BAKER STABLE SHOOTS FOR REPLICA TRIFECTA

Lizzie L'Amour is one of a powerful trio of mares from the Murray Baker & Andrew Forsman team lining up in the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes at Te Rapa

Hall of Fame trainer Murray Baker produced a memorable trifecta in last year's Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes (1600m) at Te Rapa and while he's not confident he can repeat the feat, at least with three runners in the fillies and mares feature, he's giving himself a chance.

Lizzie L'Amour (NZ) (Zabeel) anchored the trifecta in last year's race, defeating stablemates Love Affair (NZ) (Savabeel) and Stolen Dance (NZ) (Alamosa), who went on to win the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m) at Trentham before she was retired to stud.

Lizzie L'Amour and Love Affair are back to tackle this year's race and are joined by twice-Group One-placed Nicoletta (NZ) (Savabeel).

Matthew Cameron, who guided Love Affair to a tenacious last-start win in the Gr.3 Eagle Technology Stakes (1600m) at Ellerslie, has plumped for Lizzie L'Amour as his mount, leaving Opie Bosson to ride Love Affair and Jonathan Riddell to partner Nicoletta.

"It was a good race for us last year and while there are one or two good mares up against us, our three have all got form on the board," said Baker, who trains in partnership with Andrew Forsman.

"Lizzie L'Amour is going along well. She can sprint a good mile fresh. She hasn't done a lot since her last run but she's freshened up nicely."

TAB bookmakers opened Lizzie L'Amour and Love Affair as equal $2.60 favourites, ahead of Nicoletta on the second line of betting at $6.50.

A Group One winner of the New Zealand Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie and Herbie Dyke Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa, Zabeel six-year-old Lizzie L'Amour will be shooting for her third straight win at the meeting after claiming the Gr.3 SkyCity Hamilton Waikato Cup (2400m) in 2016.

She followed her gallant second placing in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hastings with a solid second to stablemate Saint Emilion (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in the Gr.3

OMF Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie last month.

There were 18 rating points between Lizzie L'Amour and Love Affair last year but just one separates the pair going into Saturday's race.

"She loves Te Rapa, Love Affair," Baker said of the winner of six of her 12 starts, three of those wins coming in four starts at the Hamilton track.

"She had to do a bit of work at Ellerslie last start and I thought the second horse had her measure, so it was a good effort to pick her up."

Fellow Savabeel five-year-old mare Nicoletta has already been twice Group One-placed and has been in good form this season, winning the Gr.3 Taranaki Breeders' Stakes (1400m) at Hawera before finishing second in the Gr.2 Tauranga Stakes (1600m) and fourth in the Gr.2 Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (1400m) at Pukekohe last start.

"She's always thereabouts. Most of her runs have been in Group races and she's always competitive. We can't see that changing again this weekend," Baker said.

Safely through this weekend's race, Lizzie L'Amour and Nicoletta could clash in the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day, while the Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile (1600m) at Ellerslie is a possible target for Love Affair.

STRATOCASTER UNFAZED BY MELBOURNE TRIP

Shoowy grey Stratocaster (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) will head into the Gr.3 J Swap Contractors Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa on Saturday as one of the favoured runners after his last start winning effort at Ellerslie earlier this month.

The David and Emma-Lee Browne-trained gelding made a winning return to his homeland after a disappointing unplaced run in Melbourne last month.

“The race wasn’t really run to suit him in Australia, it was one of those races that just didn’t go to plan,” Emma-Lee Browne said.

“He travels really well, he got back in great order, so it was good to see him back (in winning form).”

Browne has been happy with how the Mastercraftsman seven-year-old has been working and is looking forward to her charge reuniting with last-start winning jockey, Opie Bosson.

“He’s trained on fairly well and he’ll probably strip a little fitter after having that run. We are really happy with him,” she said.

“It will be good to have Opie Bosson back on after winning last start on him. Barrier four will suit and he’ll be in a position to go wherever he wants depending on the speed. There looks to be plenty of speed in the race, so he should be able to get a nice run from there.”

Browne said there are no set plans for Stratocaster after Saturday, but she would like to head towards the Wellington Cup carnival with the seven-year-old.

“We’ll just run on Saturday and see where we are at as far as distance goes. We’ll hopefully have a go at some of the races over the Christmas carnival leading down to Trentham.”

