ELLERSLIE HIT-OUT FOR HONG KONG-BOUND BENZINI

Benzini, with Rosie Myers aboard, wins the Gr. 2 Brisbane Cup

Kelly McCulloch will keep the saddle warm for her sister Rosie Myers when the Gr.2 Brisbane Cup winner Benzini (Tale of the Cat) has his final hit-out on Saturday ahead of the Gr.1 Longines Hong Kong Vase.

Trainers Adrian and Harry Bull accepted a last minute invitation for the seven-year-old gelding to join a star-studded field at Sha Tin on December 11.

As a result, Benzini is a late entry for the Gr.3 Eagle Technology Stakes (1600m) at Ellerslie with McCulloch booked for the ride with Myers already committed to engagements at Wanganui.

Harry Bull will accompany Benzini to Hong Kong and his father Adrian is looking forward to the stable's first runner in South China.

"It's really exciting and it will be a huge experience for Harry. The horse is well too," he said.

McCulloch, who has won two races on Benzini, said she was happy to fill in for her younger sister at Ellerslie.

"The mile will probably be a bit short for him, but with him going to Hong Kong it was a race that fitted in well," McCulloch said.

In his second run back from his successful Queensland winter campaign, Benzini flashed home for second in the Gr.3 OMF Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie earlier this month.

"It was a huge run. The leader [Saint Emilion] got it all his own way and Benzini made up a lot of ground. It would be nice if he didn't get too far back on Saturday," she said.

Currently equal third on the jockeys' premiership, McCulloch has four chances at stakes level in the next two days. She also combines with the Stephen McKee-trained last-start Ellerslie winner O'Guy (NZ) (Pins) in the Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial (1500m) at Ellerslie.

At Otaki today, she rides Scapolo (NZ) (Bachelor Duke) in the Listed Chainey's Panasonic Levin Stakes (1200m) and Hello M'Lady (NZ) (Shocking) in the Gr.3 Lucia Valentina Wellington Stakes (1600m).

GENUINE FILLY CHASING DESERVED VICTORY

Well-performed maiden three-year-old Hello M'Lady (NZ) (Shocking) is overdue to take a winning trick and she has a couple of factors in her favour when seeking that elusive victory at Otaki today.

She is used to keeping black type company and the mile won't hold any fears for her either in the Gr.3 Lucia Valentina Wellington Stakes.

"She deserves to get one and I hope it's at Otaki," part-owner and trainer Vicki Prendergast said.

Hello M'Lady has placed in seven of her eight starts, including a runner-up finish in the Gr.3 Bonecrusher Stakes and a third in the Listed Wanganui Guineas, and most recently she finished fourth over 1600 metres at Ellerslie.

"She was a bit disappointing last time, but the track didn't really suit her," Prendergast said. "We were expecting rain and it didn't come.

"I think she's right back in it now and she turned in a beautiful gallop on Tuesday."

Her connections are also keen on a Gr.1 Wellfield New Zealand Oaks preparation for the daughter of Shocking, who they believe will have no trouble coping with middle distances.

"We plan to race her over Christmas and the New Year so she will need a break at some stage," Prendergast said.

"We'll see what happens on Friday, but the problem with her is that if you give her a week off it takes two months to get the weight back off her."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Maraini (NZ) (Exceed And Excel)

Well-bred Maraini in fine fettle

Maraini (NZ) (Exceed And Excel) is in top order for the first black type challenge of his fledgling career in today's Gr.3 Lucia Valentina Wellington Stakes at Otaki.

"He's got ability and is a promising horse," said Murray Baker, who trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman. "We are pretty happy with him."

Maraini is part-owned by Lib Petagna, who also raced the multiple Group One winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel).

A half-brother by Exceed And Excel to Group winner Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock), he won a Matamata maiden on debut and then finished runner-up to the promising Rising Shot (NZ) (Red Giant) at Te Rapa.

Cylinder Beach (NZ) (Showcasing)

Tarrant to ride Cylinder Beach

Trainer Desleigh Forster has booked Luke Tarrant to ride Cylinder Beach (NZ) (Showcasing) in Saturday's Listed Recognition Stakes (1400m) at Eagle Farm with several of her regular riders committed to other runners.

Forster said Tarrant had ridden a few horses for her lately and she was impressed with his attitude.

Forster expects Cylinder Beach to race well despite a two-week delay to his return.

Cylinder Beach, who won the Gr.3 Gunsynd Stakes during the winter, was originally to make his comeback run at Doomben when the meeting was washed out by a heavy storm.

