KERMADEC ON TRIAL FOR ROYAL ASCOT

2015 Doncaster Handicap winner Kermadec is ready to bounce back from his disappointing last start performance

The Championships in Sydney have been very kind to New Zealand bred gallopers, with the (NZ) suffix attached to Group One winners of the Derby, the Oaks, the Queen of the Turf and the Queen Elizabeth Stakes in the past fortnight.

And while the crescendo might be over, the Sydney Carnival continues on Saturday at Randwick with the Gr.1 All Aged Stakes (1400m) and Gr.1 Champagne Stakes (1600m) the highlights.

A rare weekend passed without a Group One winner from the Chris Waller barn, and the ex-pat Kiwi will have a strong hand in the All Aged Stakes courtesy of multiple Group One winner Kermadec (NZ) (Teofilo) and Caulfield Guineas winner Press Statement (Hinchinbrook).

Kermadec pulled up from his last-place finish in the Doncaster Mile, when carrying top weight, with an elevated heart rate and a back issue. The Wentwood Grange bred entire has pleased Waller with his work since and is being restricted to shorter distances.

Like his stablemate Press Statement, Kermadec is on trial for a trip to Royal Ascot, which would again provide reason for his breeders the Hawkins family to don the top hat and tails (the Wentwood Grange bred Little Bridge won the 2012 King's Stand Stakes).

Kermadec's peak career rating is clearly the best of any horse in the field and just two starts ago in the George Ryder he produced a performance that would be more than good enough to win the All Aged when second to Winx. The wide barrier draw (8) is likely to be an advantage with better going predicted to be out wide.

"He didn't like the sticky track last start and he has had some physio since," Waller said. "The Winx form is red hot."

Meanwhile Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young are lining up for another crack at a Sydney Group One title.

The Australian Derby-winning trainers have Tavago's (NZ) (Tavistock) stablemate Sicario (NZ) (Bullbars) set for the Champagne Stakes at Randwick on Saturday with Kerrin McEvoy engaged for the ride.

The last start Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes runner-up will race as El Sicario (NZ) in Australia.

Busuttin and Young will relocate their training operation to Cranbourne in July.

"He can run in Sydney for $500,000 and win, lose or draw he will be spelled over there and then we can get him ready for the spring in Melbourne," Busuttin said.

SWEYNESSE TO NOVARA PARK STUD

A Cambridge farm's search for a stallion to meet their strict criteria has come to a successful conclusion with the signing of a son of the champion galloper and sire Lonhro (Octagonal).

Novara Park Stud manager Ray Knight said they had been on the look-out for an Australian Group One performed horse and Sweynesse had satisfied all their expectations on pedigree, performance and type.

"Sweynesse is the highest-rated stallion from the Zabeel sire line to begin stud duties in New Zealand since Savabeel. On the racetrack, Sweynesse was one of the top three-year-old colts of his year earning him an interim Timeform Rating of 122."

A winner of his only start at two, the John O'Shea-trained Sweynesse was unbeaten in his first four starts including dual Group Three wins in the Spring Stakes and the Gloaming Stakes.

He then stepped up to Group One company for the first time when third in the Spring Champion Stakes and he ended his preparation when eighth in the Gr.1 Cox Plate, a placing that didn't accurately reflect his performance.

From a wide gate he settled last and rattled off the fastest final sectional to finish only 1.75 lengths from the winner Adelaide.

Sweynesse kicked off his autumn programme with a close second in the Gr.2 Hobartville Stakes and he pushed Hallowed Crown (Street Sense) close again when runner-up in the Gr.1 Randwick Guineas.

Sweynesse winning the Gr. 3 Gloaming Stakes

"He was awesome. We got back in a slowly run race so his (sectional) splits would have been amazing," rider James McDonald said.

Sweynesse is out of the Singspiel mare Swansea, a multiple winner, from the family of American Group One winners Fantastic Look and Designed For Luck.

"Sweynesse was a legitimate Group One performer and he has the looks and pedigree to complete a quality package," Knight said. "He is a magnificent individual and stands 16.2h. He is dark brown, very correct and will let down into an impressive stallion. He will be a very valuable addition to the New Zealand ranks."

