BEAUTY GENERATION GIVES MOORE A SEVENTH QUEEN'S SILVER JUBILEE CUP WIN

Beauty Generation fights back to score a game win in the Gr.1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin.

Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) bolstered his position at the top of the jurisdiction's sprinter-miler ranks when taking out the Gr.1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m) at Sha Tin.

The John Moore-trained five-year-old, ridden by Zac Purton, settled outside leader Peniaphobia (Dandy Man) in the early stages of the HK$10 million feature before assuming the lead entering the straight. The gelding was joined on his inside by the Joao Moreira-ridden Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook) approaching the 100m, but Beauty Generation was stoic to the line, holding off the favourite to score by a head.

"He was headed, but he waits for the other horses to come to him a little bit," Purton said. "He gives a bit of a kick and then he just wanders. I think I have Joao to thank, though. He snuck up on my inside, quiet as a church mouse, but as he got on level terms, he roared at his horse – but my horse kicked!”

Beauty Generation was originally purchased as a BMW Hong Kong Derby horse by Moore and was campaigned over further as a four-year-old last season. However, he did boast a pre-import placing in the 2016 G2 Hobartville Stakes (1400m) behind Group One winners Press Statement (Hinchinbrook) and Le Romain (Hard Spun), suggesting he could have a future over shorter trips.

Moore decided to give Beauty Generation his chance as a miler this term, though, and since his first-up win in the Gr.3 Celebration Cup Handicap (1400m) in October, he has won three of his five starts, including the Gr.1 LONGINES Hong Kong Mile (1600m).

“He’s very versatile, isn’t he?” Moore said. “He was one of our Derby horses and that’s what we thought he’d be, but at the beginning of this season I approached (owner) Patrick (Kwok) and said, ‘I’m going to make a miler of him,’ and we did. We have put the speed into him and he’s kicked on, he’s come back to 1400m and he’s won today so I’ve been proven right – and I think Patrick is still scratching his head and wondering how we’ve done it.”

It was the first time that Purton had been aboard Beauty Generation on raceday since he finished a disappointing eighth in the Gr.3 Queen Mother Memorial Cup Handicap (2400m) in April last year. The rider had previously scored wins over 1600m and 2200m aboard the son of Road To Rock, but this season, Derek Leung had been his regular pilot.

“He’s definitely surprised us all at the level he’s got to, but I did say to John last season that I thought he’d be a better horse next season,” said Purton, who won four races on the Sha Tin card. “I think he’s proven that he’s a 1400m to 1600m horse, somewhere around that range just seems to suit him. He gets out, he makes all, he’s got that high cruising speed and he can kick.”

Moore said that Beauty Generation had been invited for the Gr.1 Dubai Turf (1800m) at Meydan on 31 March, but that a trip abroad remained unlikely for the five-year-old.

Beauty Generation was a $60,000 purchase from the Highden Park draft at the Select session of the 2014 NZB National Yearling Sale.

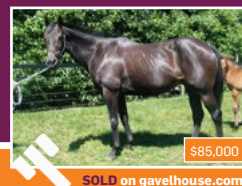

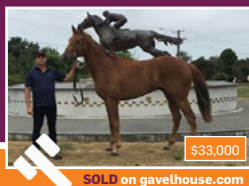

He commenced his career in Australia under the name Montaigne where he had seven starts that produced two wins along with a runner-up finish in the Gr. 1 Rosehill Guineas behind Tarzino (NZ) (Tavistock) before finishing fourth to Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel) in the Gr. 1 The BMW.

DUAL-PRONGED GUINEAS ATTACK FOR BUSUTTIN, YOUNG

Main Stage will form a two-pronged attack with Salsamor on the Gr.1 Australian Guineas at Flemington this Saturday for the Trent Busuttin & Natalie Young stable

Co-trainer Trent Busuttin confirmed his stable will have both Main Stage (NZ) (Reliable Man) and Salsamor (NZ) (Tavistock) vying for the lucrative $1 million Australian Guineas (1600m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Busuttin and partner Natalie Young have saddled up 45 winners in the 2017-18 season, of which 32 have been three-year-old winners to show they are a stable with talent on the rise.

Having had success in both the ATC and Victoria Derbies, Busuttin is eyeing off some Guineas joy - with multiple Group Two placegetter Salsamor to join stakes winner Main Stage in the Flemington feature.

Salsamor finished seventh in the $2million Caulfield Guineas, and goes into the autumn Guineas second-up off a city-class second placing behind King's Command (Commands) over 1400m.

