HE'S OUR ROKKII READY FOR VALLEY WFA RACE

He's Our Rokkii will look to put his first win of a new campaign on the board at Moonee Valley tomorrow.

After an encouraging season return, He's Our Rokkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) is an early favourite to land his first victory since last year's spring carnival when he runs in the Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes.

Tomorrow's Group Two weight-for-age race at Moonee Valley has a field of 11, with last year's Gr.1 Toorak Handicap winner He's Our Rokkii to jump from the inside barrier.

He's Our Rokkii resumed from a spell with a pleasing fourth in the Gr.2 PB Lawrence Stakes (1400m) at weight-for-age last month, won by Hartnell (Authorized).

"He had a really good spring last year and then he had a flat autumn," co-trainer Ben Hayes said.

"So then we just turned him out, reset him, and from his first-up run it looks like he's come back to his old spring form.

"We're really happy with him and think he's a really good chance on Saturday."

Hayes said He's Our Rokkii had come on since the PB Lawrence for the step up to 1600m on Saturday.

"He's drawn barrier one so you'd imagine he'll get a good run and then just need a bit of luck getting out at the Valley," he said.

He's Our Rokkii won five-straight races spanning from the 2016 autumn carnival through to the Toorak Handicap last October.

He has been unplaced in his past six starts, including his four-run autumn campaign.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr Zhang

New Zealand attracts major international thoroughbred player

Chinese businessman Zhang Yuesheng's extensive bloodstock portfolio now includes a significant investment in the New Zealand industry.

He has recently formed an association with Nick and Anne-Marie King's Waikato breeding operation Brighthill Farm through their freshman stallion Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel).

"Mr Zhang has bought 10 of the 50 shares in Preferment and he will be sending 20 mares to him for at least the next three years," Nick King said.

"Ten dry mares are arriving from Australia this week and he will be adding another 10 sourced from New Zealand." Full story here

Euro Angel ready to rip

Brenton Avdulla will partner the Hawkes Racing-trained Euro Angel (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in Saturday's Gr.2 Theo Mark Stakes (1300m) at Rosehill.

The five-year-old Rip Van Winkle mare resumed with a second placing under Avdulla in the Gr.3 Toy Show Quality (1300m) at Randwick on August 19.

She will take on a small but select field on Saturday, which includes the early Epsom Handicap favourite Egg Tart (Sebring).

"It's a good little race but she's a talented mare on her day," Avdulla said.

"That said she's not the easiest horse to ride. She came away a bit tardy the other day but I was happy with the way she relaxed.

"We probably just got a little too far back and didn't get the splits we needed, so she was a bit stiff not to win."

She trialled on Monday and just had a breeze around and she goes into Saturday in good order and jumps from a nice gate (barrier one). Hopefully she can put herself somewhere midfield."

Dettori booked for Eminent

Frankie Dettori will ride Sir Peter Vela's Eminent if the Frankel colt takes his place in Saturday's Gr.1 Irish Champion Stakes.

"We've left him in and a lot will depend on what else is going to run, but there's definitely a strong possibility we'll let him go," trainer Martyn Meade said. "We're seriously considering it."

Eminent was successful in last month's Gr. 2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville after finishing sixth in the English 2000 Guineas, fourth in the English Derby and fifth in the Coral-Eclipse.

With the Gr.1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe taking place three weeks after the Irish Champion Stakes, it is not inconceivable Eminent could run in both, but Meade said that was unlikely.

Quality mares in good order for the Valley

Co-trainer Murray Baker has been pleased with the progress made by Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi) and Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) ahead of Saturday's Gr.2 Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes at Moonee Valley.

"They're both going well, but it's hard to know how they'll go first-up," he said. "Bonneval will be better once she gets over more ground and Lizzie L'Amour is a good staying mare who can run well fresh."

Both mares are on a course toward the Gr.1 Caulfield Cup while the stable's Gr.1 VRC Derby hope Weather With You (Teofilo) made a promising start to his preparation with a runner-up finish over 1400m at Sandown on Wednesday.

"Obviously he needs further and he's by Teofilo, who is a terrific sire and we're hoping he makes the grade," said Baker, who trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman.

