BAKER RACING TRIO OUT TO ENHANCE CUP CREDENTIALS

Bonneval tackles a quality field in Sunday's Gr. 1 Underwood Stakes at Caulfield

New Zealand's Melbourne Cup influence will become more apparent this weekend.

In Sydney, Stephen Marsh's Brisbane Cup (2200m) winner Chocante (NZ) (Shocking) will lay his credentials on the table in Saturday's Gr.1 Metropolitan (2400m), while in Melbourne, Cambridge trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman will produce Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi), Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj) and Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel).

Dual Oaks winner Bonneval remains the best supported New Zealand-trained Cups entry and the last-start Gr.2 Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes (1600m) winner continues her build-up in Sunday's Gr.1 Underwood Stakes (1800m) at Caulfield.

Baker has won the Underwood on three previous occasions, with The Phantom (NZ) (Noble Bijou) in 1990, Lion Tamer (NZ) (Storming Home) in 2011 and Dundee (NZ) (High

BAKER RACING TRIO OUT TO ENHANCE CUP CREDENTIALS

Chaparral) in 2013 and while he would dearly love to win another this weekend, he knows it won't be easy against the likes of Hartnell (Authorized) and Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars) and with more lucrative spoils to come later in her campaign.

"I'm very happy with her. She's doing everything right," Baker said.

"She's healthy and fit and still on the up. It's a good field on Sunday but you can't dodge anything at this stage. You've just got to front up. I'm sure she'll run another honest race."

A winner of six of her nine starts, the Makfi four-year-old mare will have the services of Sydney jockey Hugh Bowman for the first time since her Gr.1 Australian Oaks demolition in April.

Sunday's race will lead in to the Gr.1 A$1 million Caulfield Stakes (2000m) on October 14, a week before the Gr.1 A$3 million Caulfield Cup (2400m), with the Gr.1 A$6.5 million Melbourne Cup (3200m) at Flemington 17 days after that.

As to the Cups, Baker said of Bonneval: "She's right on target."

Baker and Forsman will get an earlier guide to their stable's Cup chances when Jon Snow and Lizzie L'Amour race at Moonee Valley tonight.

Gr.1 Australian Derby winner Jon Snow tackles the Gr.3 JRA Cup (2040m), having finished sixth in the Gr.1 Memsie Stakes (1400m) and eighth in the Gr.1 Makybe Diva Stakes (1600m) in his first two runs of the spring.

"He's working well but he's back to handicap racing and he's got to give a lot of weight away. Up in distance though, he should go well," Baker said.

"We just need to get up into that distance racing. He'll probably go to the Herbert Power [Gr.2 2400m at Caulfield on October 14] then the Caulfield Cup. He's already assured of a start in the Cup."

Gr.1 New Zealand Stakes winner Lizzie L'Amour, however, sits further down the Caulfield Cup entry order and is likely to need to win either of her next two starts to jump up the order and secure a start.

"She's been going all right the whole way through. She had that fibrillation last start but she trialed at Flemington a week later and everything was fine," Baker said.

"She's as right as we can get her. She might be looking for a bit further than a mile. We just need to get her going but we're happy with her."

Baker rated favourite I Am A Star (NZ) (I Am Invincible) as the horse to beat in the Gr.2 Stock Stakes (1600m) but expected Lizzie L'Amour to run a bold race.

"She's working well and she's a good class mare," he said.

"She's going to have to do things right to get in the Cups but there are plenty of suitable races for her at this carnival - mares races, weight-for-age races and at distances she likes."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Smith hopes My Diamantine can defy odds

My Diamantine (NZ) (Eighth Wonder) might be the outsider in the field for the Metropolitan Handicap but that doesn't faze her veteran trainer Brian Smith.

An expat New Zealander who brought champion Balmerino (NZ) (Trictrac) to Australia in the mid 1970s, the 76-year-old has 20 in work at Eagle Farm in Brisbane after many years training at Warwick Farm.

Smith travelled the world with Balmerino who ran second in the 1977 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

My Diamantine will not reach those heights, and although she is at $101 for Saturday's Metropolitan (2400m), Smith has been pleased with her campaign which includes seconds in the Listed Caloundra Cup (2400m) and Queensland Cup (3200m).

Smith planned to run My Diamantine in the Newcastle Gold Cup (3200m) on September 15, but revised those plans when she got 54kg.

