SHADOWS CAST READY TO ADD TO GROUP ONE HAUL

Last-start Group One winner, Shadows Cast will look to add another elite level victory to his record at Otaki tomorrow (Race Images, Peter Rubery)

Awapuni trainer Mark Oulaghan is pleased with his Group One winning miler Shadows Cast (NZ) (Per Incanto) heading into Saturday's Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Group One Classic (1600m) at Otaki.

The son of Per Incanto was an impressive winner of the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m) last start and Oulaghan believes the six-year-old will run well again this weekend.

"He came through the win well and he has had a reasonably light time afterwards," Oulaghan said.

"He handled it all okay and seems pretty well at the moment."

The Central Districts horseman elected to bypass Group One races at Te Rapa over 1400m and 2000m respectively, meaning it has been more than a month between runs for Shadows Cast.

"The 1400m would have been a bit sharp for him and we didn't want to step up to 2000m at that stage, so we decided to sit and wait for this race here," Oulaghan said.

"I am comfortable with the gap between runs. He has done that in the past and been okay and just taking a line through that, I don't think he is far off the mark."

Shadows Cast will be re-united with Johnathan Parkes, who missed the Thorndon Mile ride after committing to Darscape Princess (NZ) (Darci Brahma) but has enjoyed Group race success on the gelding previously.

While Oulaghan is pleased to have a quality rider engaged, he, like many, is miffed by the clash of race meetings at Matamata and Otaki which both feature Group races and splits the pool of premier riding talent.

"It's a Group One race at Otaki on Saturday, but it's not a Premier meeting, which I find a bit surprising," he said. "You'd think they would just unite a bit better and work something out."

Shadows Cast has drawn well in barrier five and is likely to be ridden forward once again.

"Over a mile, if he can cruise along quite handy, he seems to be quite happy and I think from barrier five he will be just off them," Oulaghan said.

"There are some decent horses in the race, there is no doubt about that.

"Melody Belle has got the form on the board, Rogey's three-year-old (More Wonder) I think is a good horse, but he has to do things right, Bostonian and Volpe Veloce are smart horses and I don't know how to assess Chris Waller's horse, Endless Drama."

Shadows Cast's performance on Saturday will dictate whether he pushes on to the Gr.1 Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie.

"A mile is as far as he has raced over, but we would look at the weight-for-age race on Auckland Cup Day," Oulaghan said.

Meanwhile, Oulaghan believes his progressive staying mare Shared Secrets (NZ) (Nadeem) will derive good benefit from her down-the-track performance in the Gr.2 Avondale Cup (2400m) last Saturday, where she was a well-beaten eleventh.

"She's a funny sort of horse," Oulaghan said. "She has got the ability but she is a little bit fragile and she is not the sharpest knife in the drawer as far as her brain goes and it just takes her a while to catch onto things.

"It was her first trip away and she didn't do that well. We stayed at Te Rapa and she didn't do what we were hoping she would do, but she will be much better for the experience.

"Having said that, I doubt we would go back for the (Auckland) Cup," he said.

BAVELLA THE BENCHMARK FOR NOBLE

Classy juvenile filly Bavella tackles the Gr.2 J Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes on Saturday (Race Images, Kenton Wright)

Talented two-year-old Bavella (Snitzel) is helping Karaka trainer Lance Noble break new ground.

Noble will saddle the unbeaten Snitzel filly in Saturday's Gr.2 J Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m), happy in the knowledge that she is the new benchmark among two-year-olds he has trained.

"She's clearly the best two-year-old I've had anything to do with," Noble said.

"She's just an absolute professional and has that natural ability. From day one, she gave us that indication."

TAB bookmakers opened Bavella as an even money favourite for the Matamata Breeders' Stakes but were forced to trim her quote to $1.90 with the weight of early money for her.

Noble was confident Bavella would run well but was wary that she could be vulnerable fresh-up against seasoned summer-performed rivals.

"The only question mark is that she showed a lot of ability in the spring against the early two-year-olds and how much the other horses have improved," he said.

"Has she improved? That's hard to tell until we see her on the track. If she shows what she did in the spring, then you'd think she'd be very competitive.

"This is her second preparation and she's more settled. She mooches around doing slow work but she switches on with her quicker work like a real professional. Leith (Innes, jockey) came out and galloped her this week and he was really happy with the way she's going."