Rhythm To Spare earns chance in WFA race

The Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes was not initially on the agenda for Rhythm To Spare (NZ) (Pins) but trainer Mike Moroney senses an opportunity for the gelding in the weight-for-age race.

Rhythm To Spare was a late entry for tomorrow's A$250,000 race at Moonee Valley when nominations were extended.

Connections had been looking to run Rhythm To Spare in a support race on Saturday but switched plans after assessing the entries for the Group Two feature.

Moroney wouldn't be surprised to see the eight-year-old, who has won his past two starts in 1600m open handicaps, make his presence felt.

Rhythm To Spare (NZ) (Pins)

"I know he's older now but he's in his best form, in my opinion," he said.

"He's a specialist miler and there's a lot of them in the race that aren't."

"He's Our Rokkii obviously is the miler in the race so he is going to logically be the favourite.

"But a lot of the ones they've got in front of us are going to be better over further.

"They're early in their preparations and might still be able to go well over a mile while fresh, but they're still not at their right trip and we are."

Patrick Moloney, who has won on the eight-year-old son of Pins before, is back on Rhythm To Spare in the Dato.

Addictive Nature (NZ) (Savabeel)

Addictive Nature To Press Golden Rose Claims

Trainer Bjorn Baker is hoping Addictive Nature (NZ) (Savabeel) can remain on course for the Gr.1 Golden Rose Stakes (1400m) by winning tomorrow's Gr.2 Stan Fox Stakes (1500m) at Rosehill.

A last start winner of the Gr.3 Ming Dynasty Quality (1400m), Addictive Nature has now won two of his three starts.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Regular jockey Tim Clark is sticking with the Little Avondale Stud-bred and sold colt, who has drawn barrier five in the field of eight.

War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly)

Old champ on the warpath ahead of Jumbo Jet

2014 Singapore Horse of the Year War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly) topped off his condition ahead of Sunday's Jumbo Jet Trophy (1400) with a winning barrier trial on Tuesday morning.

Trainer Bruce Marsh is trying to land a second feature with War Affair after the dead-heat with Storm Troops (Orpen) in the Saas Fee Stakes (1400m) back in May.

"I was happy with his trial on Tuesday but he faces a big challenge in the Jumbo Jet Trophy. It's a Weight-for-Age race and he is definitely well-in at the weights, but he's taking on some very good horses," Marsh said.

"I know it's a drop back to 1400m, but there is nothing else for him. I wouldn't run him over such trips late in the season."

War Affair is the highest-rated among stellar entries for the $5200,000 race that include drawcards such as Debt Collector (NZ) (Thorn Park), Alibi (NZ) (Darci Brahma), and the up-and-coming Countofmontecristo (NZ) (Echoes of Heaven).

Bonny aims to continue unbeaten streak

The Bjorn Baker-trained Bonny O'Reilly (NZ) (O'Reilly) will start favourite in the Gr.3 Sheraco Stakes (1200m) at Rosehill tomorrow.

The five-year-old mare will attempt to continue her unbeaten streak at Rosehill where she has been victorious on four occasions.

She also remains unbeaten over 1200m, winning all three of her races over that distance.

Jason Collett will take the ride, replacing Tim Clark who rode her to a fresh-up victory over 1200m at Rosehill on August 26.

Bonny O'Reilly (NZ) (O'Reilly)

The stakes-winning mare will carry 55kg but will have to overcome a wide barrier draw (12) to continue her winning streak.

Tavago (NZ) (Tavistock)

Dato first-up for Tavago

Tavistock's Derby-winning son Tavago (NZ) (Tavistock) will begin his Gr.1 Caulfield Cup campaign with a start in the Gr.2 Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes at Flemington tomorrow.

The five-year-old gelding impressed his trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young recently with his runner-up performance in a trial at Cranbourne.

"He jumped out and he travelled hard on the bridle and he was under a hold on the line," Busuttin said. "His action was good and he pulled up well."

Busuttin said Tavago is a horse that doesn't need a lot of racing in the lead-up to his main target of the season.

"He's a naturally fit horse so probably doesn't need a lot of racing to get up to his target race which is the Caulfield Cup all going well," he said.

"He'll have a couple of runs into there and hopefully he can stay sound and happy and get there for the owners."

