STRONG HAND FOR WALLER IN QUEENSLAND OAKS

Savabeel filly Savacool is one of the main chances from the Chris Waller stable in Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Oaks

Hall Of Fame trainer Chris Waller holds a strong hand going into Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Oaks (2200m) at Doomben.

The Sydney-based conditioner will have five chances in the Classic race, led by two New Zealand-bred fillies in Savacool (NZ) (Savabeel) and Another Dollar (NZ) (Ocean Park), and last-start Gr.2 The Roses (2000m) winner Youngstar (High Chaparral).

Another Dollar finished runner-up in that race, but had to do a lot more work than her counterpart according to Waller.

"She would have made it interesting had she had Youngstar's run last start, she ran second to her – beaten by two or three lengths. Youngstar looked the flashy winner. Another Dollar, go and have a look at her replay and see how much work she did," Waller said.

"I am not as confident with her getting the 2200m as I am with Youngstar. She is a fit horse, Paul Shailer keeps on telling me how clean-winded she is and that is a great sign for a three-year-old filly. They tend to run beyond their actual distance range as an older horse when they are three."

Meanwhile, Waller is optimistic with Savabeel filly Savacool despite her luckless last-start seventh placing in the Gr.1 Schweppes Oaks (2000m).

"A month ago we would have said she would have been our number one pick on exposed form," Waller said. "But she just had no luck in Adelaide.

"She has bunny hopped her way to Queensland. She went from there to Flemington, from Flemington to Rosehill and from Rosehill to the Gold Coast.

"We take that into consideration when we are adjusting their training. She looks great, she had a breeze-up at Gold Coast Thursday morning and reportedly worked well, so she'll be there, it's an awkward gate though that's the only thing."

Seven of the 16 runners in Saturday's Queensland Oaks are New Zealand-bred, with Group One winner Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) the highest-rated filly in the field.

TOP MARE ENJOYS SMOOTH DOOMBEN PREPARATION

Volpe Veloce's (Foxwedge) quest for a Group One victory in Queensland to go with her domestic success at the top level is all going to plan.

Co-trainer Graham Richardson said the stable star had travelled well to Brisbane and was in grand order for her Australian debut at Doomben this weekend.

"We're very happy with her, she's well in herself and looking great."

The winner of the Gr.1 Railway (1200m) at Ellerslie earlier this year before a break, Volpe Veloce resumed with a second placing behind the talented Love Affair (NZ) (Savabeel), who was in receipt of four and a-half kilos, at Te Rapa last month.

Richardson said the timing of Saturday's Gr.1 Kingsford-Smith Cup (1350m) was perfect for the daughter of Foxwedge, who will again be ridden by Jake Bayliss from barrier eight.

"She's much better off with her races spaced out."

With that in mind, Volpe Veloce is likely to make her following appearance in the Gr.1 Tatts Tiara (1400m) back at Doomben on June 23.

Stablemate Wildflower (NZ) (Keeper) is also in prime condition for Saturday's Gr.3 Premier's Cup (2200m).

The Sir Peter Vela-owned Keeper mare has Group One placings in the Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m) and the Auckland Cup (3200m) from her last two appearances.

"She won a trial at Deagon very well the other day and she also won a trial in New Zealand before she came over - she's forward," said Richardson, who trains in partnership with Gavin Parker.

"She looks well-placed on Saturday and there's a lot of options for her after this."

GROUP TWO WINNER WAR DECREE RETIRES TO INGLEWOOD

In a major boost for New Zealand breeding, Inglewood Stud, in partnership with Kevin Hickman's Valachi Downs, has secured exciting young entire War Decree (War Front) for stud duties in 2018.

"We've been open to the idea of standing a new stallion at Inglewood for the past four seasons," Inglewood's Gus Wigley said. "But we just haven't found the right horse for us.

"We've been chasing this guy for nearly 12 months, he's the horse we wanted and we're just thrilled to bits to have hunted him down and secured him."

A four-length winner on his juvenile debut for trainer Aidan O'Brien, War Decree proved himself among the best two-year-olds in Europe with a dominant win in the Gr.2 Vintage Stakes (1400m). He then went on to finish a close runner-up in the Gr.2 Superlative Stakes (1400m) in his only other start as a juvenile.

