VASE NEXT STEP ON OAKS PATH FOR ALOISIA

Aloisia will be in action at Moonee Valley tomorrow as she prepares to tackle the Gr. 1 VRC Oaks during the Melbourne Cup Carnival

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) is following the Jameka (Myboycharlie) path to the VRC Oaks and will be out to pick up another feature race win on the way.

The three-year-old won the Thousand Guineas (1600m) at her most recent start, giving her new trainer Aaron Purcell his first Group One victory.

Saturday's Gr.2 Vase (2040m) at Moonee Valley is the filly's next start, the same race Jameka won two years ago before taking out the Oaks (2500m) at Flemington.

Trainer Ciaran Maher won the Oaks with Jameka, who finished second in the Thousand Guineas before winning the Vase, and Maher also trained Aloisia until he started a six-month suspension earlier this month.

Purcell stepped in to take over training Maher's large team, with the Thousand Guineas Aloisia's first start for him.

Darren Beadman

Sweynesse, is a son of former champion racehorse and super sire Lonhro. Beadman rode Lonhro in most of his 26 wins and he gets to work with many of that horse's sons and daughters at Godolphin.

- A multiple Group One performer (2nd G1 Randwick Guineas, 3rd G1 Spring Champion) beating some of the best 3YO Group One winners in Australia including Kermedec, Preferment, Hampton Court, Shooting To Win, First Seal.
- Winner of first four starts including dual Group 3 wins in the Spring Stakes and Gloaming Stakes.
- A winner at only start as a 2YO.
- A top 3YO Timeform rating of 122 makes Sweynesse one of the top Australian 3YO colts of his year.
- By Lonhro -The Champion 3YO, the Champion miler, the Horse of the Year, and now a Champion sire. Lonhro set a new Australian record of 160 individual winners in a season. His son Pierro, unbeaten juvenile Triple Crown winner, was rated the best juvenile colt in Australia since 1977.
- Out of the multiple winning mare Swansea by Champion Sire Singspiel (5xG1 Winner and sire of 98SW).
- Sweynesse is a magnificent individual. He stands 16.2 hh. He has a powerful hind quarter, a strong shoulder and a great athletic walk. He is very correct.
- Sweynesse is syndicated amongst many of New Zealand's top breeders who are strongly supporting him at stud.

Aloisia's spring program had been pencilled after her winter campaign in Queensland.

Purcell said the filly was quite sharp in her gallop at Moonee Valley on Tuesday alongside stablemate Pemberley (NZ) (Darci Brahma).

And despite already winning the Guineas, Purcell believes there is improvement to come this spring.

"She's still got a bit of improvement in her," Purcell said.

"She's been trained to win the Oaks, so we deliberately haven't given her a hard preparation so far.

"She'll come on from Tuesday's gallop and she'll come on again from The Vase and go straight to the Oaks."

Aloisia is one of two fillies in the field of 10 and will jump from barrier one for Luke Nolan.

From the only Southern Hemisphere crop of the ill-fated Azamour, who stood at Brighthill Farm, Aloisia is out of the former smart juvenile Queen Boudicca.

Aloisia was bred by her original trainer Jason Price, his wife Kelly and her brother Michael Hall.

Price prepared Aloisia to finish fifth on debut before she rattled home to finish second at Trentham behind subsequent Group One performer Belle du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man).

The talented filly caught the eye of respected bloodstock agent Phill Cataldo, who negotiated her private sale to Terry Henderson's OTI racing operation.

TRENTHAM FOCUS FOR TE AKAU

Matamata trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards are cooking up a plan to have Beaumarchais (NZ) (Savabeel) ready to take out next month's Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m) at Riccarton.

The training duo will produce four-year-old Beaumarchais in Saturday's Gr.3 Grant Plumbing Thompson Handicap (1600m) at Trentham as a key lead-up to the New Zealand Cup week feature in Christchurch.

"We're throwing him in the deep end a bit this weekend, second-up in the Thompson but he's carrying only 53 kilos and we'd like to think he'd be a genuine lightweight chance in the Coupland's," Richards said.

Beaumarchais has won just twice in 10 starts but he finished fourth in last season's Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) and second in the Gr.3 Manawatu Classic (2000m) before resuming with a third placing over 1400m at Ruakaka earlier this month.

