TEETAN CONTINUES STRONG FEATURE FORM WITH PREMIERE IN BAUHINIA SPRINT TROPHY

A delighted Karis Teetan guides Premiere home at Sha Tin

Jockey Karis Teetan continued his perfect run through Hong Kong's Group races in 2018 after taking the Gr. 3 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy Handicap (1000m) aboard John Size's Premiere (NZ) (Dylan Thomas) at Sha Tin on Sunday.

Six days after winning the Gr. 3 Chinese Club Challenge Cup Handicap (1400m) on Fifty Fifty (NZ) (Thorn Park), Teetan produced a well-planned ride aboard Premiere to take the Bauhinia Sprint Trophy, one of only two Group races over the Sha Tin straight.

Instead of allowing Premiere to lead, as he had often done in the past, Teetan settled the Dylan Thomas gelding just behind early lamplighter Fabulous One (NZ) (Elusive City) on the grandstand rail.

"In his trials, I'd been taking a sit on him and he'd been letting down nicely," Teetan said, with Size adding: "I'd been mindful that he would have to get around a bend eventually, so I'd been trying to get him used to the idea of travelling behind horses in his dirt trials. He seemed to bring that to the races today.”

“I knew that with a steady tempo set by Fabulous One, he’d get a nice trail and that he would let down – and he did!” Teetan continued. “Once he got through the gap at the 300m, which he did very comfortably, he went on with it and he was so strong right to the line.”

At the line, 3.2 shot Premiere had a three-quarter length margin over Chris So’s Fabulous One, with a further half-length back to Premiere’s stablemate House Of Fun (Starcraft), who finished third as the even-money favourite.

Premiere was named Champion Griffin after his exploits as a three-year-old, when he won three of his 12 starts and took his rating from 52 to 82. However, he has gone to another level at four, winning all four of his starts this season and emerging as a legitimate stakes-level galloper.

“He’s certainly stronger this season,” Size said. “He’s shown that he has taken a step forward, so now, we are going to have to bite the bullet and attempt 1200m with him, because the next 1000m race for him is not until October. We have no other option.”

The feature was the second leg of a double for Teetan, who earlier won the Class 3 Heather Handicap (1600m) on Hong Kong Classic Mile aspirant Morethanlucky (NZ) (Per Incanto).

SERAPHIM SCORES BIGGEST WIN IN MARTON CUP

Race-caller Tony Lee succinctly summed up the performance of Listed Gallagher Marton Cup (2100m) winner Seraphim (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) when he exclaimed “she just keeps on raising the bar” shortly after runners hit the finish line at Awapuni.

The royally-bred five-year-old mare, a daughter of dual Caulfield and Melbourne Cups winner, Ethereal (NZ) (Rhythm), notched up her biggest career achievement to date when she out-stayed a handy line-up in the day’s feature event. The victory completed a winning treble that started with a rating 65 grade win over 1550m at the same venue back in November and came off the back of a Trentham success in rating 75 company over 1600m in December.

The ease of those two wins saw Seraphim sent out a warm favourite for her first attempt at stakes company where she didn’t disappoint as she held out a determined challenge by local galloper Itsallbelt (NZ) (Handsome Ransom) to snatch a deserved victory.

“The biggest worry we had today was her settling in the race but as you can see, she loves a scrap,” said co-trainer Stephen Ramsay after the race.

“With the pace on it made for a good race, where the best stayer generally wins.

“Each time they came at her she knuckled down and raised another effort, so she showed plenty of ticker.”

Ramsay is keen to add further staying tests to the mare’s programme that will be set once discussions have taken place with her owner and co-breeder, Sir Peter Vela.

“She has really come on in leaps and bounds in this prep,” he said.

“We’ll just see what there is around but there are some more Cup races coming up which could suit.

“Today was her first staying test which she handled well, so I will talk to Sir Peter and his racing manager, Gary Cossey, to see where we go next.”

The win took Seraphim’s career record to four wins and 6 minor placings from 13 starts with prizemoney in excess of $80,000. The victory also helped achieve a milestone for her Windsor Park Stud based sire, Rip Van Winkle, as she provided him with his 20th individual stakes winner.

