GREENE DETERMINED TO HOLD ON TO CAL ISUZU TITLE

Stolen Dance heads a two-pronged attack for the David Greene stable on tomorrow's Gr. 2 Cal Isuzu Stakes at Te Rapa

David Greene has doubled his hand in the stable's bid to retain a feature race title on their home track on Saturday.

The Te Rapa trainer produced Stolen Dance (NZ) (Alamosa) to win the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes a year ago and the mare will be defending her crown while her progressive stablemate Rising Shot (NZ) (Red Giant) is also in the hunt.

"Stolen Dance is obviously the star of the stable and it's exciting for all the team to have her back," said Greene, who is also a member of the Waikato Racing Club's board. "It's great to have her out on our biggest day of the year."

Stolen Dance hasn't raced since she was below par in the Gr.1 Makfi Challenge Stakes, but she was placed at the Te Teko trials last month.

GREENE DETERMINED TO HOLD ON TO CAL ISUZU TITLE

"I'm happy with the way she has improved, she's working fine and her coat is good," Greene said.

"She will be slightly under done, but that's not to say she can't get away with it. She is still on the way up, but at set weights over the mile on her home track you can't count her out."

Stolen Dance's summer preparation will be focussed on a pair of Group One events, both of which she finished runner-up in last season.

"It will all be about two races – the Thorndon Mile and the Herbie Dyke Stakes," Greene said.

"I'm not 100 per cent certain yet where we go before that, possibly the Rich Hill Mile."

Rising Shot has won three races, all within the space of her last four appearances, to earn her spot in Saturday's line-up.

"She's rock-hard fit, her form couldn't be any better and she's been bouncing through her races so well," Greene said.

"You have to run in-form mares and it's an obvious chance at black type for her."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Aerovelocidad (NZ) (Pins)

Aerovelocidad at top of game for Sprint

Racing resumes in Hong Kong on Sunday when Sha Tin Racecourse hosts the HK$83 million seasonal showpiece, the Longines Hong Kong International Races.

Champion sprinter Aerovelocidad (NZ) (Pins) will line up in the HK-Gr.1 Hong Kong Sprint, a race he won in 2014.

The Paul O'Sullivan trained eight-year-old has been placed in both starts this season, both at Group Two level.

"I think his preparation has gone very well. He should be peaking for this run, but he's not peaking as a six-year-old this time, he's peaking as an eight-year-old and that's always tough," said O'Sullivan.

"I'm really happy with how he's going, he's taken a bit of time but now he's there, he won't want for fitness on Sunday, he'll be right at his top."

New Zealand bred gallopers Amazing Kids (NZ) (Falkirk) and Super Jockey (NZ) (Sandtrap) will also contest the Sprint, while Packing Pins (NZ) (Pins) will run in the HK-Gr.1 Hong Kong Mile.

Benzini (Tale Of The Cat)

Benzini ready for Vase Challenge

The Adrian and Harry Bull trained Benzini (Tale Of The Cat) has settled in well on arriving in Hong Kong earlier this week to contest the HK-Gr.1 Hong Kong Vase.

Jockey Rosie Myers will make her Hong Kong race-riding debut on board Benzini, continuing a successful partnership that saw them win the Gr.2 Brisbane Cup earlier this year.

"I've just arrived but the reports from Harry are very positive. I'll ride Benzini in some work on Friday and we're confident that our horse will run right up to his best on Sunday," she said.

Also in the field is Flame Hero (NZ) (Savabeel) who was a last start second in the HK-Gr.2 Longines Jockey Club Cup.

Fanatic (NZ) (Shocking)

Plenty of bite in Fanatic for Te Rapa feature

Graeme Sanders has the photographic evidence of a nasty spider bite wound that caused swelling to Fanatic's (NZ) (Shocking) lower leg and led to the abandonment of her spring Cups campaign in Melbourne.

It's a trip souvenir he'd rather not have but the Te Awamutu trainer is hoping a bold performance from his Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks winner in Saturday's Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes (1600m) at Te Rapa will help ease his own pain from the ordeal.

"I've got the photo on my cellphone. The vet took the hair off her just below her fetlock and you can clearly see the spider bite," Sanders said.

"Her leg just blew up - there was swelling and soreness - it was a pretty painful thing to happen to her. She lost a lot of weight, about 25 kilos." Full story here.

Bass Strait (NZ) (Holy Roman Emperor)

Bass Strait seeks redemption in A.J. Scahill Stakes

The Neville Parnham-trained Bass Strait

(NZ) (Holy Roman Emperor) will contest the Gr.3 A.J. Scahill Stakes (1400m) at Ascot, the only race with Group status in Australia on Saturday.