Forster then elected not to run him in the Listed Keith Noud Quality last Saturday won by stablemate Too Good To Refuse (Rothsay).

"Cylinder Beach is working well and he is fit enough to run well at the 1400 metres in the Recognition Stakes," she said.

Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder)

Sprinter on track for Railway

Impressive last-start winner Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder) will take another step toward a Group One goal at Otaki today.

The lightly-ried Wanganui-owned and trained six-year-old's programme will take in the Listed Chainey's Panasonic Levin Stakes.

"He's coming along really well," said Evan Rayner, who prepares the gelding with his daughter J.J. "We did think about the Concorde for him as well, but he'll go straight to the Railway Stakes."

Start Wondering also holds a nomination for the Gr.1 J. R & N. Berkett Telegraph.

"Going down the chute at Trentham is like a 1400 metre race at times and we're probably going to step him up to a mile at some stage anyway," Rayner said. Full story here.

Barcelo (NZ) (Alamosa)

Barcelo on trial for middle-distance assignment

Peter McKay describes his talented three-year-old Barcelo (NZ) (Alamosa) as a different horse with the addition of blinkers.

The Matamata trainer will step the Alamosa gelding out in tomorrow's Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial (1500m) at Ellerslie hoping for a strong showing from a galloper he earlier wasn't sure would race well past 1200m.

"He's pretty good. He's coming into the race well," McKay said.

"Earlier in his career, I'd take him to Ruakaka and he'd take a bit of time to bounce through them, but he's come through his last couple of races really well.

"He's out of a Zabeel mare and if he races well this weekend we might step him up to 2100m in two weeks' time." Full story here.

Cruising Speed looking to step up to stakes class

The lightly raced Cruising Speed (NZ) (Savabeel) will have her first crack at black type level when lining up in Saturday's Listed Colin McAlpine AM Memorial Classic at Eagle Farm.

The winner of four of her seven starts, Cruising Speed is coming off a last-start victory earlier this month on the Queensland track when ridden by James Orman, who will partner her again this weekend.

Trained by John Meagher with his son Chris, the four-year-old was purchased by Grant Morgan's Ontrack Thoroughbreds out of Waikato Stud's 2014 NZB Premier Sale draft for $80,000.

Cruising Speed will jump from barrier four in a capacity field of eighteen fillies and mares headed by Sydney visitor Private Secretary (Husson).

Five To Midnight favoured at Wanganui

Lightly raced four-year-old Five To Midnight (NZ) (Domesday) has opened favourite on the TAB bookmakers Final Field market for tomorrow's Listed Civics@ Cambridge Thoroughbred Lodge Wanganui Cup.

The Lisa Latta trained gelding is at $3.80 with last year's Listed Feilding Cup winner Balthwayt (NZ) (Colombia) next in the betting at $5.50. The pair clashed last month in this season's edition of the Feilding Cup with Five To Midnight finishing third, ahead of Balthwayt in fourth, behind recent Gr. 3 New Zealand Cup winner Pump Up The Volume (NZ) (Savabeel).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Five To Midnight will be having the third start in his current campaign as he builds towards a tilt at the major staying features later in the summer, commencing with the Gr. 3 Laser Plumbing Te Puke City Of Auckland Cup (2400m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day.

Opie Bosson

Bosson enjoys warm welcome home

Opie Bosson has been welcomed back into the fold.

The champion jockey, who has ended his Hong Kong contract by mutual consent, has arrived back in New Zealand and he will have a strong book of mounts at the twilight meeting at Ellerslie tomorrow and will also ride at Te Rapa on Sunday.

In addition, he has been engaged to ride the talented Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock) in the Gr.1 Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes at Trentham on Saturday week.

Bosson struggled for form mounts in Hong Kong, especially in the new season. He won four races from 95 mounts in the last quarter of the 2015-16 season, but had just one win from 70 rides in the new season.

"I'm looking forward to getting on some nice horses here rather than slow ones," he said. "I didn't have much luck in Hong Kong, especially in the second half. Full story here.

Interstellar (NZ) (Shamoline Warrior)

Interstellar set to reach greater heights

Tommy Berry is hoping Interstellar's (NZ) (Shamoline Warrior) stakes potential can shine through at Rosehill in the Roadwork Solutions Handicap (1200m) as he looks to extend his solid form after an enforced holiday.

"She's a mare that I think could reach stakes grade if she gets to her full potential," Berry said.