He will jump from barrier four on Saturday and will carry 59kg with jockey Michael Walker aboard.

Oaks dream for staying-bred filly

Blanco Belle (NZ) (Cape Blanco) will face

Blanco Belle (NZ) (Cape Blanco)

an early test in black type company on Saturday and her performance at Wanganui could fuel a longer-term dream of an Australian classic.

She will make her second appearance in the Listed The O'Leary's Fillies' Stakes following a dominant effort to win on debut at Hawera last month.

"She's a staying filly and this is her first preparation," part-owner and trainer Susan Rainford said. Full story here

Vincent (NZ) (Burgundy)

Track to tell the story for Vincent

Successful owner-trainer Warren Bolton is confident of Vincent (NZ) (Burgundy) giving a strong account of himself on Saturday, if he can get conditions to suit.

The New Plymouth horseman will be happy to let the son of Burgundy take his chance in the Listed H. S. Dyke Wanganui Guineas as long as the weather plays its part.

"He hasn't had a trial or a jump-out, we haven't been able to get them off the ground here like every other club in the country so he hasn't had a perfect preparation," Bolton said. Full story here

Sweynesse is a chip off the old block

Darren Beadman

Sweynesse, is a son of former champion racehorse and super sire Lonhro. Beadman rode Lonhro in most of his 26 wins and he gets to work with many of that horse's sons and daughters at Godolphin.

- A multiple Group One performer (2nd G1 Randwick Guineas, 3rd G1 Spring Champion) beating some of the best 3YO Group One winners in Australia including Kermedec, Preferment, Hampton Court, Shooting To Win, First Seal.
- Winner of first four starts including dual Group 3 wins in the Spring Stakes and Gloaming Stakes.
- A winner at only start as a 2YO.
- A top 3YO Timeform rating of 122 makes Sweynesse one of the top Australian 3YO colts of his year.
- By Lonhro -The Champion 3YO, the Champion miler, the Horse of the Year, and now a Champion sire. Lonhro set a new Australian record of 160 individual winners in a season. His son Pierro, unbeaten juvenile Triple Crown winner, was rated the best juvenile colt in Australia since 1977.
- Out of the multiple winning mare Swansea by Champion Sire Singspiel (5xG1 Winner and sire of 98SW).
- Sweynesse is a magnificent individual. He stands 16.2 hh. He has a powerful hind quarter, a strong shoulder and a great athletic walk. He is very correct.
- Sweynesse is syndicated amongst many of New Zealand's top breeders who are strongly supporting him at stud.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr Mor (NZ) (Corrupt)

Much on the line for Rayner stable this weekend

Emotions will ride high for Wanganui trainer Evan Rayner this weekend as he prepares for stable stalwart Mr Mor's (NZ) (Corrupt) swansong and as the trainer of sprinter of the year favourite Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder).

Rayner will watch Mr Mor's last-ditch attempt to win the Irvines Great Northern Steeplechase (6400m) at Ellerslie on Saturday from Wanganui, where he will saddle Taurus (NZ) (No Excuse Needed), a contender for the Coro Angel Syndicate 1200.

Then he will fly to Auckland on Sunday with connections of Gr.1 Railway Stakes and Gr.1 NRM Sprint winner Start Wondering for the New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing Awards at the Langham Hotel that evening.

Monarch Chimes (NZ) (Shinko King)

Jumping making Monarch feel like a king

Monarch Chimes (NZ) (Shinko King) is loving his new-found vocation as a hurdlor.

The Shinko King six-year-old had long been a problem child for Cambridge trainers Emma-Lee and David Browne, but has transformed into a model racehorse since his transition to jumping.

"He just loves it," Emma-Lee Browne said.

Stormin Norman (NZ) (Istidaad)

Hurdle hope in top order

Stormin Norman (NZ) (Istidaad) is in fine shape ahead of his second crack at the Schweppes Great Northern Hurdle at Ellerslie on Saturday.

"He came through his run at Te Aroha last Sunday in great shape and is ready to go for the Northern," trainer John Wheeler said.

"I brought him back from Australia specifically for this race and I think he is in with a shout.

"He went a beauty in his last race in Aussie and with a better ride would have run in the money. He's tough and if he strikes a loose track on Saturday he will be a chance."

