ANOTHER PINOT TOAST FOR TEAM

Pinot Grey is out to enhance her Karaka Million prospects at Pukekohe tomorrow

The Te Akau Racing Stables team will on Saturday take another step toward assembling its squad for the Karaka Million (1200m).

Trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards will be looking to Pinot Grey (NZ) (Burgundy), an impressive debut winner at Otaki earlier this month, to cement her place in the line-up for the $1 million juvenile feature at Ellerslie on January 27.

Pinot Grey has $6,250 in the kitty as a result of her win and a further victory (or even a second) in the $50,000 Listed Ashford Lodge 2YO Stakes (1100m) this weekend will be enough to guarantee her spot in the Karaka Million.

Already the Te Akau team has four of the top earners on the Karaka Million order of entry list with Al Hasa (NZ) (Exceed and Excel), an impressive winner of last Saturday's Listed Barneswood Farm Welcome Stakes (1000m) at Riccarton, and

Avantage (Fastnet Rock), unbeaten in two starts, safely in the field.

Al Hasa is third on the list (headed by Australian-trained youngster Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock)) with $32,475 and Avantage next with $28,120. Pinot Grey is down in eighth spot at present with stablemate Irish Cream (NZ) (O'Reilly) also on $6,250.

Irish Cream, who annihilated her opposition with a seven-length debut win at Ruakaka, is in the same boat as Pinot Grey needing more stake money to cement her place in the Karaka Million.

"She jarred up pretty badly after her first run and we're taking her along quietly," Autridge said. "We're not putting any pressure on her to get there."

Avantage has also had a setback and is on the easy list. Shin-soreness prevented her from running in last Saturday's Listed Barneswood Farm Welcome Stakes.

"She's on the water-walker and we're just taking our time with her," Autridge said. "She's been feeling the ground a bit."

However, there has been no cause for concern with Pinot Grey as she builds up for Saturday's stakes mission.

"She's a very natural two-year-old and knows what to do," Autridge said. "She won her first start easily and she's done well since."

"If she can win again, or even run second, we can back off her knowing she'll get in the Karaka Million. We'll probably do the same as we did with Melody Belle last year before she won the Karaka Million."

A $145,000 Select Sale purchase by David Ellis, Pinot Grey is a daughter of Burgundy and the unraced Stravinsky mare Streaming (NZ) and hails from the same family as Melbourne Cup legend Makybe Diva (Desert King).

Pinot Grey is part of a three-horse attack on the black-type races at Pukekohe on Saturday by Autridge and Richards. Stablemates Zambezi Warrior (NZ) (Pentire) and Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) will contest the Gr.3 Ssangyong Counties Cup (2100m) and Listed Haunui Farm Counties Bowl (1100m) respectively.

Zambezi Warrior will be ridden for the first time by Danielle Johnson, who made a special trip to partner the stayer in trackwork this week.

"He worked up good for Danielle and he's a good lightweight chance, but he would appreciate some sting out of the ground," Autridge said. "He's coming up well."

Zambezi Warrior was runner-up in the Gr.2 Valachi Downs Championship Stakes (2100m) at Ellerslie as a three-year-old and sixth in this year's Gr.3 Wallaceville Estate Wellington Cup (3200m). He has had a couple of runs this campaign and was unlucky not to finish closer than fifth behind Ocean Emperor (NZ) (Zabeel) at Awapuni over 1550m last start after being held up in the home straight.

Heroic Valour will be going into Saturday's Counties Bowl with one lead-up run, a creditable fifth to Untamed Diamond (Snitzel) in the Listed Legacy Lodge Sprint (1200m) at Te Rapa earlier this month.

"Actually I did think he would go better at Te Rapa, but it was his first run back and he's a bull (entire) so he probably needed it," Autridge said. "His work on Tuesday was outstanding and he'll have blinkers on."

"We're planning to ride him a little quieter. He appreciates it more when he's chasing."