Instead she returned to Queensland for a tune-up in the Ipswich Stayers' Cup (2150m) last weekend when she filled a minor placing.

"I was really happy with her. She's maintained her form so we'll have a crack," Smith said.

With the mare to carry 50kg, her regular jockey Andrew Spinks makes a rare appearance in Sydney.

My Diamantine is owned by Smith's long-time friend, John Wheeler who has enjoyed much success in Australia, notably with the popular Rough Habit (NZ) (Roughcast) who won three successive Doomben Cups, a Stradbroke Handicap and a Queensland Derby.

He's Our Rökkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes)

He's Our Rökkii to run in Underwood Stakes

Lindsay Park has decided to keep He's Our Rökkii (NZ) (Roc De Cambes) on home soil in Melbourne for a Group One race instead of travelling to Sydney.

The five-year-old is set to run in Sunday's weight-for-age Underwood Stakes (1800m) at Caulfield instead of contesting the Gr.1 Epsom Handicap (1600m) at Randwick a day earlier.

Senior Lindsay Park trainer David Hayes said the decision was based on the gelding heading towards next month's Caulfield Cup.

He's Our Rökkii has had two runs this campaign, finishing a first-up fourth in the P B Lawrence Stakes at Caulfield last month before running sixth to Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi) in the Dato Tan Chin Nam Stakes at Moonee Valley on September 9.

"I play better at Caulfield," Hayes said.

"He's got a good barrier and I can forgive him for one bad run and it also keeps him on the Caulfield Cup path.

"He's in the (Cup) field so it was an easy decision to make."

He's Our Rökkii has drawn barrier two in Sunday's race and will be ridden by Regan Bayliss.

Broadside (NZ) (Raise The Flag)

Tough NZ stayer thriving

Former Kiwi galloper Broadside (NZ) (Raise The Flag) is thriving on a heavy workload as he prepares for Saturday's Gr.1 The Metropolitan (2400m) at Randwick.

The Raise The Flag gelding will be making his third appearance this month when he steps out in the staying feature, in which he will again be ridden by Tim Clark.

"The back-up won't worry him," said Adrian Bott, who trains in partnership with Gai Waterhouse. "This is always the race we wanted to pick up with him because we think he's a really progressive type and those stayers get in down in the weights."

A two-time winner for Levin trainer Geoff Haigh, Broadside won the Gr.3 Newcastle Cup (2300m) on September 15 and last weekend he finished third in the Gr.3 Colin Stephen Quality (2400m) at Rosehill.

Countofmontecristo (NZ) (Echoes Of Heaven)

Countofmontecristo thriving

Assistant-trainer Michael White has a simple explanation for rising star Countofmontecristo's (NZ) (Echoes of Heaven) will to win even when up in class – practice makes perfect.

"He's top class. He thrives on racing; the more he races, the more he shows," said White.

Countofmontecristo is running in the $5700,000 Panasonic Kranji Mile (1600m) on Sunday.

"When he ran in the Singapore Guineas, he was nowhere near as good as he is now," he added.

"We were very happy with his gallop last Thursday and he will have another gallop tomorrow (Wednesday)."

Glen Boss will return on top of Countofmontecristo after missing out on the winning ride in the Jumbo Jet Trophy (1400m) on September 10, when Alan Munro filled in for the day.

Whether the Joe Giovanni-owned gelding goes the whole hog through the Singapore Triple Crown series to the Dester Singapore Gold Cup (2200m) will depend on his performance in each Leg, said White, even if the clean sweep bid is not the be-all and end-all to the Clements yard.

"We'll see how he pulls up after the Mile, but we would think he would go for the Raffles Cup (1800m on October 22)," he said.

"We're not so sure about the Gold Cup, but I would say it's highly unlikely he would."

Gentleman Beckham set for racing return

Well-bred Beckham (NZ) (Pins) is set to again prove it was a wise move not to geld him when he returns to racing on Saturday in the Coolum Caprice Handicap (1200m) at the Sunshine Coast.

Beckham is raced by Gary and Mark Chittick of Waikato Stud and did his early racing in New Zealand with trainer Peter

McKay before being sent to Liam Birchley and has won six of his 20 starts for the Eagle Farm trainer.

There are few better-bred horses than Beckham who is by top kiwi sire Pins out of the Group One-winning mare Glamour Puss (NZ) (Tale of The Cat) who produced six winners before a fatal colic attack two years ago.

