FIRST TIME'S A CHARM FOR OCEAN PARK

Ocean's Fourteen at Trelawney Stud as a foal with mum Ruud Val Slaats and Brent & Cherry Taylor

It could be a continual run of firsts for Ocean's Fourteen (NZ) (Ocean Park) on Saturday when he lines up in the Gr.1 VRC Derby (2500m).

The Aaron Purcell-trained runner was his sire Ocean Park's first born foal and he could give him his first Group One winner at Flemington on Saturday.

Purcell is confident the lightly raced colt will be a big player in the Derby after his last start runner-up performance in the Listed Geelong Classic (2200m) last week.

"He made huge improvement from his maiden win to his stakes placing at Geelong," he said.

"He hit the line really strongly, suggesting the further distance of the Derby will suit him and he's trained on terrifically.

"He's definitely heading the right way and I'm sure he is going to run a big race on Saturday."

Bred and part-owned by Trelawney Stud's Brent and Cherry Taylor, they could be in a rare position on Saturday if their charge were to win.

"I bred the dam Ruud van Slaats and the sire Ocean Park and I have still got a small share in the horse as well," Brent Taylor said. "So we will be there to see him on Saturday."

He was purchased by his former trainer Ciaron Maher for $325,000 at last year's New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale after impressing both Maher and his good friend and fellow trainer Purcell on a visit to Trelawney Stud in 2015.

With Maher currently serving a six-month suspension from training, Purcell has taken over the stable in a caretaker role.

"Aaron and Ciaron came out and stayed with us after the Ready to Run sale," Brent Taylor said. "They then went on a trainers' tour around some of the studs in New Zealand and saw him among a number of horses and obviously came back in January where Ciaron bought him."

The Taylor's stayed in the ownership after the sale and have been rewarded with a start in the Derby on Saturday.

"I don't normally like staying in colts," Taylor said. "But he was one that was an outstanding type, he had a fantastic nature and the fact that I had raced the mare and bred the stallion and wanted to support him.

"Ciaron invited me to stay in the horse and Cherry and I thought it was a good idea at the time, so whether it turns out to be on Saturday we will find out."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Tony Cole

All Roads lead to Melbourne

Te Kauwhata trainer Tony Cole lined up Argonaut Style (NZ) (Leader of the Band) in the 1987 Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) and three decades later he will have another horse compete in the famous Flemington Carnival, but this time as an owner on Derby day.

Cole part-owns All Our Roads (NZ) (Road To Rock), who is in his first campaign for leading Sydney trainer Chris Waller and will jump from barrier one in the Gr.1 Kennedy Mile (1600m) on Saturday.

The Road To Rock gelding has had two starts for Waller, placing in his Australian debut at Randwick over 1400m, before running fifth in the Gr.3 Moonga Stakes (1400m) at Caulfield. Full story here

Cranbourne couple eyeing another Derby

Although the luck of the draw may not have played entirely in his favour, ex-pat Kiwi trainer Trent Busuttin is confident that he and partner Natalie Young have the firepower to add another Derby trophy to their cabinet.

The pair have three confirmed starters in the prestigious A$1.5m Gr.1 Victoria Derby (2500m) at Flemington on Saturday in Main Stage (NZ) (Reliable Man), Sully (NZ) (Reliable Man) and Johnny Vinko (NZ) (Savabeel) although it could be four if Beachwood (NZ) (Ocean Park) can make the field from the first emergency position.

Busuttin admitted he was feeling relatively confident with their three main contenders until the barrier draw on Tuesday. Well-fancied duo Main Stage and Sully fared worst, drawing gates 14 and 15 respectively while Johnny Vinko landed a plum position at gate number four. Full story here

Baker has chance for another Derby win

Weather With You (Teofilo) could deliver on a long-range plan when he bids to give prominent New Zealand trainer

Weather With You (Teofilo)

Murray Baker a second Victoria Derby at Flemington.

Baker won the 2010 Derby with Lion Tamer (NZ) (Storming Home) when he trained in partnership with his son Bjorn, now a successful Sydney trainer.

Now teamed with Andrew Forsman, Baker has trained the winners of 21 Group One races in Australia, more than any other New Zealander.

He saddles up Weather With You in Saturday's A$1.5 million Classic (2500m) having pinpointed the staying feature for three-year-olds as the gelding's target back in April. Full story here

Summer Passage (Snitzel)

Blinkers for Kiwi colt

Summer Passage (Snitzel) sported a new look when he made an appearance during the Breakfast with the Stars session at Flemington.

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained three-year-old wore blinkers in a relaxed gallop on Tuesday over 1000m in 1.08.92, the last 400m in 25.97.