"The form around him is fantastic - we were looking at giving him another grade race, but we've decided to run him in the Australian Guineas," Busuttin said on Sunday.

"It fits in well to get up to Sydney." Meanwhile, Main Stage was always Guineas bound, especially off the back of his fourth placing in the Gr. 3 C.S. Hayes Stakes (1400m) at Flemington.

"Excellent first-up over 1400m. He got back and smashed through the line. He just felt the pinch 50m out first-up over 14 [hundred], he'd only had the one trial," he added.

"I thought he was going to run third, he just knocked up that last touch, but he's on target for Saturday at Flemington."

Meanwhile, Sully (NZ) (Reliable Man) will head back to Sydney for the Gr.1 Randwick Guineas (1600m) on Saturday week.

DUAL-PRONGED GUINEAS ATTACK FOR BUSUTTIN, YOUNG

"I expected him to be a bit sharper to be honest," he said of Sully's eighth in the C.S. Hayes.

"Hindsight's easy afterwards, we drew a good gate and I told [Dwayne Dunn] to give him a squeeze out and put him in behind the speed, and he travelled on top of the speed the whole way.

"He didn't go bad, only beaten three-and-a-bit lengths... next start he'll be out the back and charging home.

He added: "He probably can't win a race like that against the gun Sydney three-year-olds, but he'll be smashing through the line and he's on target."

Seannie (Sebring) very nearly added to their list of three-year-old winners when storming home late for third in the Gr.3 Typhoon Tracy Stakes (1200m) behind Tulip (Pierro) on Friday night.

"Her racing pattern is going to be against her more often than not," Busuttin said of the get-back filly.

"We're questioning over how far she goes, but she smashed the line - you can't give horses like Tulip 5-6 lengths on the turn.

"We go to Flemington next start over 1400m, it'll be her track."

Meanwhile, Busuttin confirmed his ATC Derby winner Tavago (NZ)

(Tavistock) is back in the stable - and could be Brisbane winter carnival-bound.

"He's always had niggling problems, he's not the soundest of horses," Busuttin said.

"Carnival to carnival, things haven't gone right with him.

"So we said he's only a five-year-old gelding, he's had [only 14] starts. You see these horses going around at seven and eight.

"We said we'll give him a good break, let those legs have a rest.

"We'll aim at a Doomben Cup, Brisbane Cup, and hopefully he's going well enough to carry onto the spring."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Lowry Cullen quinella in Wairoa Cup

The only thing certain at the finish of Sunday's Affco NZ Ltd Wairoa Cup (2100m) was that trainers Guy Lowry and Grant Cullen had provided the quinella.

Topweight and race favourite Wait A Sec (NZ) (Postponed) had been expected to prevail for the Hastings based duo as he concluded his Auckland Cup preparation with the Wairoa contest. Nobody told stablemate Saint Kitt (NZ) (Keeper) however, as he bolted to the front approaching the home bend and set sail for the winning post.

Johnathan Parkes and Wait A Sec had weaved their way through the field at that stage and were in hot pursuit of the tearaway leader. Halfway down the straight their task looked too tough under the 61kg impost they were carrying as Saint Kitt showed no signs of stopping.

Slowly but surely Wait A Sec closed on his companion and as they hit the finishing line he stuck his nose out and snatched the victory from a gallant runner-up who fought all the way to the post.

It was Wait A Sec's 13th career victory with eight of those wins coming from his last 12 starts including the Gr.1 Livamol Classic (2040m) in October last year.

Wait A Sec will now line-up in the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) on 10 March where he is listed as a $12 chance on the TAB Fixed Odds market. - NZ Racing Desk

CONTESSA VANESSA BOUNCES BACK TO WINNING FORM AT MATAMATA

The outstanding season of three-year-old filly Contessa Vanessa (NZ) (Bullbars) continued at Matamata on Saturday when she scored a decisive victory over 1400m.

The Bullbars filly has been a consistent performer for Team Rogerson having taken out the Gr.2 Eight Carat Classic (1600m) on Boxing Day along with producing stakes placings on two further occasions during her current campaign.

Despite finishing well back at her last start in the rich Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie Contessa Vanessa was sent out a $7 second favourite on Saturday in a race dominated by Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m) winner Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock).

Most expected Age Of Fire to be too strong for his rivals as he prepares for an upcoming Australian campaign. That scenario was tipped on its head when the Fastnet Rock colt was forced to settle well back in a muddling run affair as first starter Pop Princess (NZ) (Makfi) dictated a slow tempo in front.

