MAY SALE KICKS OFF ON MONDAY

Lot 374 from the 2017 Sale – The broodmare Fledgling who topped her section of the Sale when knocked down for $87,500

Sire power, impeccable female bloodlines and the enviable reputation of the New Zealand thoroughbred's performance on the track are set to combine in New Zealand Bloodstock's Karaka May Sale which commences on Monday, May 7.

51 vendors from across the country have a selection of 518 weanlings, yearlings, two-year-olds, unraced stock, racehorses and broodmares set to be presented to domestic and international buyers.

Hawera-based vendor Dan Myers took top billing by both aggregate and average in the 2017 Sale. Again, selling his entire foal crop, Myers has another 20 quality weanlings in the 2018 catalogue with all signs pointing towards another successful draft.

"Selling our foal crop as weanlings suits us," Myers said.

"It gives us the opportunity to prepare the horses ourselves and if the pinhookers do well we are delighted. This year we've got probably the best draft in the three years that we've been doing this."

Featuring extensively as leading vendor at the Sale over the years, Curraghmore have continuously offered quality drafts.

"We've got another good draft this year. In terms of the horses' physique, they're well up there with the horses we have presented in the past and we're looking forward to putting them in front of buyers," Curraghmore's Gordon Cunningham said.

Cunningham believes the catalogue is receiving better support from breeders selling quality stock. He will offer 29 lots for sale across the two-day catalogue, including nine yearlings.

"We've always offered one or two yearlings, but with the opportunity to have these yearlings eligible for the Karaka Million Series, that gives us a really good option for another group of horses to offer," Cunningham said.

"Many of our draft could have been part of Book 1 or Book 2 in January. We've got fillies by Snitzel and Tavistock and several horses out of stakes-performed mares, so I hope the new concept is a success."

With Cambridge Stud ushering in a new era under the ownership of Brendan and Jo Lindsay, a good selection of 21 broodmares from the famed nursery will be presented.

"With the purchase of Cambridge Stud we bought 84 mares," Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre said.

"It is quite well known that over 40 years Cambridge has built up some very strong families which have carried the stud to success in the sale ring and on the racetrack.

"There are a lot of representatives of those families in the broodmare band. Daughters, Grand-Daughters and even Great Grand-Daughters of those wonderful bloodlines.

Lot 192 from 2017 – The Proisir – Nancho Bella weanling colt from the Haunui Farm draft sold for $65,000

"We felt that as long as we had good representation left with the younger mares at Cambridge, we would be happy to sell a number of them. A couple of them are in foal to Tavistock as well which adds another dimension to it," Plumptre said.

The Karaka May Sale has a strong history of producing quality racetrack performers, profitable pinhooks and quality broodmares.

Among the May Sale graduates in recent years are Group One winners Ladies First ($8,000 yearling), Gingernuts ($5,000 weanling) and I Am A Star ($12,000 weanling).

Singapore star Infantry ($7,000 weanling) and Zorzino ($1,500 broodmare), dam of multiple Group One winner Tarzino are other examples of the quality and value the sale has provided.

Selling commences at 10am on May 7 and 8 with the catalogue available at www.nzb.co.nz

EUROPEAN CHAMPION FOR CAMBRIDGE STUD

The changing of the guard at Cambridge Stud has been ushered in with the addition of an international Group One star to the 2018 stallion roster.

The iconic nursery has purchased the Southern Hemisphere breeding rights to the champion European performer Almanzor (Wootton Bassett).

The triple Group One winner will be syndicated to stand in New Zealand, his arrival coming at a pivotal time for the farm as it moves into its next phase with the recent sale of the property to Brendan and Jo Lindsay.

“Our purchase of Almanzor is a further vote of confidence in the New Zealand industry,” Brendan Lindsay said.

“He will be the first European champion three-year-old since Montjeu to stand in New Zealand, so having access to a horse with his credentials is hugely significant. We will be throwing our full support behind him.”

Trained in France by leading conditioner Jean-Claude Rouget, Almanzor was a debut winner over 1400 metres at two and progressed to win his next two starts, including a 1600-metre Listed event.

As a three-year-old, he established his European champion credentials with Group One wins in three different countries. Almanzor’s first top-level win came in the French Derby (2100m) before defeating the best of the older generation at weight-for-age in Ireland and England.

