WERTHER READY TO TAKE STEP-UP

Hong Kong Derby winner Werther (near side) takes on a star-studded field in Sunday's Gr. 1 Audemars Piguet QEII Cup

Hong Kong Derby winner Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) is the pick of John Moore's trio of runners heading into Sunday's star-studded Gr.1 Audemars Piguet QEII Cup (2000m).

The son of Tavistock has improved since his Derby victory last month and is ready to tackle strong international competition at Sha Tin on Sunday.

"Werther will be right on their hammer," Moore said. "He'll need to take another step because this is the best field of horses for the AP QEII Cup that I can remember."

The four-year-old put in a solid gallop on Thursday under work rider Thomas Yeung, clocking 1m 25.1s for the 1200m. The gelding gave the impression that the tank was full and the machine well-oiled as he passed the post powerfully upsides the lead horse, Beauty Prince (Arcano).

"Werther worked without blinkers, we didn't want him to do too much because Thomas Yeung who rides him every morning said 'you've got him really fit' and he really is a fit, fit horse," said Moore.

"He's the sort of horse that can lay up and the Japanese horses won't get too far away. He worked really well – he came home really strongly and pulled up clean in the wind. He's gone on from the Derby."

ABIDEWITHME THRIVING FOR EASTER

High class mare Abidewithme will seek to add a Group One victory to her impressive career record in the Manco Easter Stakes at Ellerslie tomorrow

Stephen Autridge can't get over the progress made by Manco Easter Stakes candidate Abidewithme (NZ) (Redoute's Choice) in the last few weeks.

"When she came back from Australia a month ago we were going to miss the Easter and have a go at the Travis Stakes at Te Rapa, but she's thrived," said Autridge, who trains in partnership with Jamie Richards.

"She loves the sunlight and the good New Zealand grass. She came back lean and mean and she's just gone ahead.

"The way she's looking she could run in the Easter and back up in the Travis the following week, just like she did last year."

Abidewithme was sent to Melbourne trainer Peter Moody by her owner-breeders Sir Patrick and Lady Justine Hogan after she won the Gr.2 Travis Stakes at Te Rapa 12 months ago and she won the first of her six Australian starts, fresh-up over 1400 metres at Caulfield last August.

She returned to Te Akau Racing Stables just 10 days before she resumed her domestic career in the Gr.1 NZ Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes and charged home for second behind Perfect Fit (NZ) (Elusive City).

"That was a huge run and the way she has improved she has to be a good chance on Saturday," said Autridge.

"We're trying to win a Group One with her and it would be nice to do it in the Easter. She's already a valuable mare and that would top it off nicely.

"The plan is for her to go out after the Travis and be served by Tavistock then maybe come back to race through Christmas – New Year.

"I think a race like the Zabeel Classic (the Gr.1 weight-for-age feature on Boxing Day at Ellerslie) would be perfect for her."

O'HARA HOPES THE REAL SPALATO SHOWS UP

Trainer John O'Hara is keeping his fingers crossed his champion galloper Spalato (NZ) (Elusive City) will bounce back to his true self in the $800,000 Gr.1 Lion City Cup (1200m) in Singapore on Sunday.

Until now, the Singaporean handler is still at a loss to explain the Elusive City six-year-old's lacklustre run in the second Leg of the Singapore Sprint Series, the Gr.3 Kranji Sprint (1200m) on April 3. Spalato sat at the back of the small eight-horse field but barely pulled any ground off the leaders in the home straight to run a tepid fifth more than four lengths off the winner Emperor Max (Holy Roman Emperor).

O'Hara has since spent the last three weeks trying to get to the bottom of that uncharacteristic run, but is still stumped for an answer.

"I had him scanned after the race but the results have been all clear. The vets could not find anything untoward," said O'Hara.

"Some people say it was the pull in weights (Spalato was the topweight on 58kgs and gave weight all round), but to be honest, I don't think it was a factor," he continued.

"I just can't find a reason to that run. He just wasn't the same horse on that day."

Spalato was imperious at his previous start in the Gr.2 Merlion Trophy (1200m), blowing his rivals away by just under four lengths.

Raced by New Zealanders Graham Mackie and Trish Dunell, Spalato produced an under-whelming piece of work on the grass midweek, but O'Hara is not overly concerned.

"He seems to be fine. Some horses tell you they are on the up when they eat well, but Spalato has never been a good doer.

"I just hope he bounces back on Sunday but it will be tough. Even though it is now a set-weight race, he is up against the same horses who beat him, and Emperor Max and Zac Spirit are not just any horse, they were first-up and they have improved from that run as well."

Spalato is looking to bounce back to winning form in the rich Gr.1 Lion City Cup on Sunday

NEWS IN BRIEF

Savabeel (Zabeel)

Unchanged Fees at Waikato Stud

Waikato Stud today announced their stud fees would remain unchanged in 2016.

"We have had enquiry as to what Savabeel's (Zabeel) fee would go up to, but we feel it was fair to leave it at $100,000 plus GST, LFG," explained studmaster Mark Chittick.