Rider Lynsey Satherley went for glory on Pop Princess on the home corner however Jason Waddell had stalked her throughout on Contessa Vanessa and wasn't prepared to give in without a fight. Contessa Vanessa dug deep to issue an undeniable challenge in the closing stages as she forged clear to win by three-quarters of a length from Pop Princess.

Age Of Fire made ground strongly to finish third in a run that will lose him no supporters despite not threatening the first two home.

"I just wanted to give her a good hit-out today as she had a week off after she had no luck at Ellerslie in the Karaka Million," said Graeme Rogerson after the race.

"The jockey was lucky to stay on her back last time."

Rogerson now has plans to tackle further black-type assignments with his filly.

"She will go to the Sunline Vase at Ellerslie next and then on to the Oaks," he said.

"She will be very competitive. She relaxes well and she will stay."

EXCALIBUR ON TARGET FOR AUCKLAND CUP

Progressive stayer Excalibur (NZ) (Tavistock) confirmed he is on target to tackle the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup (3200m) in a fortnight with a dashing victory at Hastings.

Trainer Shaune Ritchie was bullish about the four-year-olds chances prior to the start of the Aquashield New Zealand St. Leger Trial (2100m), with that confidence well placed as Excalibur produced a sustained finish from well back to claim a decisive one and a quarter length victory in the event.

"He was particularly well weighted in this race and he is unbeaten at 2100m," said Ritchie.

"We've found the trick to him which is to ride him cold and let him drop out. He can take off early and sustain a run."

Rider Matthew Cameron followed those instructions to the letter as he settled the Tavistock gelding towards the rear of the ten-horse field as Bizzwinkle (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) set a solid pace at the head of affairs.

Cameron got busy at the 700m mark as he looped the field to issue a challenge on the point of the home turn. Excalibur hit top gear in the final stages as he forged clear to defeat Bizzwinkle with outsider Eyes Wide Open (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) battling on gamely for third.

"If he was going to justify his spot in the Auckland Cup he had to win today and win well," said Ritchie.

Excalibur races home at Hastings to cement his claim for the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup at his next start

"He had to go early as he is a bit one paced, but he hit the line hard so two miles looks exciting for us.

"He will go straight into the Auckland Cup now as it's only two weeks away. He is out of a Stravinsky mare who is out of a Zabeel mare so there is plenty of staying blood to suggest he will get the two miles of the Cup."

Bookmakers reacted to the victory by tightening Excalibur into $12 on the Fixed Odds market for the Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup which is headed by Ladies First(NZ) (Dylan Thomas) at a $5 quote.

The win also provided the perfect entrée for Ritchie who produced Devise (NZ) (Darci Brahma) to score her maiden Group One victory in the Haunui Farm WFA Group One Classic (1600m) just one race later.

HONNEUR NOIR DOMINATES FROM IN FRONT AT MATAMATA

A front-running masterclass from jockey Sam Spratt paved the way for Te Aroha mare Honneur Noir (NZ) (Falkirk) to dominate her rating 75 rivals over 1400m at Matamata on Saturday.

The Peter Lock trained four-year-old has hit a purple patch of form since breaking maidens in November last year with Saturday's victory her third from her last five starts.

Sent straight to the front by Spratt after jumping well from an outside barrier, Honneur Noir never flinched as she set up a steady pace before kicking clear early in the run home. Despite being chased by a wall of horses the Falkirk four-year-old kept up a resolute gallop to score comfortably by three lengths from local runners Hay Tiger (NZ) (Tiger Prawn) and Danger Dee (NZ) (Saperavi) who filled the minor placings.

Lock was delighted with the mare's performance as he contemplates bigger targets for her in the autumn.

"That was a terrific win as she has just gone from strength to strength lately," he said.

"When she had her first run for us she flew the gates over 1200m but knocked up the last bit. Kelly McCulloch rode her and she came in and told me she was going to be a good mare once she matured.

"It has taken some time, but I think she is getting there now and I do believe she is going to be even better next season."

Lock was quick to pay tribute to the mare's owner Bob Emery, who made her available to Lock to race on lease with a large group of mainly first-time owners.

"I can't thank Bob enough as he leased her to us and agreed to take a share in one of the two syndicates we have in her," he said.

"I don't think I've ever seen so many happy faces after the race, with what are mainly first-time owners, which can only be good for racing.

"To win a race on a Saturday like that is a huge thrill and I don't think it will be the last for her either."