"He pleased us with his run at Ruakaka. There was a bit of bias towards frontrunners that day, as there can be at Ruakaka, and he was doing his best work on the line from back in running," Richards said.

"He's improved out of that race and the form out of that race has stacked up since with [runner-up] Royal Success winning at Rotorua last Saturday.

"Danielle [Johnson, jockey] came over and galloped him on the course proper on Tuesday and his work was very good. We're just having a go at a couple of good handicap races while he's down in the ratings a bit."

Beaumarchais showed real staying promise as a three-year-old last season but Richards was happy to give him his chance to shine at 1600m through the spring.

"The good ones can stretch out to a distance as a three-year-old but sometimes can't as an older horse so we're just working him out on that score at the moment," Richards said.

"We've had a bit of a hold up with him with the wet spring but we've done plenty with him and he's going very well at the moment. His coat has really turned in the last week."

Autridge and Richards have their team spread far and wide this weekend but Trentham will also be a key focus for two promising youngsters from the stable.

I Am Invincible two-year-old filly Queen Of The Air makes her stakes debut in the Listed Anuka Smoker Wellesley Stakes (1000m) after a fast-finishing Pukekohe second on debut and Savabeel colt Embellish (NZ) has his final 2000 Guineas leadup in the Hiremaster Premier (1400m).

"Embellish has drawn a bit awkwardly but he'll come in after the emergencies come out. He's got to step up but we think he's going well and his form stacks up," Richards said.

"He's got to win or be unlucky in not winning to get to Riccarton."

"Queen Of The Air is a laid-back filly that's still quite green so we've put blinkers on and she worked strongly in them with Embellish the other morning. It's a small but select field but we think she will go well."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo)

Blinkers for Humidor

Dual Group One winner Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo) will have blinkers applied when he lines up in the Gr.1 Cox Plate (2040m) on Saturday against champion mare Winx (Street Cry).

The Darren Weir-trained gelding was most recently seen running fifth in the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m) in a bubble cheeker.

"He's got blinkers on so hopefully that will assist with him laying-in a little bit but he's obviously done that in a lot of his runs," said jockey Blake Shinn, who replaces regular rider Damian Lane.

"Darren Weir is a master, so the blinkers on, hopefully that's the ace up his sleeve with him that he needs to tackle the great mare."

Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Blinkers to go on Spieth

New Zealand bred Spieth (NZ) (Thorn Park) will wear blinkers in tonight's Gr.1 Manikato Stakes (1200m).

Trainer Bryce Heys believes the tight-turning track will suit the five-year-old stallion and the Hong Kong-based jockey Nash Rawiller is flying in to take the ride.

Spieth, who was placed in last year's Gr.1 Darley Classic (1200m) at Flemington has drawn barrier five in a field of 11.

Swing Note (Encosta De Lago)

Guineas start swings on Saturday's performance

Swing Note (Encosta De Lago) will attempt to secure a start in next month's Gr.1 gavelhouse.com New Zealand Bloodstock 1000 Guineas (1600m) when she tackles Saturday's Gr.3 Zacinto Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton.

The Encosta de Lago filly pressed her claims for a start in the classic when she cleared maiden grade with a 1 3/4-length win at Riccarton three weeks ago and Jamie Richards is hoping for further improvement.

"She's got to take the next step up. She's up to the mile, which we think will suit, and we're happy with her," said Richards, who trains in partnership with Stephen Autridge.

"It's a good field on Saturday with Ever Loyal and Scott Base in there, it will give us a good guide for whether we press on to the 1000 Guineas."

Swing Note opened a joint $7 third favourite with Inanna (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) for the Zacinto Stakes behind Ever Loyal (Sebring) at $2.70 and Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar) at $4.80.

Spain booked for Soliloquy ride

Victorian apprentice Zac Spain will ride at Ellerslie on Saturday, with Group One performer Belle Du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man) his star mount.

The 21-year-old boasts more than 150 wins to his credit, including 10 for former Waikato trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young, and it was through that link that he secured the Listed Partners Life Soliloquy Stakes (1400m) mount on the David and Emma-Lee Browne-trained Belle Du Nord.

Spain, who rides down to 50kg, will also be aboard Pepper Mill (NZ) (Patapan) in the open 1400m sprint.

Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux)

Stablemates chasing classic berths

Tony Pike's plans for Christchurch will become clearer in the coming days.