Heroic Valour was unbeaten in three juvenile starts, highlighted by his win in the Gr.1 Sistema Diamond Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie, and his last win came fresh-up as a three-year-old in the Listed Tavistock Northland Breeders Stakes (1200m) at Ruakaka.

Despite failing to get his head in front, he was a model of consistency last season with six placings, including a third in the Gr.1 Sothys NZ 2000 Guineas (1600m) and a fourth in the Gr.1 NRM Sprint (1400m). He was also runner-up in the Gr.3 Gold Coast Guineas (1200m).

DIFFERING PATHS FOR STABLEMATES

Stablemates Francaletta (High Chaparral), Deals In Heels (NZ) (Iffraaj) and Coldplay (NZ) (Savabeel) are likely to take different paths after clashing in the Gr.2 NRM Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (1400m) at Pukekohe on Saturday.

Francaletta will be out to complete a double after winning the Gr.3 Rich Hill Stud Taranaki Breeders Stakes (1400m) at Hawera last month, while Deals In Heels is also a last-start winner, having taken her record to five wins from seven starts when beating Galaxy Miss (NZ) (Tavistock) at Tauranga earlier this month.

On the other hand, Coldplay comes into Saturday's race on the fresh side, having not raced since finishing unplaced in the Gr.1 Windsor Park Plate (1600m) at Hastings on September 23. She did, however, trial well at Cambridge recently when scoring over 935 metres.

"This is the race we've targeted for Deals In Heels and Francaletta for a while," co-trainer Murray Baker said. "They could go out for a spell after this.

"Coldplay just couldn't cope with the wet tracks in the spring and she's doing well. She'll go on to some of the good races."

Coldplay has suffered worst of the trio of stablemates in the barrier draws for the Breeders Stakes, having landed 14. Deals In Heels has barrier 11 and Francaletta eight.

"She (Coldplay) has to have some luck from the draw. It's going to make it tough for her," Baker said.

Deals In Heels, the mount of Matt Cameron, would appreciate some easing of the ground, as is the case with Francaletta, who will be ridden by Michael Coleman. Johnathan Parkes has landed the ride on Coldplay.

Francaletta heads a three-pronged attack on the Gr. 2 NRM Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes for Cambridge trainers Murray Baker & Andrew Forsman

NEWS IN BRIEF

Somethingvain (NZ) (Falkirk)

Mare to decide her own future

Under-rated galloper Somethingvain (NZ) (Falkirk) will dictate her own summer programme.

The talented daughter of Falkirk is chasing a breakthrough black type victory and the direction of her quest will depend on the immediate form of the lightly-raced six-year-old.

Somethingvain's career-best performance came on her home track 12 months ago when she finished runner-up in the Gr.2 NRM Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1400m) and at Pukekohe on Saturday she will be bidding to go one better. Full story here

Crack Me Up (NZ) (Mossman)

Crack Me Up gets big drop in weights

Weights are on the mind of trainer Liam Birchley but this time in a good sense as Crack Me Up (NZ) (Mossman) heads to Doomben.

Crack Me Up takes on a strong field in Saturday's Listed Recognition Stakes (1350m) at his second run back from a spell.

There are several top quality and highly rated horses entered for the race which meant handicappers compressed the weights.

Crack Me Up, who has won three stakes races, was given the minimum of 54kg and drew barrier one.

It is a drop of 9kgs from the 63kg he carried when second at Doomben when he resumed two weeks ago.

As is usual with Birchley's horses, Crack Me Up had several days at the trainer's Archer Park complex north of Brisbane to recover from that run.

"He has really pleased me since he came back into work this time. It was a strong run under the 63kg last time," Birchley said.

"We have been thinking about taking him to Sydney for the Villiers so he will need to show us something on Saturday to justify the trip."

Autumn Wild ready for much-anticipated debut

There's no pressure on high-priced and beautifully-bred Snitzel filly Autumn Wild when she makes her debut in Saturday's Listed Ashford Lodge Stakes (1100m) at Pukekohe, says Matamata trainer Lance O'Sullivan.