In a vintage renewal of the Gr.1 Irish Champion Stakes (2000m), Almanzor swooped from near last to defeat seven individual Group One winners. He then completed a five-win sequence with another dominant performance in the Gr.1 Champion Stakes (2000m) at Ascot, downing a field that included four Group One winners.

"Almanzor was a truly outstanding racehorse, he was the highest-rated turf horse in the world in 2016 alongside Winx with a Timeform rating of 133," stud chief executive Henry Plumtre said.

"He displayed an exceptional turn of foot and also has an outcross pedigree which is so sought after by Australasian breeders."

Almanzor is from the first crop of Iffraaj's champion two-year-old son Wootton Bassett, who has quickly established himself as one of the leading sires in France.

He has produced the leading two-year-old of 2017 in Wootton, the current favourite for the Gr.1 French 2000 Guineas (1600m).

Last week the Lindsays, Plumtre and stud manager Marcus Corban travelled to France to inspect Almanzor at Haras d'Etream, where he is currently standing his first season.

"Almanzor is an imposing stallion with a remarkable temperament to go with his physical presence," Corban said. "He's an exceptionally good-looking horse, I couldn't fault him."

Almanzor will stand his first season at Cambridge Stud at a fee of $30,000 + GST alongside champion sire Tavistock ($65,000 + GST) and leading second crop sires Burgundy ($12,000 + GST) and Highly Recommended ($10,000 + GST).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Secret Allure (NZ) (Zacinto)

Prospect of stakes win lures filly south

Promising Zacinto filly Secret Allure (NZ) will attempt to go one-up on her Group One-performed ownership-mate Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy) when she tackles Saturday's Listed Berkley Stud Champagne Stakes (1200m) at Riccarton.

Raced by the same team as Secret Allure, Burgundy filly Dijon Bleu has been one of the star performers of the season with five wins at stakes level and a second in the Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m) before a tendon injury cut her season short.

Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta, who shares in the ownership of both fillies, believes Secret Allure can deliver a Riccarton stakes win this weekend. Full story here

Mongolian Falcon

Fastnet Rock's Group Two-winning son to Willow Glen

Willow Glen's successful association with the Inner Mongolia Rider Horse Industry has gone to another level with the Waimate stud to stand Mongolian Falcon (Fastnet Rock).

Mike and Barbara Cooney's South Island operation will launch the stallion career of the well-performed son of Fastnet Rock, whose promising career was pre-maturely ended by injury.

Rider Horse Industry principal Lang Lin, affectionately known as Mr Wolf because of his love of his pet wolves, has been a regular visitor to Willow Glen. Full story here

Savile Row

Savile Row tailor made for Valachi

The first New Zealand-based son of Makfi will go to stud this year with Savile Row (NZ) to stand at Valachi Downs, the Matamata breeding operation of the stallion's owner Kevin Hickman.

The four-year-old was trained at Ballymore Stables by Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard and won three races over 1200m, including the Listed Hallmark Stud Handicap (1200m).

Savile Row was also a three-time Group One runner-up in the Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m), the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) and the Levin Classic (1600m). Full story here

Ben Currie calls on El-Issa for Ruettiger

Trainer Ben Currie has called on in-form jockey Bobby El-Issa to help turn around the form of stakes-winning sprinter Ruettiger (NZ) (Duporth) in the Listed Gold Coast Cup (1400m).

Currie has a light representation at the Gold Coast but hopes Ruettiger can improve in the Gold Coast Cup.

Formerly with Lee and Anthony Freedman and then Lindsay Park before joining Currie last year, Ruettiger has failed at both his starts since a spell with the latest a 10th at Doomben on a heavy track.

"The wet track didn't suit him last time and he has won at the distance," Currie said.

El-Issa won the Listed Weetwood Handicap (1200m) on the Currie-trained Amanaat (Per Incanto) last month and has ridden winners at the past two Queensland metropolitan Saturday meetings.

Dalghar

Fee increase for Dalghar

A successful year for Brighthill Farm stallion Dalghar will see his 2018 service fee rise from $8000 to $10,000 + GST.

His stand-out performer has been the home-bred Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) and Gr.2 Wellington Guineas (1400m) winner Scott Base.