Bass Strait ran second in the Carbine Club of WA Stakes before his disappointing 12th to Stratum Star (Stratum) in last weekend's Gr.1 Kingston Town Classic (1800m).

A $220,000 purchase from Pencarrow's 2011 NZB Premier draft, Bass Strait has won in excess of A$450,000.

Jiayuguan (Teofilo)

Jiayuguan a stayer to follow

Kiwi punters are likely to take more notice of the former Australian galloper Jiayuguan (Teofilo) this week.

The much-travelled mare was at 45-1 and the outsider of the field when she finished third in the Gr.3 Counties Cup last time out at just her second run in New Zealand.

She will be at much shorter odds when she steps up to her favourite distance in the Gr.3 Skycity Hamilton Waikato Cup at Te Rapa on Saturday. Full story here.

Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge)

Richardson's faith in filly rewarded

Unbeaten filly Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge) has filled a hole in Graham Richardson's bank account.

The Matamata trainer loved the filly as a type, but he did not have any owners signed up when he paid $240,000 for the yearling by first-season sire Foxwedge at Karaka in January, 2015.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Volpe Veloce has yet to be seriously threatened in four race day starts and she is a readymade favourite for the Gr.3 Lawnmaster Eulogy Stakes at Awapuni on Saturday.

"I hope everything goes well for the horse, if only for the owners," Richardson said.

"They have put a lot of faith in me. Full story here.

Mare cruising towards first stakes win

Talented mare Cruising Speed (NZ) (Savabeel) will be gunning for her first stakes win on Saturday in the Listed Just Now Handicap (1300m) at Eagle Farm.

Trained by John Meagher and his son Chris, Cruising Speed was purchased by Grant Morgan of Ontrack Thoroughbreds from Waikato Stud's 2014 NZB Premier draft for $80,000.

Cruising Speed finished a handy fourth in the Listed Colin McAlpine Memorial (1400m) at her last start two weeks ago.

"She is much better off here at the handicap conditions," Morgan said.

"We have always felt that Cruising Speed would win a stakes race.

"She will probably be best when she gets to 1600 metres but the 1300 on Saturday should suit her at this stage of her campaign."

Lasarla (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle)

Ratings hike the downside of Group Two win

Moira Murdoch accepts that the drawback of Lasarla's (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) upset win in last month's Gr.2 Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes is that the inexperienced galloper has been thrust into the top grades.

But the Waiuku trainer also believes that Lasarla's weight-for-age fillies and mares feature win won't be her last in good company, and she's giving the four-year-old Rip Van Winkle mare her chance in Saturday's Listed J Swap Contractors 1400 at Te Rapa.

"She's really trained on well since her win and we're very pleased with her," said Murdoch, who trains in partnership with her daughter Kieran. Full story here.

Inexperience only concern

A lack of ring craft is the only reservation that Shaune Ritchie has about Redeem The Dream's (NZ) (Nadeem) winning prospects in Sunday's Listed Race 4 Life BMW Salver at Ellerslie.

"He's a lovely, strong horse with the talent, but he's only had the two races so he lacks race experience," he said.

"I want to give him a look around Ellerslie and if he can bank a cheque for first or second then that would get him into the Derby and we could sit back and plan a programme."

Another horror gate for Marsh's highly-regarded filly

Stephen Marsh is rueing his run of bad luck with the exciting filly She Brings Joy (NZ) (Sebring).

"She drew the rank outside in her first run and she's done the same second-up," the Cambridge trainer said.

She Brings Joy got home late for third at Te Rapa on debut and Marsh has been left with no choice but to again start the daughter of Sebring from the widest gate of all in the NZ Insurance Pearl Series Race at Tauranga today.

"I've got to run her, I really want to get her into the Eight Carat Classic and this is the only way there," he said. Full story here.

Walker to represent New Zealand

Michael Walker is proud to be riding for his country in the Origin Jockey Series at Eagle Farm.

The Melbourne-based jockey will represent New Zealand in the first round of heats in the three-meeting series in Brisbane on Saturday as the kiwis aim for a second series win.

"I'm really looking forward to it and I think it will be a great experience," Walker said.

"I'm representing my home country and hopefully I don't let the country down.

"New Zealand won it last year. They were back on the last day and Damian Browne got maximum points and got the team up."

The series moves from Eagle Farm on Saturday to Doomben on December 24 and winds up at the Gold Coast on January 7.

