LANE HOPEFUL AHEAD OF MAKYBE DIVA STAKES

Rising Romance will be looking to turn the tables on Black Heart Bart at Flemington tomorrow

Damian Lane's association with Rising Romance (NZ) (Ekraar) has yet to reap a big race reward despite a couple of near misses, but the jockey is hoping their day will come in the Gr.1 Makybe Diva Stakes (1600m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Lane has finished second in three Group One races on the mare in the past year, including the 2015 edition of Saturday's contest.

Their latest second placing came in the Gr.1 New Zealand Bloodstock Memsie Stakes at Caulfield on August 27 behind Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars).

Lane admits Black Heart Bart is the one he fears most again in Saturday's Makybe Diva Stakes (1600m) at Flemington but he is hoping the David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig-trained mare can get the run of the race from barrier two.

"She's going really well and she's drawn barrier two which helps," Lane said. "I couldn't be happier where she's at and the frame of mind she is in at the moment.

"I should be able to cuddle her up right on the back of the speed and save her for one short sprint at the end."

Oaks, was narrowly beaten by Fawkner (Reset) in the Makybe Diva last year.

The combination's other Group One runner-up finish was also at Flemington in the Mackinnon Stakes.

Meanwhile fellow jockey Dwayne Dunn is less happy with his barrier draw for Entirely Platinum (NZ) (Pentire).

"Barrier one's my only negative," said Dunn. "Trying to work away from the inside and get clean air. If I can get him into a situation, he's got a beautiful finish on him and should take a lot of beating."

Mick Price is expecting a strong second-up run from Tarzino (NZ) (Tavistock) who will jump from barrier four.

The Victoria Derby winner was a fast-finishing runner-up in the Australian Guineas in his second-up run in the autumn. With both being 1600m races at Flemington, Price said punters shouldn't be concerned if Tarzino settles at the back of the field.

Prince Of Penzance (NZ) (Pentire) has drawn 12 and will have

John Allen on board, with Harry Coffey, who replaced Michelle Payne as the Melbourne Cup winner's rider last start, riding in Adelaide.

Kiwi jockey Danielle Johnson will cross the Tasman to reunite with Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi).

The Cambridge jockey has ridden the Stephen Marsh-trained four-year-old on four occasions and each time passed the finishing post in first place, although she was subsequently relegated behind Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking) in last season's Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m) at Trentham.

Sofia Rosa is a notoriously difficult horse to ride, but Johnson has gelled well with her and will chase her first Group One win in Australia on a mare expected to be better suited this weekend than she was when 10th resuming in last month's Gr.1 Memsie Stakes (1400m) at Caulfield.

Sofia Rosa was a $26 outsider after drawing barrier 13 for the Makybe Diva Stakes.

XTRAVAGANT READY FOR RETURN

Last season's champion three-year-old Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire) will attempt to pick up where he left off last autumn at Flemington on Saturday.

A winner of six of his 10 starts, including runaway Group One wins in the 2000 Guineas (1600m) and the NRM Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa, Xtravagant has pleased connections since an elevated temperature ruled him out of a planned first-up run in last month's Listed Chandler McLeod Stakes at Moonee Valley.

"He's bounced back well. Stephen's over there with him and he's really happy," said Jamie Richards who trains in partnership with Stephen Autridge.

"He galloped on Wednesday morning. Damien Oliver came in and worked him and was very happy with him. We're not sure how the straight six at Flemington will suit him first-up but it might suit him better than Moonee Valley in his first run back.

"You always have to respect the Aussie sprinters. Hopefully he can get some cover and then do his thing. We're really looking forward to it."

Xtravagant is likely to progress

Last season's champion three-year-old Xtravagant will commence his new campaign at Flemington on Saturday towards the Gr.1 Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (1400m) at Caulfield on September 24 before tackling the Gr.1 Toorak Handicap (1600m) at the same venue on October 8. A start in the Gr.1 Cox Plate (2040m) at Moonee Valley remains a possibility.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Chamalu looking to come up roses

A talented field of fourteen has been confirmed for the Gr.1 Golden Rose (1400m) at Rosehill on Saturday.