O'Sullivan's Wexford Stables went to $750,000 to snare Autumn Wild at this year's Australian Easter Yearling Sale in Sydney, bought in partnership with Hermitage Thoroughbreds and Andrew Williams Bloodstock.

Hermitage Thoroughbreds have enjoyed Group One success with O'Sullivan and his co-trainer Andrew Scott in the past 14 months through Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) winner Willie Cazals (Aussie Rules) and Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) winner Summer Passage (Snitzel). Full story here

Florence Jean (NZ) (Pins)

Payback for Myers

Taupiri owner-trainer John Morell is finally off the blocks again with his talented filly Florence Jean (NZ) (Pins) and fulfilling a promise to jockey Rosie Myers.

Florence Jean will be having her first start since she finished second to Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy) in the Gr.3 Hawke's Bay Breeders Gold Trail Stakes (1200m) at Hastings a couple of months ago when she resumes in the La Nuova Apparelmaster 1200 at New Plymouth today.

The Pins filly was struck down with a virus after her trip to Hastings and it has taken longer than expected to shake the setback.

Marky Mark (Makfi)

Change of luck for Mark

An inside draw could be the key to an overdue change of fortune for Group One winner Marky Mark (Makfi) at Pukekohe on Saturday.

Marky Mark has won twice since taking the 2015 Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) at Awapuni, but in several of his subsequent starts he has been unlucky, as was the case in both his starts last autumn.

He lost his rider in the Gr.2 Windsor Park Japan NZ International Trophy (1600m) at Tauranga then copped a check when unplaced at Te Rapa the following month. And again fresh-up at Ellerslie earlier this month luck didn't go his way.

"He drew wide at Ellerslie and was trapped out and had to work too hard," co-trainer Moira Murdoch said. "It was just too tough for him."

"He's only a little horse and because of that he gets knocked around a lot in his races, but he tries."

Marky Mark has drawn the ace in the Fasttrack Insurance 1400 on Saturday and Murdoch is hoping that barrier will enable him to get a softer run and be saved up for his best work at the finish.

Breeding industry loses prolific Pentire

New Zealand has lost one of its most successful and undoubtedly versatile stallions with the death on Monday of Rich Hill Stud's Pentire.

The English-bred son of Be My Guest and the Mill Reef mare Gull Nook was the Walton farm's foundation sire and subsequently made his mark from his base near Matamata

Lot 80 Smart Missile ex Cyclone Stacey gelding

Smart Missile gelding highlight for Cambridge couple

Cambridge couple Mark and Shelley Treweek's reputation for excellence in the Karaka sale-ring has shone through once again as they took out the leading vendor by average title at this year's New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run sale of two-year-olds.

Operating under their Lyndhurst Farm banner the couple produced eleven individuals across the two days of the sale, selling nine at an average of nearly $234,000.

Day one was where their main arsenal was available with five lots offered and sold at an aggregate of $1.43 million. Leading that selection was Lot 80, a Smart Missile gelding that was knocked down to the $350,000 bid of bloodstock agent George Moore, the son of Hong Kong trainer John Moore who prepares champion New Zealand-bred galloper Werther (NZ) (Tavistock). Lot 379 Reliable Man ex Stella Doro colt

Reliable Man colt sets day two benchmark

The rising popularity of Westbury Stud stallion Reliable Man was never more in evidence than when Lot 379 hit the auction ring on day two of the NZB Ready To Run sale.

The stylish grey colt, offered through the Phoenix Park draft, is out of well performed Faltaat mare Stella Doro (NZ) and features multiple group performers Aquidity (NZ) (Avaray), The Sportsman (NZ) (Kilimanjaro) and Ombre Rose (NZ) (O'Reilly) in his extended pedigree.