Interstellar signalled some of that promise by winning her Australian debut at Rosehill in July where she worked across from a wide barrier to sit outside the lead and sprint home the strongest over 1200m.

Interstellar is a half-sister to 2015 NZ Oaks winner Savaria (NZ) (Savabeel) and Berry, who won a 900m barrier trial on her on November 7, said she had matured since winter.

Her Hong Kong-based owner and Cathay Pacific pilot Gary Lui transferred her from Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards to Hawkes Racing after two wins from five starts in New Zealand.

"It feels like she'll get over a little bit further this time," Berry said.

"Hopefully she could reach a mile. That would open a few more doors for her anyway."

Quality on display at Ellerslie

Multiple Group One winner Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) will team up with his talented stablemate Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock) in an exhibition gallop at Ellerslie tomorrow.

The outing will further their preparations for the Gr.1 Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes at Trentham a week later.

Volkstok'n'barrell, who has made a good recovery from a stone bruise that forced him out of the recent Gr.2 Tauranga Stakes, hasn't raced since the Queensland winter carnival.

"He's on the big side and will benefit from the run at Trentham, but he's well in himself and we are pretty happy with him," said Donna Logan, who trains in partnership with Chris Gibbs.

Kiwi set for first appearance

The Hassler (NZ) (Shocking) will make his Hong Kong debut as Circuit Hassler this weekend.

The son of Shocking won last season's Gr.2 Championship Stakes at Ellerslie from Roger James' stable before his sale.

Now trained by Tony Cruz, Circuit Hassler is set to make his first appearance at Sha Tin on Sunday in the Chevalier Cup, a 1600 metre handicap.

Kawi's trainer in confident mood

Allan Sharrock feels he is a step closer to ticking off a career goal.

"This could be my chance to win a Group One in Australia," the Taranaki trainer said following Kawi's (NZ) (Savabeel) encouraging run for sixth in Saturday's Gr.1 Railway Stakes at Ascot.

"I thought his run was terrific, I couldn't be any happier. He pulled up well, it was like a track gallop for him – he never got clear in the straight and a blind man could see it was one of the runs of the race."

Kawi will make his next appearance in the Gr.1 Kingston Town Classic on December 3.

Kiwi-bred for Perth feature

New Zealand galloper Hazzabeel (NZ) (Zabeel) is headed to Perth for a crack at the Gr.1 Kingston Town Classic on December 3.

The half-brother by Zabeel to the former champion two-year-old Vespa (NZ) (Elusive City) booked his trip with a last-start victory in the Kilmore Cup for new trainer Ciaran Maher, after previously racing for Western Australian trainer Dan Morton.

"I think he'll get on a flight to WA on Friday and we'll have a look at the Kingstown Town," Maher said.

Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto)

Crack Kiwi 3YO heading to Sydney

Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) will do his future racing in Australia following a change in the top three-year-old's ownership.

Prominent breeder Kevin Hickman, of Valachi Downs, and Hamilton's Todd Bawden have taken the majority interest in the Gr.1 NZ 2000 Guineas winner, who will be transferred to the Sydney stable of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott.

Hickman is also a part-owner of Ugo Foscolo's sire Zacinto and he has moved to both protect and promote his assets.

"There had been a lot of interest in Ugo Foscolo from a lot of places and Kevin wanted to ensure the horse was keeping Group One company in Australia for the stallion," said Valachi Downs manager Jonathan Scully. Full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo)

Humidor transfers to record-breaker Weir

Hot staying prospect Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo) will retain his strong New Zealand ties, even though his future remains in Australia.

The gifted four-year-old stayed in Melbourne following his unplaced run during the spring carnival in the Gr.1 Cantala Stakes at Flemington where he was denied clear room in the run home.

"The approaches were coming straight after that and we had quite a few before as well," said John Carter, who shares in the ownership with his brother Mark and their sister Rachael under their Jomara Bloodstock banner.

The successful offer came from clients of the leading Victorian trainer Darren Weir, who sent out a Commonwealth record of 347 winners in the 2015-16 season.

"We've sold 50 per cent of him and he's spelling on one of Darren Weir's agistment farms. At this stage, we'd assume he'd come back for an autumn campaign," Carter said.

Humidor was previously trained by Johno Benner and Hollie Wynyard and he won four of his 10 starts under their guidance.

"It's a business and with Darren Weir he's in a good place," Benner said.

Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking)

Fanatic to chase summer Cups

Group One winner Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking) is likely to begin her build up toward the summer staying features next month.

