O'SULLIVAN LEANS ON HOPE FOR AEROVELOCITY'S CHAIRMAN'S SPRINT CHALLENGE

Trainer Paul O'Sullivan has his fingers crossed that champion sprinter Aerovelocity can return to his very best in Sunday's Gr. 1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) at Sha Tin

Hong Kong's Champion Sprinter Aerovelocity (NZ) (Pins) has had a season of deflation and elation and after the seven-year-old's latest stroke of ill fortune, trainer Paul O'Sullivan is leaning on hope's unpredictable crutch that his stable star will line up for Sunday's Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) in something like peak shape.

"We've done the best we can under the conditions and I wouldn't go back a month and do anything differently but his trial indicated to me that his fitness levels aren't quite where I'd like them to be," said the Kiwi handler.

Aerovelocity's early season malaise has been well-documented, but after missing December's Gr.1 Hong Kong

International Sprint the brilliant Windsor Park Stud-bred bay returned with a stunning victory in January's Gr.1 Centenary Sprint Cup. That prompted connections to head to Japan in an attempt to win the Gr.1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen for a second time. Colic robbed Aerovelocity of the chance – his journey to Japan and the obligatory quarantine confinements had all been in vain.

"It's been an unusual preparation, with the colic and this and that," said O'Sullivan.

Aerovelocity stepped out in a trial last week but failed to instil confidence in his camp.

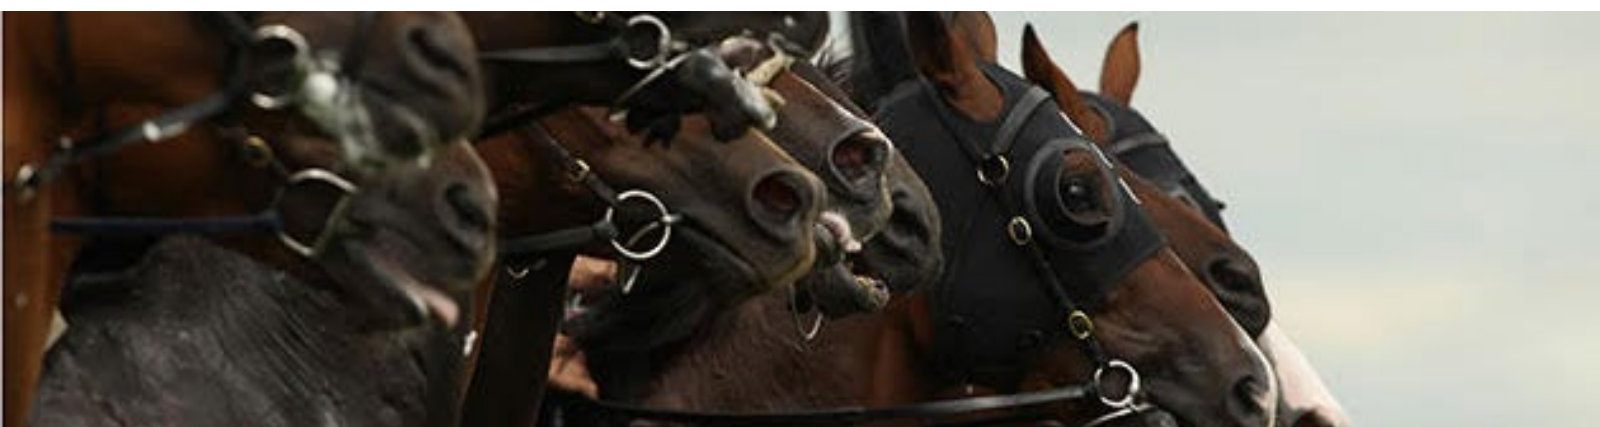

"To me, he didn't trial as well as he did before he won his last start," observed O'Sullivan. "He's going to have to take a lot of benefit out of that trial to be anywhere near his best, so hopefully he has.

"There's not much more I can do with him with the race being this Sunday – he did a bit of fast work on Thursday morning but it might be too little too late. There's no use boring into him, so under the circumstances we've done the best we can and hopefully it's enough."

The top-class sprinter was dealt a blow when drawing barrier 14 in the 1200m feature.