SHADOWS CAST PRODUCES IMPRESSIVE THORNDON MILE TRIAL

Local galloper Shadows Cast (NZ) (Per Incanto) could not have been more impressive as he concluded his preparation for a Group One assignment with a hollow victory in open company at Awapuni.

The showy chestnut treated his four rivals with contempt as he raced away in the final stages of the Central ITM Premier (1400m) to score by a widening margin. Rider Alysha Collett had time to take a long look over her left shoulder as she hit the finish line but all she saw was daylight as Slimline (NZ) (Castledale) battled on strongly to claim second, albeit over two lengths in arrears of the winner.

The Mark Oulaghan trained five-year-old was having his first start since dead-heating for the major spoils in the Gr. 2 Coupland's Bakeries Mile (1600m) at Riccarton back in November with his trainer confident he would take improvement out of the run.

"He had close to three weeks off when he came back from Riccarton so there probably is some improvement in him although he looked pretty close to the mark today," he said.

"He has really grown up in this campaign and I think you can see that in his performances. He has always had ability and has compiled a fairly handy record but there's just something extra this time around.

"He was very impressive today and to my mind that was the best run I've seen him put in."

Oulaghan will now look to the Gr. 1 Harcourts Thorndon Mile (1600m) on 20 January as the next challenge for the Per Incanto gelding, who has won eight of his 23 career starts.

"We do have the Thorndon Mile as his next target, provided he pulls up well from today's effort," he said.

"It looks like being a top field, but he has earned his place and I think he can measure up.

"After that we might tip him out, but we will play that by ear as it will depend on how he comes through it all."

The Thorndon Mile is one of three feature events to be run at Trentham on 20 January with the Gr. 1 JR & N Berkett Telegraph (1200m) and Gr. 3 Wallaceville Estate Wellington Cup (3200m) also on the programme.

LANCIATO IMPRESSES AT ROYAL RANDWICK

Former kiwi galloper Lanciato (NZ) (Per Incanto) provided a timely reminder of his undoubted ability with a comfortable victory at Randwick on Saturday.

The Mark Newnham trained five-year-old easily accounted for his eight rivals over 1400 metres to register his fifth career victory. It was the Per Incanto gelding's third win for Newnham since joining his Warwick Farm operation after commencing his career in New Zealand for Cambridge trainer Stephen Marsh.

Lanciato has proved a model of consistency for Newnham, who began training in his own right in early 2016 after a successful stint with Gai Waterhouse.

"It's a good time of the year to win races, and look, this is one of the first horses I got to train and I'm really thankful to the owners Derek Tam and Peter Coffey," said Newnham.

"He seems to have come back a lot better this preparation and it's really rewarding.

"I planned (this run) the same as his last preparation where he carried a big weight first up and ran third. A month later we won with him, so I had a look at this race where it brings him down in weight, on a dry track over 1400m; it's the right ingredients for him."

Lanciato powers home to score at Randwick

Newnham believes a rise in grade won't phase his charge after he came with a sustained finish from well back for apprentice rider Rachel King.

"He had a lot of work to do and he had to run down an in-form horse," he said

"He won third up last time, as well, so I think once he finds this type of form it's not hard to hold him there.

"The way he went today I'd say we'd probably look at a Listed race at the end of the month."

SPAIN GUIDES SHENANDOAH TO CAULFIELD WIN

A well-judged ride from apprentice Zac Spain has helped Shenandoah (NZ) (Darci Brahma) to an all-the-way win at Caulfield.

Shenandoah crossed to the front early in Sunday's Maree Madden-Melder Handicap (1800m) and after rallying in the straight, the four-year-old mare lasted to win by a half-neck.

Addison (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) and So Splendid (NZ) (Savabeel) made late lunges but in a tight finish that pair had to settle for a dead-heat for second to fill a New Zealand-bred trifecta.

Spain moved to Victoria from Adelaide on loan to the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young stable in mid-2017 and made the move official after three months.

Sunday's win was his fourth city victory in Melbourne this season and 19th in Victoria.

The 21-year-old said the Busuttin and Young-trained

Shenandoah, who carried 53kg after Spain's 2kg claim, was a bit keen early but then settled well in the lead and got into a good rhythm.

"She had it pretty easy in front and then Royal Applause put a bit of pressure on her from the 600 metres, which was a bit earlier than I would have liked, but to her credit she dug deep," Spain said.