"Savabeel has had another massive year.

"Off the back of six individual Group One winners last season - which was double that of any other sire in Australasia - he has excelled at the top level this season with son Kawi, who won three Group One contests and with daughter Lucia Valentina, who added the third Group One win of her career in Australia's $4 million Gr.1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes. In addition to this pair, he has also been responsible for seven other stakes winners.

Fellow Waikato Stud stallion Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) will again stand at a fee of $30,000 plus GST, LFG; Ocean Park (Thorn Park) will stand at a fee of $30,000 plus GST, LFG; Pins (Snippets) will stand at a fee of $25,000 plus GST, LFG; Rock N Pop (Fastnet Rock) will stand for $9000 plus GST, LFG; Rios (Hussonet) will stand at a fee of $4,000 plus GST, LFG. Full story here.

Contributor (High Chaparral)

Mapperley Stud service fees announced

New additions to the Mapperley stallion roster this season include impressive

Australian Group One winners Contributer (High Chaparral) and Complacent (Authorized) who will stand alongside resident stallions He's Remarkable (Pentire) and Atlante (Fastnet Rock).

Contributer will stand for NZ$15,000 + GST (LFG) for the 2016 season, while Complacent will stand for NZ$5,000 + GST (LFG), Atlante will stand for NZ$7,000 + GST (LFG) and He's Remarkable will stand for NZ$4,000 + GST (LFG). Full story here.

Mabeel (NZ) (Savabeel)

Mabeel fancied in Easter

Cambridge trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young will be represented in the Gr.1 Manco Easter Stakes at Ellerslie on Saturday by Mabeel (NZ) (Savabeel), who is a leading prospect after his impressive last start win in the Listed Fairdale – Goodwood Studs Flying Handicap (1400m) at Awapuni early this month.

This will be Busuttin and Young's fourth Group One bid this month and if Mabeel succeeds he may get one more shot at the top grade before a spell.

"There's a chance we could look at the Stradbroke in Brisbane," said Busuttin. "But he'd have to win on Saturday to go for it. I've discussed it with Cherry Taylor, who manages the horse for owner Deborah Ho."

The Gr.1 A$1.5 million Stradbroke Handicap is at Eagle Farm on June 11 and whatever happens on Saturday Busuttin and Young have already received good news from the Mabeel camp.

"They've agreed to let us take him to Melbourne to be part of our team when we shift over there," said Busuttin. "That's a big kick for us. There will be a lot of options for a horse like him over there. Full story here.

Queensland trip possible

Romantic Maid (High Chaparral) will attempt to turn the tables on stablemate The Hassler (NZ) (Shocking) and defeat

Romantic Maid (High Chaparral)

some promising young stayers in the Gr.2 Championship Stakes at Ellerslie on Saturday to seal her place on a flight to Queensland.

The Cambridge stablemates met for the first time at Pukekohe earlier this month and The Hassler came up trumps, scoring by a short neck in his first start since the New Zealand Derby, while the previously unbeaten Romantic Maid finished fourth.

"She didn't have the best of runs and her last 50 metres was super," said trainer Roger James. "I think the trip on Saturday will suit her and her work has been great.

"She is a very good filly and I'd like to get her to Brisbane for the Doomben Roses and the Queensland Oaks." Full story here.

Paddy poised for Group win

It's something of an anomaly that multiple Group One performer Authentic Paddy has yet to win a stakes race, but Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta is hoping to set the record straight in Saturday's Gr.3 Coca-Cola Canterbury Gold Cup (2000m) at Riccarton.

Authentic Paddy has won nine of his 53 starts and bankrolled more than $300,000 but while he has always proven competitive in stakes company, he has yet to win a black-type race.

"His work on Tuesday was as good as it's ever been so I think we've got him back to full fitness now," said Latta. "He's just had a few problems – he's been tying up – and the track was quite tricky at Awapuni last start."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Astara (NZ) (Dalghar)

Astara to promote sire

Astara (NZ) (Dalghar) gets her opportunity to be a black type winner on Saturday when she contests the Listed Champagne Stakes at Ellerslie and on the strength of her form she is the horse to beat.

Owner Neven Botica was inundated with offers to buy the filly after she was successful at Ellerslie earlier this month, but as the owner of her promising young sire Dalghar, he has elected to retain the filly to promote the sire further.

"I can't blame him for wanting to keep her," co-trainer Donna Logan said. "She's a very tough filly, along the lines of Good Faith and Vapour Trail that I've trained." Full story here.

Platinum Witness ready for Anzac battle

Group One winner Platinum Witness (California Dane) will chase further black-type success in Monday's Listed Manawatu ITM Anzac Mile at Awapuni.

Palmerston North trainer Lisa Latta was prepared to forgive the 1000 Guineas winner's first-up failure at Te Aroha earlier this month and has since sent the California Dane four-year-old mare to the Waverley trials on Tuesday, where she finished second.