With her regular jockey Innes suspended, Vinnie Colgan has picked up the ride on Bavella on Saturday in her first start since winning the Listed Splice Construction Stakes (1100m) at Pukekohe in November.

Bred and raced by Cambridge Stud's Brendan and Jo Lindsay, Bavella had won easily on debut at Ellerslie in October, having chased subsequent Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) winner Probabeel (NZ) (Savabeel) in running second at the Te Awamutu trials before racing.

"She pulled a muscle in that last run at Pukekohe so she had a month off. She was going to have a break anyway so it really hasn't affected her preparation. Because she wasn't eligible for the Karaka Million, we weren't pushing to get her anywhere," Noble said.

"She'll have this one on Saturday and then it's two weeks into the Sistema Stakes (Gr.1, 1200m). While we expect her to strip fit and run well this weekend, there's still improvement in her.

"I don't like being too cocky but if she's somewhere near what she was doing in the spring, then she's going to take some beating."

Noble will also saddle Gr.3 City Of Auckland Cup (2400m) winner Prince Jabeel (Savabeel) in Saturday's Listed

Marks Ewen & Associates Kaimai Stakes (2000m), the race serving as the Savabeel five-year-old gelding's leadup to the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) at Ellerslie on March 9.

"We just don't know what to expect with him because he just keeps getting better. He had 10 days off after his third placing in the Wellington Cup (Gr.3, 3200m) but he doesn't need a lot of work - he's naturally fit," said

Noble, fresh from producing Avondale winners Sistabeel (Savabeel) and Markle (Stratum) on Wednesday.

"This is a race to get him ready for the Auckland Cup and you'd expect it to be too short for him, but he might just run a cheeky race over 2000m. It's confusing, the weights in these handicaps though. He carried 59 kilos in the Wellington Cup and the next handicap he's in, he drops to 53.5kg - but I guess that also helps."

GREAT START TO NEW PARTNERSHIP

James, along with his young training partner Robert Wellwood, have recorded 25 wins from 130 starts, resulting in the stable's best strike rate since the 2000/2001 season.

James credits the success to the quality of horses he and Wellwood have in training at Kingsclere Stables.

"We've got good horses in the stable and that makes life a lot easier," he said. "It's very hard to make slow ones run fast.

"We're not doing anything different to what we've done for years."

One such good horse is Rondinella (NZ) (Ocean Park), an impressive winner of her last two starts, and James rates the four-year-old daughter of Ocean Park highly heading into the Listed Marks Ewan and Associates Kaimai Stakes (2000m) at Matamata on Saturday.

"I made a bold statement when she won her maiden race that she's the best that I've trained since Silent Achiever and she's given me no reason to change my mind on that statement," he said.

"I'm really happy with her. She takes very little work but the one piece of work that she's had was quite stunning, I just hope that we don't get all the rain that's predicted."

The depth of quality in the stable is further highlighted by the stable's other runners this weekend.

"On Saturday at Matamata we've got Concert Hall (Rich Hill Stud 1600) she's had two wins and a second in three starts and was quite stunning last start," James said.

"We also have Hasstobegood in the Matamata Breeders Stakes (Gr.2 1200m), Jimmy Rocket in the last (Westbury Waikato Handicap), his form's pretty solid.

"Then we've got Von Tunzelman (Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Group One Classic) and Hanger (Cavallo Farm and Chris Rutten Bloodstock 1200) down at Otaki," said James, not forgetting two additional headline acts.

"Elate is really well she will hold a nomination for the Lowland Stakes (Gr.2, 2100m) but probably more than likely go to the Sunline (Gr.3, 2100m).

"Hypnos has had a short spell and he's back in now and looking at a preparation towards the Queensland Guineas (Gr.2, 1600m)."

If their recent spending spree at Karaka is anything to go by, Kingsclere Stables won't be slowing down any time soon, with five horses knocked down to the pair during the Book 1 session at a cost of $795,000.

"Going into the sale I had one solid order and I worked very hard to get support and I was very grateful for the support that I got," James said.

"I've been doing it a number of years now and I've got some very good owners around me and I have to work hard putting the syndicates together.

"Robert bought a horse of his own to syndicate for the first time and he's managed to bring some new owners in, which is really good and I had at least one new owner come in at quite a good level.

"Robert is an integral part of the team, I think we work well together and that's been proven.

"I think it's largely a younger person's industry and I think that's where having a young training partner brings us a good balance because I've got my solid established senior clients and Robert is mixing in different circles to me and he brings with him a lot of enthusiasm.