Stormin Norman finished fifth in the 2014 edition of the race before suffering an injury that kept him off the scene for just on eighteen months. He will be ridden by Shaun Fannin on Saturday.

Sterners tests await local 3YO

Bobo So Good (NZ) (Zoffany) will make an appearance at his home meeting today ahead of a crack at the best of his age group.

The Te Awamutu three-year-old finished third on debut last month and will strip an improved horse for the Vilagrad 1150, in which he will be partnered by Samantha Collett.

"He was a bit underdone for Taupo to be fair, he had won a trial but that was only 600 metres and we couldn't get another trial into him," trainer Carl Henderson said. Full story here

Group tests await Wassergeist

Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young have their sights set on higher honours for their well-bred colt Wassergeist (Fastnet Rock).

The former Cambridge couple produced the Fastnet Rock three-year-old, a $240,000 Karaka yearling purchase out of Lyndhurst Farm's 2016 draft to Karaka, to win at his third attempt at Sandown on Wednesday.

"Now that he's got that win on the board

Wassergeist (Fastnet Rock)

we can look to those better races," Young said.

The Gr.3 Caulfield Guineas Prelude on October 1 is now a likely target for Wassergeist ahead of the Gr.1 Caulfield Guineas.

"It's good to see these colours win for Shane Baertschiger, who trains up in Singapore, plus he's got a few heavy hitters in the ownership including Coolmore, Newgate Farm and Tommy Heptinstall," Young said.

3YO looks a horse to follow

Cambridge three-year-old Vin De Dance (NZ) (Roc de Cambes) suggested he has a bright future over ground following his debut victory at Pukekohe on Wednesday.

"He's a nice, big and mature sort of horse who will hopefully make a stayer – whether it's this preparation or in the autumn we'll have to see," said Andrew Forsman, who trains the son of Roc de Cambes with Murray Baker.

A trial winner last month, Vin De Dance is raced by the international syndication company OTI with Novara Park principal Luigi Muollo.

Great Northern win special to Cooksley

On the eve of Saturday's Irvines Great Northern Steeplechase, jockey Grant Cooksley has revealed that he regards his win in the 1978 edition of the race as the most memorable of his illustrious career.

Speaking after his 66th Group One win aboard Close Up (NZ) (Shinko King) in last Saturday's Tarzino Trophy at Hastings, Cooksley recalled fondly his win aboard Marton steeplechaser Ballycastle (NZ) (Bally Royal) in the Ellerslie four-mile race.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Grant Cooksley

"My father and grandfather were jumps jockeys and I just followed them into it. I've won a few big races around the world, but the one I remember most and get the most satisfaction from is the Great Northern Steeple as an 18-year-old," he said. Full story here who trains the Snitzel colt with Lance O'Sullivan.

Summer Passage (Snitzel)

 "He will fly over early next Sunday morning and then run in the Danehill Stakes the following Saturday."
 Summer Passage won last season's Gr.1 Sistema Stakes at Ellerslie and finished runner-up in the Gr.1 ATC Sires' Produce Stakes at Randwick.
 His major spring target is the Gr.1 Coolmore Stud Stakes at Flemington on November 4.

Chocante (NZ) (Shocking)

"We knew he couldn't win, but we expected him to run a lot better than his price indicated ($81)," trainer Stephen Marsh said. "It was everything we hoped for and more, only Winx passed him in the straight."
 "He's not a miler, it was well short of his best and he pulled up extremely well." Full story here

Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi)

Trainer heartened by mare's first-up performance

Sofia Rosa's (NZ) (Makfi) prospects of doubling her tally at the top level have been boosted.

The five-year-old daughter of Makfi hasn't won a race since she claimed the Gr.1 Australian Oaks, but trainer Stephen Marsh was buoyed by her recent resuming effort at Hastings.

In her first appearance for five months, Sofia Rosa struck trouble in the running before she got home well for seventh in the Gr.1 Tazirino Trophy and less than four lengths off the winner Close Up (NZ) (Shinko King). Full story here

Gingernuts tops Free Handicaps

Dual Group One winner Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) takes pride of place at the head of the New Zealand Free Handicaps for the staying three-year-olds of 2016-17.

