SPOILT FOR CHOICE IN 2000 GUINEAS

Embellish will start favourite in tomorrow's Gr. 1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas for the powerful Te Akau Racing team

With three in-form runners in Saturday's Group One feature at Riccarton, Jamie Richards is finding it mission impossible to tip the stable's leading prospect.

With training partner Stephen Autridge, the Matamata horseman will be represented by Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel), Te Akau Shark (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) and Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock) in the Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m).

"It's very, very hard to split them," Richards said. "They have all done nothing wrong and they are all fit and happy and working well."

The Savabeel colt Embellish is the pre-post favourite after consecutive wins at Ruakaka and Trentham, beating race rival Ever Loyal (Sebring) the first time and downing the older horses at his latest appearance. He will be ridden on Saturday by Opie Bosson.

"I know that Opie just loves Embellish and the horse isn't a brilliant trackworker, but he is up to the mark," Richards said.

Te Akau Shark is yet to be tested with an unbeaten record after wins at Te Rapa and Matamata.

"He's still quite new and having his third start in a Group One, but he deserves his place," Richards said.

The son of Rip Van Winkle will be partnered by Michael McNab, while Matt Cameron has the ride on Fastnet Rock's son Age Of Fire.

"Age Of Fire is probably the smokie in the race and he will love the mile at Riccarton being out of a Galileo mare," Richards said.

"We're sure they will all run very well. They are lightly-tried horses and Embellish was the only one to run at two so they are still yet to peak."

LOGAN READY TO RISE TO SINGAPORE CHALLENGE

Group One-winning horsewoman Donna Logan is heading offshore to take up the next challenge of her career.

The Ruakaka conditioner, who has enjoyed top-flight success at home and in Australia, has been licenced by the Malayan Racing Association to train in Singapore where she has been granted 36 boxes at Kranji.

Logan will follow a trail successfully blazed there by New Zealand Racing Hall of Famer Laurie Laxon, the winner of nine Singapore premierships, and join fellow Kiwi trainers Stephen Gray, Bruce Marsh and Mark Walker.

She admitted to experiencing a raft of emotions when she received confirmation on Thursday evening of her stabling from the Singapore Turf Club.

"It's quite daunting really, I'm nervous and excited, but I know I'm ready for this challenge at this stage of my life," Logan told the NZ Racing Desk from Singapore.

"My daughter Sam has proven she's a very good trainer in her own right and my son Robert is grown up as well so this is the time to do it.

"It's quite a stringent process and I got my licence from the Malayan Racing Association and I've passed the medical and now the Singapore Turf Club have granted me boxes.

"I was handed a letter tonight, which said congratulations – it's all a bit mind-blowing.

"I take over the boxes on December 1 and will basically start training up here as of January 1. Graeme Forbes will be my assistant trainer."

Logan, 56, will now begin the process of assembling her racing team in Singapore.

"I'd like to think that quite a few of my current clients will see the benefit of racing here and it should be very advantageous to our New Zealand racing stable. Te Akau have done it and extremely well."

Logan currently trains in partnership with Chris Gibbs, who will be taking sole charge of the Ruakaka operation.

"Chris had to be happy to do that and he is. I've got great faith in him and it will be another string to our bow," she said.

"I think it will be a happy and rewarding move with benefits for both our existing New Zealand clients and new ones."

Logan trained her first winner in 1987 courtesy of Silver Kris (NZ) (One Pound Sterling), a half-brother to the former champion three-year-old Uncle Remus.

“Silver Kris was a maiden and I had to run him out of his grade at Ellerslie to get a start, David Peake rode him,” she said.

She subsequently enjoyed a successful training partnership with her husband Dean.

Despite going their separate ways in private life, Logan continued to train with Dean until his passing in 2015 following a battle with cancer and she was later joined in partnership by Gibbs.

Logan’s current career tally of winners is in excess of 850 with 60 at black type level, including eight individual Group One winners.

Volkstok’n’barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) has been her most prolific with success in the Rosehill Guineas (2000m), Haunui Farm WFA Classic (1600m), New Zealand Stakes (2000m) and the Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m).

Logan has also enjoyed classic success with Habibi (NZ) (Ekraar) in the New Zealand Derby (2400m) and the New Zealand Oaks (2400m) with Vapour Trail (NZ) (Jetball).