Summer Passage will run in blinkers in Saturday's A$1 million Gr.1 Coolmore Stud Stakes (1200m) at Flemington. He will be ridden by Blake Shinn, who won last season's Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) on the colt, from barrier 10.

Luvaluva set to be Sargent's next star

Luvaluva (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) has arrived in Melbourne on a Wakeful Stakes-VRC Oaks mission and John Sargent feels she is a perfect mix of the best qualities of his previous star performing fillies Kirramosa (NZ) (Alamosa) and Thunder Lady (NZ) (Mastercraftsman).

Both Kirramosa (2013) and Thunder Lady (2014) won the Gr.2 Wakeful Stakes (2000m) for Sargent before Kirramosa went onto win the Gr.1 VRC Oaks in her year while Thunder Lady ran second to Set Square (Reset) in the 2014 edition of the race.

"She is a bit in between both of those horses, Kirramosa was a bit more brilliant whereas Thunder Lady was more of a stayer," Sargent said.

"Luvaluva has an exciting turn of foot and she can stay as well.

"She has arrived in Melbourne and I hope history can repeat as she is following the same path as Kirramosa and Thunder Lady."

In-form jockey Blake Shinn, who rode four winners on Cox Plate Day, will ride Luvaluva for the first time on raceday although he has ridden her in trials and at trackwork.

Luvaluva is a $6 chance for the Wakeful on Saturday and a $13 chance for next Thursday's 2500m Oaks where Sargent believes she will be more suited.

"I think the Oaks will be her best race because the 2500m will take a bit of brilliance out of some good horses, while she will be strong," Sargent said.

Snow Secret (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret)

Snow Secret ready to fire in Feilding Gold Cup

A relaxed and refreshed Shaune Ritchie is hoping to pay for a quickfire family vacation with a victory in Saturday's Listed Ricoh Feilding Gold Cup (2100m) with progressive staying mare Snow Secret (NZ) (Sakhee's Secret).

Ritchie and his family are currently enjoying four days by the pool in sunny Samoa before jetting back tonight to allow Ritchie to make his way to Palmerston North for the feature event on Saturday's Awapuni programme.

The Cambridge conditioner is confident his charge is in the right shape to finally notch an elusive stakes victory and cap off an enjoyable week. Full story here

Power Dream (NZ) (Power)

Dream race for filly

Stephen Marsh has found the ideal event for the next appearance of his promising filly Power Dream (NZ) (Power).

"She'll run on Saturday in the three-year-old event over 1200m at Tauranga," the Cambridge trainer said. "It's the perfect race for her at set weights and penalties.

"She's not quite ready to step up in distance, we'll give her this one and then probably a run over 1400m."

Power Dream followed up her debut third behind the subsequent winners Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel) and Ever Loyal (Sebring) at Ruakaka with her maiden success at Tauranga earlier this month.

Whispering (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Black type beckons smart mare

Stakes targets await the highly-regarded mare Whispering (NZ) (Darci Brahma), who will resume at her local meeting today.

She is prepared at New Plymouth by Allan Sharrock and he is expecting a bold showing from the daughter of Darci Brahma in The Grahame Cochrane, Bayleys Real Estate 1200m.

"She always races well fresh and she's had one jump-out and won that," Sharrock said.

Hezthwonforus (NZ) (Sufficient)

Victory duly delivered

Mark Du Plessis won two trials on Hezthwonforus (NZ) (Sufficient) and he expected a similar result at the colt's race day debut at Avondale on Wednesday.

The Karaka-based jockey's judgement was on the money when he partnered the Bruce Wallace and Allan Peard-trained son of Sufficient to a runaway victory in the Avondale Sunday Markets 1400m.

"I didn't think I would be in front from barrier rise, but he's learned from the trials and won like I thought he could," Du Plessis said. "He's a big baby, but he's got a fair motor."

Mongolian Beauty (Fastnet Rock)

Filly's followers finally rewarded

Good things come to those who wait as supporters of Mongolian Beauty (Fastnet Rock) found at Avondale.

The Fastnet Rock filly broke her maiden in Wednesday's AJC Members' 1400m at her seventh start after five previous placings, four of them runner-up finishes.

"It was good to see her really knuckle down and hit the line like that," co-trainer Andrew Forsman said. She'll be better in the autumn and when she learns to relax and gets up over ground I think you'll see a really good horse."

Ever Loyal (Sebring)

Guineas problem solved for jockey

A tricky Group One decision has been taken out of Jason Waddell's hands.

The Cambridge jockey had been faced with a choice between impressive last-start winners Ever Loyal (Sebring) and Sumstreetsumwhere (NZ) (Highly Recommended) for his Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) ride, but the latter's sale to overseas interests has solved his Riccarton conundrum.