The Cambridge trainer has four horses nominated for next month's Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) with Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux), a $12 chance, the only one of the quartet a confirmed starter at this stage.

The Listed El Roca Trophy (1200m) winner secured his place with a luckless fifth in the Gr.2 Sarten Memorial (1400m) at Te Rapa on Monday.

"I thought it was a massive run," Pike said. "He got wiped out on the corner and had a front leg taken out from under him. I'm surprised he's drifted in the Guineas market."

Trainers planning another carnival assault

Adrian and Harry Bull have an excellent strike rate at Riccarton and they are again marshalling their troops for next month's New Zealand Cup carnival.

The Hunterville trainers have produced eight winners and nine placegetters from 37 starters on the track while Adrian had 12 victories and 12 placegetters from 67 runners before he took his son into partnership.

The family success in Christchurch includes wins in the Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m), the Gr.3 Winter Cup (1600m) and the Gr.3 Canterbury Gold Cup (2000m) with Nashville (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and a Gr.3 New Zealand Cup with Mungo Jerry (NZ) (Don Eduardo).

The Bulls have three runners nominated for next month's Coupland's Mile with the picture to become clearer after Saturday's Trentham meeting. Full story here

NEWS IN BRIEF

Weather With You (Teofilo)

Cambridge 3YO returns classic Derby trial
Weather With You (Teofilo) pressed his Gr.1 VRC Derby (2500m) claims with victory in his fourth Australian appearance.

The Cambridge-trained three-year-old was fitted with blinkers for Wednesday's Listed Geelong Classic (2200m) and, after racing on the pace, he was in front on straightening and held a strong gallop to beat Ocean's Fourteen (NZ), a New Zealand-bred son of Ocean Park.

"Obviously the 2500m of the Derby won't hurt him," said Andrew Forsman, who trains Weather With You with Murray Baker. "It was the plan when we brought him here to go for the Derby, even though he was still a maiden.

"He came over pretty backward, he had a long, hairy coat. He's come good the last few weeks."

Von Tunzelman (NZ) (Zabeel)

In-form Von Tunzelman set for Australia

A spring trip to Melbourne has been confirmed for Zabeel's son Von Tunzelman (NZ).

The Roger James-trained grey picked up travelling expenses on Monday for his Australian venture when he claimed the thick end of the stake in the Seafood Bazaar 1600m at Te Rapa.

Raced by breeders Brendan and Jo

Lindsay, Von Tunzelman will make his next appearance in the Listed James Boag's Premium Stakes (1800m) at Flemington.

Trainer has high hopes for well-bred filly

Stephen Marsh has no doubts about the regally-bred Pierrocity (Pierro) measuring up to the best fillies in the country.

The Cambridge trainer's only surprise about her first victory in the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale of 2YOs Maiden (1600m) at Te Rapa on Monday was that it took her three starts to open her account.

"I've always had a massive opinion of her so I'm rapt to see her put her best foot forward," Marsh said. Full story here

Sumstreetsumwhere (NZ) (Highly Recommended)

First Group winner for Highly Recommended

Berkley Stud stallion Highly Recommended has scored his first Group victory as a sire after Sumstreetsumwhere (NZ) won the Gr.2 James and Annie Sarten Memorial Stakes (1400m) at Te Rapa on Monday.

Highly Recommended now boasts a strike rate of 10 per cent stakes winners to runners and has some smart representatives on the track from his first crop.

They include Hong Kong-bound dual stakes winner Waldorf (NZ), Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m) and Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) place getter Joyfilly (NZ) and Listed Wanganui Guineas (1340m) runner-up Kirkland (NZ). Full story here

Australian 3YO remains in Guineas contention

An Australian filly is still in the mix for a trip to Christchurch for next month's Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m).

The Anthony Freedman-trained

Pageantry (I Am Invincible)

Pageantry (I Am Invincible) remained in the field for the gavelhouse.com New Zealand Bloodstock-sponsored feature on November 18 after second withdrawals on Wednesday.

"It's certainly an option and we're keeping a close eye on it, apart from Prom Queen it looks an open Guineas," Freedman's racing manager Brad Taylor said. "She's still a chance to go over." Full story here

Tavistock ex Zazzino filly

Meredith gets sister to Tarzino

New Plymouth scrap metal dealer Graham Meredith has welcomed a Tavistock sister to Group One winner and Westbury Stud stallion Tarzino.

