I AM A STAR READY TO SHINE

Group One filly I Am A Star tackles the UBET Classic (1200m) at Morphettville tomorrow.

Trainer Shane Nichols is confident his Group One winning filly I Am A Star (NZ) (I Am Invincible) is ready to add another elite level victory to her already impressive resume in Saturday's Gr.1 UBET Classic (1200m) at Morphettville.

"I couldn't be happier with her," Nichols said.

"Physically she looks super, she's going to present nicely in the yard.

"Her work's been good and she's freshened up pretty well. We've got a good gate, we just want a firm track which we should be presented with, so everything looks in order."

Nichols believes the heavy track at Randwick in the Doncaster Mile was the reason behind her disappointing 8th placing.

"She just didn't like the wet track," the trainer said.

"The only chink in her armour is wet tracks."

I Am A Star is a graduate of the New Zealand Bloodstock 2014 National Weanling, Broodmare & Mixed Bloodstock Sale, where she was knocked down for just $12,000. The 2017 sale starts on Monday.

Meanwhile fellow New Zealand bred Lake Como (NZ) (Pins) and Legless Veuve (NZ) (Pins) both bring strong form and are good each-way prospects in an open race.

HEROIC VALOUR ON TARGET FOR GUINEAS

Co-trainer Jamie Richards is hopeful Kiwi raider Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) can continue the stable's good start to the Brisbane winter carnival in the Gr. 3 Gold Coast Guineas tomorrow.

Richards and fellow Kiwi trainer Steve Autridge teamed up two years ago to head up Te Akau Racing in Matamata and have brought a small team to Queensland for the winter.

The pair started the winter carnival on a strong note when Shocking Luck (NZ) (Shocking) finished second at Ipswich on Monday.

Shocking Luck is taking the traditional route to the Gr. 1 Queensland Derby at Eagle Farm in June via the Rough Habit Plate and Grand Prix Stakes.

Richards said the stable had intentions to run Heroic Valour in next week's Gr.1 Doomben

10,000 and have nominated the colt for the Gr.1 Stradbroke Handicap (1400m) at Eagle Farm on June 10.

"We were going to run him in the Doomben 10,000 before it was changed so it doesn't suit him now," Richards said.

"In the meantime, he'll stay in his own age group or he can run in the Kingsford-Smith Cup.

"But we want to see how he comes through his Gold Coast Guineas run first."

The Gr.1 Kingsford Smith Cup (1300m) will be run at Doomben on May 27 while the Gr.1 Stradbroke Handicap (1400m) will be run at Eagle Farm on June 10.

Richards is on his first trip to Queensland as a trainer and is delighted with Heroic Valour's progress since his last start fourth in the Gr.1 NRM Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa on February 11.

Heroic Valour steps out in the Gr. 3 Gold Coast Guineas tomorrow

"He had every chance last run but it was a good run for a three-year-old and it was also the first time he raced at weight-for-age," Richards said.

Heroic Valour has won four of his 10 starts including the Gr. 1 Sistema Diamond Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie in March last year.

"We had him stabled at Eagle Farm but we decided to bring him to the Gold Coast early because some construction work is still going on there," Richards said.

"He's done enough work to be a show in the Guineas and he trialled well when third in a barrier trial at Hawkesbury last week.

"But it's always hard taking on the Aussies in sprint races."

NZ WEANLING & BROODMARE SALE STARTS MONDAY

New Zealand Bloodstock's National Weanling, Broodmare & Mixed Bloodstock Sale starts on Monday.

The Sale will this year be compacted into two action-packed days of selling on the 8th and 9th of May, with a total of 484 horses catalogued. The first day will be made up entirely of Weanlings, with 220 lots set to go under the hammer. Another 75 Weanlings are scheduled to be sold on the second day, followed by Yearlings (10), Two-Year-Olds (4), Unraced Stock (1), Racehorses (7), Stallion Shares (6) and Broodmares (161). An additional weanling, yearling and two broodmares are catalogued in the supplementary catalogue.