"He's a people person so it means we're covering a bigger circle of people than perhaps I was covering on my own."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Ellis buoyed by yearling interest

Te Akau Racing has enjoyed a stellar season on the track and principal David Ellis is hoping that will continue this weekend when Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) lines up in the Gr.1 Haunui Farm WFA Group One Classic (1600m) at Otaki.

The four-year-old daughter of Commands, who is raced by Fortuna Syndications, has won three Group One races this season and has proven to be an astute purchase out of Haunui Farm's 2016 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale draft by Ellis.

He went back to the same well in January to try and uncover Te Akau's next star and he believes he has done so. Buoyed by the quality of yearlings on offer, Ellis was able to be active at the sale in January, purchasing 43 yearlings for just over $8 million.

"We have got a really great ownership base that we have built up over a lifetime," Ellis said. Full story here.

Sensei (Dream Ahead)

Sensei primed for Oakleigh Plate hit-and-run

Riccarton trainer Michael Pitman has never been afraid to travel his horses in search of lucrative prizemoney and the right conditions.

Pitman, who trains in partnership with his son Matthew, is looking forward to another adventure this weekend when smart sprinter Sensei (Dream Ahead) will represent the stable in the Gr.1 Oakleigh Plate (1100m) at Caulfield and take on some of Australia's best sprinters.

The Christchurch horseman has made no secret of the fact he rates the last-start Gr.1 Telegraph (1200m) placegetter as superior to his stablemate and winner of that race, Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa). Full story here.

Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel)

Waller keen to get a line on New Zealand Gr.1 winner

Leading trainer Chris Waller admits he isn't too sure what he has on his hands with Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) winner, Savvy Coup (NZ) (Savabeel) but is keen to find out.

The former Michael and Matthew Pitman-trained mare will have her first start for Waller in the Gr.2 Millie Fox Stakes (1300m) at Rosehill on Saturday with Waller eager to see how she performs.

"She (Savvy Coup) makes her debut for the stable," he said.

"She was sent to us by her trainer in New Zealand, being Michael Pittman, and her owners and it is certainly a privilege to be able to get a horse like this in the stable and I look forward to her having a good autumn.

"She could be a little vulnerable first up, especially from a wide draw with such a big weight but I would just like to see her attack the line strongly, hoping to see her run into the money and she will certainly improve with the run."

More black-type assaults by Marsh

Stephen Marsh is preparing to stage a two-pronged attack on Saturday's Gr.2 J. Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m), while breathing a sigh of relief over his Derby prospect Vernanme (NZ) (O'Reilly).

Vernanme (NZ) (O'Reilly)

The Cambridge trainer is aiming Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) placegetter Appellant (NZ) (Showcasing) and the promising Glinda Goodwitch (NZ) (Per Incanto) at the Matamata feature, while stablemate Scotch (I Am Invincible) will be nominated for the other juvenile feature, the Gr.3 Waikato Stud Slipper (1200m).

Pleased to have runners in both two-year-old features, Marsh is even more thrilled with the recovery of Vernanme after a pre-race scare going into last Saturday's Gr.2 Avondale Guineas (2100m). Full story here.

Merrygowin (NZ) (Castledale)

No Pressure for Paul

Paul O'Sullivan landed his eighth win of a difficult campaign when Merrygowin (NZ) (Castledale) got the run of the race to capture Wednesday night's Class 4 Rotary Centenary Challenge Cup Handicap (1650m) in Hong Kong.

But the handler is not one for feeling pressure's pinch - "I've been here too long" - and believes he has plenty to look forward to in the coming months.

"I've got a lot of young horses about to step out and a few of them look alright, too," the Kiwi said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"I predicted I was going to have a tough first half – not quite this tough – I looked at the horses and knew they had to come down the handicap before they could win. But I'm pretty happy with the young ones – it's just a matter of being patient and keeping your head on your shoulders."

Merrygowin tracked the front-running Glory Star (High Chaparral) and kicked on in the straight for a grinding win over the unfortunate runner-up Naboo Star (Casino Prince).

"He's an honest horse," O'Sullivan said of the winner. "He ran well in Class 3 two starts back, he drew the gate tonight and things fell into his lap. He's going to go back up to Class 3 and do his best."

Tantalising (NZ) (Savabeel)

Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Tantalising win at Avondale

Savabeel mare Tantalising (NZ) made it back-to-back wins when she took out the NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race 1600 at Avondale on Wednesday.

