BONNEVAL SHOOTs FOR SEVEN STRAIGHT

Bonneval will be shooting for seven straight victories when she tackles the Gr. 1 Caulfield Stakes tomorrow

Four-year-old mare Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi) goes into Saturday's Gr.1 A$1 million Caulfield Stakes (2000m) in a rich vein of form.

After 10 career starts, the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained daughter of Makfi has won seven, including three Group Ones in her current winning sequence of six.

The dual Oaks winner has captured the imagination of the racing public on both sides of the Tasman, and boasts impressive victories in the Gr.2 Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes (1600m) and Gr.1 Underwood Stakes (1800m) this campaign.

"She just keeps winning and winning good races. People love a horse that keeps raising the bar and winning impressively," Forsman said.

Bonneval is disputing Caulfield Stakes favouritism with Hartnell (Authorized), but she is alone at the top of markets for the Gr.1 A$3 million Caulfield Cup (2400m) on October 21.

"She's going really well and she's just about to let go of the last bit of her winter coat so she's looking good at the right time," Forsman said.

"She's shaping like she's looking for a staying trip, looking for further than the 2000m on Saturday, but there's no doubt she's got the class to win.

"They rode Hartnell back last time so it will be interesting to see if they go forward with him on Saturday but we'll be riding our race with both of ours."

Joining Bonneval in the Caulfield Stakes is Baker and Forsman's Gr.1 Australian Derby winner Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj), a smart last-start winner of the Gr.3 JRA Cup (2040m) at Moonee Valley and also using Saturday's race as a lead-up to the Caulfield Cup.

"He's thrived over there," Forsman said of the Iffraaj entire.

"The question with him is 2000m weight-for-age, he's not ideally placed because he's another one now looking for 2400m. We're just looking for another good, solid run from him ahead of the Caulfield Cup."

Bonneval was already assured of a start in the Caulfield Cup before her Underwood win made her exempt from ballot and Jon Snow has a start guaranteed at sixth spot on the order of entry but stablemate Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) remains less certain of a start at 20th on the order for the 18-horse field.

The Zabeel mare will seek to further enhance her chances of a start when she tackles Sunday's Listed Cranbourne Cup (2025m).

"We're really happy with her. She was unlucky last time at Moonee Valley but she should get her chance on Sunday," Forsman said.

"If she's going to be competitive in a Caulfield Cup, she should probably be winning the Cranbourne Cup. She needs to show that she deserves her chance and while Cranbourne is a tight-turning track and probably not ideal for her, hopefully she can get the breaks and take advantage of her opportunity."

WYNDSPELLE READY FOR GROUP ONE CHALLENGE

Mick Kent is hoping a handier gate on Saturday will boost the Group One chances of the New Zealand-bred and owned Wyndspelle (NZ) (Iffraaj) in the Toorak Handicap (1600m) at Caulfield.

The Cranbourne trainer can't fault the son of Iffraaj's condition and he has also been more than satisfied with the four-year-old's lead-up efforts.

"He's got the ability, he just got too far back the other day and from a better barrier we're hopeful he will be in a more winnable position," Kent said.

At his latest appearance, Wyndspelle drew the outside in the Listed Paris Lane Stakes (1400m) at Flemington and got home strongly for second. At his previous start, he also found the line well to finish runner-up over 1400m at Caulfield.

"He's thriving, we're really happy with him," Kent said. "It's a good edition of the Toorak, in past years it hasn't been as strong, but he's going really well."

As long as Wyndspelle races up to expectations on Saturday, he will head to Flemington for the A$1 million Gr.1 Cantala Stakes (1600m) on November 4.

"While he's down in the weights we'll be having a go," Kent said.

Wyndspelle won two races, including the Gr.2 Waikato Guineas (2000m), and placed in the Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) and in the Gr.2 Sarten Memorial (1400m) from the stable of Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs before his move to Victoria.

Bloodstock agent Phill Cataldo was instrumental in the horse joining Kent's operation.

"I've been lucky enough to have been doing business with Mick ever since he was in Singapore, I owe him a lot," he said.

"Wyndspelle was up to the better two and three-year-olds in New Zealand and Donna did a fantastic job.

"When the owners thought they'd have a shot at the stumps I suggested Mick was the obvious choice. He's a very good trainer.