The quality of this Sale has been spectacularly showcased by Group One winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj), who was knocked down for just $5000 to the bid of Phill Cataldo at the 2014 Sale. Now raced by his Ready to Run Sale purchasers Te Akau Racing, Gingernuts won the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby and the Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas in a stellar three-year-old campaign.

Top-class three-year-old filly I Am A Star (NZ) (I Am Invincible) was also purchased for just $12,000 at the 2014 Sale and is the winner of five stakes races including the Gr.1 Myer Classic at Flemington during Melbourne Cup week.

Last year's leading vendor Curraghmore is one of 51 proven and highly respected New Zealand thoroughbred nurseries to offer a draft.

"We're confident that our draft this year offers as much potential as those we've previously taken to Karaka," Curraghmore proprietor Gordon Cunningham said.

Cunningham believes the Weanling, Broodmare & Mixed Bloodstock Sale is going from strength to strength with every passing year.

"From a buying perspective, I have no doubt that there is more opportunity for pin-hooking value at Karaka in May than at any other sale throughout Australasia," he said. "We see it every year."

WINNING COMBINATION REUNITE IN QUEENSLAND

Old friends will be reunited at the Gold Coast on Saturday when Addictive Habit (NZ) (Colombia) returns to action.

The Group One winner will be ridden by Michael Cahill when he resumes after a long lay-off in the Listed Prime Minister's Cup.

"He won on him the last time we were over there in 2015 so it's lovely to have him on again- he's a very good senior rider and I'm really looking forward to it," trainer Lee Somervell said.

"We'll see what happens on Saturday and take it a race at a time, but he will get into whatever races we want to look at."

Addictive Habit, who won a Listed race on his previous visit to Brisbane, will be making his first appearance for 15 months after being side-lined by a tendon injury.

"It will be a tough first-up task over 1400 metres, but he's proved before that he can do it and I'm very happy with the horse," Somervell said.

"It's been a long road back and he was on the walker for five months before we stepped his work up.

"He's had two trials and was a nice third over a 1000 metres at Cambridge in March and then he won an open 1200 at Te Awamutu very impressively."

Addictive Habit confirmed his readiness for the Queensland winter carnival with a strong hit-out between races at Te Rapa last Saturday.

"He had a good exhibition gallop and ran home well over the last 1000 metres, he's looking good again," Somervell said.

One of a number of Kiwi raiders who flew to Brisbane yesterday, Addictive Habit has won 11 races with his career highlight a Group One victory in the 2015 Spring Classic at Hawke's Bay.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Aerovelocidad (NZ) (Pins)

Aerovelocidad set for Chairman's farewell

Top New Zealand-bred sprinter Aerovelocidad (NZ) (Pins) will make his last race day appearance in the Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize at Sha Tin on Sunday provided he proves his fitness to Hong Kong stewards.

The multiple Group One winner earned a shot at a final top-flight prize with his recent runner-up finish in a 1200 metre trial.

"He's not as good as he once was, he's rising nine years old, but he trialled well enough and we think he can go to the races and acquit himself well," trainer Paul O'Sullivan said.

A son of Pins, Aerovelocidad's CV features Group One wins in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen, the KrisFlyer International Sprint, the Hong Kong Sprint and the Centenary Sprint Cup.

Aerovelocidad has drawn barrier 10 in a 12 horse field with fellow New Zealand-bred Amazing Kids (NZ) (Falkirk) to jump from barrier six.

However, yesterday the Jockey Club Veterinary Officer informed stewards that an inspection of Aerovelocidad found the horse to be lame in the right front leg. Aerovelocidad will continue to be monitored and a further release will be issued at the appropriate time.

Oaks challenge for Savvy Dreams

New Zealand Oaks placegetter Savvy Dreams (NZ) (Savabeel) will be looking to put a disappointing Australian debut behind her when she lines up in Saturday's Gr. 1 Schweppes Oaks at Morphettville.

Savvy Dreams finished 10th in the Gr.3 Auraria Stakes a fortnight ago and faces a stiff task to turn the tables on impressive winner Kenedna (Not A Single Doubt).