War Decree continued that form into his three-year-old season, winning the Gr.3 Diamond Stakes (2100m) which was the catalyst for a campaign that included the Gr.1 Breeders' Cup Classic (2000m), Gr.1 Hong Kong Cup (2000m) and Gr.1 Dubai Turf (1800m).

While the campaign proved a challenge for the youngster, it showed the high regard his trainer held for him.

"He's a horse who had a lot of natural talent and ability," O'Brien said. "He's an unusually good mover, he covers a lot of ground and barely touches it, so fast ground suited him well."

War Decree will stand at Inglewood Stud for the 2018 breeding season

War Decree is a son of the internationally revered War Front, whose 68 stakes winners and 18 Group One winners come from just over 450 runners (15 per cent).

While War Front has been dominant in his resident North America, he has experienced great success in Europe with his association with Coolmore Stud in Ireland. His 25 stakes winners in Europe include six Group One winners and a Champion two-year-old for the last three seasons.

On his female side, War Decree is equally well represented, his dam is a daughter of Street Cry and the multiple Group One winning mare Ticker Tape.

"War Decree just has that complete profile we look for in a stallion," Wigley said.

"We think that profile is very similar to that of our foundation sire Zacinto, in that he was a Group Two winner that connections thought of as a genuine Group One horse, while his sire is world leading and his sire-producing female family has the thickest blue-blood.

"I inspected War Decree in Ireland last week with Valachi's Jonathan Scully. He's just a smashing big horse with so much quality about him. He's got just about the best walk I've seen on a horse and I think New Zealand breeders will love him."

War Decree will stand his first season at Inglewood Stud for a service fee of $6500 + GST (LFG).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Zacinto moves north

Exciting young sire Zacinto will now be on the doorstep of Waikato breeders with Kevin and Jo Hickman's Valachi Downs set to stand the son of Dansili in the 2018 season.

A resident of Inglewood Stud, just north of Christchurch, since his retirement to stud in 2012, Zacinto has quickly risen through the stallion ranks to be hot property in the New Zealand breeding industry.

A booming run of form over the past couple of months, including juvenile stakes winners at Flemington and Riccarton, has further enhanced Zacinto's reputation and has Valachi Downs general manager Jonathan Scully excited about bringing the stallion north. Full story here

Tinkermosa (NZ) (Alamosa)

Bold Oaks effort to set up Derby bid

New Zealand-bred filly Tinkermosa (NZ) (Alamosa) is in line for two shots at Group One glory in Brisbane.

The daughter of Alamosa goes into Saturday's Queensland Oaks (2200m) in winning form and, as long as she races up to expectations, she will also contest the Queensland Derby (2200m) a fortnight later.

Tinkermosa is trained by expatriate Kiwi-horseman John Sargent, who won the 2012 Queensland Oaks with Quintessential (NZ) (Fast 'n' Famous), the 2013 Gr.1 VRC Oaks (2500m) with Kirramosa (NZ) (Alamosa) and the 2015 Australian Oaks (2400m) with Gust Of Wind (NZ) (Darci Brahma).

He believes Tinkermosa is up to the level of his previous star fillies and will be hard to roll on Saturday.

"She is improving all the time and handles all types of tracks," Sargent said. "She can get a nice place with cover and finish strongly."

Sargent purchased Tinkermosa, a granddaughter of the Gr.1 MacKinnon Stakes (2000m) winner La Bella Dama (NZ) (Desert Sun), out of Wellfield Lodge's 2016 draft at Karaka for $50,000.

Terra Sancta (NZ) (Pierro)

Filly takes her chances to earn Oaks berth

Terra Sancta (NZ) (Pierro) has taken lower level opportunities in Queensland to force her way into classic contention.

The New Zealand-bred daughter of Pierro was sent to the carnival in the hope she could win her way into Saturday's Gr.1 Queensland Oaks (2200m), which she has duly done.