Meanwhile, the Cambridge trainers will contest the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes (1600m) with Group One performer Belle du Nord (NZ) (Reliable Man).

The daughter of Reliable Man pleased her connections with her fresh-up unplaced run in the Listed Levin Stakes (1200m) at Otaki last month and they are hoping that the forecast rain will stay away ahead of Saturday’s race.

“We were really happy with her run in the Levin Stakes, obviously it was quite a leader-biased track that day,” Browne said.

“She got far enough back, but hit the line well and we’re pretty happy with how she is going into Saturday.

“I think that as long as the rain doesn’t turn up the track will suit her a lot better, she does like it firm.”

The four-year-old mare could be in for a big summer, with her next big assignment set for later this month.

“This is just a stepping stone towards mile races over Christmas.”

BAKER MARSHALS CUP TROOPS

Maygrove looks ready to return to form in the Gr.3 SkyCity Hamilton Waikato Cup on Saturday

Leading trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman will tackle Saturday's Gr.3 SkyCity Hamilton Waikato Cup (2400m) at Te Rapa with an experienced cups campaigner and an emerging youngster.

A decision to bypass the Cup with Saint Emilion (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) in favour of the Gr.1 Zabeel Classic (2000m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day has left Baker and Forsman with Maygrove (Authorized) and Mongolian Marshal (NZ) (High Chaparral) in the reckoning for the Te Rapa feature.

Mongolian Marshal finished second to Igraine (Galileo) in the Gr.3 Counties

Cup (2100m) last start and while the High Chaparral four-year-old has trained on to Baker's satisfaction since, the trainer has doubts about the step up to 2400m.

"There could be a doubt whether he's a 2400m horse but we'll see. He's gone on with it well and we're happy with him," Baker said.

"He ran a good race [for eighth] in the ATC Derby last season. He got back and ran on well but it's different to doing it against other three-year-olds and taking on the older horses at a mile and a half.

"Igraine looks a talented horse and she looks hard to beat at the distance."

TAB bookmakers have opened Igraine as a $2.20 favourite for the Cup ahead of Mongolian Marshal at $3.20 and last year's winner Five To Midnight (NZ) (Domesday) at $7. Maygrove is a $22 outsider.

While Maygrove was unplaced in his Counties Cup defence at Pukekohe last month, Baker was pleased with his effort.

"It was a very good run. He got back and they weren't making a lot of ground," Baker said.

"The old fella has really been showing some zip in his work. They are both ready to run honest races."

A winner of nine of his 53 starts, Maygrove would take his career earnings beyond $500,000 with success on Saturday.

Meanwhile, Baker will shoot for further stakes success at Awapuni, with brilliant last-start Te Rapa winner Queen Of Diamonds (NZ) (Savabeel) tackling the Gr.3 Lawnmaster Eulogy Stakes (1550m).

"We're very happy with her. We think she's a good filly in the making and I don't think she'll mind it if there's a bit of cut in the track," Baker said.

"Hopefully she'll race well and then race at Ellerslie over Christmas. We might look at the Eight Carat Classic (Gr.2, 1600m) and the Royal Stakes (Gr.2, 2000m)."

Travelling companion Hinerangi (Fastnet Rock) contests the Rich Hill Stud Manawatu Cup Prelude (2000m).

"She went a good race at Wanganui, just got nailed late by a closer. We're interested to see how she goes over more ground."

Where Winning Begins

NEWS IN BRIEF

Deputy Prime Minister Winston Peters

Racing Industry Ministerial Advisory Committee established

Racing Minister Winston Peters has announced a five-member Ministerial Advisory Committee to inform the next steps on the Messara Review of the New Zealand Racing Industry.

"This government is committed to reforming the racing industry. The Ministerial Advisory Group will develop a plan to operationalise the Messara Report to deliver better governance and economic outcomes," Peters said.

"The five people appointed to the Ministerial Advisory Committee bring their personal expertise and ability to provide independent, strategic assessments of the business change proposals for the racing industry. Between them they have experience across the three racing industry codes."

Peters has appointed Dean McKenzie as chairman. McKenzie is an experienced racing administrator whose dedication and passion to improving the industry make him the ideal choice to lead this very important work, Peters said. Full story here

Aloisia to resume in Villiers Stakes

Connections of New Zealand-bred galloper Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) are hoping she can turn around her form when she resumes in the Gr.2 Villiers Stakes (1600m) at Randwick on Saturday.