"She was a bit disappointing," co-trainer Grant Cullen said. "But she was a bit slow out of the gates and struck interference in the back straight."

Craig Williams will ride Savvy Dreams, taking the reins from Paul Gatt.

Eminent (Frankel)

NZ-owned colt chasing historic Guineas win

New Zealander Sir Peter Vela is a great student of racing history so he well knows the significance of what his colt is on the cusp of achieving this weekend.

Sir Peter races the Frankel colt Eminent, a $5 fourth favourite for the Gr.1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket on Sunday morning (NZ time).

Trained by Martyn Meade, Eminent followed an easy 2 3/4-length debut win at Newmarket in maiden company with a 1 3/4-length win in the Gr.3 Craven Stakes at the same track last start over the 2000 Guineas distance of a mile. Full story here.

Harlow Gold (NZ) (Tavistock)

Oaks draw only negative for Kiwi-bred filly

Co-trainer Ben Hayes expects a bold showing from Harlow Gold (NZ) (Tavistock) in tomorrow's Gr.1 Australasian Oaks despite an outside draw.

The daughter of Tavistock will be chasing a first top-flight victory following Group One placings in the VRC Oaks and more recently the Vinery Stud Stakes in Sydney.

"She has done really well and I think the heavy tracks up in Sydney didn't really suit her," Hayes said.

"She looks to have freshened up well and she worked well on Monday morning, working home nicely on the bridle."

Harlow Gold finished fourth last time out behind the New Zealand filly Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi) in the Gr.1 Australian Oaks.

Not Usual Trip (Stryker)

Brisbane incentive for Not Usual Trip

Northland trainers Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs might double their hand for next month's Gr.1 J.J. Atkins Stakes in Brisbane if promising youngster Not Usual Trip (Stryker) can stay unbeaten at Te Rapa on Saturday.

The two-year-old son of Stryker followed an Avondale trial win with a decisive 3 1/4-length Ellerslie win on debut to earn a start in tomorrow's Listed Waikato Equine Veterinary Centre Stakes (1100m) at Te Rapa.

"We were very impressed," Gibbs said.

"He was a bit green and I thought the Te Akau horse [runner-up Embellish] had us well covered on the home bend but I was stoked to see him show that turn of foot."

Moroney with chances in three states

Queensland plans have been put on the backburner for the Mike Moroney-trained War Legend (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) who will instead run on his home track at Flemington.

War Legend finished sixth in the Gr.3 Easter Cup (2000m) last start at Caulfield after which connections decided to keep him home in Victoria, at least for the time being.

"We were planning on getting him up to Queensland but just on his last run we decided to stay here with an idea of going to this 1800-metre race on Saturday and then we can either go to Adelaide back to a mile or stay at this sort of distance in Victoria," Moroney said.

"I think he just wants a bit of give in the ground and he wants a big track.

"Caulfield was just too tight for him, mainly. It wasn't the distance (of the Easter Cup), it was just the tightness of the track. And we just want to get a bit of give in the ground shortly." Full story here.

Josh Oliver gets chance in big time

Jockey Josh Oliver's bond with tough mare Col 'N' Lil (Bradbury's Luck) has earned him a shot at the biggest win of his career at the Gold Coast.

Oliver, who has ridden around 110 winners since coming to Toowoomba from New Zealand about 16 months ago, has been entrusted with the ride on Col 'N' Lil in tomorrow's Group Two Hollindale Stakes (1800m).

He was apprenticed to Col 'N' Lil's trainer Ben Currie who has stuck by him since he came out of his time four months ago.

Oliver and Col 'N' Lil combined to share victory with Jumbo Prince (Outback Prince) in the Listed Weetwood Handicap at Toowoomba on April 8.

Last time out Col 'N' Lil ran second, half a length behind Group One winner Single Gaze (Not A Single Doubt) in the Tails Quality (1600m) at Doomben.

"I think Josh has ridden Col 'N' Lil six times for two wins and two seconds. He knows her and she goes well for him so why change," Currie said.