Dalghar's associate sire Preferment, a multiple Group One-winning son of Zabeel, will stand at $12,500 + GST while Group One producer Perfectly Ready will remain at $3000 + GST.

Status quo at The Oaks

The Oaks Stud have made no changes to their service fees for 2018.

Multiple Group One winner Darci Brahma, who added to his top-flight tally when his daughter Devise won the Haunui Farm WFA Classic (1600m) will again stand at $15,000 while both Niagara and Roc de Cambes remain at $5000 + GST.

Niagara has been to the fore this season with his son Xbox, now in Hong Kong, winning the Gr.2 Waikato Guineas (2000m) while Roc de Cambes' son Vin De Dance triumphed in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

Gold Medals wins Grand Annual Steeplechase

Symon Wilde has fulfilled a lifelong ambition with the victory of Gold Medals (NZ) (Elvstroem) in Warrnambool's Grand Annual Steeplechase.

Living in Warrnambool all his life, the Grand Annual means more to the 38 year-old than if he was to win a Group One race.

Having trained in partnership with his father Bill before going it alone, Wilde has now won four of the big five races at the three-day carnival.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Gold Medals (NZ) (Elvstroem)

Ridden by Clayton Douglas who was having his first ride in the 5500m marathon, Gold Medals ($7) nudged out the $3.50 favourite Zed Em (NZ) (Zed) by a short-head.

Gold Medals won Tuesday's Brierly Steeplechase, becoming the first horse since Frankoo Verymuch (NZ) (Victory Dance) in 2005 to win the double, and Wilde said he was under a bit of pressure not to run.

"A few people didn't want to but I was telling everyone I was happy with the horse and backed my judgement," Wilde said.

"If he didn't win I would have left my head on the chopping block but he's got it done.

"I've now won the Cup, the Wangoom, the Brierly and now the Annual.

I've got the full deck of cards."

Fawn (NZ) (Savabeel)

Te Rapa next for hot staying prospect

Progressive staying mare Fawn (NZ) (Savabeel) will make her next appearance at Te Rapa on Saturday.

The lightly-raced Savabeel four-year-old successfully stepped up to a middle distance for the first time on the course at her latest appearance to further her career record to three wins from six starts.

"She'll run in a Rating 85 over 2100m," trainer Roger James said. "Normally, I use the grading system as well as possible, but I'll jump her up and see if we can get to a nice race as soon as possible."

Tee Train (Savabeel)

Three in a row for Wilde at Warrnambool

Local trainer Symon Wilde is making a habit of winning the two-year-old race on the final day of the Warrnambool carnival.

Tee Train's (Savabeel) victory on Thursday was Wilde's third straight win in the 1200m-race following Rata Tat Tat (Host) in 2016 and Hecta (Canford Cliffs) last year.

Wilde paid $150,000 for Tee Train in New Zealand as a yearling from the draft of Little Avondale Stud and is now eyeing a spring campaign with the colt.

"The plan was always to run in this race and then win, lose or draw to head to the paddock," Wilde said.

"He might make a Derby colt as he's got the best constitution, he's sound and he hasn't had one problem through the prep.

"I'm looking forward to getting him to the paddock and seeing what he can do in the spring."

Wilde said the colt was owned by the same ownership group that scored with Hecta last year.

He said they were happy to pay the extra price in an effort to land the prize again.

"Good luck to them," Wilde said.

"They've put the trust in us to find them a good colt and I think we have."

The Dominator wins 'Bool epic

A pair of former New Zealand-trained gallopers fought out one of the most stirring finishes from the first two days of the Warrnambool carnival when The Dominator (NZ) (Thewayouare) prevailed narrowly from a fast-finishing King Kamada (NZ) (Shinko King) in the Decron Dunroe BM120 Steeplechase (3450m) at Warrnambool on Wednesday.

Previously known as Domination in New Zealand when trained by Chris McNab, The Dominator was the sole runner at the carnival for Caulfield conditioner Henry Dwyer.

A free-going galloper, The Dominator lead throughout and withstood the late challenge of 2015 Gr.1 Auckland Cup (3200m) runner-up King Kamada, who these days is trained in Victoria by Kathryn Durden. Full story here

Surrey (High Chaparral)

Cup queen's son does mother proud

One of the greats of the Australian turf has made a dashing impact in New Zealand.