Further domestic Group One success has come her way with Valley Girl (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in the Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m), Zabeat (NZ) (Rhythm) in the Wellington Cup (3200m) and with Good Faith (NZ) (Straight Strike) in the Ellerslie Sires’ Produce Stakes (1400m).

Logan has also made her mark in Australia with Rising Romance’s (NZ) (Ekraar) victory in the ATC Oaks (2400m) and Victory Smile (NZ) (Victory Dance) won The Metropolitan (2400m).

“I guess the highlights have been Rising Romance’s win in the million dollar Oaks in Sydney and Habibi’s win with Dean in the Derby, but every Group One is very, very special!”

PARFORE PROGENY HAVE A BALL AT FLEMINGTON

Add another member to the list of Parfore's (NZ) (Gold Brose) progeny who have claimed Black type success down the famous Flemington straight.

Oaks Day saw Ball Of Muscle (Dubawi) add his name to the list with a dominant win in the A$150,000 Listed Absolut Stakes (1000m).

The seven-year-old joins Darley Classic and Black Caviar Lightning winner Terravista (Captain Rio) and Tiger Tees (NZ) (Dubawi), winner of the Gr. 3 Aurie's Star Handicap in 2014, as products of the Gold Brose mare to score Black Type wins on the famous strip of turf.

Pride is now dreaming of seeing the gelding join Terravista and Tiger Tees, who won a Galaxy in Sydney, on the Group 1 winners' list.

"I'd like to think we've got another couple of seasons left in this bloke," the Sydney trainer said.

"There's a chance he'll go over to WA for the Winterbottom Stakes at the start of December, but we'll make that decision once we've got him home and taken a look at him.

"If not, I'd like to bring him back here for the Lightning, because he went really well down the straight.

"Whatever route we take with him, I'm sure he'll win more races for us in the near future. We've just got to keep him sound."

Almost 900 days after his previous success, in the 2015 QTC Cup, the son of Dubawi thrashed his rivals at Flemington.

The $2.50 favourite's winning margin was one-and-three-quarter lengths, which could have been greater had jockey Glyn Schofield ridden him out to the line.

"He's well named and he's very quick," Schofield said.

"He wanted to run to the outside rail, which is what he's used to. That wasn't always the plan, but he was travelling so comfortably that I was happy for him to go there."

Although he went almost two-and-a-half years without a win, Ball Of Muscle's career record is now nine wins from 31 starts, with 14 minor placings, helping him amass A$898,825 in stakes.

Prolific broodmare Parfore's (pictured) progeny have scored another victory down the famous Flemington straight with Ball Of Muscle triumphant at Listed level on Oaks Day

NEWS IN BRIEF

Michael Dee

Former Te Akau apprentice on Gingernuts

The powerful Te Akau operation has turned to one of their own to guide the fortunes of Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj), who has drawn gate 12 in a 15-horse field in Saturday's Gr.1 Emirates Stakes (2000m) at Flemington.

Michael Dee has been booked to partner the star performer after Hugh Bowman lost an appeal on Wednesday afternoon against a careless riding charge.

Bowman had been booked for Gingernuts, but he was suspended for 11 meetings on Melbourne Cup day for his ride on the third-placed Hybrid (Royal Academy) in the Listed Lexus Plate (1400m). Full story here

Odeon (NZ) (Zacinto)

Odeon on Group One back-up

Odeon (NZ) (Zacinto) will bid to give his Inglewood Stud-based sire Zacinto his first Australian Group One winner on Saturday.

The four-year-old will be on a quick back-up at Flemington into the A$2 million Emirates Stakes (2000m) following his impressive win in Tuesday's Listed James Boag's Premium Stakes (1800m).

Odeon was bred by Kevin Hickman, who shares in the ownership of Zacinto and is also a major shareholder in Ugo Foscolo (NZ), the stallion's first Group One winner when successful in last year's New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m).

Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar)

Scott Base ready for Riccarton grand final

A sparkling run for second in his final dress rehearsal has promising three-year-old Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar) primed and ready for a big effort in the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton on Saturday.

The Dalghar gelding was seen putting in some telling strides as he chased home fellow 2000 Guineas contender Ever Loyal (Sebring) in the Gr.3 Zacinto Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton last month, a performance that has co-trainer Johnno Benner looking forward to his charge going one better in Saturday's classic contest.