To stand alongside Jakkalberry, Sweynesse is being syndicated among New Zealand breeders and will be offered at a fee of $6000 + GST. He will be introduced at an open day on April 24 at 11.30am.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Who Dat Singa (NZ) (Iffraaj)

NZ Breds tackle WA Derby

The Grant Williams-trained filly First Impressions (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) heads into Saturday's Gr.2 Western Australian Derby as one of the leading fancies on the back of her easy victory in the Gr.3 WA Oaks.

The Bob Peters-owned filly will be out to replicate the deeds of stablemate Delicacy (Al Maher), and the manner in which the daughter of Rip Van Winkle took out the Oaks suggests she will be more than capable of footing it with the boys.

While the Adam Durrant-trained Kia Ora Koutou (Blackfriars) is rated the horse to beat, Who Dat Singa (NZ) (Iffraaj) comfortably accounted for that rival last start in Listed company and is also prominent in the market.

The Neven Botica bred and raced filly Spirit Bird (NZ) (Savabeel) is the third NZ bred runner in the $400,000 contest which has attracted a field of 12.

Guarantor (NZ) (Howbaddouwantit)

Hastings win might guarantee Riccarton trip

Mark Oulaghan is hoping that with talented stayer Guarantor (NZ) (Howbaddouwantit) his cups might runneth over in the next 10 days.

The Palmerston North trainer will produce his Listed Kaimai Stakes winner in Saturday's Listed Fasttrackinsurance Hawke's Bay Cup (2200m) at Hastings, hoping the Howbaddouwantit gelding might do enough to convince him he's worthy of a trip to Riccarton for the Gr.3 Canterbury Gold Cup (2000m) seven days later.

El Sagrado (Azamour)

El Sagrado ready for Riccarton

Moira Murdoch doesn't look too far ahead with El Sagrado (Azamour), but she is expecting another strong showing from the mare on Saturday.

The Waiuku trainer sent the unsound five-year-old south in a bid to enhance her future value as a broodmare and that was achieved to a degree with a bold second in the Gr.3 South Island Breeders' Stakes at Riccarton.

El Sagrado was narrowly denied on a Good 3 track and she will attempt to go one better in her return to the south's premier course for the Listed Christchurch Casino Ester Cup. Full story here.

Iffraaj (Zafonic)

Haunui Farm Service Fee Announcement

Haunui Farm have today announced their service fees for the 2016 breeding season.

New Zealand's leading sire of two-year-olds and last season's Champion 3YO Sire Iffraaj (GB) (Zafonic), will stand at a fee of $17,500 + GST whilst his barn mate Showcasing (GB) (Oasis Dream), the leading second season sire and Champion 2YO and First Season Sire of 2014/2015, will stand for $15,000 + GST in the new season with their books strictly limited to 100 and 125 mares respectively.

They will be joined once again by G1 Australian Guineas-winner Ferlax (NZ) (Pentire), whose fee remains at $7,000 + GST. Full story here.

Shocking (Street Cry)

Rich Hill Stud Service Fee Announcement

Rich Hill Stud foundation stallion Pentire (Be My Guest) will stand at a reduced figure in 2016 while the service fees of his younger associate stallions Jimmy Choux (NZ) (Thorn Park) and Shocking (Street Cry) will be increased.

The sire of the Melbourne Cup winner Prince Of Penzance and the dual Group One winner Xtravagant, Pentire will drop from $13,500 to $10,000 + GST while Jimmy Choux's fee will rise from $10,000 to $12,500.

His first crop representatives this season include the Gr.3 Eclipse Stakes winner Manolo Blahniq and the stakes performer What Choux Want.

The service fee for Shocking, sire of the Gr.1 NZ Oaks winner Fanatic, will increase from $7500 to $8500 + GST while Proisir will again be available at $7000 + GST.

Timely success for Rageese

Rageese's (Street Cry) return to winning form was perfect timing for his New Zealand connections.

The Street Cry colt's resuming victory under 60kg at Sandown last Saturday was welcomed by Windsor Park Stud after the Cambridge operation recently bought a 50 percent interest in the three-year-old.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Rageese (Street Cry)

Now trained by Darren Weir, Rageese was making his first appearance following a two month break and accounted for a field containing several Group performers.

"We're delighted to see Rageese win under those conditions in that style," Windsor Park Stud's Rodney Schick said.