The Group One winner disappointed in her spring campaign, finishing unplaced in three of her four starts, while placing in the Gr.2 Tristarc Stakes (1400m).

Trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace have been pleased with the Azamour mare since she returned from a light freshen-up and believe that if she shows on raceday what they have been seeing in her work, she should be a winning chance.

Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour)

"Hopefully she will run better than she has recently. Her first two runs in her prep in the spring were great," Eustace said.

"We thought she was back to her best, but we were disappointed at Flemington, we really fancied her in the Myer and she didn't really fire.

"We were hoping she was looking for further, we backed her up, and again she didn't fire.

"We have freshened her up. She's going 1600m up in Sydney. She looks fantastic, but she has the whole way through and she has continued to gallop well at home, so fingers-crossed she translates that onto the track."

Secret Allure (NZ) (Zacinto)

A tale of two fillies for Latta in Eulogy

Awapuni trainer Lisa Latta has two fillies that she rates highly entered in Saturday's Gr.3 Lawnmaster Eulogy Stakes (1550m) on her home track.

Secret Allure (NZ) (Zacinto) already has a black-type win on her race record having won the Listed Champagne Stakes (1200m) last season, while her stakes-placed stablemate Sentimental Miss (NZ) (Reliable Man) continues to improve.

"They're two completely different fillies but I think they will both be very competitive," Latta said, adding that she expects both fillies to go on to bigger races.

Magnum (NZ) (Per Incanto)

Magnum set for raceday return

Former Singapore galloper Magnum (NZ) (Per Incanto) had his spring campaign cut short through injury, but will make a return to racing in the Gr.3 J Swap Contractors Sprint (1400m) at Te Rapa on Saturday.

The Lauren Brennan-trained gelding was in fine form during spring, recording a fresh-up win at Ruakaka in September before running third behind Te Akau Shark (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) in the Gr.3 Spring Sprint (1400m) at Hastings in October.

However, he punctured the sole of his hoof during that last-start effort and his connections had to cut short the rest of their spring racing plans with the six-year-old. Full story here

Cutadeel (Dundeel)

Staying trio head to Salver

Murray Baker will look to advance his Derby chances at Ellerslie on Sunday.

Baker and training partner Andrew Forsman will produce Cutadeel (Dundeel), Thomas Aquinas (NZ) (Jakkalberry) and Bobby Dee (NZ) (Zed) in the Listed Barfoot & Thompson 3YO Salver (2100m) as a stepping stone towards the Gr.1 Vodafone

New Zealand Derby (2400m) at the same track on March 2.

"They are all nice staying prospects. Cutadeel won well at Te Rapa last time as the only three-year-old in the field so he did well to beat the older horses," Baker said.

"Thomas Aquinas has got a bad draw but he looks like the extra distance will suit and Bobby Dee never got in the race last start. He got back at the start and just didn't fire a shot. But he did well the start before and we're looking for a decent line on him in this race."

The Precious One (NZ) (Darci Brahma)

Mile test for The Precious One

Wingatui trainer Claire Anderton will be hoping to answer a few questions with her regally-bred mare The Precious One (NZ) (Darci Brahma) at Ascot on Saturday.

The Darci Brahma four-year-old, who is out of dual Group One winner The Jewel, will line-up in the Tim Yeo Contracting Handicap (1600m) and her connections want to see if she can handle the step-up to a mile.

The Precious One's only unplaced run in her seven career starts came at that distance, but Anderton believes her boisterous mare cost herself the race when over-racing in the lead. Full story here

Oaks potential for Pins filly

The Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard-trained Pinmedown (NZ) (Pins) broke through for her maiden victory in the Robyn Mactaggart Cup (1400m) at Hastings on Wednesday.

Jockey Cameron Lammas settled the three-year-old filly off the pace after jumping from the outside barrier of the seven-horse field.

The daughter of Pins ran on well late in the piece to run down her opposition and win by half-a-length over Monkey Shoulder (NZ) (Savabeel).

"She's still got to learn a bit more to stay, because she was a bit keen early, but I've liked her since she was a two-year-old when I rode her in her first start," Lammas said.

Pinmedown (NZ) (Pins)

"She's got bigger and stronger and had a nice, easy win today."