With progeny such as Gr.1 Victoria Derby (2500m) runner-up Sully (NZ) flying the flag for Reliable Man in the lucrative Australian market it was no surprise that the bidding quickly escalated as multiple international interests vied to secure the colt. Full story here

Lou & Val Te Keeti

Tauranga couple set for thrill ride

Tauranga couple Lou and Val Te Keeti sat down recently to discuss where life was taking them.

With Lou nearing his 70th birthday he felt it was time to reassess the couple's goals and to decide on how they would like to see out their golden years.

"I had looked at the genealogy in my family tree and the reality was the males didn't often go too far past 70," he said. Full story here

Ellis all but fills shopping list at Karaka

Te Akau principal David Ellis had his eye in at Karaka on Wednesday.

Known for his penchant of winking his bids to the spotters, he enjoyed a near perfect strike rate during the opening session of New Zealand Bloodstock's Ready to Run Sale with nine two-year-old purchases.

"We missed one, but we bought a stunning line up of future racehorses," Ellis said. "There was a terrific international buying bench that New Zealand Bloodstock assembled and the competition was very fierce. Full story here

Patience pays dividends for vendors

Patience has paid off for vendors Nick Fairweather and Nicole Brown after they sold their Tavistock colt (lot 92) for $260,000 to Julian Blaxland of Blue Sky Bloodstock at Wednesday's session of the Ready to Run Sale.

"We are absolutely rapt with the result and really rapt with the Kiltannon team (who prepared him), they did such a great job with him," Fairweather said.

The couple purchased the colt, who is out of the Exceed and Excel mare Diva Down Under, as a weanling with intentions of pinhooking the colt for the yearling sales.

Lot 106 Hinchinbrook ex El Ashb colt

Hinchinbrook colt sought by Hong Kong buyers

David Lui and Karl Chan of new Hong Kong-based racing consortium Sweetbriar Equine created the biggest splash on day one of New Zealand Bloodstock's Ready to Run sale when they went to $460,000 for Lot 106, a good-looking son of Hinchinbrook from the Regal Farm draft.

Lui and Chan have created the Sweetbriar operation to foster their racing interests in both New Zealand and Australia and have been active players in the bloodstock scene of late.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hong Kong influence strong at Karaka

The influence of the strong Hong Kong buying bench was immediately evident during the early stages of the annual New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run sale at Karaka.

Bidding on Lot 53, a Snitzel gelding from stakes placed mare Cape Princess (NZ) (Cape Cross), from Jeremy Whale's Diamond Lodge draft was settled in favour of Hong Kong trainer Dennis Yip who outlaid $250,000 for the flashy individual.

Yip admitted he had made numerous visits to inspect the horse in the lead-up to the sale after arriving at Karaka earlier in the week. Full story here

The Lustre (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Trainers ponder Group One options with smart fillies

The Lustre (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and The Sparkle (NZ) (Darci Brahma) have proven themselves competitive against the best fillies in the country and their connections are now weighing up northern targets for the pair.

They passed the biggest tests of their fledgling careers when third and fourth respectively in the Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m), a race their owner-breeder-trainers Joe, Martin, Ray and Tony Dennis won in 2002 with the fillies' relative The Jewel (NZ) (O'Reilly).

"I was rapt with them, over the moon and to be fair it wasn't a surprise as we knew they had the ability," said Robert Dennis, who is now part of the family's Southland training operation.

"They are having a couple of weeks in the paddock and we've nominated them for the Levin Classic, but whether we go down that path has yet to be decided."

The Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand Oaks (2400m) is another serious option for the daughters of Darci Brahma.

"We don't see any reason why they won't run the distance," Dennis said.

Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel)

Million race on Hasahalo's radar

Stephen McKee is eyeing the Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) with his Riccarton heroine Hasahalo (NZ) (Savabeel).

The Ardmore trainer celebrated Group One success with the Savabeel filly last Saturday when she came from the back of the field to win the New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m).

"I was confident she was going well enough and she got a good track to show what she can do," McKee said. "Very few horses have the acceleration she has."

"She'll have a race somewhere over Christmas and then work toward the Karaka Mile."