Lock will now send Honneur Noir to the paddock for a brief freshen-up before returning to tackle some autumn assignments.

"She has done plenty of late, so she will now have a short break," he said.

"She will definitely handle some cut in the ground and we'd like to tackle some of the fillies and mares' races that are coming up in a few months. The aim will be to get her some black-type which I think she is well capable of."

DAMA ZORRO ALL POWER AT HASTINGS

Dama Zorro storms home at Hastings

Promising three-year-old filly Dama Zorro (Husson) gave a further glimpse of her undoubted potential when she raced home to score a decisive win over 1200m at Hastings on Saturday.

Touted as a horse to watch after a stylish maiden victory at Tauranga in mid-December, the Husson filly franked that opinion when a fast finishing second in a New Year's Day assignment at Ellerslie. However, a disappointing showing on her home track at Te Rapa earlier this month had punters wary of her chances on Saturday against an even field headed by last start winner Divine Power (NZ) (Power).

Rider Michael McNab, who had made a special visit to Te Rapa to ride the filly in trackwork on Tuesday morning, produced a gem to have Dama Zorro relaxed throughout the run before saving plenty of ground against the rail approaching the home turn. McNab angled into the clear at the 200m mark and in the twinkling of an eye Dama Zorro lengthened beautifully to dash past Divine Power to score handsomely by two lengths with Caesour's Dream (NZ) (Nicconi) fighting on well to take third.

"She's been doing things wrong, but I said to Michael that I hoped there would be some speed on and he should just wait and wait as we didn't need to be leading with 200m to go," said trainer David Greene.

"He switched her off nicely and she has a lot of brilliance which she has always shown so if she can continue racing kindly like that she should kick on with it for sure."

Greene, who purchased the filly from the Phoenix Park draft at the 2016 Karaka Select Yearling Sale for $25,000, noted he had asked McNab to ride the filly at trackwork so he could get a good feel for her behaviour.

"I got Michael to come and ride her in trackwork on Tuesday morning," he said.

"It gave him a different kind of feel and I think that was a key to understanding the horse and getting her so settled."

Greene is keen to take things slowly with Dama Zorro as he indicated she may have one more run in this preparation before heading to the spelling paddock for a decent break.

The victory provided McNab with a winning treble within the first four races on the card after he was successful on Perroquet (NZ) (Ocean Park) and O'Guy (NZ) (Pins) to open the meeting.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Antonio Giuseppe to race in Singapore

Antonio Giuseppe (NZ)

Group One placed stayer Antonio Giuseppe (NZ) (Shocking) has been purchased out of Chris Waller's Sydney stable by Kranji based trainer Mark Walker, in conjunction with Fortuna Syndications, and will do his future racing in Singapore.

The six race winner commenced his career in New Zealand where he won on debut from the Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman stable before being transferred to Waller after two further starts. The Shocking gelding proved a model of consistency with five wins and a further three placings from 16 starts in Sydney which included a stretch of four wins in succession before finishing runner-up to Sir John Hawkwood (Sir Percy) in the 2016 Gr.1 Metropolitan (2400m) at Royal Randwick.

Antonio Giuseppe has been purchased as a strong middle distance horse with the opportunity to run in some of Singapore's prestigious events including the Raffles Cup (1600m), Queen Elizabeth II Cup (1800m) and Singapore Gold Cup (2000m) later in the year.

Purcell: Aloisia 'winning' with luck

She has been a big drifter in betting, but the Thousand Guineas winner Aloisia (NZ) (Azamour) is far from a spent force in Saturday's Gr.1 Australian Guineas (1600m) at Flemington, according to her trainer Aaron Purcell.

Questions marks hung over Aloisia's autumn campaign following a lacklustre trial at Cranbourne before an unplaced first-up run in the Vanity over 1400 metres at Flemington, but Purcell has emphatically dispelled any doubts about her readiness for the Group One test this Saturday.

"She's come on tremendously and if she has luck on the day, I suspect she will be winning," Purcell said on Sunday.

Purcell said Aloisia would be joined in the classic by the Sandown Guineas winner Villermont (All Too Hard), who the trainer said was ready to fire after one run back when heavily supported but unplaced in the Autumn Stakes at Caulfield earlier this month.

Aloisia had been Guineas favourite right up to her first-up run and was out to around $8 in markets a week out from the race.

Aloisia has only taken on the colts once as a three-year-old and that resulted in a three and a half length thrashing of Cliff's Edge (CANford Cliffs) over 2040 metres in the G.2 Vase at Moonee Valley on Cox Plate day.
