SPOT-ON OSCAR PAIR READY TO SHOW TRUE COLOURS

The Mark Walker trained Rockfast will start as one of the favoured candidates for Te Akau Racing in Sunday's SIN Gr. 1 Singapore Derby

Champion trainer Laurie Laxon has had a quiet season by his high standards, but he hopes his Oscar Racing pair of Affleck (NZ) (Battle Paint) and Mr Spielberg (NZ) (Pentire) can turn it around in the S$1.15 million SIN G1 Singapore Derby (2000m) on Sunday.

Affleck, a champion two and three-year-old, has produced a string of below-par runs since his SIN G1 Singapore Guineas win and Mr Spielberg had also struck a bad patch of form, however their master conditioner has been buoyed by their most recent performances.

Mr Spielberg produced a stunner under Glen Boss, in a BM89 race over 2000m on June 19 while Affleck finished fourth in the SIN G1 Patron's Bowl (1600m) last start and has since won a trial.

The duo had a last hit-out on the turf track on Wednesday, galloping in tandem over 2000 metres with Affleck working ever so slightly better on the outside.

"They're both very well and have come through their last races in great order," said Laxon who has two Derbys to his name, Dreyfuss (NZ) (Oregon) also for the Oscar Racing stable in 2004, and Top Spin (Arena) in 2008.

“They galloped on the course proper and I couldn’t be happier with their work. They worked over 1 ¼ mile and galloped over 1200m, finishing locked together, and I was told they ran the last 600m in 34.2s.

“That will top them off just nice for the Derby. They have come right at the right time. My season is coming along too, but sometimes it’s not all about the wins; the placings and winning the big races still financially make for good years.”

New Zealand interest in the Derby will be high with 11 of the 20 carded horses NZ-bred.

The James Peters-trained SIN G2 Stewards’ Cup winner Titanium (NZ) (Tavistock) has a devastating turn of foot and is a chance if he can avoid getting stuck in traffic under jockey Harry Kasim.

A line can be ruled through the last run of Peters’ other NZ-bred contender, Mighty Warrior (NZ) (Savabeel), who was caught wide throughout and got buffeted in the home straight. Barrier two should be a huge asset and his staying ability is not in question.

Well Done (NZ) (Falkirk) has rapidly made his way through the grades and is considered a huge threat. Michael Rodd replaces fellow Australian jockey Glen Boss to partner the David Kok-trained gelding.

The consistent miler Majestic Moments (NZ) (Darci Brahma) has forged a solid partnership with Jockey Nooresh Juglall and despite a disastrous barrier trial last week, during which he lost his jockey, connections are confident he can see out the trip.

The Cliff Brown-trained Poseidon (NZ) (Gold Centre) finished second to Mr Spielberg last start but the gelding faces a stiff task at this level over this trip and under-weight-for-age conditions from a wide alley of 14.

Trainer Tan Hor Khoo’s noted on-pace runner Bring Money Home (NZ) (Mr. Nancho) defied his odds to finish fifth to Titanium in the Stewards Cup and was sixth to Well Done in the Patron’s Bowl.

Rockfast (Fastnet Rock), a graduate of the New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale will fly the flag for Te Akau Racing and trainer Mark Walker who currently lies second on the Singapore Trainer’s Premiership ladder.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Kiwi's nine strong in Horseshoe

Nine New Zealand-breds will contest the fifth edition of the $5325,000 SIN G2 Aushorse Golden Horseshoe at Kranji on Friday night.

Caorunn (NZ) (Showcasing), formerly trained by Trent Busuttin & Natalie Young, is the top rated horse in the field having won three races in New Zealand including the Gr.3 Taranaki 2YO Classic and finished fourth in the Listed Karaka Million. The Shane Baertschiger-trained and part-owned gelding has had one race in Singapore in which he finished fifth.

Skywalk (NZ) (Battle Paint), Siam Sapphire (NZ) (Showcasing), Distinctive Darci (NZ) (Darci Brahma), Muscular Captain (NZ) (Mastercraftsman), Hello Michelle (NZ) (Minstrel Court), Lim's Racer (NZ) (Red Giant) and Athena (NZ) (Nom Du Jeu) are the other NZ-bred contenders in the race previously won by Kiwi Karma (NZ) (Fast 'n' Famous) and War Affair (NZ) (O'Reilly).