"She's in good shape and I'm hoping to have her ready to run on December 10 in the fillies and mares' race at Te Rapa," said Graeme Sanders, who prepares the four-year-old with his daughter Debbie Sweeney.

The Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes over a mile is the race they have in mind for last season's New Zealand Oaks winner, whose spring campaign in Australia was halted by a spider bite.

"She's good now and we're aiming her at the City of Auckland Cup, the Avondale Cup and the Auckland Cup," Sanders said.

Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi)

Sofia Rosa in Group One condition

The sight of the Gr.1 Australian Oaks winner Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi) blooming in the paddock has helped ease the disappointment Stephen Marsh felt at losing the classic winner Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) from his stable.

The daughter of Makfi will return to work early next month and Marsh, who trains at Cambridge, was thrilled when he inspected the mare last weekend.

"She has done tremendously well and looks amazing," he said. "I was thrilled to bits and she looks back to where she was."

Sofia Rosa won three Group races as a three-year-old and was relegated from first to second in the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks, before recording a decisive win the Australian Oaks at Randwick.

She was high on the early betting markets for the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup, but failed to come up in the spring and was put aside after three starts in Melbourne.

"We will leave her out for a bit longer and then work out an autumn programme for her. She will probably kick off here somewhere and then most likely head to Sydney."

Plan of attack confirmed for quality 4YO

Battle Time's (NZ) (Battle Paint) bold front-running display at Riccarton will be a blueprint for the future.

The four-year-old was swiftly into stride from a wide gate in the Gr.2 Coupland's

Bakeries Mile to make the running and he held a strong gallop to post a clear-cut victory under Sam Spratt.

"We think that's his best style of racing, it's taken a wee while to work it out and he's come through that race like it never happened," said Tim Carter, who prepares the entire with his wife Margaret at Cambridge.

"We do have a plan in mind now and we're going to press forward to the Captain Cook Stakes. He's a four-year-old stallion and he's best off in those sort of races.

"Sometimes they can have other things on their minds, but he's pretty good at the moment. It's back to weight-for-age, but he can carry weight." Full story here.

Allpress making the most of her time off

Champion jockey Lisa Allpress is taking a glass half full attitude along her lengthy road back to full fitness.

Her husband Karl and their children Josh and Angus will have her undivided attention during the recovery process following a serious leg injury in October that cut short her riding stint in Japan.

"It's lovely to be able to spend much more time with them," she said.

Allpress, who was named the Wanganui Sportswoman of the Year last Friday night, recently returned home to Wanganui to continue her rehabilitation following surgery in Japan. Full story here.

Sales catalogues online

New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sales series catalogues are now online with hard copies to be mailed in early December.

A combined 1347 yearlings will be sold across six days in the Premier, Select and Festival Sales, commencing on Monday, January 30.

Big offering in current gavelhouse.com NZ catalogue

The most recent catalogue for gavelhouse.com

New Zealand is now online with a bumper offering of 67 Lots.

"There are some nice horses yet to find homes after the Ready to Run Sale last week so we're giving them another throw at the stumps in the hope that there may be some buyers out there that perhaps thought the sale might have been out of their league until now" commented gavelhouse.com Sales and Marketing Manager Haylie Martin.

In total there are 37 Ready to Run horses with breeze up footage and most with x-rays on offer.

Making up the balance of the catalogue are a mix of 30 yearlings, broodmares and two year olds.

Bidding is currently open in the auction and closes from 7pm (NZ time) on Monday 28 November. View the full catalogue here and for assistance registering and bidding contact Haylie Martin, haylie@gavelhouse.com or phone +64226378127

NEW ZEALAND RACING
HALL OF FAME

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Hector Gray

Controversial champion Jockey who was an outstanding race tactician

Legendary for his clashes with racing authority Gray was put out of racing on two occasions for periods of two and three years, but the most notable was his suspension for life, which was later remitted to five years.

Whatever the misdemeanours were, no-one could take away from the fact that Hector Gray was one of the most talented jockeys New Zealand has ever seen.

Riding what was then a record of 921 winners in New Zealand, Gray was the first to ride a "century" in a season, kicking home 116 winners in 1930-31.

He won seven premierships, the first in 1909-10 and the last in 1930-31. Had he not spent so much time out of the saddle and riding overseas there is no doubt he would have won plenty more titles.

Riding in Australia, England, Belgium and France, he had the notable achievement of riding a winner in his first ride in each country and internationally rode more than 100 winners.

Hector Gray's character led him to push the boundaries. His character was no doubt also the reason he achieved the reputation of being one of our all time greatest jockeys.
