Forsman said.

Lizzie L'Amour added the Gr.1 Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m) to her record last month to go with her success in last season's New Zealand Stakes.

Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Carnival focus for Group One winner

Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has been put aside with connections already eyeing next season's Group One carnival at Hastings.

"She's having a break and we know she goes well at Hawke's Bay so she'll likely chase the Triple Crown series there," trainer Shaune Ritchie said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Darci Brahma mare won the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic (1600m) last month before she was unplaced in the Gr.1 Australian Cup (2000m) at Flemington where she suffered a minor fetlock injury.

Stablemate and Listed New Zealand St Leger (2500m) winner Daytona Red (NZ) (Sebring) has also headed to the spelling paddock.

"There's nothing really suitable for him so he'll have a spell and then we'll get him ready for next season," Ritchie said. "He's come a long way, he was still a maiden at the start of the summer."

Milseain's future yet to be confirmed

Plans are undecided for the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m) placegetter Milseain (NZ) (Tavistock).

"We'll keep her ticking over and see how she is in the next few days," co-trainer Andrew Forsman said. "She won't be going to Sydney though and she'll be much better next time in."

Milseain (NZ) (Tavistock)

A sister to the multiple Group One winner Werther (NZ), Milseain has also placed in the Gr.2 Sir Tristram Fillies' Classic (2000m), the Gr.3 Lowland Stakes (2100m) and the Gr.3 Desert Gold Stakes (1600m) this preparation.