Terra Sancta struck first-up over a mile at Ipswich and on Sunday she was again successful in the hands of Jim Byrne over 1800m at the Sunshine Coast. Full story here

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour)

Aloisia fine for Oaks

A track gallop in Brisbane has convinced trainer Ciaran Maher that Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) is fit to take her place in the Queensland Oaks.

Saturday's Group One 2200m-race at Doomben will be the fourth Oaks the filly has contested this season.

The winner of the Gr.1 Thousand Guineas (1600m) in October, Aloisia finished sixth in the VRC Oaks (2500m) at Flemington in November, seventh in the Gr.1 Australian Oaks (2400m) at Randwick in April before running sixth at her most recent start in the Gr.1 Schweppes Oaks (2000m) at Morphettville earlier this month.

A start in Saturday's race was in jeopardy after the filly flew from Melbourne to Brisbane last week.

"She had a bit of an upset tummy when she got off the flight from Melbourne," Maher said.

"We took her in (to the vets) for precaution. She had some fluids and she was out the next day."

Maher said her work was strong on Tuesday when she quickened up nicely over the final 600m.

"She's been up a while but she doesn't need a lot of work and her runs have been spaced," Maher said.

Ocean Emperor (NZ) (Zabeel)

Hennessy seeking more international glory

Matamata trainer Gary Hennessy will be looking to add further international success to his CV when he lines up last-start Group Two winner Ocean Emperor (NZ) (Zabeel) in the S$1.5 million Invitational Kranji Mile (1600m) in Singapore on Saturday.

Hennessy campaigned Waikato Stud resident stallion and multiple Group One winner Ocean Park in both Australia and Dubai five years ago and said his experience in Singapore to date has been comparable.

"It is very similar, it is like déjà vu really," Hennessy said. "Both horses are very similar in nature and both being colts of course."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Preditor (NZ) (Savabeel)

Preditor anything but half-Done job for Baertschiger

Shane Baertschiger, who is the current leading Singapore trainer with 26 winners, saddles two New Zealand-bred horses in feature races at Kranji on Saturday night.

Be Bee (NZ) (Showcasing) will line up in the S$1 million Singapore Guineas (1600m) while Preditor (NZ) (Savabeel) will represent the Australian trainer in the S$1.5million Kranji Mile (1600m).

"It doesn't matter how the track plays. He has won on grass and Polytrack and can handle any going," Baertschiger said.

"We're throwing him in at the deep end, but I'm happy with the way he has come along. It's a pity Well Done won't run, but this bloke is more than a worthy runner for us."

Preditor, who won two races in New Zealand for trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, will be ridden by jockey John Powell who has partnered him at three of his four wins.

"I've always had a high opinion of this horse," said Baertschiger.

"It's a big test, but you've got to be in it to win it."

Time Lord (NZ) (Guillotine)

Browne to team up with Derby hope Time Lord (NZ) (Guillotine) will have a change of rider in Saturday's Gr.3 Grand Prix Stakes (2200m) at Doomben with expatriate New Zealand jockey Damian Browne belatedly taking the reins.

"He was meant to ride him the other day, but due to the handicap conditions as a three-year-old the horse was on the minimum and he couldn't do the weight," trainer Richard Collett said.

"Michael Cahill rode him and they share the same manager, but Damian was always our preferred rider." Full story here

Waller shows confidence in Omineca

Trainer Chris Waller is hoping his faith in the lightly raced Kiwi-bred Omineca (NZ) (Makfi) pays off in the Gr.3 Grand Prix Stakes (2200m) at Doomben on Saturday.

"He's only had four race starts this horse. He's a really good horse, it is not like us to step up our horses out of grade, but I have just had a bit of confidence with him.

"So here he is, one of the favourites for a Group Three race. It was a brilliant run last start coming from a long way back, and the start before that.

"He's the young star of the three-year-old colts. Let's see how we go towards a Queensland Derby and obviously the Grand Prix is an important step in that direction."

Qiji Express (NZ) (Shamexpress)

Youngster makes own luck at Hastings

Smart colt Qiji Express (NZ) (Shamexpress) turned his fortunes around at Hawke's Bay with a commanding front-running performance to open his account.