"I think with the light weight it helped. Once she steps up over 2000 metres she's going to go through her grades nicely.

"I wasn't sure on the line if she had won or not because they were coming at me pretty quick."

Sam McLeod, assistant trainer to Busuttin and Young, said Spain had been putting in a lot of work at the stable and deserved the rewards.

"He's always there at four o'clock in the morning doing the hard yards," McLeod said.

SCREAM PARK SET FOR KARAKA MILLION CLASSIC

Chris Waller is sending Scream Park to Ellerslie to contest the Listed Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m)

Scream Park (NZ) (Ocean Park) will return home to New Zealand for the inaugural Listed Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) despite being beaten at Randwick.

Trainer Chris Waller was hoping for a third successive win at Randwick on Saturday, but Scream Park weakened in the run home and had to settle for fourth in the five-horse field, 2-1/4 lengths behind Aqua D'ivina (Pierro).

"He'll go, only just though," Waller said.

"Obviously when you're travelling you like to be going with a win next to your name."

Sydney's premier trainer was underwhelmed before getting some positive feedback from jockey Hugh Bowman.

"He was a bit of a sitting duck and as they sprinted he was a bit flat footed and as a result it was a plain run," Waller said.

"Hugh said don't be disappointed and he's a very good judge to have aboard."

Scream Park, who is eligible for the $1 million race because he was bought at the NZB National Yearling Sale at Karaka, will be a first for Waller as the first stable runner he has witnessed in New Zealand since he relocated to Sydney in 2000.

"I had a runner at Riccarton a few years ago. There hasn't been many," he said.

Waller said adding the 3YO Classic to its $1 million equivalent for two-year-olds on January 27 was a smart move, as was moving the meeting to a Saturday.

"They need to get that Magic Millions type of feel. We all know what that's about in Australia, and most of New Zealand does as well," he said.

"It's a great chance for New Zealand to showcase what they've got and I think they should put another couple of Group One races on and bring the Aussies over, or other horses from around the world." - AAP

DECISIONS TO MAKE FOR IMPRESSIVE THREE-YEAR-OLD FILLY

The connections of exciting three-year-old filly Gift Of Power (NZ) (Power) have some big decisions to make about her upcoming assignments after she made it seven wins from just 10 starts with victory at Awapuni on Sunday.

The Team Rogerson trained daughter of Cambridge Stud based stallion Power had showed plenty of talent as a juvenile where she scored three times including the Gr. 2 Wakefield Challenge Stakes (1100m) at Trentham. Spelled after running down the track in the Listed Karaka Million (1200m), Gift Of Power has now won four of her five starts as a three-year-old however Sunday's victory didn't come without its challenges.

Facing just the two rivals after the field was devastated by scratchings, including the late withdrawal of Morse

Code (NZ) (Pins) due to an issue in the starting gates, Gift Of Power showed plenty of tenacity after over-racing in front throughout.

Rider Chris Johnson spent a good deal of the race trying to restrain his headstrong mount who was struggling to find her rhythm in the rating 85 1200m contest. Those problems were exacerbated when the filly wobbled her way around the home bend and was briefly headed by local mare Sweepstake (NZ) (Per Incanto) early in the run home.

Johnson remained calm, even after he dropped his whip at the 100m mark, as he urged the filly for a final effort that saw her fend off a gallant Sweepstake by a neck at the post.

“She’s a very good sprinter and I think you saw that today,” said co-trainer Graeme Rogerson.

“She wanted to go a whole lot quicker, which gave Chris a few problems, but when it counted she dug deep.”

Rogerson was delighted with the ride by Johnson who had confided to Rogerson’s grand-daughter and new training partner, Bailey, he had experienced some problems in the home straight.

“He’s special isn’t he as that was a super ride,” he said.

“I asked Bailey what he said when he came back in after the race and he told her he had everything under control as there were still a few gears left at the post.

“He did say she would have given him more if he had hit her with the whip, but he couldn’t as he dropped it with 100m to run.”

Rogerson advised a decision would now be made on the filly’s immediate future which could include a trip to Trentham for the Gr. 1 JR & N Berkett Telegraph (1200m) at Trentham later this month.