Gerard was pleased with the win and believes Pinmedown has the potential to be competitive in classic races later this season.

"She could be an Oaks filly," she said. "She can still get a bit hot and has to work it out mentally, but we'll just place her in some races for three-year-old fillies over Christmas and I think she can pick up something."

Livin' On A Prayer (NZ) (Redwood)

Hillis on a Group One mission

Wayne Hillis has regrouped his main players after the New Zealand Cup meeting and is preparing to target further major races over the next few months.

Livin' On A Prayer (NZ) (Redwood), Watch This Space (NZ) (Elusive City), Bit Lippy (NZ) (Showcasing) and Imelda Mary (NZ) (Ferlax) all raced at the three-day New Zealand Cup meeting and are being readied for Group One assignments.

"They've all been freshened up since Riccarton and have done well," the Matamata trainer said.

"Though they didn't win down there they all went pretty well." Full story here

English Gambler (Casino Prince)

English Gambler joins Weir

Promising four-year-old English Gambler (Casino Prince) has joined the stable of leading Victoria trainer Darren Weir.

Trained in New Zealand by Lauren Brennan at Cambridge, the son of Casino Prince won two races and was runner-up in his four other starts in New Zealand.

Although disappointed in losing the gelding, Brennan was philosophical about the move.

"English Gambler has gone to Darren Weir, it's unfortunate to lose him, but business-wise it's a good idea for the owners."

Meanwhile, Brennan will have to play the waiting game for the return of Group performer Aim Smart (Smart Missile) to her stable.

The China Horse Club-owned four-year-old hasn't been seen on the track since his runner-up effort at Hastings in September and has undergone an operation on a hock that will result in the gelding recuperating on the side lines for some time.

"Aim Smart is spelling at Lyndhurst Farm," Brennan said. "He ended up having an operation to his hocks and had a couple of screws put in, so he's out for a while."

Tomlinson thrilled to have bred world's best

New Zealand-bred galloper Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) reinforced why he is rated the best turf miler in the world on Sunday, demolishing his opposition in the Gr.1 Longines Hong Kong Mile (1600m) at Sha Tin.

The Road to Rock gelding made it back-to-back wins in the Hong Kong feature, with reigning Hong Kong Champion jockey Zac Purton guiding him to his fourth victory at elite level.

Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock)

However, the John Moore-trained runner didn't have everything his own way, sitting three-wide in the early stages of the race after jumping away well from barrier 12. Full story here

"She's a bigger, stronger mare now and handling her work really well," Richards said. "The two weeks freshen-up after winning three in a row through the spring has done her the world of good and we can push on with a bit of confidence."

Media Sensation (I Am Invincible)

Media Sensation set for more black-type

Group One-winning filly Media Sensation (I Am Invincible) will head to Ellerslie on Sunday for an exhibition gallop ahead of her next black-type assignment at the Auckland racecourse on Boxing Day.

The Peter and Dawn Williams-trained runner has pleased her connections since her victory in the Gr.1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas (1600m) win last month and is set to line-up in the Gr.2 Cambridge Stud Eight Carat Classic (1600m) later this month.

"Media Sensation is down to have a gallop at Ellerslie on Sunday and she'll head to the Eight Carat, most probably," Peter Williams said.

"I couldn't be more happier with her. She has come through the race perfectly. She hasn't missed a beat since she has been home, I'm very happy with her."

Media Sensation has only had the one previous run at Ellerslie, winning the Gr.3 Soliloquy Stakes (1400m) in October.

Eight Carat likely for House of Cartier

Regally bred filly, House of Cartier (Alamosa), is on a black-type path after impressing trainer Nigel Tiley with her victory over 1400m at Counties last week.

The daughter of four-time Group One-winning mare Shez Sinsational (NZ) (Ekraar) could line-up in the Gr.2 Cambridge Stud Eight Carat Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day if everything goes to plan.

"It's important that we get some black-type for her," Tiley said. "I honestly believe on her last run that she is definitely up to it."

House Of Cartier (Alamosa)

"I'm going to look at the Eight Carat. I'll nominate her and have a look at the field. As long as I don't think it's beyond her, I'll probably take that path with her."

"I think she has got a bit going for her."

Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands)

Melody Belle pleases in trial

Triple Group One winner Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) pleased her connections with her 1000m trial win at Te Aroha on Tuesday.