"He has always appealed as a real stayer and that last run was very pleasing as he ran through the line very strongly," he said.

"It was just what we wanted to see leading into the Guineas and his work since then has been very good.

"Saturday will be his fourth start in this campaign, so he is on the way up and goes into the race at peak condition."

Despite the long-range forecast indicating some rain is on the way for Christchurch, Benner and partner Hollie Wynyard aren't worried should a wet track eventuate for the race.

"He goes in all ground although he probably wants it dry," he said.

"In saying that he won his maiden on a heavy surface so if it does rain he should be able to cope. It might actually slow a few of his rivals down but either way we won't be worried about what ground we strike on Saturday."

Ritchie confident Bee Tee Junior ready for Riccarton assault

Cambridge trainer Shaune Ritchie is confident he has progressive stayer Bee Tee Junior (NZ) (Nom Du Jeu) on target for his assault on a Christchurch Cup Week double.

The lightly raced six-year-old has the

Bee Tee Junior (NZ) (Nom Du Jeu)

Gr.3 Christchurch Casino New Zealand Cup (3200m) as his main target next week, but Ritchie warns he will be equally competitive in Saturday's Listed Redwood Metropolitan Trophy Handicap (2500m), the traditional lead-up event to the Cup.

"He's travelled down well and I'm expecting a good performance from him on the weekend," he said. Full story here

Bullrush (NZ) (O'Reilly)

No-rush beach life agreeing with top sprinter

They say life is better at the beach. That adage might well fit perfectly with rejuvenated sprinter Bullrush (NZ) (O'Reilly).

Bred by Garry Chittick and raced by Waikato Stud, O'Reilly six-year-old Bullrush won his first five races from his Sydney base but then his form suddenly went downhill, though nothing was found to be amiss with him.

"It was all a bit confusing because he just lost form. Garry put it down to life in Sydney and that he simply lost interest, so that's how he came to us," said new trainer Moira Murdoch, who trains in partnership with her daughter Kieran, predominantly at Waiuku Beach. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Gray thirsty for a second Gold Cup win

Stephen Gray is hoping Bahana (NZ) (Elusive City) can put in a repeat performance a year on from winning the Singapore Gold Cup (2200m).

Though he is not in the same form leading into Sunday's race, Gray is still expecting Bahana to run well.

Gray has engaged Australian jockey William Pike to ride Bahana, who has not won a race since the 2016 edition of the time-honoured race, though he has had only five starts.

"Bahana had a chip removed and was a bit rusty at his last couple of runs. He is peaking at the right time," Gray said.

"He had a grass gallop on Tuesday and he went very well. Vlad Duric rode him and said he quickened up very well and he was as fit as a buck rat."

Moroney and jockey Patrick Moloney said the intention had been to have Tribal Wisdom closer to the pace but the gelding didn't begin well enough.

Moloney had to angle Tribal Wisdom off heels to get into the clear in the straight and admitted the gelding had to a big task ahead of him to reel in Harbour Grey.

"But he thought he'd do a little bit of showboating in front of his grey mates today," Moloney said.

Cha Siu Bao (Smart Missile)

Te Rapa return for promising 4YO

Cha Siu Bao (Smart Missile) will make his four-year-old debut at Te Rapa on Saturday.

"We'll kick him off in the Rating 75 over 1400m," co-trainer Andrew Scott said. "He's coming up well and we're pretty hopeful he's going to be competitive."

Cha Siu Bao has won twice and measured up encouragingly against the best three-year-olds last season, as evidenced by his run for fourth in the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m).

He hasn't raced since he bucked out of the gates when unplaced in the Gr. 1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) and has subsequently been gelded.

Chance To Dance (Teofilo)

Blinkered approach turns 8YO around

Chance To Dance (Teofilo) bounced back from a baffling last-start defeat to show his true form under top rider Opie Bosson at Ellerslie.

A gear addition brought out the best in the eight-year-old, who on Tuesday capitalised on a dream run to beat Mime (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) and Authentic Paddy (NZ) (Howbaddouwantit) in the Gr.3 OMF Stakes (2000m).

Chance To Dance was a first-up winner of the Listed Karaka Classic (1600m) at Pukekohe, but he had the camp scratching their heads after he beat only one runner home in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hawke's Bay. Full story here

Rocanto (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Rocanto's rousing return fuels Group One hopes

Stephen Marsh believes Rocanto (NZ) (Per Incanto) can be a serious Group One player this preparation.