The Stephen Marsh-trained runner was sent back to the rear of the field by jockey Sam Collett, where she stalked her four competitors throughout.

Collett presented her charge at the home turn where she was able to gather in her opposition and run away to win by 1-1/4 lengths over Excelsior Island (Exceed and Excel), with Pullyoursocksup (NZ) (Thewayouare) a further long neck back in third.

"It was a tactical affair," Racing Manager Todd Pollard said.

"Sam went back last, but she has that good turn of foot at the end of the race, which she always has, and that was evident today.

"She's a mare who has kept improving and is turning into quite a nice mare to go back-to-back.

"She is only lightly raced and she has already won two, so it's quite good for the Valachi team."

Griffin victorious at Wairoa

Well related galloper Griffin (NZ) (Iffraaj) picked up the third win of his career at Wairoa on Thursday when he took out the Paddy Kennedy Memorial (1300m).

The Jamie Richards-trained runner was sent forward early by apprentice jockey Chelsea Burdan to sit outside the leader Ottavio (NZ) (Makfi).

The full-brother to three-time Group One winner Gingernuts (NZ) took the lead turning for home and was able to hold out is rivals to win by half a length over Nuclear Fusion (NZ) (Power), with a further neck back to Comeback (NZ) (Makfi) in third.

"He's been a bit of a slow maturing horse, but he is getting there," stable representative Paul Richards said. "Chelsea rode him exactly how we talked about and did a good job."

Spring Delight (NZ) (Tavistock)

Delight in maiden victory

Promising three-year-old filly Spring Delight (NZ) (Tavistock) is a bridesmaid no longer.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained filly has been runner-up in three of her five previous starts and managed to break through for her maiden victory in the Magness The Mighty Steam Train 2100 at Avondale on Wednesday.

The daughter of Tavistock settled off the pace for in-form hoop Matthew Cameron before he improved her three-wide at the 600m mark.

Spring Delight took control of the race down the straight, winning comfortably by 2-3/4 lengths over Acacia (NZ) (Roc de Cambes), with 2-1/2 lengths back to Rusalka (NZ) (Savabeel) in third.

"It was a really good effort," Forsman said.

"First run over ground with blinkers on, she got into a bit of a niggly position in the run, but she was too good.

"She has been in really good form. She just hit the front a couple of times and just knocked off the job and I think the blinkers really helped."

Vengeur Masque (Monsun)

Auckland Cup on radar for Moroney import

Trans-Tasman trainer Mike Moroney is strongly considering a tilt at the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) at Ellerslie on March 9 with imported stayer Vengeur Masque (Monsun).

The son of Monsun was a strong winner of the Listed Torney Night Cup (2500m) at Moonee Valley last Friday and Moroney, who trains in partnership with Pam Gerard in New Zealand, believes the set weights and penalties conditions of the Auckland Cup would suit the seven-year-old stayer.

"After watching the Avondale Cup (Gr.2, 2400m) last weekend we are thinking there is not a lot of strength to the field, I know it's hard to marry the form up," Moroney said.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Madison County (NZ) (Pins)

Weaponry (NZ) (Declaration Of War)

Madison County Sydney-bound after sale falls through

Dual Group One-winning three-year-old Madison County (NZ) (Pins) will head to Sydney in preparation for an autumn campaign after his sale to Hong Kong fell through.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained gelding won the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton in November followed by the Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m) at Trentham before finishing a gallant third behind Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock) in the rich Karaka Million 3YO (1600m) at Ellerslie in January.

He was set to start in the Gr.1 Herbie Dykes Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa earlier this month, but was scratched with the seven figure sale to Hong Kong pending.

However, that sale was not to eventuate and the son of Pins will now head to Sydney next week where he is nominated for a number of races, including the Gr.1 Randwick (1600m) and Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m).

"The sale fell over," Baker said. "We will take him to Sydney and race him. He is nominated over there.

"We are not disappointed, we have still got a good horse to train, it just happens now and then (sales falling through).

"He has missed very little work because we just kept him ticking over and we'll probably go over there (Sydney) early next week."

Weaponry aimed at Wellington Guineas

Last-start Listed Southland Guineas (1600m) winner Weaponry (NZ) (Declaration of War) is being set to add another Guineas scalp to his record.

The Jamie Richards-trained runner will head for a light freshen-up before lining up in the Gr.2 Wellington Guineas (1400m) at Trentham next month.