Released by the handicapping panel of New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing on behalf of the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, the New Zealand Derby and Rosehill Guineas winner Gingernuts was allotted 61kg in the 1601m plus division. Full story here

Chocante impresses in Chelmsford

Melbourne Cup hopeful Chocante (NZ) (Shocking) has impressed his connections with his third placing to glamour mare Winx (Street Cry) and bold front-runner Red Excitement (Excites) in the Gr.2 Chelmsford Stakes (1600m) at Randwick on Saturday.

Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Flemington best option for smart mare

Shaune Ritchie is preparing to take his chances in Melbourne with his talented five-year-old Let Her Rip (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle).

The Cambridge trainer is looking further afield after the daughter of Rip Van Winkle was balloted out and denied a crack at last Saturday's Gr.1 Tazirino Trophy at Hastings.

"We're smart enough to have known that they don't scratch from Group Ones," Ritchie said. "We were always a million to one." Full story here

Regal run with the Prince at an end

Fraser Auret will always have the fondest of memories of his two-time Group One winner Julinsky Prince (NZ) (Darci Brahma).

The Marton trainer has enjoyed the best of times with the son of Darci Brahma, but all good things come to an end and time has been called on the John Bromley-bred and raced eight-year-old.

"I had a meeting with John and we've decided to retire him," Auret said. "He's been a very special horse to us - he was our first two-year-old winner, my 100th winner and my first Group One winner." Full story here

Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City)

Time called on Perfect Fit

Group One winner Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City) has run her last race.

The daughter of Elusive City was retired after she tailed the field home in Saturday's Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy at Hastings.

Perfect Fit won six of her 18 starts, including the Gr.1 New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes, from the Matamata stable of Ken and Bev Kelso. She has a booking this spring to Exceed And Excel.

Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands)

Top filly building toward 3YO season

Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) is back in work with trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards ahead of another Group One campaign.

Last season's Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes and Karaka Million winner enjoyed a good break after her Queensland campaign that netted a victory in the Gr.2 Queensland Sires' Produce Stakes.

"She had an eight-week spell after returning from Brisbane and has now just finished three weeks pre-training on the walker," Fortuna Syndications director John Galvin said.

"Jamie and Steve will now get her ready for a trial later in the spring and race plans at this stage are to have her resuming over 1200 metres in early December, then into the Sistema Railway at Ellerslie on New Year's day before tackling the Karaka 3YO Classic at the end of January."

Bullrush (NZ) (O'Reilly)

Surf's up for Sydney winner

A change of environment is having the desired effect on the well-related Bullrush (NZ) (O'Reilly).

The Waikato Stud-bred and raced half-brother by O'Reilly to the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes winner Sports Illustrated (NZ) (Fast 'n' Famous) has returned home from Sydney to continue his career with Moira and Kieran Murdoch.

Bullrush was unbeaten in his first five starts from the Rosehill stable of John, Michael and Wayne Hawkes. The six-year-old placed once in five subsequent outings and hasn't raced since he finished fifth in the Listed Abell Stakes at Moonee Valley.

"He's been here since May and we're very pleased with him, he's a magnificent-looking horse," Moira Murdoch said. "It's something different for him here at the beach, it's helping his mental attitude."

Richard Collett

Collett remains keen on Sydney

Richard Collett isn't planning on being a stranger to Sydney, despite closing his Warwick Farm stable.

Changes of circumstances have resulted in the Pukekohe Park trainer opting not to continue with his own operation across the Tasman.

A major player in initially establishing the satellite stable was former Peter Moody employee Clare Cunningham, the partner of Collett's son and established Sydney jockey Jason. Full story here

Going into a racing stable behind older brothers Bill and Frank, Bob Skelton won his first premiership in 1955-56 and wound up his career with nine titles to his credit, the last in 1975-76.

Taller than his stocky oldest brother, Bob had a different riding style; high in the saddle and, often, with a loop on the rein. Horses “went” for him and he was a great judge of pace.

He was derided for his awkward-looking style on early visits to Australia, but got the last laugh when he won the 1976 Melbourne Cup on Van Der Hum.

Bob retired on 2129 wins with five Wellington Cups, three NZ Cups and two Auckland Cups to his credit.