"The horse is still a stallion so we're trying to enhance his value, hopefully he's good enough. We'll see on Saturday."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour)

Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Summer Passage (Snitzel)

Purcell has chance to win first G1 race

Aaron Purcell will saddle up his first Group One runner since stepping up early last week to take charge of Ciaron Maher's big team at Caulfield after the trainer was suspended for six months over the ownership bona fides of five horses in his stable.

Purcell, who continues to run his Warrnambool stable, has had three winners this week and is excited to be running Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) in Saturday's Thousand Guineas (1600m).

"We've had four winners now including a Bairnsdale Cup so as long as we keep getting winners, everyone is going to be happy," Purcell said.

Aloisia was runner-up in the Gr.1 J J Atkins Stakes (1600m) in Queensland last season and closed off well for fifth to Guineas rival Leather'n'lace (Street Cry) over 1400m on September 23 in her spring return while still in Maher's care.

Purcell has been impressed by Aloisia ahead of her first start for him.

"She's going great," he said.

"She's probably going to be better suited over a bit further, possibly the Oaks, but there's no reason why she shouldn't run a really good race."

Francaletta chasing rich spoils

Francaletta (NZ) (High Chaparral) is ready for redemption.

That's the view of Cambridge trainer Andrew Forsman as he puts the finishing polish on the five-year-old High Chaparral mare ahead of Saturday's Gr.3 Rich Hill Stud Taranaki Breeders' Stakes (1400m) at Hawera.

The Lib Petagna-raced Francaletta had only once been beaten leading into her last start in the Gr.3 Boehringer Ingelheim Metric Mile (1550m) at Awapuni but she could only manage fifth place. Full story here

Group Three opportunity for quality mare

Rich Hill Stud Taranaki Breeders' Stakes (1400m) contender Thee Auld Floozie (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) will take a step back in class tomorrow.

She will run in the Group Three contest at Hawera after unplaced efforts in the Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m) and in the Gr.1 Windsor Park Plate (1600m).

"Her work has been very good and if we could get a better track it would help her," trainer Stephen Marsh said.

The Cambridge conditioner also confirmed stablemate Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi) would be heading back to Hawke's Bay for the rescheduled Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) on October 22.

"She's really well and she'll definitely be running at Hastings," he said.

Chocante keeping family in Cup running

Cambridge-trained stayer Chocante (NZ) (Shocking) has one more test to pass to keep the Marsh family in with a shot at a unique family double.

Should the son of Shocking run up to expectations in Saturday's St Leger Stakes (2600m) at Randwick, a start in the Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) beckons.

Chocante is prepared by Stephen Marsh, whose father Bruce rode Silver Knight (NZ) (Alcimedez) to win the 1971 Cup at Flemington before embarking on a successful training career in New Zealand and for the last 12 years in Singapore. Full story here

Focus back on Coolmore for Kiwi colt

A horror gate has delayed Summer Passage's (Snitzel) quest for an Australian Group One title.

Connections were dealt a blow when the Matamata-trained colt was allotted the outside gate for Saturday's Gr.1 Caulfield

Guineas (1600m) and following due diligence they have decided to bypass the $A2 million feature.

"It's just too hard from out there in a race like that," said Lance O'Sullivan, who prepares the son of Snitzel with Andrew Scott.

"I spoke with his owner and he's obviously disappointed, but understood how tough it would be so we're going back to our original plan."

Raced by the Hong Kong-based Eugene Chuang under his Hermitage Thoroughbreds banner, Summer Passage will now run in the Gr.3 Blue Sapphire Stakes (1200m) at Caulfield next Wednesday as a lead in to the Gr.1 Coolmore Stud Stakes (1200m) at Flemington on November 4.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Premiere (NZ) (Dylan Thomas)

Impressive Premiere sprints away with Happy Valley feature

Premiere (NZ) (Dylan Thomas) dashed to an exhilarating victory in the Class 2 Kwoon Chung Bus Cup Handicap (1000m) at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

"I don't think I've ridden a horse as fast as that, he's so quick," jockey Karis Teetan declared after the John Size-trained galloper had clocked a bullet 56.67s, the fastest at the course and distance since December, 2014.

"He's stronger now as a four-year-old but he won't be aimed at the internationals," Size said, referencing December's G1 LONGINES Hong Kong Sprint (1200m). "He's limited to five furlongs – the 1200 is too far, so he'll go for the next 1000-metre race at Sha Tin."