"He might have a little freshen-up now and if we are pleased with him he could well be aimed at the Wellington Guineas on the way back to Te Akau," he said.

Weaponry had a three-start southern campaign that included a placing in the Listed Gore Guineas (1335m) before running fourth in the Listed Dunedin Guineas (1500m) before his win in the Southland Guineas.

Richards was pleased with the southern campaign and said the three-year-old gelding has thrived with the trip south.

"He is an improving horse and I think the trip has really brought him on," Richards said.

"I think the travel has helped the horse and he has really grown up and improved."

Miss Federer (NZ) (Swiss Ace)

Miss Federer ruled out of Breeders'

Andrew Carston's prospects of winning the Gr.2 J. Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m) were dashed late last week.

The Riccarton trainer had set Miss Federer (NZ) (Swiss Ace) for the Matamata feature after her courageous last-start win in the Gr.3 Woburn Farm 2YO Classic (1200m) at New Plymouth, but instead of competing on Saturday the Swiss Ace filly will instead be recovering from an operation.

Miss Federer had been stabled at Stephen McKee's Ardmore property since her Taranaki win and Carston made a special trip north from Christchurch last Monday afternoon to ride her in work the following morning. Full story

Five To Midnight (NZ) (Domesday)

Parkes booked for key Cup ride

Johnathan Parkes will be reunited with Five To Midnight (NZ) (Domesday) for next month's Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) at Ellerslie.

Parkes was at a wedding last weekend when Jonathan Riddell guided the Lisa Latta-trained Domesday six-year-old to third placing in the Gr.2 Avondale Cup (2400m) at Ellerslie but had been the regular rider this season of last year's Auckland Cup runner-up.

Latta was thrilled with Five To Midnight's Avondale Cup run and was looking forward to the Auckland Cup in which he meets last Saturday's winner Glory Days (NZ) (Red Giant) 4 kilograms better.

"He's come through the run well. He went to the paddock for a couple of days and he's good. He's on track for the Auckland Cup," Latta said.

Wondering retired

Triple Group One winning sprinter Start Wondering (NZ) (Eighth Wonder) has been retired after suffering a minor tendon strain.

Prepared in Wanganui by Evan and JJ Rayner, the eight-year-old won 11 of 29 starts, including back to back editions of the Gr.1 Waikato Sprint (1400m) and the 2017 Gr.1 Railway (1200m).

Initially prepared by Paul Belsham, Start Wondering enjoyed a stint across the Tasman with Chris Waller, where he won three races in Sydney before joining the Rayners after a bleed.

Under the Rayners guidance, Start Wondering was voted New Zealand's Champion Sprinter for season 2016/17.

"He's still at our place but he is out in the back paddock and we are really trying to find a good home for him," Evan Rayner said.

"He had a little bit of filling in a tendon and we scanned him and he had a black spot on the tendon and straight away we knew he had a bit of a strain there and we decided to retire him.

"He had a hell of a lot of ability and once he settled, he ran the races out pretty well."

The retirement of the star sprinter has also proved the impetus for trainer Evan Rayner to hang up his stopwatch, with daughter JJ to take sole charge of the stable.

"At the end of March, the end of the financial year, I will hand it over to JJ, but I will still be around. But I won't renew my licence," said Rayner, who has been training since 1969.

Blue Breeze (NZ) (Bullbars)

Dell and Morley to combine in Auckland Cup

Jockey Christopher Dell has been confirmed as the rider of Gr.2 Avondale Cup (2400m) runner-up Blue Breeze (NZ)

(Bullbars) when he contests the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) on March 9.

The Allan Morley-trained five-year-old was sent out a $57-chance but was beaten just a half-head by high-class staying mare Glory Days (NZ) (Red Giant) last Saturday.

"He had a stout finish on Saturday and stepping up to the 3200m, he will just keep going and going and going," Dell said.

"He does appreciate a little bit of cut in the track, but he has performed well on all track surfaces."

Under the set weight and penalties conditions of the Auckland Cup, Blue Breeze will carry 55kgs, a 3kg rise from the 52kgs he carried under handicap conditions last week.

"The owners said to me 'You won't have to waste as hard to ride him in the Auckland Cup'" Dell said.

"Glory Days is obviously coming in better off at the weights, but anything can happen over 3200m."

Dell and Byerley Park trainer Morley have had a long association which started in another equine discipline.

"He used to judge me in the show ring," Dell said. We have known each other for years."