The Cambridge trainer has high expectations of the five-year-old and a satisfying first-up victory in Tuesday's Ideal Electrical Legrand 1200m at Ellerslie further boosted his confidence.

"It's good to see him back and he should be a contender for all the major sprints," Marsh said. "The Railway is going to be a nice race for him." Full story here

Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking)

Fitting Cup day result

Group One New Zealand Oaks winner Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking) has claimed top honours in the undercard staying contest on Melbourne Cup Day in a fitting result.

Tribal Wisdom (Makfi)

Tribal Wisdom wins Flemington greys race

A great grandson of one of the most famous grey racehorses has produced a barnstorming finish to win the annual VRC Oaks day race restricted to grey horses.

The Mike Moroney-trained Tribal Wisdom (Makfi), a descendant of 1989 Japan Cup-winning mare Horlicks (NZ) (Three Legs), arrived just in time to grab Harbour Grey (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) on the line in Thursday's Subzero Handicap (1400m) to win by a half-head.

Moroney trained Horlicks' most famous son, the 2000 Melbourne Cup winner Brew (NZ) (Sir Tristram).

"It's been a great family to us," Moroney said.

Tribal Wisdom won the Listed Gosford Guineas last season and Moroney believes the gelding has plenty of talent.

"We always thought he was Group class and he already won a stakes race early in his career," Moroney said.

"He's still learning what it's all about and is only lightly raced. He's always had natural talent. I think you'll find he's a pretty smart horse."

NEWS IN BRIEF

over 2800m in the Ronald McDonald House Charities Plate.

Formerly trained in New Zealand, Fanatic is now in the care of David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig, and Tuesday's win over 2800m in the hands of Kiwi jockey Michael Walker came at her sixth start from her new quarters.

"She was in season at her last start so we were looking for her to bounce back," said Jack Kiernan, son of Taranaki breeder-owner Sean.

Alex Shin

First strike for Shin

Apprentice Alex Shin celebrated his first winner on Thursday.

The 22-year-old's special moment came at his 10th race day ride when he guided The Great Guru (NZ) (Gallant Guru) to victory in the Vets on Riverbank Handicap (2200m) at Otaki.

"I'm working as hard as I can and that was awesome," he said.

Shin spent time with Chad Ormsby before joining Roydon Bergerson's stable and he also regularly rides work for Awapuni trainers Gary Vile, The Great Guru's conditioner Lisa Latta and at Kamada Park.

Pinot Grey (NZ) (Burgundy)

Well-related youngster scores

A filly from the family of the mighty Makybe Diva (Desert King) made a perfect debut at Otaki.

A trial winner, the two-year-old Pinot Grey (NZ) (Burgundy) made all the running in Thursday's Mills Reef Winery 2YO (1000m) and cruised clear in the run home for rider Cameron Lammas.

Trained by Stephen Atridge and Jamie Richards, she was a $145,000 purchase out of Cambridge Stud's draft by Te Akau principal David Ellis at Karaka earlier this year.

He suggested Pinot Grey could soon be seen in a stakes race on her way to the Listed Karaka Million (1200m) in January next year.

"To buy a filly in January, have her win like she did within ten months and then prepare for a million dollar race — it doesn't get much more exciting," Ellis said.

El Fernando (NZ) (El Hermano)

Wide run no problem

Ellerslie winner El Fernando (NZ) (El Hermano) covered more ground than any other runner in the opening event, but trainer Mark Brooks wasn't concerned.

His chestnut five-year-old was posted three wide before working to second spot down the back and then fought gallantly under rider Trudy Thornton to beat the topweight Hushed (NZ) (Don Eduardo) in Tuesday's Chevalier Produce 2200m.

"It was a good run and he likes wide, open spaces," Brooks said. "If he's caught on the inside he doesn't try too hard. He's definitely better out, not every horse is suited like that but he is so I was happy."

El Fernando has now won three times on the flat and was twice placed over hurdles during the winter.

Promising mare gets her reward

Stakes performer Grand Soleil (NZ) (Savabeel) gained an overdue first victory at Ellerslie on Melbourne Cup day.