Sunday marks the first time that the Chairman's Sprint Prize will be staged as an international Group One contest and the new fourth leg of the Global Sprint Challenge has drawn a field befitting its status.

Venerable Waikato Stud stallion Pins is represented by Aerovelocity in the Group One sprint and Packing Pins (NZ) in the Gr.1 Champions Mile on the same card.

FAMOUS SEAMUS TO PUT HIS NAME IN LIGHTS

Famous Seamus will be looking for firm surfaces when he heads to Brisbane for his fourth attempt on the major sprint prizes on offer during the upcoming Queensland Winter Carnival

A change in his travel routine is expected to help spark Group One winner Famous Seamus (NZ) (Elusive City) back to top form during his fourth Brisbane campaign.

Famous Seamus returns to the scene of his biggest win when he contests the Gr.2 Victory Stakes (1200m) at Doomben on Saturday.

The gelding has been well beaten in three runs since a spell with the latest 13th behind Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago) in the Gr.1 T J Smith Stakes on April 2.

But trainer Noel Mayfield-Smith is confident Famous Seamus is ready for the winter carnival races including the Gr.1 BTC Cup which he won two years ago.

Mayfield-Smith has decided to take the gelding home to Hawkesbury between his Brisbane runs.

“A few of the Sydney trainers have been doing it successfully. We can get straight on the freeway and head north,” Mayfield-Smith said.

“The key to Famous Seamus is dry tracks. He needs it really firm. So instead of having him up there all the time, he will be going back and forward depending on the weather.”

“He has done it before to Melbourne in the spring when he won a Group Three race (Heffernan Stakes).”

“Famous Seamus has won a trial since the TJ Smith and I was pleased with the effort. Give us a dry track and he should be back to near his best.”

Mayfield Smith said Famous Seamus would be kept to the weight for age races during the winter - the Victory Stakes, BTC Cup and Doomben 10,000.

XTRAVAGANT IN PEAK RACING TRIM: AUTRIDGE

Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire) is every bit as well as he was going into his brilliant win in the Gr.1 NRM Sprint (1400m) in February, according to trainer Stephen Autridge as he puts the final touches on the colt for Saturday's Gr.3 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders Stakes (1200m).

The Pentire colt ran out an eight-length winner of that weight-for-age feature at Te Rapa, lowering the colours of Group One winners Vespa (NZ) (Elusive City), Recite (NZ) (Darci Brahma), Sacred Star (Flying Spur), Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock) and Ryan Mark (NZ) (Thorn Park).

While he was unable to repeat the performance in the Gr.1 Australian Guineas (1600m) at Flemington at his next start, he has returned to racing trim much to the delight of Autridge and his training partner Jamie Richards.

"He's done some really good pieces of trackwork and we're very happy with him," Autridge said of the TAB's $1.85 favourite for the three-year-old sprint.

"He's the same weight as when he won the NRM Sprint, so he's pretty fit. He likes the track and he's drawn [barrier] two, so we're happy on those counts too.

"He should be winning it, all things being equal, but funnier things have happened in racing. At set-weights, he's thrown in. In the NRM Sprint, he wasn't thrown in but he was still too good and we think he's in the same condition that he was for that day."

Raced by the Te Akau 2014 Breeding Syndicate, Xtravagant has won five of his nine starts, including a breath-taking 8 1/2-length win over Cambridge Breeders Stakes rival Battle Time (NZ) (Battle Paint) in the Gr.1 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton in November.

He possesses dazzling gate speed and is expected to easily find the front on Saturday for regular rider Matt Cameron.

Autridge and Richards will shoot for a Group-race double at Te Rapa, with last year's winner Abidewithme (NZ) (Redoute's Choice) back to defend her title in the Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) for jockey Michael McNab, who celebrated his biggest win in the race last year.

"She's really well. It was a good run in the Easter last week but they just went too quick for her," Autridge said.

"The last 200m was the best part of her race. She's following the same leadup as last year. She's plotting the same course and hopefully we can get the same result."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Tavistock Weanling tops online auction

A Tavistock weanling colt from Savabeel mare Ria's Pride has topped the first of an innovative new on-line auction sales service, offered through the gavelhouse.com website.