Oliver will have three other rides for Currie on Saturday including improving mare Kuznetsova (Not A Single Doubt) in the Prime Minister's Cup.

"This is a harder race for her but she has been good lately and we are after black type for her," Oliver said.

Drums beating for Ringo at Riccarton

Group One performer Ringo (NZ) (Fastnet

Rock) will contest Saturday's Listed Speight's Mid Ale Great Easter Stakes (1400m) at Riccarton as part of Awapuni trainer Mike Breslin's master plan to secure the horse an elite-level win at Hastings next spring.

"He's only having a very light autumn campaign," Breslin said.

"He'll have this one at Riccarton on Saturday and then go to the weight-for-age race at Wanganui [Listed Ag Challenge Stakes on June 3] and then go out again with a view to targeting the Hawke's Bay Carnival."

Top Of The Range on trial for Qld Derby

Queensland Derby hopes will be put to the test when Top Of The Range (NZ) (Savabeel) races in the clockwise direction for the first time at Rosehill.

The lightly raced Mike Moroney-trained gelding has won both his starts this campaign, a Pakenham maiden and Sandown midweek race, and the Flemington trainer believes the interstate trip could be the making of the three-year-old.

Saturday's Sydney Markets Foundation Handicap (1800m), in which Top Of The Range will again be ridden by Patrick Moloney, will provide a stepping stone to a potential Queensland Derby tilt.

"Patrick is going to go up there to ride him and it was his choice," Moroney said.

"He wants to follow him and thinks he's pretty good.

"We're half-way to Queensland with him so if he does happen to win or go well right-handed, and we're happy with him, then we'll probably box on and have a go at the three-year-old staying races up there."

Trainers banking on class factor

Trainers Graeme and Debbie Rogerson are relying on Legramor's (NZ) (Commands) quality to overcome an interrupted preparation when the well-bred filly runs at Te Rapa this weekend.

"She's had an unorthodox preparation in that she missed out when the races were abandoned the other week and then she missed a run last Saturday," said Debbie Rogerson, referring to Legramor's failure to make the field for the Gr.3 Cambridge Breeders' Stakes.

"She's forward and a very good filly, hopefully her class gets her through."

By Commands out of the dual Group One winner Katie Lee (NZ) (Pins), Legramor will be out to double her winning tally in the Topsoil & Sand Supplies 1200 tomorrow after breaking her maiden at her second start.

Zed Em (NZ) (Zed)

Kiwi jumper earns gold medal for bravery

The never say die attitude of the New Zealand-owned jumper Zed Em (NZ) (Zed) has earned him the biggest win of his career.

Wanganui trainer Kevin Myers' decision to send the jumper to his long-time friend Patrick Payne's Victoria operation has proved a masterstroke, resulting in success on Tuesday in the Brierly Steeplechase at Warrnambool.

Zed Em made the running under Steve Pateman and had to dig deep when he was under siege 100 metres from home by Now And Zen (Zenno Rob Roy).

"All credit goes to Patrick Payne. He's a master and when he combines with Kevin Myers he's always hard to beat," Pateman said.

The Payne-Myers combination looked set to figure in yesterday's Grand Annual finish when Slowpoke Rodriguez (NZ) (Istidaad) loomed ominously before parting ways with rider Shaun Fannin at the last.

Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Griffin makes perfect start

A Group One pedigree was to the fore at Matamata where Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj) opened his career in perfect fashion.

The well-related son of Iffraaj was overlooked in the betting, but the chestnut defied Wednesday's market to impressively win the Don Griffith Trenching Ltd 1200.

NEWS IN BRIEF

A brother to stablemate and dual Group One New Zealand Derby and Rosehill Guineas winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj), Griffin is now likely to be spelled in preparation for his three-year-old season.

"Both of his more recent trials were pretty good and we were going to put him out, but he did deserve a crack at this," said Stephen Autridge, who trains with Jamie Richards.

A tardy start resulted in Griffin settling further off the pace than anticipated, but it made no difference to the 16-1 chance and he finished strongly in the straight to down the favourite Mongolian Beauty (Fastnet Rock).

