UNTOUCHABLE BEAUTY GENERATION TAKES STEWARDS' CUP IN CRUISE CONTROL

Beauty Generation destroys his rivals to win the Gr.1 Stewards Cup

John Moore hailed Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) "the best" he has trained after the champion brushed off five opponents to seal a fifth Group One win in the Stewards' Cup (1600m) at Sha Tin on Sunday.

"He's the best of the lot," the trainer confirmed when pressed.

That "lot" includes Hong Kong's record prize money earner Viva Pataca (Marju), as well as the horse who currently shares with Beauty Generation Hong Kong's all-time highest international rating of 127 – the brilliant miler Able Friend (Shamardal).

"He was coasting; there was a bit more there," jockey Zac Purton said after the six-year-old had made all and kicked away for an easy three-length success.

Closest behind was the talented rising star Conte (Starcraft), who edged second from the Dubai World Cup Carnival-bound Southern Legend (Not A Single Doubt) by a short-head.

"I thought Beauty Generation's performance last time was better than today," Purton continued, "but he had a bit of a let-up after the Hong Kong Mile and John had him on the way back up today. He's not far off his top and he's just shown that.

"He doesn't need to get any better, he just needs to keep doing what he's doing and that's enough."

Beauty Generation recorded a winning time of 1m 33.51s, winding up through two concluding 400m sectionals clocked at 22.92s and 22.69s.

"He's actually better on a fast speed than on a moderate speed like today because that gives the other horses a chance to sprint with him. That's why the manner perhaps wasn't as impressive today, but he can only do what he's doing and he was enjoying himself in the straight."

Hong Kong's Horse of the Year is now unbeaten in his latest six starts going back to last season's impressive Champions Mile success. That April Group One is now the big late-season target but the Road To Rock gelding will first aim to repeat back-to-back wins in next month's Gr.1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m).

"I'll recommend to the owner, Patrick (Kwok), that we go to the 1400-metre Group One like last year," Moore said, noting that the owner's ambition is to top Viva Pataca's HK$83,197,500 in stakes accrued. After today's win, Beauty Generation has banked HK$66,387,500.

"I'd love to travel him," the trainer admitted, "but it's important that I fit into the route that the Kwok family wants to take. I know their Grand Final is the Champions Mile so that's our number one focus now – my job is to get him ready for that.

"If he wins the Champions Mile, it'll be down to the family as to whether we go to Japan for the Yasuda Kinen or we put him away for next season. It's always up to the owner."

The Stewards' Cup is the first leg of the Hong Kong Triple Crown and Moore ruled out stepping up to 2000m in next month's second leg, the Gr.1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup. The final leg is the Gr.1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup over 2400m in May.

Bred at Greg Tomlinson's Nearco Stud, Beauty Generation is a graduate of the 2014 New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale series.

MOREIRA MAKES EVERY SECOND COUNT AS BEAT THE CLOCK LANDS CENTENARY SPRINT CUP

Timing is everything, especially when you are riding a horse called Beat The Clock (NZ) (Hinchinbrook), and Joao Moreira judged the fractions perfectly when claiming his first Group One for John Size in Sunday's Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) at Sha Tin.

John Size's gelding had shown all the reliability of a vintage Swiss timepiece - placing in all 17 previous starts - but four Group One ventures had seen him come up short including when dead-heating for second with Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) behind D B Pin (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in this race last year.

That pair loomed as his main rivals again and Moreira faced a tricky choice between Beat The Clock and fellow Size star D B Pin which was resolved when both horses trialed just over a week ago.

D B Pin clocked much faster finishing splits when chasing home Mr Stunning on that cool Friday morning, but Moreira sensed something that wasn't detectable on the stopwatch in the way Beat The Clock powered clear of an ordinary field from the front.

There was no need to make the running this time as Little Giant (NZ) (Swiss Ace) and D B Pin set a true early pace and Beat The Clock stalked on the rail into the straight with Mr Stunning pushed along in midfield by Karis Teetan.

Beat The Clock gave D B Pin a brief nudge as he was eased outside with 300m to run but quickened on demand soon after.

Mr Stunning showed all his trademark courage to throw down a strong challenge, but the winner never looked like surrendering and held on by a neck in a winning time of 1m 08.42s, just less than a second outside of Sacred Kingdom's record set in 2007.

Moreira was thrilled to gain a first win at the top level in Hong Kong since Season's Bloom's (Captain Sonador) Stewards' Cup success on this card a year earlier, though the Brazilian felt the race didn't go exactly as expected.