“Bailey will have a talk with Sir Patrick (Hogan) and the other owners this week as we do have a couple of options available for her,” he said.

“The Telegraph at Trentham is one option and so is the three-year-old sprint on Karaka Million night.

“We’ve also looked at some races for the fillies and mares in Australia that are coming up as we believe she is more than capable of matching it with them over there.”

PIKE EYES GROUP ONE FEATURE WITH HAUSSMANN

Cambridge trainer Tony Pike is looking forward to Saturday's Trentham meeting where talented three-year-old Haussmann (NZ) (Pour Moi) will tackle the Gr. 1 Grant Plumbing Levin Classic (1600m).

Pike is prepared to forgive the Pour Moi gelding's last start effort where he only battled over the concluding stages of the Gr. 2 Jamieson Park Auckland Guineas (1600m) after looking a distinct threat when looming into contention on the home corner.

"We had been expecting a big run from him but with the heavy rain they got and the change in the track conditions, it just played against him," said Pike.

"He couldn't handle the track which got very shifty, especially on the home bend, so he really only battled away. He struck similar conditions when he failed in the Hawkes Bay Guineas, so we are prepared to just write this one off and concentrate on Trentham now.

"He doesn't seem to have taken any harm from the race and if we can get conditions to suit I think he will definitely be a contender on Saturday."

Pike had intended to have a two-pronged attack on Saturday's Group One feature but a change of plan for Gr. 1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas placegetter Ever Loyal (Sebring) will see him line-up at Ellerslie on Sunday instead.

"Ever Loyal will go to a three-year-old 1500m race at Ellerslie instead of Trentham," he said.

"He has the three-year-old Karaka Million Classic as his main target a fortnight later so the race this Sunday fits in nicely for him."

– NZ Racing Desk

KEEN MAKES IT TWO WINS FROM TWO STARTS

Keen (inner) maintains his unbeaten record with a victory at Caulfield

Two runners at the meeting is all it has taken for the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young stable to claim a winning double at Caulfield.

After Shenandoah (NZ) (Darci Brahma) got home narrowly in the opening race on Sunday's card for stable apprentice Zac Spain, senior jockey Stephen Baster kept a perfect record on lightly raced three-year-old Keen (Teofilo) who claimed a narrow win in the Sandra Cheevers Handicap (1400m).

A NZB Ready To Run Sale graduate, Keen had won a maiden by 4-3/4 lengths at Cranbourne last month on debut but had to work overtime to keep an unbeaten start to his career on Sunday in the benchmark-64 handicap.

Baster believes there's improvement to come from Keen as he matures.

"There's not a lot of him if you see him without a saddle on and he's still green," Baster said.

"The other horse probably made him fight, because he kind of got to the front and stargazed a bit until the other horse came at him.

"So he's still new and there's plenty of improvement there I think.

"I think next preparation he'll be a lot better horse."

Keen was purchased out of the Wellfield Lodge draft at the 2016 Ready To Run Sale by Australian bloodstock agent Mark Pilkington for $105,000.

OH YES FOR NOH AND OHYIOH

Apprentice jockey Noh Senari was greeted to his usual rapturous reception after he saluted for the first time this season at Kranji on Sunday.

The talented jockey, who has always had a huge fan base at Kranji, made a successful comeback last year with three winners (all for his new master Saimee Jumaat) after a three-year hiatus, and was delighted he made one of his only two rides for the day count – Ohyioh (NZ) (O'Reilly).

After giving a glimpse of his potential when second at his debut in a Maiden race over 1200m, the $25 chance franked that form with a decisive win in the $85,000 Novice race over 1200m.

The O'Reilly four-year-old incidentally bucked the winning trend for frontrunners all day (the first four winners all led). He was the first to come from a handy spot to collar debutant Key Success (NZ) (Fully Fledged) at the 200m mark before drawing clear for an imposing 1 ½-length win.

Trained by Saimee, who was not at the racecourse on Sunday, Ohyioh recorded a winning time of 1min 13.4secs for the 1200m on Polytrack.

"This horse did very well at his first run, even from a bad draw. I was more worried about getting him balanced," said Noh.

"He did run on very well but unfortunately, he found one better. Today, I did the same with him, I wanted to get him balanced.