The son of Shamexpress worked hard to lead in the Balance Agri-Nutrients 2YO (1200m) before coasting clear for a hollow victory under Matt Cameron.

Qiji Express was coming off a fourth placing in the Listed Waikato Equine Veterinary Stakes (1100m) at Te Rapa where he suffered an interrupted run.

"He was very unlucky at his last start, he didn't get much of a go at all," co-trainer Murray Baker said. "We might look at the Castletown Stakes with him now."

Qiji Express is raced by Chinese connections, including Horse Feng Bloodstock's Hongwei Chen and Alex Teng and Tianjin-based businessman Fudong Niu.

A son of Windsor Park Stud stallion Shameexpress, Qiji Express is a graduate of the NZB Select Yearling Sale, where he was secured for $27,500.

Ecuador (NZ) (High Chaparral)

Ecuador seeks second McKell Cup success

Adrian Bott believes Ecuador (NZ) (High Chaparral) is on track to replicate his Listed McKell Cup-winning exploits at Randwick.

Among the mass defections for the Gr.1 Doomben Cup (2000m) last Saturday, the eight-year-old gelding has the fourth run of this preparation at Randwick in a race he won in 2016.

Co-trainer Adrian Bott expects Ecuador to thrive in the 2400m feature.

"He's probably ideally placed in a set weights and penalties sort of race but they're a bit tricky to find at the moment," he said. Full story here

Track has trainer guessing

Stephen Marsh isn't quite sure what to expect of his two-year-olds who are chasing black type honours at Pukekohe Park on Saturday.

The Cambridge trainer has Sol Invictus (NZ) (Haradasun) and Van Irving (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the Listed Ssangyong Auckland Futurity Stakes (1400m) and the prospect of a Heavy 11 track has left him guessing as to the outcome.

"It was bottomless there for the last meeting and it might be worse this time, I don't really know how they'll handle it," Marsh said. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Top stable double-handed in feature Ole Ole (NZ) and Peaceful (NZ)

(Savabeel) will give champion trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman a strong hand in Saturday's Listed Auckland Futurity Stakes (1400m) at Pukekohe Park, although track conditions are more of a concern for one of their representatives.

"It's going to be very heavy and I don't know about Peaceful handling it, but we'll take our chances," Baker said.

Peaceful is coming off a runner-up finish in the Listed Berkley Stud Champagne Stakes (1200m) on slow ground at Riccarton while Ole Ole was second in heavy going at Pukekohe two runs back in the Listed Champagne Stakes (1600m).

He then finished third in the Listed Waikato Equine Veterinary Centre Stakes (1100m) at Te Rapa.

Conservative Sandown ride for Greycliffe

Trainer Matt Cumani is hoping different tactics will bring about a change of fortunes for Greycliffe (NZ) (Tavistock) at Sandown.

The three-year-old runs in Saturday's Ladbrokes Cash Out Handicap (2100m) where he'll have in-form jockey Ben Melham in the saddle.

Greycliffe has travelled from Ballarat to Adelaide for his past two outings.

After leading he was claimed late when second in the Port Adelaide Guineas (1800m) and again led when seventh in the Chairman's Stakes (2035m) on April 28.

Cumani wants Greycliffe ridden from behind to see if he'll run out Saturday's journey.

"He's a horse we're still trying to work out," Cumani said.

"I want to see if he is a 2000-metre horse or what his distance is.

"Having him out in front he's open too much to the wrong pace.

"If he's out the back, we can see if he's finishing his race off and if he can show that he's a genuine stayer, like we thought he was, then we can step back up to 2200 and 2400 metres."

Greycliffe holds a nomination for next month's Gr.1 Queensland Derby.

Late Derby bid with Kiwi-bred

The well-related New Zealand-bred Heir To The Throne (NZ) (Pentire) remains an outside chance to make the Gr.1 Queensland Derby (2200m) field.

The brother to the Gr.1 Melbourne

Cup (3200m) winner Prince Of Penzance (NZ) was a trial winner over 1270m at the Sunshine Coast Tuesday morning and will run there on Sunday over 1600m in a bid to gain a start in the Doomben feature on June 10.