"Things went quite differently than we thought," he said. "I didn't think Little Giant would lead, but fortunately I was able to get through on his outside and my bloke just attacked the line very strongly. The last hundred metres he started to pull up and wait for the others, but he was too good. He had that burst of speed and good horses do that."

Size, who was saddling his first Group One winner since Ivictory (Mossman) won the Chairman's Sprint Prize last April, said: "Beat The Clock has taken his time to break through to Group One level but he always promised to do that and today the race was suitable for him and he managed to salute."

Beat The Clock is a graduate from the 2015 New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale. The classy bay was sold out of the Prima Park draft for $200,000.

AUSSIE RAIDER READY FOR KARAKA MILLION

A hit-out at Ellerslie on Monday morning will put the final piece of the puzzle in place for Australian raider Neptune's Spear (NZ) (Super Easy) who is set to tackle the Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) at Ellerslie this Saturday.

Trainer Liam Birchley is pleased with how the Super Easy colt has settled in to his new environment since arriving in the country last Tuesday and is keen to have him get his first exposure to the tricky Ellerslie circuit before raceday.

"He travelled over well and has thrived since he has been here," Birchley said.

"The chance to have a look around Ellerslie is a real bonus and one we are keen to take.

"He can have a good hit-out there which will top him off nicely for the race."

Birchley is no stranger to successfully bringing horses to Ellerslie for the $1m two-year-old feature having scored with Sister Havana (NZ) (General Nediym) in 2010 and Hardline (NZ) (Showcasing) in 2015 while Sarge In Charge (NZ) (Golan) was runner-up in 2009.

"We have had some luck in the race and we're always on the look-out for horses we think will suit," he said.

"Neptune's Spear is one we identified early on and then we have just tried to provide an opportunity for him to earn his way into the field."

Successful on debut at Doomben in November after leading throughout over 1050m, Neptune's Spear finished

Aussie raider Neptune's Spear is on target for Saturday's Karaka Million 2YO at Ellerslie runner-up at the same venue earlier in the month to book his ticket to Auckland.

"He is naturally a very fast horse as he showed when he won his first start," Birchley said.

"I've actually tried to run him in behind in a couple of jump-outs at home which hasn't really worked out as he has been too fast for the ones he's gone up against.

"I would hope he can show that speed here, but it could all come down to the barrier draw.

"Barriers are crucial to races like this one so we will be hoping he can draw well and get a track to suit."

The barrier draw for the race will be conducted at the Karaka sale-ground at 11am on Wednesday.

A win by Neptune's Spear would be a feather in the cap of his sire, the Hallmark Stud-based Super Easy, who finished fourth in his attempt on the race in 2011 before going on to enjoy an outstanding career in Singapore where he won 14 of his 20 starts and was crowned Singapore Horse of the Year in 2012.

Super Easy will be represented at the upcoming New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale with six individuals in Book 2 and a further two in Book 3. – NZ Racing Desk

EPAUMADA OUT OF KARAKA MILLION RECKONING

Impressive Eagle Farm winner Epaumada (NZ) (Epaulette) will not be making the journey to Ellerslie to contest the Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) next weekend.

The speedy Epaulette filly made it back-to-back victories to kick-off her career when she coasted home over 1000m on Saturday, prompting speculation that she could make an 11th-hour dash to Auckland for the $1million Ellerslie feature.

Trainer Tony Gollan put paid to that speculation as he outlined the future plans for his charge.

“No, we’re not going to go,” Gollan said.

“We feel it is a bridge too far for her and I think she is a pretty talented filly.

“I know it is a big carrot. It’s a huge carrot, but to win big races the timing has to be right.

“The timing obviously isn’t right, otherwise we’d already be in New Zealand and have her settled in and ready to go.

“I had a little set back with her about two months ago, maybe longer now.

“She had a jump out at Eagle Farm and she pulled a muscle in her shoulder and it just put me back three weeks. That three weeks is what has cost me now.

“So, to win big races of any sort, let alone a two-year-old race at this time of the year, the timing has to be right.

“I knew getting back to New Zealand for the Karaka Million was going to be a tight situation as she wasn’t able to be broken in and educated as early as what some of the other two-year-olds were.

“She has made up huge ground in the last three months and she has really come on the scene. She is making up for lost time now.”

Gollan will take a patient approach with the filly who was a $165,000 purchase from the Monovale Farm draft at Karaka last year.