Birchley said there never had been a real reason to geld seven-year-old entire Beckham.

"He always tries hard in his races and he is a gentleman around the stables and easy to handle. So why geld him when he has that breeding?" Birchley said.

"Saturday's race might be a bit short for him but he is going well. We can step him up in distance in the coming weeks," Birchley said.

Beckham has one advantage on Saturday in that he loves the big Sunshine Coast circuit having won twice from his only two starts at the track.

Mangaroo Flo Jo (NZ) (High Chaparral)

Change of plan could lead to birthday gifts for Thomas

Cambridge trainer Graeme Thomas is hoping for many happy returns at Ellerslie.

Thomas, who turns 66 on Saturday, will saddle Group Three winner Mangaroo Flo Jo (NZ) (High Chaparral) in the Harold Plumley Memorial Mitchelson Cup (2200m) and with Century Miss (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in the Queenstown House 2100m, both mares are in the right form to return home as winners.

"I expect them both to go quite well. It would be nice to get them both up on my birthday," Thomas said. Full story here.

Grey power at New Plymouth

Matamata conditioner Glenn Old holds a strong hand going into the Powerworx Greys at Pukekura Raceway tomorrow with Our King Sway (NZ) (Shinko King), but there does remain a question mark about the topweight's fitness leading into the 1400m race.

Our King Sway (NZ) (Shinko King)

The Gr.3 Platinum Homes Taranaki Cup winner hasn't favoured the wet conditions over winter and has been plagued by foot issues in the lead-up to his campaign.

"We've had a couple of mishaps with him with his feet," Old said. "He's got really flat feet so they have been stone bruised all winter. Full story here

Showemup (NZ) (Showcasing)

Trainer pleased with Showemup's progress

Sally McKay is ahead of the game with her stakes winner Showemup (NZ) (Showcasing), who will open her four-year-old season at Gore today.

"I've been thrilled with her, the best I've had her at this stage of a preparation and while she's not very big, she is stronger," the Ascot Park trainer said.

Showemup will resume in the Abernethy Contracting Handicap (1200m) and will be ridden by apprentice Tina Comignaghi. Full Story here

Tavistock Abbey confirms Vic Derby plans

A famous set of racing colours, no stranger to success in some of Australia's biggest races, have been carried to victory at Flemington.

And in a little over a month they could again be seen aboard the winner of the Victoria Derby.

Tavistock Abbey (NZ) (Tavistock) took out Wednesday's Victoria Derby Trial (1800m) in the colours carried by Carbine

Tavistock Abbey (NZ) (Tavistock)

(NZ) (Musket) in the 1800's and more recently by Cox Plate winner Super Impose (NZ) (Imposing). Full story here

Classic-bound Scott Base opens account

Scott Base (NZ) (Dalghar) took a successful step toward a Group One goal when he shed his maiden tag at Waipukurau.

The highly-regarded three-year-old, who was a stakes placegetter last season, showed his class late in the piece yesterday when he cleared a pocket to lengthen stride and claim the Congratulations Upper Cut 1400m.

"He needed to win today and he's got a big future," said Johno Benner, who trains the Dalghar gelding with Hollie Wynyard.

"He needs good ground so we might look at the Zacinto Stakes two weeks before the 2000 Guineas for him."

Mission accomplished by 3YO

Mission Hill (Teoflo) had no trouble at Avondale on Wednesday in opening his winning account at the second time of asking.

Narrowly beaten on debut at Pukekohe earlier this month, he was quickly in to stride to lead and strode away in the straight to claim the Fastrack Insurance 1330m with ease.

"He didn't like the track too much, but he was just too good anyway," rider Matt Cameron said.

Nominated for the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m), Mission Hill is trained by Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman for Lindsay de Souza, who shared in the ownership of the stable's multiple Group One winner Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj).

Rebecca Goldsbury

Smart filly rewarded with time off

Dijon Bleu (NZ) (Burgundy) has earned a week off following her early season black type heroics.

The daughter of Burgundy was a runaway winner of the Listed O'Leary's Fillies' Classic (1200m) at Wanganui before another dominant display to claim the Gr.3 Hawke's Bay Breeders' Gold Trail Stakes (1200m) at Hastings.