A son of the three-time Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) heroine Makybe Diva (Desert King) made his long-awaited debut at Matamata on Wednesday and won in the style befitting of his illustrious parentage.

The Team Rogerson-trained Surrey (High Chaparral) stepped out for the first time in the Murray Wilcox Ltd Maiden (1600m) and a wide run did nothing to blunt the High Chaparral five-year-old showing a glimpse of the family talent. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

A Gr.1 Australian Guineas (2000m) winner for trainer Clarry Connors, he retired to the Matamata farm in 2000 and enjoyed an outstanding career.

"I was on course the day he won and knew then that he would be a great horse to be a part of and he has been such a great stallion for us for the past 18 years," stud principal Mark Chittick said. Full story here

Sherrif (NZ) (High Chaparral)

Green light for Sherrif's Derby bid

Roger James is on the trail of further Group success in Adelaide.

The Cambridge trainer has confirmed a tilt at Saturday week's Gr.1 South Australian Derby (2500m) at Morphettville with his exciting staying three-year-old Sherrif (NZ) (High Chaparral).

"All going well he will be on the plane on Sunday to Melbourne and go from there," James said. "It's a bit of an ask to do it all on one preparation, but I'm very happy with him." Full story here

Alex Shin

Shin lands Mighty Solomon ride

Central districts apprentice Alex Shin will ride at Te Rapa for the first time when he pilots Group One performer Mighty Solomon (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in Saturday's Team Wealleans 1200.

Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta has opted to use Shin's 3kg claim to get weight relief from the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile-placed Darci Brahma seven-year-old's carded weight of 61.5kg for the Rating 85 sprint.

"He was a bit disappointing first-up, but he needed the run," Latta said.

"I hadn't expected this race to come up such a strong race. We've taken weight off his back and we'll try and give him some confidence. He's an older horse now and he's better with the sting out of the ground. We'll just take each race as it comes with him this preparation."

Sacred Master (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Group winner on Cup trail again

Talented stayer Sacred Master (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) will head Tony Pike's travelling party to the Queensland winter carnival.

The Gr.3 Newcastle Cup (2200m) and Gr.1 Auckland Cup (3200m) placegetter will be accompanied to Brisbane by the three-year-olds Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) and Terra Sancta (NZ) (Pierro).

"Sacred Master had a trial at Te Teko the other day and we'll give him two runs before the Brisbane Cup, he'll probably need them both and his third-up form is pretty good," Pike said. Full story here

Doomben ideal for Time Lord

Richard Collett believes his stakes performer Time Lord (NZ) (Guillotine) will be in his element in Brisbane.

The Pukekohe Park trainer has the prized Queensland winter carnival three-year-old series on the Guillotine gelding's programme.

"He handles wet ground and he can race on the speed so Doomben will suit him," Collett said.

"He'll run in the Rough Habit Plate on Saturday week and, all going well, the Grand Prix Stakes and then into the Queensland Derby.

Time Lord (NZ) (Guillotine)

"I haven't worked out a rider yet, but there's no shortage of good jockeys over there."

Time Lord finished second against the older horses two starts back before he was a solid third on his home track behind stablemate Azaboy (NZ) (Azamour) in the Gr.2 Championship Stakes (2100m).

"The best two runs of his preparation have been his last two and he's come through that last race really well," Collett said.

Plans for Azaboy have yet to be confirmed, although a spell is likely for the son of Azamour.

Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Thorndon Mile winner retired

Group One winner Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) has run her last race.

The six-year-old signed off on Saturday when she finished a game sixth in the Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa.

"She just doesn't quite get the 2000m, but she's been a great mare for the stable," part-owner and trainer Stephen Marsh said.

"She was pretty straight forward to deal with and we never had much go wrong with her." Full story here

Debt Collector (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Rayas (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Clarify (NZ) (Savabeel)

Debt Collector returns to Singapore this Sunday

Champion galloper Debt Collector (NZ) (Thorn Park) is on his way back.

The 2016 Singapore Horse of the Year was sent to Australia last December after some below-par runs prompted trainer Cliff Brown and connections to decide on a change of scenery in a hope to bring the spark back in the multiple-Group winner.

They chose Newhaven Park in New South Wales, the same place where Brown sent his former champion sprinter Zac Spirit for a similar spot of rejuvenation in 2015. The only difference to that blueprint was that Zac Spirit went there on a post-op rehab while Debt Collector was sound as a bell, he just needed a sea-change.