Derby on maiden winner's programme

Time has been a friend to the classic-bound three-year-old Camino Rocosco (NZ) (Shocking).

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained gelding opened his account in good style at Ellerslie on Wednesday at his fifth appearance.

"He's always looked a really nice horse, he's just been immature," Forsman said. "He's got the ability and we've just had to be patient.

"We might back off a bit now and freshen him and look toward the Waikato and Avondale Guineas on the way through to the Derby."

Bloodstream (NZ) (Duelled)

NEWS IN BRIEF

next month's Gr.3 Wellington Cup.

Forces beyond her control have resulted in the Riccarton trainer finding an alternative route to the Wallaceville Estate-sponsored feature on January 21.

"We were going to the Manawatu Cup, but with the way the roads are down here due to the earthquake it's added an extra day to the travelling and we only want to make the one trip north," Rae said.

"At this stage, we're now looking at going up for the Marton Cup or the Trentham Stakes before the cup." Full story here.

Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Telegraph option for top-liner

Glamour galloper Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj) could return to action in the Gr.1 J. R. & N. Berkett Telegraph at Trentham next month.

He has had only one race in New Zealand in the past two years, but is expected to have an outing at home before beginning another Australian campaign.

"They might go a bit quick for him, but we want to give him a run here," said Murray Baker, who prepares the horse with Andrew Forsman.

Turn Me Loose has two Group One assignments on his programme in Melbourne next year. Full story here.

Ellerslie features attracting CD trainer's attention

In-form trainer Gary Vile is hoping to make an impression at Ellerslie in the New Year.

He has northern features on the programmes of three members of his Awapuni stable, the exciting youngster Hard Merchandize (NZ) (Burgundy), the highly-regarded three-year-old Leading Role (NZ) (Darci Brahma) and the consistent short course performer Miss Appleton (NZ) (Align).

"The Karaka Million is the main goal for Hard Merchandize," said Vile, who celebrated a winning hat-trick at Trentham on Saturday with Jacksstar (NZ) (Zed), Leading Role and Abbey Road (NZ) (Tavistock).

"He'll have a run over 1100 metres here at Awapuni on December 17 and then we'll give him a look around Ellerslie before the Million". Full story here.

No Fuss Gus (NZ) (Savabeel)

Feature races in smart 3YO's sights

Two Group One assignments are on next year's programme for No Fuss Gus (NZ) (Savabeel).

The promising three-year-old has impressed in a brief career and his last-start run for third in the Gr.3 Wellington Stakes at Otaki provided another positive pointer for future age group tests.

"He had a tough run and it probably didn't help him having an 800 metre gallop after the false start," said Nick Fairweather, racing manager for trainers Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard.

No Fuss Gus has been nominated for the Gr.1 Randwick Meats Levin Classic at Trentham on January 14 and the Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby at Ellerslie on March 4. Full story here.

Little thinking big with sprinting hope

Kylie Little has an ambitious plan in place for her lightly-trying sprinter Lucyinrio (NZ) (Captain Rio).

The Opaki trainer is keen to test the five-year-old in Group One company, but her hopes are dependent on two successful visits to Awapuni in the coming weeks.

"We've put in a nomination for the Telegraph and we would love to get her there, but first she'll go to Palmerston North in two weeks' time.

"She'll then go back there again three weeks after that and she'd have to win both of them to have a chance." Full story here.

Time called on Fast Learner

Injury has pre-maturely ended the career of the multiple winner Fast Learner (NZ) (Align).

"He's had trouble with a suspensory ligament and we weren't confident we would get him back so he's been retired," part-owner and trainer Richard Collett said. "Unfortunately, we didn't get to see the best of him."

Fast Learner numbered the Douro Cup among his five wins from 20 starts and he weighed in a further 11 times, including a fifth placing in the Gr.3 Anniversary Handicap.

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel)

Kawi on his way home

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel) will return to New Zealand on Thursday following his mixed results from his first Australian campaign.

The Allan Sharrock-trained six-year-old's three-start campaign in Perth brought fourth placings in the Gr.1 Kingston Town Classic and the Gr.2 Lee Steere Stakes with a sixth in between times in the Gr.1 Railway Stakes.

Kawi is likely to resume his domestic career in the Gr.1 NRM Sprint at Te Rapa on February 11 with a start in the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Classic to follow a fortnight later.

Highlad returns to Cambridge quarters

Current Gr.1 Vodafone New Zealand Derby second favourite Highlad (High Chaparral) is back in work with Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman.

The son of High Chaparral is at $10 for the classic with Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi) the market leader at $5.