Some of the Spring Racing Carnival's most exciting three-year-olds will line up for the race, but betting has so far been dominated by the Chris Waller-trained Omei Sword (High Chaparral).

Brisbane trainer Liam Birchley has a huge opinion of New Zealand bred Chamalu (NZ) (Redwood) who won on debut on the Sunshine Coast last month.

The son of Redwood was purchased from Westbury Stud's 2015 NZB Premier draft for $200,000.

Birchley also has O'Reilly Cyrus (NZ) (O'Reilly), who has shown strong form in Brisbane when placing in her last two starts, in the race. The $100,000 Waikato Stud graduate has drawn the outside gate and will have Jason Collett riding.

Saracino (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Saturday.

"We're very happy with him; can't fault him. Damien Oliver went and rode him in work and he was happy and he had a quiet jumpout last Friday which he won easily," said Petanga's racing manager Bruce Perry.

Meanwhile the Phillip Stokes-trained Samara Dancer (NZ) (Hinchinbrook) is the only filly taking on the boys in this year's Danehill Stakes.

She has won two of her three starts to date including the Gr.2 Blue Diamond Fillies Prelude (1100m), before finishing a disappointing fourteenth in the Gr.1 Blue Diamond Stakes (1200m).

Mackintosh (NZ) (Pins)

Mackintosh returns in Gr.2

A field of ten have accepted for the Group Two Theo Marks Stakes (1300m) at Rosehill on Saturday with four-year-old Mackintosh (NZ) (Pins) one of two representatives for Chris Waller.

Mackintosh won three on the trot during an autumn – winter preparation including the Gr.3 Rough Habit Stakes (2000m) – Gr.3 Grand Prix Stakes (2000m) double at Doomben.

He is running first-up following a forgettable performance last start in the Gr.1 Queensland Derby (2400m) on Stradbroke Day in March.

Mackintosh is owned by Lib Petagna who races him in partnership with Tony Muollo senior and Tony Muollo junior.

Saracino ready for Aus debut

Wellington Businessman Lib Petagna's colours will also be prominent at Flemington with the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained Gr.2 Foxbridge Plate winner Saracino (NZ) (Per Incanto) tackling the Gr.2 Danehill Stakes (1200m) on who also shares in the ownership of Madonna Mia.

The stakes winner of nine races will be out to make the most of a chance at further black type when she runs in Saturday's Gr.3 Merial Ancare Metric Mile at Awapuni. Full story here.

Awake In Grinzing (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Starlight Express for Awake in Grinzing

Three-year-old Rip Van Winkle gelding Awake in Grinzing (NZ) will take his place in Saturday's Listed Starlight Express Room Stakes (1400m) at Flemington.

An eye-catching winner on debut at Sandown in July, Awake in Grinzing raced greenly at his next appearance in the Gr.3 McNeil Stakes.

Jockey Ben Melham, who has partnered the Danny O'Brien-trained gelding in his two races to date has again been engaged.

O'Brien says Awake In Grinzing has the pedigree to be competitive over 2000 to 2400 metres and he intends to give the gelding the chance to get to the Victoria Derby.

Madonna Mia (NZ) (Red Clubs)

Barn mates racing against time

Stablemates Gypsy Fair (NZ) (Falkirk) and Madonna Mia (NZ) (Red Clubs) are both running out of chances, but for contrasting reasons.

The former will go for a break with the advent of the better tracks while motherhood beckons the stable stalwart Madonna Mia.

"She will be going to Sweynesse so we're hoping she can get in foal quickly and perhaps race on," said New Plymouth trainer and part-owner Allan Sharrock.

Sweynesse was a dual Group Three winner and multiple Group One placegetter before his retirement to Novara Park, the Cambridge farm owned by Luigi Muollo

Shannon Hope in the Listed Sofitel (1400m) at Flemington on Saturday.

The seven-year-old mare won six races in New Zealand and was second in the Gr.1 Auckland Cup (2400m) last start.