NZB Cup live on Trackside

The inaugural New Zealand Bloodstock Cup to be run at Khorchin in Inner Mongolia, China, will be broadcast live on Trackside on Sunday at 6.40pm.

The 1800 metre contest has attracted a 10 strong field of Kiwi-breds competing for a $105,000 purse.

"NZB is delighted to partner with Mr Lang Lin and the Rider Horse Group to put on such a valuable race in Inner Mongolia," NZB managing director Andrew Seabrook said.

"The racing industry in China is still in its infancy, but thanks to people like Mr Lang it is growing at a rapid rate and we are privileged to be a part of it."

Manhattan Street (Manhattan Rain)

Colt delivers pleasant debut surprise

Lisa Latta got more than she bargained for from Manhattan Street (Manhattan Rain) when he went to the races for the first time.

The Awapuni trainer was expecting a good showing at Otaki last month, but she was pleasantly surprised when the two-year-old produced a game performance to beat Sophia Magia (NZ) (Per Incanto) who had won her previous start.

"He's a real staying type of colt and I didn't think he would win fresh-up – we would have been happy if he had just finished off the race well," Latta said.

With that experience under his belt and the progress Manhattan Street has subsequently made, she will be disappointed if he doesn't go close again on his home track in Saturday's Rural Fuel Juvenile. Full story here.

Conroy (NZ) (His Royal Highness)

Veteran galloper set for Awapuni return

Regular central districts visitor Conroy (NZ) (His Royal Highness) is ready for another visit to his favourite city of Palmerston North.

The rising 11-year-old will chase his fourth career victory at Awapuni on Saturday in the Midweek Disposals Handicap.

While Conroy favours the left-handed way of racing, it is also the availability of jockey Jonathan Riddell that draws breeder, owner and trainer David Wilson south.

Riddell has ridden the His Royal Highness gelding in all four of his wins and also to a further six placings. Full story here.

Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock)

Cameron hoping to cap another memorable season

A potent combination will again command the undivided attention of punters at Ruakaka on Saturday.

Champion jockey Matthew Cameron has long had a formidable strike rate riding for trainers Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs and the Karaka hoop is set to star in her colours this weekend.

"Donna has been an amazing supporter of mine and we've had a great run with horses like Volkstok n'barrell and Hasselhoof in the last couple of years and I was unbeaten on Habibi earlier on," Cameron said.

"It's always a little bit quiet for their team at the start of winter, but then these Ruakaka meetings start rolling around and they always seems to get one of those good ones coming through about now."

Cameron has three rides for Logan and Gibbs at Ruakaka and each has strong winning claims. Full story here.

Signify (NZ) (Perfectly Ready)

Signify no certain cup contender

Success on his home track on Friday may not be enough to earn Signify (NZ) (Perfectly Ready) a shot at an upcoming Group Three feature.

The Ashburton gelding is entered for the eStar Winter Cup at Riccarton on August 6, but trainer Alex Cowan isn't completely sold on a start for the son of Perfectly Ready.

"In the back of my mind I think it might be a year too soon for him," he said.

"He's only there because they were early nominations and it gives up options – there are sprints for him on the first and last days as well, but if it's going to be a really heavy track we won't be there at all."

In the meantime, Signify will step out in the Ashburton Winter Cup Trial after posting a convincing win at his most recent appearance at Oamaru, where apprentice Alfred Chan drew praise for his ride. Full story here.

Group One winner to Lees

Dal Cielo (NZ) (Per Incanto) is to continue his career in Australia on a permanent basis.

The Group One winner will join Kris Lees' operation following a change in the make-up of the three-year-old's ownership.

Dal Cielo is part-owned by the Wellington-based Lib Petagna, who also races the Lees-trained dual Group One winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel).

NEWS IN BRIEF

Dal Cielo (NZ) (Per Incanto)

"Dal Cielo has been gelded and there's been a change with the Homebush Partnership having sold their share, but Lib has remained involved," said Wairarapa bloodstock agent Bruce Perry, who manages Petagna's thoroughbred interests.

Formerly trained by Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, Dal Cielo won the Gr.1 Diamond Stakes at two and this season finished in the money in the Gr.2 Sandown Guineas and the Gr.3 Caulfield Guineas Prelude during a Melbourne spring campaign.