"She's quite a slight filly, but she's got a motor," Latta said. "She's having a week in the paddock and then we might look at taking her to Ellerslie." Full story here

Singapore contract extended for Grylls

Expatriate New Zealand jockey Craig Grylls is having the time of his life in Singapore and has welcomed the news that his initial three-month contract has been extended until the end of the year.

"I'm absolutely loving it," Grylls said. "It has been a great experience so far and I'm starting to get on some good horses now and I've got some good contacts.

"They have got great facilities here, a great track to ride on. It's a good climate with great weather and my weight is the best it has ever been." Full story here

Stakes assignment for Weather With You

Weather With You (Teofilo) will continue his build-up to the Gr.1 Victoria Derby (2500m) when he tackles the Listed UCI

Stakes (1800m) at Flemington on Saturday week.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained Teofilo gelding finished fourth at Flemington on Wednesday in the Derby Trial (1800m) behind the impressive New Zealand-bred Derby hopeful Tavistock Abbey (NZ) (Tavistock).

"It was a pretty good run. They went very slowly and Luke Nolen had to take hold of him a couple of times, then they sprinted from the 500m," Baker said.

"He never gave it away and was still coming at the end. We just need to win some prizemoney to make sure he gets into the Derby."

Burgundy

Burgundy impressing with first crop

Cambridge Stud stallion Burgundy is starting to make waves as a sire after securing his first Group-winner when the Lisa Latta-trained Dijon Bleu (NZ) won the Gr.3 Hawke's Bay Breeders' Gold Trail Stakes (1200m) at Hastings on Saturday.

Dijon Bleu's dominant victory is her second at stakes level after winning the Listed O'Leary's Fillies' Stakes (1200m) earlier in the month at Wanganui.

"We're very excited," Cambridge Stud general manager Marcus Corban said. "He's done a great job and he's got some promising horses here in New Zealand as well as in Australia and Singapore." Full story here

Golden strike for Kiwi rider

Rebecca Goldsbury has enjoyed a perfect introduction to metropolitan racing in Queensland.

The former Awapuni rider stepped up to the city stage for the first time this week and was successful aboard Now You See (Magic Albert). The mare is prepared by her employer Ben Currie.

Goldsbury was recommended to the Toowoomba trainer by another former New Zealand apprentice Josh Oliver.

"Josh finished his apprenticeship and he mentioned my name to the stable when they were looking for an apprentice," she said. "I am really enjoying myself and I am looking forward to riding more in the city."

Moonhopper Race on Spinal Trust Raceday

Successful charity day

The annual charity meeting at Pukekohe last Sunday exceeded expectations.

More than $16,000 was raised for the New Zealand Spinal Trust (NZST) after $9000 went to the cause 12 months ago.

The NZST is a registered charity to assist people with spinal cord impairments, a cause close to the racing community.

Aside from the funds raised, there was on and off the track entertainment, including

Innes gets Classic booking

Leith Innes has been confirmed as the rider for Chance To Dance (Teofilo) in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hawke's Bay on Saturday week.

The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained gelding won the Listed Haunui Farm Karaka Classic (1600m) at Pukekohe Park in the hands of Opie Bosson, who will partner stablemate Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj) in the Hastings feature.

The Gr.1 Windsor Park Plate (1600m) winner is an even money favourite to win the Livamol while Chance To Dance shares the second line of betting at $7 with Mime (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) and Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock).

Phelan on road to recovery

Leading jumps jockey Shaun Phelan has returned home to recuperate following a nasty fall at Wanganui last week.

"He broke a rib that pierced his lung and they drained that and plated his collar bone, it was a clean break," his father Craig said.

Phelan, who last month won the Grand National Steeplechase (5600m) on Upper Cut (NZ) (Yamanin Vital), suffered his injuries when he fell from Joking (NZ) (Lucky Unicorn) in an open steeplechase.

O'Reilly filly in line for Group One homecoming

Ballarat trainer Matt Cumani is giving serious thought to sending his Kiwi-bred filly Tigeen (NZ) (O'Reilly) home for a Group One opportunity.

He has the daughter of O'Reilly entered in the Gr.1 gavelhouse.com New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m) and plans for a trip to Christchurch in November could firm up later this week.

Tigeen continued a good run for Cumani with his 2016 Karaka purchases when she was successful on debut at Benalla over 1400m earlier this month. Full story here