Among her fourteen rivals on Saturday is the Mitchell Freedman-trained Marwood (NZ) (O'Reilly). The six-year-old gelding has been in good form recently but steps up to black type grade for this.

Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock)

Te Akau camp keen to continue unbeaten run

Unbeaten Group One-winning colt Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) resumes in Saturday's Listed Tavistock Northland Breeders' Stakes (1200m) at Ruakaka after two encouraging trials at Te Teko and Taupo.

"They were two quiet trials and he's just been going through the motions," said Jamie Richards, who prepares the colt in partnership with Stephen Autridge.

"He's ready to go a big race first-up. We want to keep him unbeaten if possible so he's in the right condition to be winning this one.

"It's a good field but there's nothing in there he hasn't beaten or isn't capable of beating. We go up there confident of a forward showing. He's got to take his two-year-old form on to his three-year-old season but he's indicated he will from his work back home."

Heroic Valour has won all three of his starts, culminating in a Gr.1 Diamond Stakes (1200m) win at Ellerslie last March over Northland Breeders Stakes rival Wyndspelle (NZ) (Iffraaj).

Singapore stars set to meet at last

The long awaited clash between two of Singapore's top horses, War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly) and Spalato (NZ) (Elusive City), is set to finally take place on Friday night, albeit in a plain Kranji Stakes A race over 1200m.

After a chequered run of aborted comebacks due to fitness and health issues – the latest episodes being Spalato dropping out of the SIN G3 Garden City Trophy (1200m) after succumbing to a 'big-leg' issue and War Affair dodging his long-intended race comeback, last Sunday's SIN G3 Jumbo Jet Trophy (1400m) in search of a "softer option" – it would seem Singapore's two highest-rated horses after Rocket Man (Viscount) couldn't avoid playing chicken anymore.

"It was going to happen someday, especially as they may both be going for the Singapore Triple Crown series," said John O'Hara who has prepared Spalato for all 16 runs that have yielded 10 wins and close to S$1.7 million in stakes.

"But look, it's been a year since we've been talking about that and a lot of water has gone under the bridge since. I'm more concerned about how Spalato will run first-up."

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel)

Sharrock keen on Perth for Kawi

Western Australia has seriously caught the attention of Allan Sharrock as he looks to his future offshore options with Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel).

"I haven't ruled out the Mackinnon Stakes in Melbourne yet, but I'm seriously looking at our options in Perth," the New Plymouth trainer said.

"I've been in touch with them and they are very keen to have Kawi over there for two races.

"The first one is a handicap worth $A1 million, the one He's Remarkable won and then lost in an inquiry, over a mile and two weeks later there's a weight-for-age race over 1800 metres worth another $A1 million." Full story here.

Highlad (High Chaparral)

Highlad to cross Tasman

An Australian trip has been confirmed for the unbeaten Wanganui Guineas winner Highlad (High Chaparral).

"He holds a nomination for the Caulfield Guineas, but it might be a bit short for him," co-trainer Murray Baker said.

"Being a son of High Chaparral, we'd hope that we can aim him at races like the Gloaming Stakes and Spring Champion Stakes in Sydney or the Victoria Derby at Flemington."

Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel)

Oliver booked for Lucia Valentina

Champion Melbourne jockey Damien Oliver will ride Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel) in her next start in this month's Gr.1 Underwood Stakes at Caulfield.

Bruce Perry, the racing manager for Lucia Valentina's owner Lib Petagna, confirmed the booking and September 24 target.

"She's ticking over well. She's had a quiet trial and we're really happy with where she's at," Perry said.

The Kris Lees-trained Savabeel mare ran fourth first-up in last month's Gr.2 Warwick

NEWS IN BRIEF

Stakes (1400m) at Randwick and finished fifth in a Wyong trial on Tuesday. She remains in contention for a start in next month's Gr.1 Cox Plate at Moonee Valley.

Shocking on fire

The progeny of Rich Hill Stud's dual Group One winner Shocking (Street Cry) are on fire on both sides of the Tasman.