"There has never been any real rush with him, but they are only three once," trainer Henry Dwyer said.

"You have Prince of Penzance in the family, but it would be good to get some more black type.

"He's a nice horse who has always shown good staying ability and it's our last-ditch attempt to get him to a Derby."

Heir To The Throne was purchased by Dwyer at Karaka in 2016 for $200,000 out of the draft of Rich Hill Stud, who has retained an interest in the Pentire gelding.

The Dominator (NZ) (The way you are)

Dwyer jumper out to dominate at Sandown

Trainer Henry Dwyer expects a return to a conventional racetrack to be a positive for steeplechasing convert The Dominator (NZ) (The way you are).

The gelding scored a narrow win at his steeplechasing debut at Warrnambool earlier this month and immediately goes to Saturday's Australian Steeplechase (3400m) at Sandown, one of the feature races on the jumps calendar.

The Dominator charged away midrace before holding off a late bid from King Kamada (NZ) (Shinko King), an opponent on Saturday. Full story here

Gold Medals after dual Australian Steeples

A fresh and fit Gold Medals (NZ) (Elvstroem) will attempt a third feature jumps win for the season when he runs in the Australian Steeplechase (3400m) at Sandown.

Gold Medals is chasing back-to-back

Gold Medals (NZ) (Elvstroem)

Australian Steeplechase wins and has already claimed Warrnambool's Brierly (3450m) and Grand Annual Steeplechase (5500m) at the start of May.

Trainer Symon Wilde was astonished with how quickly Gold Medals recovered from those races, citing the lack of travel and beach access as key factors.

"We're five minutes to the beach and he's in the water and he had no travelling over the carnival," Wilde said.

Manhattan Street (Manhattan Rain)

Trentham target for last-start winner

Lisa Latta is keen on a seven-day back-up for Manhattan Street (Manhattan Rain), who returned to winning form on his home track on Saturday.

The Awapuni trainer will head to Trentham this weekend with the four-year-old for The Hanley Formula Sprint Championship Final (1200m).

Now the winner of four of his 13 starts, Manhattan Street's previous success had come in the 2016 Listed Ryder Stakes (1200m). He was also runner-up to the subsequent Group winner Highlad (High Chaparral) in last season's Listed Wanganui Guineas (1340m).

Wooden Edge (NZ) (Have No Fear)

No Change (NZ) (Shinko King)

Chocante (NZ) (Shocking)

Winter hope back on track

Smart winter performer Wooden Edge (NZ) (Have No Fear) will be back in action on Saturday.

"He'll run at Pukekohe in the Rating 75 1200m and Amber Sims will ride him, she rode him well at the trials," trainer Chris Wood said.

Wooden Edge, who will be having his first raceday start since November, finished third in his open 935m heat at Cambridge earlier this month.

The lightly-raced six-year-old has won six of his 18 starts, all of them on slow or heavy tracks.

Shakti (NZ) (Duelled)

Winter feature on Shakti's programme

Jo-Ann Gordon has a stakes target in mind for the versatile and in-form Shakti (NZ) (Duelled).

"I think I might get him ready for the Winter Cup," the Ascot Park trainer said.

"He can run from 1400 to 2200m and after Ashburton there aren't any staying races left so I'll drop him back and 1600m at Riccarton on a heavy track wouldn't worry him." Full story here

No Change on target for prestige hurdle

A sterner test at Hastings awaits No Change (NZ) (Shinko King) following his latest home track success.

"I think we'll come back here for the Hawke's Bay Hurdles," part-owner and trainer Paul Nelson said.

The versatile No Change was an easy winner of Thursday's Adama NZ Ltd Hurdle (2500m) in the hands of Aaron Kuru, who didn't have to resort to the whip to account for Just Ishi (NZ) (Ishiguru).

Te Akau Shark (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Break serves smart 3YO well

Well-related three-year-old Te Akau Shark (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) will shortly be reporting for duty at Matamata.

The son of Rip Van Winkle made an impressive start to his career before trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards were forced to turn the chestnut out.