"He won't be going to Christchurch, it's all confirmed and he'll be off to Hong Kong," Sumstreetsumwhere's trainer Stephen Marsh said. Full story here

Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel)

Bosson to ride Embellish in Guineas

Leading New Zealand jockey Opie Bosson will take care of Group One business at home on Saturday week.

He has been confirmed by Te Akau principal David Ellis as the rider of pre-post Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) favourite Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel) at Riccarton on November 11.

Stablemate Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) will run the same day at Flemington in the Gr.1 Emirates Stakes (2000m) with two riding options in place for the Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained four-year-old.

Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi)

Yearn (NZ) (Savabeel)

Kiwi stayer to relish roomy Flemington

The wide open spaces of Flemington will be a major plus for Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj) in next Tuesday's A$6.2 million Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m).

"The main thing for him is getting away from Caulfield and on to a bigger track that will really suit him," said Andrew Forsman, who trains the four-year-old with Murray Baker.

Jon Snow finished third two runs back in the Gr.1 Caulfield Stakes (2000m) before he coped interference when unplaced in the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m). Full story here

Career drawing to a close

Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi) will have her penultimate start in the Gr.1 Rydges Captain Cook Stakes (1600m) at Trentham on December 9.

"She's having a freshen-up and then she'll go to Wellington and her swansong race will be the Zabeel Classic," trainer Stephen Marsh said.

Raced by Lib Petagna, Sofia Rosa has won five races with her career highlight her 2016 victory in the Gr.1 ATC Oaks (2400m) at Randwick.

Lupton yearning for stakes success

A visit to Auckland next week for Yearn (NZ) (Savabeel) could be the forerunner to the first black type challenge of the in-form mare's burgeoning career.

The Karen Fursdon-trained daughter of Savabeel is unbeaten in three appearances this season, including a winning double at the Hawke's Bay carnival.

"I'll talk to Karen and there's a Rating 85 race on Melbourne Cup day at Ellerslie or maybe a Rating 75 at Te Rapa the following week, but I'm more tempted to go for the 85 – she'll get in with no weight," owner Mark Lupton said. Full story here

Blizzard (NZ) (Any Suggestion)

As You Will (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Cup veteran won't lack support

Who Shot Thebarman's (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) fan club will again be out in force at Flemington next Tuesday.

They will be cheering on the marathon marvel when he makes his fourth A$6.2 million Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) appearance.

The durable New Zealand-bred and owned nine-year-old will also be chasing history as he bids to become the oldest winner of the event.

"He just keeps showing up, he's amazing," said Dan O'Leary, who shares in the ownership of Who Shot Thebarman with his brothers Humphrey, Michael and Shaun.

Time called on Blizzard's career

Cambridge galloper Blizzard (NZ) (Any Suggestion) has been retired with the decision made in the wake of an unplaced last-start effort at Ellerslie.

The grey seven-year-old won six races and made his mark in black type company with second placings in both the Gr.2 Championship Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie and the Listed Karaka Classic (1600m) at Pukekohe.

He was also fourth in the Gr.3 New Zealand Cup (3200m) at Riccarton.

"He's done such a good job for the owners," co-trainer Emma-Lee Browne said. "There's nothing wrong with him, age is catching up and we didn't want to keep running him until he drops down the grades."

Good-looking grey on target for Guineas

Handsome grey As You Will (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) is racing right up to his looks in the countdown to the opening Group One three-year-old event of the season.

The son of Mastercraftsman has placed in both of his appearances this season, including a strong-finishing last-start second to Sumstreetsumwhere (NZ) (Highly Recommended) in the Gr.2 James & Annie Sarten Memorial (1400m) at Te Rapa.

"He's an eye-catching and attractive looking horse and mentally a lot better," said

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock)

Zabeel summer target

Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) has the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day on his programme.

"We've yet to decide what the right lead-up race will be," said co-trainer Chris Gibbs.

Volkstok'n'barrell has been given a clean bill of health after disappointing when unplaced in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hawke's Bay.

"He's fine and we just think the trip away got the better of him and he was quite lethargic," Gibbs said.

Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock)

Trainer chasing higher honours with stable star

Te Aroha trainer Peter Lock's hopes of success at the highest level rest with Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock).

"If ever I'm going to win a Group One it will be with this horse," he said. "To have a horse like him is pretty special."

Lock, who has been training for more than 30 years, produced Hiflyer to win the first stakes race of his career when the five-year-old claimed major honours in Saturday's Gr.3 Thompson Handicap at Trentham. Full story here

Hapeta funeral details

The funeral service for Byerley Park trainer Shane Hapeta will take place today, Friday November 3.

The popular horseman died suddenly on Sunday night and will be farewelled at Graham's Funeral Chapel, West Street, Pukekohe at 12pm.

All are welcome to attend the service.