"Being among Australia's leading two-year-olds last season, we were in no doubt as to his level of talent. However it is still important for his future at stud to see that ability confirmed as a three year old."

Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto)

Guineas goal for easy debut victor

Spring classic success is already top of the priority list for Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto), who has credited his sire Zacinto with the first winner of his career.

Despite pre-race concerns about a heavily rain-affected track at Rotorua, the exciting youngster showed his raw talent to post a runaway debut victory in the Rydges Hotel 2YO on Wednesday.

"He didn't look comfortable at all, but class takes them a fair way and he has showed us a lot at home," trainer Stephen Marsh said.

"He could have one more run – there's a race (the Listed Hamilton Vet Services Juvenile) at Te Rapa in early May that No More Tears won last year and he could go there and then spell.

"We'll see how he does after this first though. He's a very good horse and he will be much better as a three-year-old – his main aim will be the 2000 Guineas." Full story here.

Entries for online auction closing

Vendors have until 7pm this Sunday 17 April to enter their horses in the inaugural Gavelhouse.com online auction, after which the catalogue will be launched online at 7pm on the 18th with bidding running from Monday the 25th to 7pm Thursday the 28th of April.

Included in the first catalogue thus far is a good selection of breeding and racing prospects plus some valuable pin-hooking opportunities including an outstanding weanling colt by Tavistock.

Many of New Zealand's leading farms have stock listed already with another fillip being five blue-blood mares being sold by Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa.

The self-service registration and listing process has to date had over 20 farms, stables and individuals successfully listing horses while for those that aren't as well versed in the online space, the gavelhouse.com team are happy to assist. Full story here.

Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi)

Traumatic ordeal for NZ fillies

Stephen Marsh will give his Gr.1 Australian Oaks winner Sofia Rosa (NZ) (Makfi) a few extra days to get over her traumatic post-race ordeal.

The Cambridge trainer is at a loss to understand how a Sydney vet could have got the dosage of a pre-flight insect spray so wrong that his filly and fellow Kiwis Valley Girl (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) and Capella (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) had to be taken straight to a veterinary clinic.

"The fillies got terribly agitated and it basically burned them so we had to hose them off – it was shocking," he said.

Under the circumstances, Sofia Rosa would remain in Sydney until Monday before she returned home.

"After what she's gone through I won't put her through the stress of travel straight away and she will fly home on Monday, all going well."

Rasa Lila well-placed in Easter

Quality mare Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma) will be well-suited by the conditions of her next assignment.

"She's going to the Easter Handicap and will get in a kilo above the minimum – it's ideal for her," said Garry Cossey, racing manager to owner Sir Peter Vela.

Under the same set weights and penalties conditions, the Steven Ramsay and Julia Ritchie-trained Rasa Lila won the Gr.3 Cuddle Stakes two runs back.

Meanwhile, her stablemate Silver Eclipse (NZ) (Darci Brahma) will head to Hastings on Saturday for the Listed NZB Finance and Leasing Sprint. "She's going along really well," Cossey said.

Werther (NZ) (Tavistock)

Moore has faith in Werther

Trainer John Moore isn't fazed by the strength of the international competition that Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) will face in the Gr.1 Audemars Piguet Cup at Sha Tin later this month.

He has every confidence in the last-start Gr.1 Hong Kong Derby winner to rise to the sternest test of his career on April 24.

"He's a really tough New Zealand-bred horse, and, take into consideration what he was asked to do in Australia, and consider the form that he's in now and the good weight gain since his last run, I don't think he's taken any harm from the Derby," Moore said.

"I believe he will hold his form right to the end of the season. I think he's very durable and he's a delight to train, he's a very straightforward horse."

Bridge relying on youth

Queensland Group One challenge beckons top mare

New Zealand's latest Group One-winning mare is almost certain to be given the opportunity to collect a perfect pair.

With a top-flight victory on her domestic CV, Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City) is being aimed toward the Queensland winter carnival and the prospect of significantly boosting her future off track value for owners Haunui Farm.

"We're giving strong consideration to one or maybe two starts over there and targeting the Winter Stakes," studmaster Mark Chitty said.

The Group One feature, run as the Tatts Tiara in recent years, is a 1400 metre event for fillies and mares on June 25. Full story here.