“She is a talented filly and I think she showed that yesterday and she has a lot of upside to her,” Gollan said.

“She is only a November foal. I am going to give her a short break and we will see her back here for the (Queensland) Winter Carnival.

“I think she will be a hell of a lot better filly for the break.

“I don’t think 1200m will be a problem. She relaxes beautifully.

“She showed a bit of versatility yesterday being able to sit second, particularly after not getting a clean getaway – she jumped a touch in the air – and he had to use her a touch early and she just came back and settled lovely and was strong to the line to my eye.

“I only gave her the one gallop on Tuesday since her debut win at Gatton and I saw great improvement. I think there is a lot more improvement still in her.”

Speedy filly Epaumada will be reserved for the Queensland Winter Carnival instead of travelling to Ellerslie

MCKAY EYES LATE BID FOR ELLERSLIE FEATURE WITH CAVALLO VELOCE

A comprehensive victory at Trentham on Saturday could see Matamata three-year-old Cavallo Veloce (NZ) (O'Reilly) force his way into the field for the rich Karaka Million 3YO Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie.

Languishing well down the order of entry for the million-dollar race, Cavallo Veloce enhanced his prospects of gaining a start in the event with a formidable home-straight charge that saw him down his age-group rivals over 1200m in the opening event on the day.

With entry into the Ellerslie feature determined by handicap rating, the Peter McKay-trained galloper earned a valuable seven-point increase for the victory which could see him sneak into the final field.

That option was clearly on the mind of McKay when discussing the performance after the race.

"I will talk to Shaun (jockey Shaun McKay) as he did feel good before the race," he said.

"There is a chance (of going to Ellerslie) as we've run Alamosa down here one week and took him home and come back for the following week.

"It can be done, as they can back up, so there is a possibility."

McKay was pleased to see Cavallo Veloce put his best effort out on the track after he disappointed in Group Three company at Ellerslie at his last start.

"We've been having a lot of problems with him," he said.

"We put blinkers on him for the Guineas (at Hastings) and he over-raced but he has them on again now.

"He came unstuck at his last run when Langkawi came back on him and he ended up sore for a good week. He's had boils as well, so it's been a nightmare.

"It's nice to see him back to it as he showed on Saturday."

McKay is undecided about longer term plans for Cavallo Veloce as he is still trying to work out at what distance he will be best suited.

Promising three-year-old Cavallo Veloce could find a place in Saturday's Karaka Million 3YO Classic

"By his pedigree he should be a mile plus," he said
"His three-quarter brother, War Affair, is a good 1400m-1600m horse while his half-brother Charles Road is good over ground.

"I think he is more of a miler but then I start to rethink myself and he could be a sprinter.

"I think simply he's just going to be a handy horse."

The Oaks Stud will offer a half-sister to Cavallo Veloce by Pentire as Lot 57 during Book 1 at the National Yearling Sale Series at Karaka that starts on January 27.

GRYLLS BACK IN WINNING GROOVE AT TE RAPA

Senior rider Craig Grylls wasted no time in returning to the winner's circle in New Zealand when he guided promising three-year-old Ocean Go (NZ) (Ocean Park) to victory at Te Rapa on Sunday.

Grylls returned to New Zealand with wife Milou earlier in the week after a successful 18-month stint in Singapore.

After riding unsuccessfully at Trentham on Saturday, Grylls didn't take long to get back to his winning ways when he produced a patient effort to secure the first victory for the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Ocean Go at just his third start.

Settled well back off a hot early speed, Ocean Go was spotting the leaders a conservative six lengths early in the run home but kept coming resolutely to snatch victory by a nose from a game Spring Delight (NZ) (Tavistock).

"I thought it was a really good performance," Andrew Scott said.

"He's really sustained a long run and, while he looked like he was going to pick them up at the 100m, the other horse kicked hard so it was some performance.

"It's fantastic for Craig to get the monkey off his back and it's so good to have him back.

"He's such a hard-working guy and he's going to be a better rider after a trip like that under his belt."

Grylls admitted he still had some work to do on his fitness as he was breathing heavily after the race.

"Definitely the fitness needs a lot of work," he said.

"It was a good performance as he settled back like we planned and I then got in the three-wide train.

"He's found the line very strongly although he started to lay in the last bit."

Grylls rode 44 winners during his 18 months in Singapore and finished seventh on the jockeys' premiership last season with 35 wins. He has ridden 714 winners in New Zealand including eight at Group One level.