The win was Premiere's fifth from 14 Hong Kong starts and made it two from two this campaign.

Kapoor (NZ) (Reliable Man)

Filly books Soliloquy berth

Kapoor's (NZ) (Reliable Man) maiden success at Taupo on Wednesday has confirmed a black type opportunity.

"She's a professional and we think a lot of her," trainer John Bell said. "The Soliloquy Stakes will be next for her."

Kapoor was taken on in front in the NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race (1300m) before the Reliable Man filly responded generously for rider Alysha Collett at the top of the straight to forge clear.

"She's a lovely filly and she's got a nomination for Christchurch," said Bell, referring to the Gr.1 gavelhouse.com New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m).

Woodloveto (NZ) (Redwood)

4YO turning fortunes around

Hard work had its reward at Taupo where Woodloveto (NZ) (Redwood) made up for lost time with his first winning strike.

Runner-up on debut last month, the four-year-old lengthened stride in good style in the straight to claim the Mills Reef Winery 1800m in Troy Harris' hands.

"He's got a massive stride and covers the ground with ease," trainer Samantha Logan said. "He came to me as a naughty child, he'd been misbehaving in his work."

Woodloveto was formerly with Logan's mother Donna, who shares in the ownership, and her Ruakaka training partner Chris Gibbs.

A subsequent training regime that has included hill work at Ann Browne's Cambridge property and schooling has contributed to the Redwood gelding's improved attitude.

Boots 'N' All (NZ) (Perfectly Ready)

Start in Riccarton feature up for grabs

Boots 'N' All (NZ) (Perfectly Ready) will be given every opportunity to prove he's worthy of a crack at a stakes prize during next month's New Zealand Cup carnival.

He has a nomination for the Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m) at Riccarton and the five-year-old's next couple of starts will determine if he takes his place in the November 15 event.

"His lead-up form is going to tell us if he's good enough," trainer Lance Robinson said. "Otherwise, there are other options at the meeting for him."

Boots 'N' All will further his preparation in the Equine Veterinary Services Sprint (1200m) at Phar Lap Raceway today.

Reliable Man

Positive signs for Reliable Man

The signs are good for Westbury Stud stallion Reliable Man, following a string of impressive performances from his southern hemisphere progeny in recent weeks.

With his eldest Australasian progeny now three, the dual Group One winning son of Dalakhani has a slew of promising gallopers threatening to feature in Classic races this spring.

Trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young were responsible for his first two Australian winners in the form of Sully (NZ) and Main Stage (NZ). Full story here

Aim Smart (Smart Missile)

Aim Smart on target for Zacinto

Cambridge three-year-old Aim Smart (Smart Missile) is likely to make his next appearance in the South Island.

Unplaced after a troublesome run in the Gr.2 Hawke's Bay Guineas (1400m), the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) prospect will enjoy a look around Riccarton before the classic.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"He'll probably go down for the Zacinto Stakes," trainer Tony Pike said.

Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) fared best of his runners in last Saturday's Hastings feature when second off a wide run while Felton Road (NZ) (Pins) and Haussmann (NZ) (Pour Moi) failed to threaten after interrupted runs.

"Bostonian will head to the Sarten Memorial and Felton Road and Haussmann will be given short breaks and come back with the Levin Classic in mind," he said.

Pike enjoyed success with another of his three-year-old team at Taupo on Wednesday when Mulanchi (NZ) (Makfi) broke his maiden in the Kiwi Contractors 1300m.

"He relaxed nicely outside the leader," he said. "I think he'll go on to bigger and better things later on."

Vin De Dance (NZ) (Roc De Cambes)

Vin De Dance, who flew to Australia on Wednesday, was a debut winner at Pukekohe last month and he has finished runner-up in two subsequent outings, both at Te Rapa.

Summer focus for exciting Dolcetto

A foot ailment is likely to curtail the spring programme of the rising central districts star Dolcetto (NZ) (Per Incanto).

Although not serious, it may prompt trainer Sylvia Kay to take the opportunity to give the five-year-old a break before building toward summer targets.

"He had seedy toe and the farrier dug it out and had to go quite a way up and the horse was a bit tentative, but he's coming right," she said.