It was the second trial this preparation for the four-year-old daughter of Commands who was freshened after an undefeated spring campaign, where she won the Gr.2 Lisa Chittick Foxbridge Plate (1200m) fresh-up, followed by Group One successes in the Tazino Trophy (1400m) and Windsor Park Plate (1600m).

"We were pleased with how she trialled at Matamata, and she'd trained on well since then," trainer Jamie Richards said.

"She's trialled well again and everything is on track. She did a bit in the trial, and they ran time, but she had a blow and that will tighten her up nicely."

Melody Belle will be set for more elite level targets this season, with the Gr.1 Sistema Railway (1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's day the first on her hit-list.

Andoyas (Lando)

Cups targets for Andoyas

Former Hong Kong galloper Andoyas (Lando) is being set on a cups path in the coming months after his victory in the Dunstan Feeds Stayers Championship Qualifier 2200 at Ellerslie on Saturday.

"It was a very pleasing win for Andrew, myself and the team," said Lance O'Sullivan, who trains in partnership with Andrew Scott.

"It is always good to get the horses back from Hong Kong and for them to do well."

Andoyas will return to Ellerslie on New Year's Day for his first tilt at stakes company in New Zealand.

"He will run at Ellerslie in the City of Auckland Cup (Gr.3, 2400m), Andrew and I went through the program this morning and decided that is where we will head with him," O'Sullivan said.

"We feel he will measure up to them, so we will give him a crack and see how we go."

"If he performs well in the City of Auckland

Cup then hopefully we will head on to the Auckland Cup (Gr.1, 3200m) a little bit later on in the season.

"I think the further he goes, the better he will go."

Chris Waller

Waller nominated for Halberg Award

Expat New Zealand trainer Chris Waller has been nominated for Buddle Findlay Coach of the Year at February's 56th ISPS Handa Halberg Awards in Auckland.

The Hall of Fame trainer, who is among 14 nominees for the award, has won the last seven trainers' premierships in his adopted home of New South Wales and has risen to prominence of late through the deeds of wonder mare, Winx (Street Cry).

The darling of the Australian turf has won 29 consecutive races, 22 of those at Group One level, including four Cox Plates (2040m).

Waller was honoured by his compatriots earlier this year when he was inducted into the New Zealand Racing Hall of Fame.

The nominations for Buddle Findlay Coach of the Year include: Allan Bunting (rugby), Chris Waller (horse racing), Clark Laidlaw (rugby union), Dale Stevenson (athletics), Eugene Bareman (mixed martial arts), Jason Pocock (surf lifesaving), Jeremy McColl (athletics), Joe Schmidt (rugby union), Kiwi Campbell (waka ama), Leon Birnie (football), Marcelo Lopes (mixed martial arts), Raylene Bates MNZM (para athletics) and Roly Crichton (para swimming).

The 56th ISPS Handa Halberg Awards will be held on Thursday February 21, 2019, at Spark Arena in Auckland and televised live on SKY SPORT from 8pm.

Demonetization thriving after operation

Demonetization (All Too Hard), one of last season's standout three-year-olds, has come through his gelding operation well according to his trainer Nigel Tiley.

Demonetization (All Too Hard)

The four-year-old son of All Too Hard won the Gr.2 Auckland Guineas (1600m) back in January and was subsequently installed a warm favourite for the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) but failed to make the race due to a stress fracture of the fetlock.

After a disappointing runner-up performance last start at Counties, the decision was made to geld the horse.

"He's just come back and he looks fantastic," Tiley said.

"The gelding went extremely well, you are always a little bit worried when you geld an older horse, you might have some complications, but he's just taken it in his stride and he looks as though he's chilled out with being gelded.

"We'll get him going again and just see where we are at with him."

Bradley deflects credit for Group One milestone

Michelle Bradley still struggles to believe she has landed her first Group One success as a trainer, but she doesn't hesitate in passing on the major credit for her achievement.

Within six months of training in partnership with Chris Gibbs, the Ruakaka horsewoman achieved a career highlight when Danzdanzdance (Mastercraftsman), freshened since her third in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) at Hastings, dominated her rivals over the closing stages of the Gr.1 Rydges Wellington Captain Cook Stakes (1600m) at Trentham on Saturday.

"It still really hasn't sunk in," Bradley said.