The Tony Pike-prepared Savabeel mare, who is out of the Group One-performed Gretchen (NZ) (Bahhare), won the Carlton Events 1600m as she liked under rider Vinnie Colgan.

Grand Soleil looked well above average last season when she finished third in the Gr.2 Royal Stakes (2000m) and runner-up in the Listed New Zealand Bloodstock Airfreight Stakes (1600m).

Grand Soleil (NZ) (Savabeel)

Another creditable performance was her run for fifth in the Gr.2 Sir Tristram Fillies' Classic (2000m), five lengths off the subsequent multiple Group One winner Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi).

Watch This Space (NZ) (Elusive City)

Topweight too good at Ellerslie

A brave Watch This Space (NZ) (Elusive City) defied his topweight at Ellerslie on Tuesday to continue his impressive form this season.

The Wayne Hillis-trained six-year-old gave the runner-up Zacada (NZ) (Zabeel) five and a-half kilos when successful in the Carbine Club Trophy (1600m).

Winning rider Sam Weatherley has now won three times on Watch This Space this term, having previously combined to good effect with the gelding at Ruakaka and Hawke's Bay. Their only miss was a close eighth in the Gr.3 Spring Sprint at Hastings.

New owner for classic contender

Leading Group One prospect Ever Loyal (Sebring) has changed hands ahead of Saturday's classic at Riccarton.

The third favourite for the Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) has been purchased by Rob Ferguson, a successful Australian breeder and owner and formerly a part-owner of Magic Millions.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Ever Loyal (Sebring)

"There was a lot of interest in the horse from Asia, but we've managed to do a deal and keep him here," said Waikato Bloodstock's Bryce Tankard, who brokered the deal with expatriate New Zealander Steve Brem, a Sydney-based bloodstock agent. Full story here

Corey Campbell

Racing harnesses teenager's talent

Precocious riding talent Corey Campbell initially had his heart set on the sulky rather than the saddle.

He was drawn to the standardbred game before the thoroughbreds won him over and the Wingatui 16-year-old has subsequently made a bright start to his apprenticeship with Brian and Shane Anderton.

On his home track on Melbourne Cup day he boosted his career tally to eight with a winning treble aboard the stable's runners Erin's Babe (NZ) (Raise The Flag), Fascinate (NZ) (Falkirk) and Zabay (NZ) (Stravinsky). Full story here

Filly impresses at trials

Well-bred youngster Autumn Wild (Snitzel) further emphasised she has inherited her share of the family ability with a dashing trial win at Cambridge on Wednesday.

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained filly buried her two-year-old rivals over 800m with a commanding front-running performance to score by a wide margin under rider Michael Coleman. "We haven't done a lot with her, but she's showing very good natural ability," O'Sullivan said. Full story here

Fully Funded (NZ) (Fully Fledged)

Railway beckons well-performed sprinter

Quality sprinter Fully Funded (NZ) (Fully Fledged) is in good heart to kick off a Group One campaign.

The multiple winner has trialed twice ahead of resuming in the Listed Haunui Farm Counties Bowl (1100m) at Pukekohe Park on November 25.

"That's where he'll start, all going well, and he's really looking good," trainer Joanne Surgenor said.

Fully Funded hasn't raced since he was successful at Ruakaka in June and, following a break, he won his latest 1000m trial at Te Aroha. Full story here

Top targets for Group One performer

Accomplished stayer Chocante (NZ) (Shocking) will be given opportunities to star at weight-for-age during a two-start summer campaign.

The son of Shocking has returned after his travels to the Cambridge stable of trainer Stephen Marsh, who has set Group One targets at different ends of the island for the five-year-old.

Chocante will open his summer campaign in the Rydges Captain Cook Stakes (1600m) at Trentham on December 9 ahead of the

Chocante (NZ) (Shocking)

Cambridge Stud Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day. Full story here

Astor (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Mystery mishap sets filly back

Gifted three-year-old Astor (NZ) (Iffraaj) is on the mend after suffering a puzzling injury on her home track at her most recent appearance.

The Matamata-prepared filly finished third over 1400m behind this Saturday's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) contender Te Akau Shark (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) after finishing fourth at her previous start in the Gr.3 Gold Trail Stakes (1200m).

"She hurt herself last time she raced when she ripped open her backside and it needed stitching, it was quite nasty," trainer Danica Guy said. "We don't know how she did it – it's an absolute mystery." Full story here