Meredith created headlines in 2015 when it was revealed he had paid $1500 for the Zabeel mare Zazzino (NZ) (Zabeel) in foal to Tavistock only months before her son Tarzino won the Gr.1 Victoria Derby (2500m) at Flemington.

Meredith sold the resulting colt foal for $400,000 at last year's Karaka yearling sales.

Zazzino foaled her Tavistock filly at Waikato Stud and is booked to return to the Cambridge Stud sire in the coming days.

"We got a filly and she's perfect," Meredith said. "She was three and-a-half weeks overdue so I was a bit worried, but the foal was up and drinking within half an hour and everything is good with her."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Meredith has yet to decide whether to retain and race the filly or sell her.

Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Monday decision on Melbourne

The immediate future of the multiple Group One winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) will be confirmed early next week.

"We'll make up our minds about Australia on Monday," Te Akau principal David Ellis said.

The topic of discussion will be if Gingernuts heads to Melbourne for a crack at the A$1.5 million Gr.1 Emirates Stakes (2000m) at Flemington on November 11.

Ellis said the Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained four-year-old has pulled up well following his narrow defeat by Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed) in Sunday's Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hastings.

"He went a super race and we were really happy with him. It was a month between runs and the other horse (Wait A Sec) got an unbelievable run, but we had no excuses."

Mongolian Khan ex The Opera House filly

Another special delivery for Windsor Park

Windsor Park Stud has welcomed another thoroughbred rarity this week.

The Opera House (NZ) is a white daughter of the legendary Zabeel and she delivered a foal of her own unusual colour at the Cambridge nursery.

The new born is by resident stallion Mongolian Khan, who two years ago won the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup (2400m), while the mare has previously produced three other white wonders.

"A lovely Mongolian Khan filly arrived at 3am and both mother and daughter are doing very well," studmaster Rodney Schick said. Full story here

Eye-catcher rises to Group One challenge

First impressions can count for everything and Endean Rose (NZ) (Savabeel) quickly won over Rotorua trainer Iain Kennedy.

The diminutive mare has subsequently won six races under his guidance and turned in a career-best performance in Sunday's Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m).

The daughter of champion sire Savabeel exceeded expectations at Hawke's Bay where she finished third behind Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed) and Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) in the weight-for-age feature.

"We were hoping to get in the top six, it looked pretty tough and ambitious but she did us proud," Kennedy said. Full story here

Consensus (NZ) (Postponed)

Reigning Zabeel champion has a date with Tavistock

Quality mare Consensus (NZ) (Postponed) has two important engagements coming up.

She is on target to defend her Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) title and the daughter of Postponed will also be heading to Cambridge Stud in the near future.

"She'll definitely be going to the Zabeel and at some stage she is going to be served by Tavistock," trainer Stephen McKee said.

Consensus was a bold second behind the highly-regarded Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock) when resuming over 1400m at Te Rapa before she failed to handle a Slow 7 track under topweight of 60kg on her return to the Hamilton course on Monday.

"The ground was shifting underneath her a bit and she didn't like it, but she's bright and well this morning," McKee said.

"She'll run again in the weight-for-age race on Melbourne Cup day at Ellerslie."

He was referring to the Gr.3 OMF Stakes (2000m), a race she won in 2015 and finished third in last year.

"We'll then give her one more run before the Zabeel," McKee said.

Minister For Racing - Winston Peters

Peters takes racing role

New Zealand's Deputy Prime Minister Winston Peters has been confirmed as the new Minister for Racing.

He also served in that role from 2005 to 2008, again under a Labour-led government.

The New Zealand First leader is a popular figure within the thoroughbred industry, Cambridge Stud principal Sir Patrick Hogan among his strongest supporters.

Lightly-ried 3YO heading offshore

Promising three-year-old Bobo So Good (Zoffany) will continue his career overseas.

The son of Zoffany, a $50,000 purchase at New Zealand Bloodstock's 2016 Ready to Run Sale, entered quarantine late last week ahead of a flight to Macau.

"He's owned there and there wasn't another shipment until late January or early February and they wanted him up there before that," trainer Carl Henderson said. "It's a bit disappointing, but that's the way it goes. I was going to run him in the Sartan Memorial on Monday and on his last run I thought he would have been a big show – he was just starting to work things out." Full story here