The brown or grey colt, who features a slew of stakes performers including multiple Group One winner Our Tristalight (NZ) (Sir Tristram) in his extended pedigree, fell to the successful bid of Jeremy Whale's Diamond Lodge who outlaid $91,000 to secure the colt.

Auckland based Te Runga Stud provided another sale highlight when their unraced, trial winning three-year-old Castledale gelding fell to a final bid of $68,000.

Full results of the April sale can be found here.

Nigelissima (NZ) (Pentire)

Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

at Tauranga and a last-start fourth in the Gr.3 Manawatu Breeders Stakes (2000m) at Awapuni.

"It's a big step up but she's gone well at Te Rapa before. She's still thriving and has dapples all over her and she's done really well since Awapuni," said Emma-lee Browne, who trains in partnership with her husband David. Full story here.

Ramsay. "I was told she ran the fastest last 600m of the day."

"She runs out a strong 1600m and she has won over 2100m," said Ramsay. "We've won the race before, with Dolmabache a few years ago, and it would be good to win it again." Full story here.

No More Tears (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

No More Tears thriving ahead of Guineas

The Stephen Marsh-trained No More Tears (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has an opportunity to claim further Australian black-type when she tackles the Gr.3 Hawkesbury Guineas (1400m) on Saturday.

"Her work on Tuesday was very good and I like the draw (barrier six)," Marsh said.

Marsh would like to see jockey Tye Angland find the one-out, one-back position on Saturday.

"I'd rather see her there than back on the fence. Hopefully Tye can give her a sweet trip. She's got pretty good gate-speed and I think she's got to be a very good chance yet again." Full story here.

Nigelissima on trial for Queensland

Nigelissima (NZ) (Pentire) could earn herself a trip to Brisbane with a bold showing in Saturday's Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa.

The stakes-winning five-year-old mare goes into the Travis Stakes after a third placing when resuming in the Gr.2 Japan-New Zealand International Trophy (1600m)

Serious Satire (More Than Ready)

Long-Range Melbourne plan for Serious Satire

Cambridge trainer Stephen Marsh is looking for an Australian dress rehearsal from Serious Satire (More Than Ready) in the Gr.3 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders Stakes, and his long term goal is to get her across the Tasman.

"I think she's good enough," said Marsh. "There's a possibility she could get to Queensland, but her main aim is Melbourne in the spring." Full story here.

Rasa Lila ready for back-up

Trainers Steven Ramsay and Julia Ritchie and owner-breeder Sir Peter Vela will chase their second combined Gr.2 Travis Stakes win at Te Rapa on Saturday.

Regular rider Leith Innes encouraged Ramsay and Ritchie to back-up Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma) following her third placing in last Saturday's Gr.1 Easter Stakes.

"Leith was very keen for us to back her up. He was rapt in her run and so were we," said

Caorunn (NZ) (Showcasing)

Caorunn to Singapore

Smart Cambridge two-year-old Caorunn (NZ) (Showcasing) has joined the stable of his part-owner Shane Baertschiger in Singapore to target upcoming lucrative juvenile features.

Caorunn's chief targets will be the Singapore-Gr.2 $5325,000 Golden Horseshoe (1200m) on July 8 and the Singapore-Gr.3 $5200,000 Juvenile Championship (1200m) on July 31, both at Kranji. Full story here.

Lewis Carroll Ready

Lewis Carroll (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has overcome a series of niggling problems and will attempt to extend his unbeaten sequence at Te Rapa on Saturday in the Maneline Cambridge Premier, a Rating 75 1200 metre race.

"He hasn't raced for three months and he's stepping up in grade so it won't be easy for him," said Fraser. "It's a good field, but I'm happy with him." Full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Kermadec bought by Darley, retired to stud

Dual Group One winner Kermadec (NZ) (Teofilo) has been bought by Darley and retired to stand at its Hunter Valley stud in NSW.

Trained by Chris Waller, Kermadec won four of his 17 starts and earned $2.9 million prize money.

His biggest wins came in last year's Doncaster Mile and George Main Stakes, both over 1600m at Randwick.

Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi)

Sacred Elixir to Brisbane

A trials win at Te Teko on Tuesday has guaranteed Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi) his place on the flight to Queensland on Sunday.

The Pour Moi gelding won the first of the two-year-old heats over 1020 metres and impressed rider Leith Innes.

"I wasn't there, but Leith gave him a good report," said trainer Tony Pike. "He sat back and took him out to the centre of the track and the horse won well.

"It was a handy trials field and he ran a good time. He'll head out to Brisbane on Sunday." Full story here.

Derby placegetter resumes

Gr.1 New Zealand Derby placegetter Raghu (NZ) (Showcasing) will step out at Te Rapa on Saturday in The Clubhouse Café & Sports Bar Cambridge Premier (1600m) as he prepares for a tilt at the Gr.1 Queensland Derby.

Raghu finished second in a trial at Waipa last week, pleasing trainer Tony Pike.

"He trialled well and showed he was still up to the mark," Pike said.

"He only had two weeks off after the New Zealand Derby, and should be hard to beat on Saturday. I'm very happy with him."

"The race will set him up nicely for his Queensland campaign, which starts with the Rough Habit Plate (2000m) in two weeks' time and will be targeted around the Queensland Derby."

Jimmy Choux's sister wins

The younger sister of former New Zealand champion Jimmy Choux (NZ) (Thorn Park) has broken through for her first metropolitan success when winning at Sandown on Wednesday.

Choux Diva relished the big Sandown circuit and the firm track, taking out the Schweppes Handicap (2100m) and is raced by her breeders Richard and Elizabeth Wood.

Choux Diva's trainer Simon Morrish said the victory on Wednesday was a boost for her future as a broodmare, while her older brother Jimmy Choux is beginning to make a name for himself as a sire at Rich Hill Stud.

Barnaby (NZ) (Shocking)

Bar raised for Barnaby

Young Matamata trainer Jacob McKay will be represented in the Gr.3 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders' Stakes by the unbeaten Barnaby (NZ) (Shocking).

Barnaby gave 23-year-old McKay a perfect start to his solo training career when scoring on debut at Matamata on March 30 then earned his crack at the Cambridge Jockey Club's three-year-old feature when racing away with a Rating 65 race over 1200m at Tauranga.

"Obviously it's a big jump up in class for him on Saturday, but on the times he has been running I think he's up to this field," said McKay. Full story here.

Rosa Carolina to Lees

Two-year-old Savabeel filly Rosa Carolina (NZ) heads to the Newcastle Stables of Kris Lees this week in preparation for the three-year-old races in Spring.

Raced by Lib Petagna's JML Bloodstock, Rosa Carolina follows a well-worn path.

Like Petagna's multiple Group One winning mare Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel), Rosa Carolina was prepared by Cambridge trainer Stephen Marsh.

Rosa Carolina has had two starts as a juvenile, including a promising debut when second to the subsequent Group One winner Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) at Trentham.

She subsequently finished sixth in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders Stakes.

A daughter of the smart O'Reilly mare Ombre Rose, Rosa Carolina was purchased by Bruce Perry as a yearling with the intention of her joining the stable of Lees should she show the necessary ability.

Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock)

Hiflyer bound for Aus

A trials win by Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock) at Te Teko has Peter Lock believing he finally has the horsepower to make another attack on the Australian scene.

Hiflyer was given three starts earlier this season for a win and two seconds, the latest effort when producing a huge late run to be beaten a nose by the talented Duchess Kate (NZ) (Savabeel) at Ellerslie.

Freshened, Hiflyer contested an open 1020-metre Te Teko trial on Tuesday and impressed both regular rider Sam Collett and Lock. Full story here.

NZ-Bred mare invited to Breeders' Cup

Azkadellia (NZ) (Shinko King), who won her sole New Zealand start at Avondale for Taranaki trainer Ilone Kelly before being sold to Australian interests, has been invited to compete at the Breeders' Cup meeting at Santa Anita on November 5.

The invitation arose following the daughter of Shinko King's win in the Gr.1 Queen of the Turf Stakes, which was added to the Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' qualification series this year.

Azkadellia has secured automatic entry to the $US2 million Breeders' Cup Fillies and Mares Turf over 10 furlongs (2000 metres).