Shadows Cast (NZ) (Per Incanto) & Son Of Maher (Al Maher)

Son Of Maher's win highlights grand Cup week

Riccarton trainers Michael and Matthew Pitman have Group One targets on Son Of Maher's (Al Maher) summer programme.

The New Zealand Cup carnival kings produced an impressive eight winners during the meeting, among them their highly-regarded five-year-old's shared victory with Shadows Cast (NZ) (Per Incanto) in the Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m).

"He's a horse that I've made no secret of the fact that I think he's the best horse I've ever trained," Michael Pitman said. Full story here

Royal Success (NZ) (Savabeel)

Change of Royal headgear

Royal Success (NZ) (Savabeel) will have a change of headgear when he attempts to regain winning form at Te Rapa next start.

The Savabeel five-year-old was tried in blinkers for the first time when he won narrowly at Rotorua last month and again wore the headgear when going down a head to Natuzzi (NZ) (Coats Choice) at Tauranga last Saturday.

"He got to the front at Tauranga then the winner ran past him and he came back and had another crack. He didn't see the other horse until he was headed by him," co-trainer Stephen Autridge said.

"We're taking the blinkers off and putting a vizor on."

"Apart from that, he's going well. He'll start next in the Listed Swap (Contractors) Sprint at Te Rapa on Waikato Cup day."

Royal Success has won five of his 11 starts and been runner-up on three occasions. All but two of his outings have been over 1400 metres, the exceptions being his two wins at 1600m.

Meanwhile, stablemate Splurge (NZ) (Savabeel) has come through his third behind Natuzzi and Royal Success last Saturday in good order and will head to the Gr.1 $200,000 Rydges Captain Cook Stakes (1600m) at Trentham on December 9.

Splurge holds a nomination for the Gr.1 $200,000 Sistema Railway (1200m) at Ellerslie on January 1.

Prince Of Passion (NZ) (Castledale)

Brave Group One performer ready to go again

Life is good for the capable Cambridge galloper Prince Of Passion (NZ) (Castledale), but it hasn't always been so.

He has had to overcome early adversity to win five races and mix it at the top level, last season finishing runner-up in the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m) at Trentham.

"He fractured a hind leg as a three-year-old and he was out for a year, he's still got three pins in the leg," part-owner and trainer Jon Miller said. Full story here

Rory Hutchings feasts on new opportunity

Chad Lever's serious tumble at Scone has presented an opportunity for Rory Hutchings, a jockey familiar with pitfalls since moving from New Zealand.

Hutchings was three times champion apprentice at home and also took the junior title in Sydney in 2015/16.

But the 22-year-old has struggled with weight and suspension at regular intervals while in Sydney.

Hutchings has been suffering this week so he can maintain his association with the unbeaten Jason Deamer-trained Bon Amis (Bon Hoffa) at Rosehill on Saturday.

Hutchings first rode the four-year-old at Newcastle last month by accident, rather than design.

"My good mate Chad got hurt. He rides most of Jason's, so I was in the right place at the right time," Hutchings said.

"Chad let me know he was still quite new and green. It didn't really matter fresh up, he was just too good."

Hutchings has 11 winners overall this season, compared to 24 for 2016/17.

"It's all starting to come together. I've sort of got in with Thoroughbred Leasing. I've done a little bit of travelling for them and got into form," Hutchings said.

Grylls takes apprentices under his wings for a day

New Zealand jockey Craig Grylls was the latest "teacher for a day" to hand out a few words of advice at the Singapore Turf Club apprentice jockey's school on Wednesday.

After the likes of Glen Boss, Corey Brown, Michael Rodd (six Melbourne Cups between them), Vlad Duric, Matthew Chadwick and Matthew "The Poon Train" shared their own experiences with the avid listeners in the past couple of years, it was Grylls' turn to give the room of 11 apprentice jockeys a literally very "uplifting" two-hour lecture shortly after trackwork.