"She just proved she doesn't go right-handed at Te Aroha and I can't fault her condition. Her best form has been on off tracks so we're hoping for a bit of rain over the weekend," Latta said.

Bosson arrives in HK

New Zealand's two-time champion jockey Opie Bosson has arrived in Hong Kong to start a three-month contract with the Hong Kong Jockey Club that will take him through to the final day of the current season, Sunday 10 July.

"It's great to have the opportunity to come here and ride in what we term back home as probably the best racing in the Opie Bosson (Left) with the HKJC's Andrew Harding world," said Bosson. "To be on the world stage and be given this opportunity is a huge thrill."

Bosson has four rides at Sha Tin on Sunday.

The Diamond One (Tale Of The Cat)

The Diamond One retired

The Dennis brothers, Tony, Ray, Martin and Joe, have announced the retirement of their multiple stakes winning mare The Diamond One (Tale of the Cat)

The Diamond One retires as the winner of eight races including three editions of the Gr.3 White Robe Lodge Handicap, a Gr.3 Cuddle Stakes and the Listed Eclipse Stakes.

Originally trained by the late Steve Anderton, The Diamond One captured the hearts of the racing public when she won her second White Robe Lodge Handicap just three days after her trainer's tragic death. Steve's wife Claire continued to train the mare to a further win in the Wingatui feature as well as a win in the Gr.3 Cuddle Stakes at Trentham.

He Kin Fly abroad?

Punters got a glimpse of the talent of He Kin Fly (NZ) (Darci Barhma) on debut at Te Aroha on Wednesday and that may be all that is seen of the Darci Brahma three-year-old in this country.

He Kin Fly impressed when winning the Bruce Duske Farewell 1200 from the stable of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, but the dust had hardly settled before bloodstock agents were on their phones chasing the promising three-year-old.

Xtravagant pleases in exhibition

All reports were positive from the Te Akau racing camp following Xtravagant's (NZ) (Pentire) exhibition gallop at Te Aroha on Wednesday in preparation for the Gr.3 Cambridge Breeders' Stakes at Te Rapa on April 30.

"He went a nice half mile," said Jamie Richards who prepares the three-year-old in partnership with Stephen Autridge. "He's done some nice work at home and we've still got a little bit of time to finish him off for next Saturday so we're very happy with where he's at." Full story here.

Wiggle (NZ) (Gold Centre)

Wiggle has room to move

Awapuni trainer Trina Riddell will be keeping a keen eye on the weather ahead of the weekend's racing as she ponders whether six-year-old gelding Wiggle (NZ) (Gold Centre) will be seen at Trentham on Saturday or at Awapuni on Monday.

A last start winner over the course and distance, Wiggle is entered for Saturday's Rating 85 Benchmark Advanced Gaming Handicap (1600m) at Trentham, but Riddell's preference is to tackle Listed company on Monday should the rain stay away. Full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

James McDonald

McDonald in search of 100

James McDonald has set himself the goal of becoming the first jockey in almost a decade to ride 100 Sydney winners in a season.

McDonald has ridden 80-1/2 metropolitan winners to put himself well on course for a second Sydney jockeys' title, but posting a century has also become a major incentive for the 24-year-old before he heads overseas. Full story here.

Operation for Norvall

Cambridge jockey Rogan Norvall has undergone an operation in Waikato Hospital after his left leg was badly damaged in a barrier incident at the Te Aroha meeting on Wednesday.

Norvall had his leg crushed against the back of the barriers when his mount,

Livingston (NZ) (Elusive City), suddenly backed out of her stall when being loaded for the eighth event, the NZB Pearl Series 1600.

Norvall suffered fractures of the tibia and fibia bones, one being a spiral fracture and the other a compound fracture, and he also has a break higher up the leg. He underwent surgery Thursday morning to have a rod inserted into the injured leg. Full story here.

Debbie Hawkins

Hawkins joins NZB

Debbie Hawkins has joined the New Zealand Bloodstock team as sales representative, domiciled in Singapore, to further develop business interests in Singapore and throughout Asia & South Africa.

Until recently, Debbie, was the Senior Owners Manager for the Singapore Turf Club.

"Over the years that Debbie has been in Singapore she has managed the international races and the hosting of all international connections, building solid relationships with many of the trainers and owners. We are delighted to have her on the team assisting our customers with their bloodstock, insurance and airfreight needs," said NZB Managing Director Andrew Seabrook.

Aerovelocitv benefits from trial

Trainer Paul O'Sullivan knows that Aerovelocitv's (NZ) (Pins) prep has not been ideal for the upcoming fourth leg of the Global Sprint Challenge but the Kiwi handler will let his charge take his chance, aware that significant benefit will have been derived from a trial on Tuesday.

"He's the sort of horse that can improve sharply on one barrier trial," said the trainer. "The Chairman's Sprint Prize is definitely still the target, it's all he's got left. He's seven years old and we're not going in with the same confidence as his last run here, he had a far sounder preparation for that, but if he draws a gate, he is a race day horse."