Mark Du Plessis

Du Plessis heading to warmer climes

Mark Du Plessis has earned himself a riding stint in Japan, a racing industry that he is already familiar with.

"I'm going there on the 3rd of May and will be back on the 5th of July," Du Plessis said. "It's going to be nice to get out there and miss part of the winter here."

The 40-year-old will be based at Ritto, home to the Japan Racing Association's training centre and the base of leading trainer Katsuhiko Sumii.

"He has asked if he can use me as much as he can so that's a big positive," Du Plessis said.

Sumii is internationally known as the trainer of Delta Blues and Pop Rock, who quinellaed the 2006 Melbourne Cup.

Hollindale to frame programme

The Gr.2 Hollindale Cup at the Gold Coast on May 7 is the likely starting point for the Queensland campaign of Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock).

"We'll get through that race and it will determine whether he goes on to the Doomben Cup or if he drops back in class to something like the Lord Mayor's Cup," part-owner Garry Cossey said.

Volkstok'n'barrell returned home for a break after the multiple Group One winner was out of the money on an unsuitably slow track in the Gr.1 Doncaster Mile at Randwick earlier this month.

"He was bit tired after that, but he's doing well now," Cossey said.

Rising Romance Hong Kong-bound

Rising Romance's (NZ) (Ekraar) performance in the Gr.1 Queen Elizabeth Handicap at Randwick has booked her passage further afield.

The New Zealand-bred daughter of Ekraar ran fourth behind Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel) last Saturday to confirm her place in the field for the Gr.1 QE II Cup at Sha Tin on April 24.

Rising Romance hasn't won for more than a year, but she has posted five Group placings since joining the Victorian operation of David Hayes and Tom Dabernig from Donna Logan's Ruakaka stable.

Zasorceress heading to Frank Packer Plate

Having just failed to get a run in the Australian Oaks, Zasorceress (NZ) (Zabeel) will now press her claims in Saturday's Frank Packer Plate (2000m) at Randwick.

"The Frank Packer Plate was always our back-up, being a Group Three race," said trainer Jason Warren.

"We'll have to assess how she goes and then decide if we give her a little let-up and go to Brisbane or we put her on a plane and fly to Adelaide and run in the Australasian Oaks in three weeks."

Trainer already eyeing bonus with potential staying star

Gary Vile is hoping a recently introduced bonus will remain in place for next season.

The Awapuni trainer believes he will have the perfect candidate in Jacksstar (NZ) (Zed) to chase the staying grand slam of the Gr.3 New Zealand Cup, the Gr.2 Wellington Cup and the Gr.1 Auckland Cup.

This term, $1 million was on offer to the winner of all three majors with $250,000 for the winner of any two.

Jacksstar's recent form has been exemplary and he will have one more autumn outing before he is put aside for the winter.

"He's going to the Hawke's Bay Cup on Saturday and then he'll be spelled and come back to get ready for the New Zealand Cup," Vile said. "I hope they've still got that bonus."

Full story here.

Let Me Roar (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Let Me Roar savages rivals

The Cambridge training partnership of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman have a potential star on their hands in the form of unbeaten filly Let Me Roar (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle).

A half-sister to the Gr.1 VRC Derby winner Lion Tamer (NZ) (Storming Home), Let Me Roar cruised to a six-length victory at Pukekohe on Sunday over 1200m in the slick time of 1.08.45.

"She's a very exciting horse," Forsman said. "We're just lucky to have been given the chance to train her."

The Gr.3 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders Stakes (1200m) at Te Rapa on April 30 is the immediate target for Let Me Roar where she is likely to clash with boom colt Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire).

Change of plan for stakes-performed mare

A multitude of black type opportunities in Australia is likely to lure Rose Of Virginia (NZ) (Thorn Park) back into action.

The Thorn Park mare, who finished runner-up in her last appearance in the Gr.1 Auckland Cup, is entered in next month's Australian Broodmare Sale.

However, her connections have now had a rethink and Rose Of Virginia is poised to cross the Tasman as a racing proposition.

"She's out spelling at the moment and we're talking to a few trainers in Sydney given the plethora of Group Three and Listed cups around for good stake money," said part-owner Dr Alan Jackson, who also chairs the board of New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing.