"He had a few issues that were immaturity-related mostly," Richards said. "He's spelled really well and he'll be back in work on June 1." Full story here

Chocante side-lined indefinitely

Dual Group winning-stayer Chocante (NZ) (Shocking) has gone for a lengthy injury-forced break.

"He bowed a tendon in Brisbane, unfortunately, and he's back here now spelling," trainer Stephen Marsh said.

The injury came to light after Chocante had been unplaced in the Listed Tails Stakes (1600m) at Doomben last month when resuming.

"It leaves a hole losing two of your top-rated horses – Thee Auld Floozie has retired and now Chocante has gone amiss."

Chocante has a Gr.3 Counties Cup (2100m) to his credit and last season claimed top honours in the Gr.2 Brisbane Cup (2200m).

The son of Shocking has also placed twice at Group One level in the Chelmsford Stakes (1600m) and in The Metropolitan (2400m).

Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi)

Top mare Bonneval returning to work

Reigning New Zealand Horse of the Year Bonneval's (NZ) (Makfi) return to her Cambridge base is imminent.

The multiple Group One winner and the country's top-rated performer was sidelined earlier this year with a suspensory ligament issue.

The winner of the Gr.1 Underwood Stakes (1800m) at Caulfield in the spring off the back of a first-up success in the Gr.2 Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes (1600m) at Moonee Valley, Bonneval subsequently spelled and was being prepared for the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic (1600m) before she was injured.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"She's looking good and she'll be back in the stable next week, along with Jon Snow and we are hopefully looking toward the Melbourne spring with them again," said Murray Baker, who trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman.

Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj) won the Gr.3 JRA Cup (2040m) and ran third in the Gr.1 Caulfield Stakes (2000m) before he finished less than five lengths off the winner Boom Time in the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m) at his last appearance.

Wee Gilly (NZ) (Roc De Cambes)

Mime (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

"She might have a run in late June or early July, she's a good staying filly."

Wee Gilly finished in the money in her first two starts before she stepped up to 2200m on her home track last month to beat the older horses.

She then headed south and came from the back of the field to finish third behind the multiple stakes winner Courte Zarindi (NZ) (Any Suggestion) in the Listed Warstep Stakes (2000m) at Riccarton.

been made to retire her," co-trainer Andrew Forsman said.

Raced by the powerful China Horse Club, the daughter of Mastercraftsman recorded five wins and eight placings from her 26 appearances.

Mime was successful in the Gr.2 Sir Tristram Fillies' Classic (2000m) and in the Gr.3 Sunline Vase (2100m) as a three-year-old and finished fourth in the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m).

Last season, she won the Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) and her CV also boasts Group One placings in the Windsor Park Plate (1600m) and the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m).

Andrew "Ledge" Leadbeater

Unsung hero averts Te Rapa disaster

A potentially life-threatening situation at last weekend's Te Rapa race-meeting was narrowly avoided thanks to the quick thinking and bravery of one of the raceday staff on duty that day.

Andrew 'Ledge' Leadbeater was the man seen on television screens across the country last Saturday rescuing apprentice rider Tayla Wenn from the Te Rapa starting gates after her mount became agitated prior to the start of race seven on the programme.

Leadbeater is a member of the Northern Raceday Services starting gates crew who attend all racedays, trial meetings and official jump-outs in the geographic region from Taupo through to Ruakaka. He was on duty when the incident unfolded. Full story here

Black type performer Wee Gilly (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) has changed stables and will continue her career in Victoria.

The sparingly-raced three-year-old has been purchased by OTI Racing with former owner-trainer Bill Thurlow retaining an interest in the daughter of Roc De Cambes.

"She's gone to Archie Alexander and she's in work there and ticking along," the Waverley horseman said.

Scandalo (NZ) (Shocking)

Progressive Scandalo earns deserved break

Scandalo's (NZ) (Shocking) work is done for the season after making his mark in the top grade.

The Hastings five-year-old won five races in his last campaign, including two open handicaps, and was turned out at the top of his game after his last-start defeat of stakes performers Go Nicholas (NZ) (Danroad) and Deals In Heels (NZ) (Iffraaj) on his home track.