Highlad won the Listed Wanganui Guineas ahead of a spring campaign in Melbourne where he placed in the Listed UCI Stakes at Flemington.

Eleonora (NZ) (Makfi), the Gr.3 Ethereal Stakes winner and Gr.1 VRC Oaks placegetter, the Gr.2 Danehill Stakes winner Saracino (NZ) (Per Incanto) and Luna Rossa (NZ) (Written Tycoon), runner-up in the Gr.2 1000 Guineas Prelude, will also be back in the stable this week.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Partners 100 not out

A successful partnership recently celebrated a notable milestone.

Dame Margo Fonteyn's (NZ) (High Chaparral) victory at New Plymouth earlier this month provided Fortuna Syndications, managed by John Galvin, and Te Akau Racing, directed by David Ellis, with their 100th winner.

"It's been a great ongoing relationship and a pleasure to buy horses for John and the Fortuna owners," Ellis said. "He's extremely well organised, has an excellent structure, and been successful in the commercial field of business in his own right."

Fortuna and Te Akau also picked up a black type credit at Trentham when Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) finished third in the Gr.2 Wakefield Challenge Stakes.

"We had sixteen owners there on Saturday, from all over the country," Galvin said.

"People flew down from Auckland, there were locals there as well, people that live in the Wellington region. The biggest kick I get is from the pleasure on these people's faces."

What Choux Want (NZ) (Jimmy Choux)

Black type filly close to return

Group performer What Choux Want (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) is closing in on a return to racing.

The three-year-old is making good progress after she was turned out in early October following her unplaced effort in the Inglewood Stud Guineas Trial at Riccarton.

"She wasn't going well enough to run her in the Group One (NZ 1000 Guineas) and to be honest she would have been suspect at a mile so I gave her a break," trainer Andrew Carston said.

"She has freshened up really well and I'm happy with her now. I'll look to give her a run somewhere and then head toward the Gore Guineas and hopefully some more black type for her"

Last season, What Choux Want was runner-up in the Listed Welcome Stakes and she subsequently finished a creditable fifth in the Listed Karaka Million and third in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes.

Battle Time camp moving on – Ellerslie next

Tim and Margaret Carter are regrouping with Battle Time (NZ) (Battle Paint) after a reversal of fortune last time out at Trentham.

The Cambridge trainers produced the four-year-old for an all the way win in last month's Gr.2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile before he faded out of contention in the Gr.1 Captain Cook Stakes after being taken on in front.

"We've dissected the race a 100 times and we're thinking we shouldn't have gone forward now, but hindsight's a great thing," Tim Carter said.

"We'll set him for the Rich Hill Mile and that will be back to a handicap and he'll still get in quite well."

Million hero off to Singapore

Last season's Karaka Million winner Xiong Feng (NZ) (Iffraaj) is to continue his career overseas.

"He's going to Singapore and he'll probably fly out next week," trainer Stephen McKee said.

Xiong Feng won his first two starts as a two-year-old on rain-affected tracks at Ellerslie and Te Rapa before he led all the way on top of the ground to triumph in the Million for McKee, who was then in partnership with Eddie Chippendale.

Out of a half-sister to the Gr.1 Cox Plate winner Maldivian (NZ) (Zabeel), the Iffraaj gelding's best effort in a handful of appearances this term was a fourth placing in the Gr.3 Bonecrusher Stakes.

"He hasn't been quite right due to a back problem and he's been growing as well so I eased up on him after his last run," McKee said.

"The owners will be looking to run him in the Three-Year-Old Triple Crown series up there next year."

Xiong Feng is raced by the Singapore quartet of Tan Kim Chua Stanley, Tan Koon Eng, James Leong Cen Ming and Lim Keat Joo, who purchased him for $30,000 out of Monovale Farm's Select Sale draft to Karaka last year.

NEW ZEALAND RACING HALL OF FAME

Sir George bred and raced on a huge scale, standing several generations of homebred stallions at Stonyhurst with a good deal of success.

Clifford horses, trained at Chokebore Lodge by Edward Cutts, won 181,258 pounds on the turf, eclipsing the tallies of Australia's most prominent owners of the day, and won 116 classic or semi-classic races over a 50-year period.

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Sir George Clifford -A great racing administrator & dominant owner of his era

Sir George was unchallenged as president of the New Zealand Racing Conference for a 30-year period, up to his death aged 82 in 1930.

Yet he still found time, while running his big breeding and racing operation, to have hands-on involvement in the production of the first official New Zealand Stud Book (1900), and the next two or three volumes as well.