The condition, a separation of the hoof wall, came to light after Dolcetto's last gallop. Full story here

Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel)

Embellishing well-bred colt's record top priority

The team behind exciting three-year-old prospect Embellish (NZ) (Savabeel) are plotting their final move toward Christchurch.

On the strength of an impressive last-start maiden win, the colt is the current pre-post favourite for next month's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Christchurch.

"We're weighing up what we do next, there's only time for one more run," said Jamie Richards, who trains Embellish with Stephen Autridge. Full story here

Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Stakes goal for Euphoria

Lightly-raced mare Euphoria (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) is likely to make one more appearance before she heads to Christchurch.

Trainer Rachael Frost has set the Rip Van Winkle four-year-old for the Gr.3 Valachi Downs Canterbury Breeders' Stakes (1400m) on the middle day of next month's New Zealand Cup carnival.

Euphoria opened her campaign with a first-up success at New Plymouth, the third of her six-start career, and an outing at the rescheduled Hawke's Bay meeting on October 22 is next on her programme. Full story here

On Derby trail

The lightly-raced Vin De Dance (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) has joined Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman's team in Melbourne.

The son of Roc de Cambes races in the colours of OTI Racing, who are keen to give the gelding the opportunity to earn a spot in the Gr.1 VRC Derby (2500m).

"He's run three very good races and if he can stay he'll be competitive," Forsman said.

Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Decision pending on Livamol return for Gingernuts

The connections of Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) will take their time before committing to a start in the rescheduled Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m).

Their Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m) hopes were dashed when the Hastings meeting on Saturday was abandoned before the weight-for-age event could be run.

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing and the Hawke's Bay Club have announced the Livamol Classic will now be run at Hawke's Bay on October 22. Full story here

Sam Beatson

Beatson ready to run

Waikato-based horseman Sam Beatson is currently preparing 29 two-year-olds for the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run sale in November, his third under his Riversley Park banner.

He runs his business from a 50-acre purpose built facility near Ohaupo, having previously operated Beatson Stables with cousin Jamie, who has now established Ohukia Lodge near Karapiro.

The nephew of Olympian Maurice Beatson, Sam has come from a sport horse background and represented New Zealand in showjumping, competing in both Australia and India. Full story here

Sam Weatherley

Weatherley off to Algeria

Last season's leading apprentice jockey Sam Weatherley will be flying out to Algeria after his rides at Matamata on Saturday to compete in the HH. Sheikhha Fatima Bint Mubarak World apprentice championship.

The Matamata rider, apprenticed to Lance O'Sullivan, will be the first New Zealand jockey to compete in the series after New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) was welcomed into the International Federation of Horse Racing Academies (IFHRA).

"In February, New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing was accepted as a member of IFHRA, which is run out of Abu Dhabi by the Sheik Mansoor Racing Festival," NZTR Education and Training Consultant Chris Watson said.

Royal Fashion (Snitzel)

Smart 4YO crossing Tasman

Black type mare Royal Fashion (Snitzel) is to continue her career in Australia.

Raced by prominent Hong Kong-based owner Dr Gene Tsoi, the daughter of Snitzel won twice from 10 starts for Cambridge trainer Mark Forbes and ran second in last season's Gr.3 Mongolian Khan Trophy (1200m).

"She's on a flight tomorrow and she's going to David Hayes, who Gene has had a long association with," Forbes said.

"The tracks here haven't helped and there's a lot better races over there for fillies and mares."

War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly)

War Affair returns to Trelawney

Trainer Bruce Marsh had an interesting piece of trivia to share after he decided champion galloper War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly) would be staying at Trelawney Stud for a six-month spell.

"Here's a bit of nostalgia for you. War Affair will be spelling at Trelawney Stud where he was born," said the former jockey.

"That's also the stud where Silver Knight was born."

Silver Knight (NZ) (Alcimedez) is of course the horse Marsh rode to his biggest triumph as a jockey, the Melbourne Cup (3200m) in 1971.

Prepared by Eric Temperton, Silver Knight and Marsh combined earlier the same year to capture one of New Zealand's biggest staying tests, the New Zealand St Leger (2500m).

"It's just one of these things, but it's nice to have those little anecdotes to talk about once in a while," said Marsh.

"We've already booked War Affair's flight and he is leaving at the beginning of November."

Connections hope to bring War Affair back to Kranji should he overcome his respiratory issues.