"He got to the line really well, and like his brother, the further he goes the better he'll be," Autridge said.

Griffin was purchased by Te Akau principal David Ellis from Taranaki breeder Chris Thompson for $90,000 through Gavelhouse.com. Thompson has retained 10 per cent and is among the Te Akau Slam Dunk Syndicate which race the promising chestnut.

Blue Shadow (NZ) (Dalghar) will be given opportunities to add to her winning record following her runaway maiden success at Matamata on Wednesday.

The Dalghar filly produced a dominant performance in the hands of Michael Coleman to take top honours in the Duncan & Ebbett 1200 at just her second race day appearance.

"She's got some wheels and she got away nicely and wasn't far away," trainer Graeme Hughes said.

"He got her out at the right time and she did the rest. It's taken ages to get her to the races and the owner wants her to carry on, she can handle the wet tracks."

Lincoln Road bounces back

New Zealand-bred five-year-old Lincoln Road (NZ) (Swiss Ace) has returned to winning form in Singapore with success over 1100 metres at Kranji on Monday evening.

Placed in a handful of starts for Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta, the Swiss Ace gelding was unbeaten in his first five appearances for Shane Baertschiger before losing his way.

"He had joint problems, which explained why he went through a bit of a slump in form, but he's bounced back now," Baertschiger said.

Raced by John Street's Lincoln Farms Stable, Lincoln Road's stake earnings have now topped the $410,000 mark.

Kiwi plays role with leading Kentucky Derby contender

New Zealander Steven Nicholson is about to live the dream of many a horseman - to watch a three-year-old he bred step out in this weekend's Gr.1 Kentucky Derby.

Nicholson and his wife Brandi, who hails from the neighbouring state of Indiana, are the breeders of Classic Empire (Pioneer of the Nile), last season's North American champion two-year-old male and who is likely to contest favouritism in the Derby.

The Nicholsons operate Silver Fern Farm, near Versailles, in the heartland of the Kentucky breeding region. Full story here.

Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Trainer not euphoric, but still Australia bound

Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) will get her chance to atone for a below par performance at her last start when she makes her next appearance in Queensland.

The filly was unplaced in the Gr.3 Cambridge Breeders' Stakes, but trainer Rachael Frost is prepared to forgive the three-year-old her Te Rapa failure.

"She wasn't that far off them, but I was still a little bit disappointed," she said.

"She got a bit fired up and she did draw wide, which didn't help. She pulled up well though so she's on her way."

Frost will set Euphoria a modest first-up task in Australia in the hope of an early strike. Full story here.

Brisbane trip integral to sprinter's future plans

Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards have domestic Group One ambitions for Jimmy Rea (NZ) (Thewayyouare) next season and an upcoming trip to Queensland is part of the comeback process for the five-year-old.

Bizzwinkle (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Lammas back in winning groove

Cameron Lammas returned from suspension on Wednesday at Matamata where he immediately made his mark at long odds in the opening event.

He got the best out of the Glenn Old-trained Bizzwinkle (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle), who was at odds of 40-1 in the Marks Ewen & Associates 2000 after unplaced runs at his first two starts.

"I've lost a bit of fitness, I'm a bit bugged after that," Lammas said.

While punters were rocked by the result, Old wasn't surprised.

"We were quite confident last time at Taupo, but he missed the jump and got back in the ruck and never had a chance," he said.

Lammas managed a winning treble taking out the NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race Rating 65 on Endean Express (NZ) (Fast 'N' Famous) and the Challenge Matamata 1600 on Tweedledee (NZ) (Zed).

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Matamata trainers have taken charge of the son of Thewayouare from Te Akau's Singapore trainer Mark Walker, who prepared him to win six of his 13 starts before he was side-lined.

"He's a very good horse who got injured and that's why he came home and he's in really good order again," Richards said. Full story here.

Rayner back to Brisbane with Group One star

Evan Rayner has enjoyed past Queensland winter carnival success and he is set for a return after a more than 20-year absence.