"Debt Collector was happy just being a horse in a farm with paddock mates. He was kicking and squealing like a young horse," said Tim Fitzsimmons, Brown's assistant-trainer.

"We got regular updates from John Kelly, the owner of Newhaven Park, who is a good friend of Cliff's. He has basically thrived over there, has enjoyed a new lease of life.

"He lands back in Singapore this Sunday and will be in quarantine for two weeks. We will then slowly bring him back."

Fitzsimmons said that the whole rebooting plan in Australia was to hopefully get the Debt Collector of old in good time when the International Kranji Mile (1600m) is rolled out in 2019.

Smart Rayas Rotorua-bound

Gifted mare Rayas (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) is on the hunt for more black type.

She finished runner-up in last season's Gr.3 Wellington Stakes (1600m) and next month's Gr.3 ISCL Rotorua Stakes (1400m) is now the likely target for the daughter of Rip

Van Winkle.

"The fillies and mares' race on May 12 should suit her quite well and she deserves a crack at it," trainer Shane Brown said. Full story here

Mark Two (NZ) (Pins)

Queensland plans scrapped

Brisbane campaigns for smart fillies Mark Two (NZ) (Pins) and Pierrocity (Pierro) have been ruled out.

Trainer Stephen Marsh had been considering tilts at the Gr.1 Queensland Oaks (2400m) but has decided to spell the pair.

"They've both come a relatively long way in a short time so they've gone to the paddock," he said.

Mark Two was runner-up in the Gr.2 Sir Tristram Fillies' Classic (2000m) and finished fifth in the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m) at just her fourth appearance while Pierrocity has won once and was a last-start fourth in the Gr.2 Championship Stakes (2100m).

Stablemate Chocante's (NZ) (Shocking) Queensland winter carnival campaign is also off.

The Group One performer has suffered a tendon injury and will return home immediately.

Clarify crosses the Tasman

Group winner Clarify (NZ) (Savabeel) will do his future racing in Australia.

Raced by the Smithies family of Monovale Farm, the son of Savabeel won five races for Matamata trainer Peter McKay including the Gr.3 Manawatu Cup (2100m) before joining Wayne Walters' Mt Gambier stable.

"It was a business decision to chase the better prize-money and we usually send up to half a dozen horses a year to Wayne," Joe Smithies said.

The association has had black type success in the past with No Tricks, also by Savabeel, winning the Listed Daybreak Lover (1800m) at the Gold Coast a couple of seasons back.

Belle Du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man)

Break for Belle Du Nord

Belle Du Nord's (NZ) (Reliable Man) connections have decided against a start in Saturday's Gr.1 Schweppes Oaks (2000m) at Morphettville with the filly to return home for a spell.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"She's showing signs of coming to the end of her preparation, it's been a long campaign for her," said David Browne, who prepares the Group One-performed daughter of Reliable Man with his wife Emma-Lee.

Belle Du Nord's two Adelaide outings resulted in a fifth in the Listed Laelia Stakes (1600m) before a last-start third in the Gr.3 Schweppervescence Stakes (1600m).

Collett to ride Kiwi hope in Kranji Mile

Expatriate New Zealand jockey Jason Collett has been booked to ride Ocean Emperor (NZ) (Zabeel) in Singapore next month.

He will combine with the Gary Hennessy-trained son of Zabeel in the S$1.5 million Kranji Mile (1600m) on May 26.

Jason Collett

A last-start winner of the Gr.2 Japan/New Zealand International Trophy (1600m), Ocean Emperor is booked to fly to Singapore on May 17 and will be accompanied by his regular work rider, apprentice Tui Miles.

Stayer continues Te Akau roll

Torcedor (Fastnet Rock) completed a unique treble overnight when he triumphed in the Gr.3 Sagaro Stakes (3000m) at Ascot.

"In the last five days, we have won Group races in three different countries starting in Singapore last Friday night with Distinctive Darci winning a Group Two, we then won the Travis Stakes with Our Abaddean and now Torcedor," Te Akau principal David Ellis said.

"Torcedor was a horse I paid 70,000 euros for at Deauville in France and had him syndicated before he was even on our website." Full story here