The son of the internationally-successful Street Cry has already been represented by four winners in Australia this week, a new stakes performer Saturday, and yesterday he had a winning double in New Zealand.

"What is exciting is that they are all lightly-tried horses who have come back so much better as four-year-olds," Rich Hill's John Thompson said.

"We always expected his progeny to improve, just as Shocking himself did - he progressed from being a Queensland Derby runner-up at three to winning the Melbourne Cup the following season." Full story here.

Exciting Oh Romeo off to HK

Inglewood Stud has confirmed the sale of their unbeaten four-year-old Oh Romeo (Foreplay).

"There were 15 different guys who made inquiries, they went a bit crazy over him," part-owner Gus Wigley said. "He's gone to Hong Kong to a good client of Bruce Sherwin, who made an offer after his last race.

"It's a bit sad that he won't be racing down here, but we are running a commercial operation and we can now invest in more broodmares."

Interest in the son of Foreplay, who was trained by Wigley's father Nick, went to another level after he had blitzed his Ashburton rivals by nine lengths last month following a runaway debut win in July.

Benzini (Tale Of The Cat)

Fresh Benzini for Group One feature

Well-performed stayer Benzini (Tale Of The Cat) recently arrived home from Australia in outstanding order.

So much so, that his Hunterville connections are more than happy to send him into a Group One battle next month without the benefit of a lead-up outing.

Owner and co-trainer Adrian Bull said Benzini was being set for a first-up crack at the Livamol Classic at Hastings on October 1.

"At this stage that's where we're going and he probably won't have a run before it."

Runner-up behind Addictive Habit (NZ) (Colombia) in the 2015 Livamol, Benzini enjoyed a successful three-start Queensland campaign last season with victory in the Gr.2 Brisbane Cup and a pair of minor Group Three placings. Full story here.

Old stayer Brave Ali retired from racing

Veteran stayer Brave Ali (NZ) (O'Reilly) has retired from racing and will be re-educated for an equestrian career.

The Tony Gollan-trained 10-year-old won two Listed races - the 2014 Ipswich Cup and Tails Stakes.

Brave Ali started his career in New Zealand where he was trained by Lance Noble before being switched to Craig Martin's Tamworth stable.

He reached his peak while with Gollan and was placed in the Gr.3 Chairman's Handicap.

The gelding had 52 starts for 12 wins and 14 placings, earning more than A$425,000.

He finished seventh of 10 runners in a 2000m open handicap at Doomben at his final start on August 27.

"Brave Ali has retired as a sound, happy ten-year-old. He earned over $400,000. Back to Armidale to be re-educated for pony club," said Gollan.

Bidding open on Monovale Unreserved Depleting Sale

Bidding opened last night on Monovale Farm's 20-lot Unreserved Depleting Sale and it will run through until 7pm this Sunday 11 September.

At the conclusion of bidding on this sale on Sunday night entries will open for gavelhouse.com's September auction, with these due online by 7pm Sunday 18 September.

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

CARBINE

Dan O'Brien bought the Musket colt he first named Mauser and then renamed Carbine at a Sylvia Park, Auckland, auction for 625 guineas. He was unbeaten in five New Zealand starts at two, and O'Brien took him to Melbourne as a spring three-year-old to race in the VRC Derby where he was narrowly beaten.

He won two races in Melbourne for O'Brien before being bought for 3000 pounds by Australian sportsman Donald Wallace. For Wallace he became the first true champion of Australian racing. He started 43 times for 33 wins, six seconds and three thirds, his stake earnings of 29,626 pounds a record for more than 20 years.

The apogee of his racing career was the 1890 Melbourne Cup, which he won over a record field (39), with a record weight (10st 5lb, or 66kg) in record time.

Carbine went to stud for four years in Australia, and sired the winners of more than 200 races. Sold privately to the Duke of Portland, Carbine then stood in England founding the triple Derby-winning dynasty of Spearmint, Spion Kop and Felstead. His blood flows through the veins of Nearco, Hyperion and all their great descendants.