The Wanganui horseman, who trains with his daughter J.J., promises to make an impact with the star sprinter Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder) and his travelling companion, the unbeaten Flying Fred (NZ) (Fully Fledged).

"Start Wondering is doing everything right and he had a good gallop this morning and wouldn't have blown a match out afterwards," Rayner said. Full story here.

Sound Proposition (NZ) (Savabeel)

Quality Matamata galloper booked for Brisbane

Group One winner Sound Proposition (NZ) (Savabeel) is on the trail of a Queensland winter carnival feature.

"The owners are keen to have a crack at the Doomben Cup first-up," said Lance O'Sullivan, who trains in partnership with Andrew Scott.

"It's probably the toughest one, but if for any reason he didn't measure up then he can always go back to handicaps."

The Gr.1 Doomben Cup will be run under weight-for-age conditions over 2000 metres on May 20. Full story here.

Break for leading mare

Group One winner Charmont (High Chaparral) has gone to the paddock.

She made her breakthrough at the highest level when she claimed the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes at Te Rapa for breeder-owner Bob Emery.

Charmont (High Chaparral)

Charmont was tripped up by the rain-affected going at Te Rapa last Saturday when she was unplaced in the Gr.2 Travis Stakes.

"She looked a bit awkward in her action and Matt (Cameron) said she wasn't comfortable in the ground," said Andrew Forsman, who trains in partnership with Murray Baker.

Let Me Roar (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Time called on talented mare

Connections of black type performer Let Me Roar (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) have been left to ponder what might have been in the wake of her recent retirement.

The curtain has come down on her brief, but successful career and the well-related four-year-old will be a valuable addition to owner Windsor Park Stud's broodmare band.

"She's had a lot of leg issues and they've finally got to her," said Andrew Forsman, who trains in partnership with Murray Baker.

Melbourne Cup again on top stayer's programme

It will be two-mile business as usual for Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) later this year.

The durable New Zealand-bred and owned stayer has an outstanding record over the ultimate flat distance and one which he recently added to with his gallant second in the Gr.1 Sydney Cup.

Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital)

The Chris Waller-trained son of Yamanin Vital beat all bar the English visitor Polarisation (Echo of Light), who was in receipt of five and a half kilos. Full story here.

Smart mare changes hands

Bonniegirl (NZ) (Darci Brahma) will race in new ownership when she chases further black type success in the Gr.3 Classic Cuisine Rotorua Stakes on Saturday week.

The daughter of Darci Brahma was an impressive winner of the Listed New Zealand Bloodstock Finance Sprint when she resumed at Hastings last month.

The five-year-old has subsequently been purchased by prominent owner-breeder Sir Owen Glenn.

A half-sister to the Gr.3 Mr Tiz Trophy winner So Wotif (NZ) (Iffraaj), the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained Bonniegirl has won six of her 16 starts.

George leaving ARC role

A changing of the guard is forthcoming at the Auckland Racing Club.

Chief executive officer Cameron George has resigned after joining the operation in August, 2012.

"Cameron has been an outstanding chief executive officer," ARC chairman Paul Kenny said.

"The board and I are deeply appreciative of his determination to see both his, and our, collective aspirations for the club bear fruit.

"While we are sorry to see him leave, we wish him every success with his next venture."

Mr George officially finishes with the Club on Friday, June 30, and is moving on to the role of chief operating officer with the New Zealand Vodafone Warriors.

Accordingly, ARC financial officer Tim Gillespie has been announced as acting chief executive officer from the date of Cameron's departure.

NEW ZEALAND RACING HALL OF FAME

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Bill Hazlett

A South Island high country farmer, "Big Bill" also played for the All Blacks, and was as close to the complete horseman as you will get.

Bill was a successful trainer, a dominant breeder and the owner of over 1000 winners. In the 1960s, with Bill Hillis as his private trainer, Bill achieved the remarkable feat of leading owner for six consecutive seasons.

Perhaps his best performed and certainly most versatile performers was Eiffel Tower, who won the Wellington Cup on the flat, and went on to win two Grand National Hurdles and a Great Northern Steeplechase.