Mongolianlightning (NZ) (Bullbars)

Juvenile impresses on debut

Mongolianlightning (NZ) (Bullbars) looks a colt to follow after he distanced his two-year-old rivals at Matamata on Wednesday to credit his sire Bullbars with his first winner.

A trial winner last month for trainers Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, he made the running and bolted clear into the straight when asked to lengthen stride by rider Matt Cameron.

"We were a bit concerned about the track, but his class obviously got him through," stable representative Heidi Birch said.

Retired to Highview Stud in 2012, Bullbars won the Gr.3 C. S. Hayes Stakes and was Group One placed. He is a half-brother by Elusive Quality to the multiple Group One winner Helmet.

NZB catalogue online

The catalogue for New Zealand

Bloodstock's Winter Mixed Bloodstock Sale can now be viewed online.

This year's catalogue features 76 horses - 51 broodmares, one weanling, three yearlings, two two-year-olds, two unraced horses and 17 racehorses with the progeny of 56 sires, including Tavistock, Savabeel, Darci Brahma, Fastnet Rock, Galileo, High Chaparral, O'Reilly, Redoute's Choice, Showcasing, Thorn Park, Swiss Ace, Volksraad, Rock of Gibraltar, Mastercraftsman, Pins, Per Incanto, Keeper and Cape Blanco represented.

Another 18 sires are represented as the covering sires of broodmares, including Makfi, Tavistock, Sacred Falls and Burgundy while the catalogue also includes the stakes winners Jazella and Fascination Street and stakes-placed Thwayya and She's Slinky.

The Karaka sale will be held on Friday, July 29 commencing at 12pm.

Pentire (Be My Guest)

Pentire tops in Australia

Two stakes winners over the weekend have cemented Pentire's position as the leading New Zealand-based sire in Australia for the 2015-16 racing season.

Tucanchoo (NZ) became the Rich Hill Stud-based sire's 46th individual stakes winner when taking out last Saturday's Listed ATC Winter Cup at Eagle Farm and at the Sunshine Coast Amexed (NZ) scored the fourth win of his career win in the Listed Caloundra Cup.

Pentire sits in fourteenth position on the Australian sires' premiership by earnings with his progeny having amassed A$5,871,336. He has sired five stakes winners this season headlined by the Group One winners Prince of Penzance (NZ) (Melbourne Cup) and Xtravagant (NZ) (NZ 2000 Guineas and Waikato Sprint).

Studmaster proud of young stallion's achievements

Sam Williams has taken a huge degree of satisfaction from Per Incanto's (Street Cry) season and the part the Little Avondale Stud stallion is playing in the progress of the New Zealand breeding industry.

Sam Williams

"After Zabeel and O'Reilly passed away we all needed something to step up and sure enough we had Savabeel and Tavistock going to the next level," he said.

"Now there's two young guns in Showcasing and Per Incanto producing numbers of winning two and three-year-olds.

"Per Incanto is now heading the three-year-old premiership for individual winners with 23, Savabeel has 21, Darci Brahma 20 and then Showcasing is on 19. It's all looking good for the future." Full story here.

Kiwis in Asia- Korean racing booming

With the third-highest average purse in the world (stakes totaling US$170 million for 2,000 races annually) - it places the Korean Racing Authority (KRA) behind only Hong Kong and UAE. With over NZ$11 billion wagered annually the KRA is placed seventh in the world in that metric.

Two New Zealand-breds had timely wins in Seoul last week as New Zealand Thoroughbred Marketing (NZTM) hosts the Korean Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (KTBA) this week. Full story here.

McDonald strikes again

James McDonald has enjoyed more success in England with victory aboard the two-year-old Nile Empress at Yarmouth overnight.

"Everything went really well," the champion New Zealand jockey said. "It was good to ride a winner for (trainer) Hugo Palmer and hopefully it won't be the last. The track is bit like the tracks at home, it is flat and easy to ride."

McDonald rode possible Melbourne Cup contender Antiquarium to win last month's Northumberland Plate.

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Ken Browne MBE - the Jumping Maestro

In 1977 Ken Browne became the first man to own, train and ride the winner of the Great Northern Steeplechase when he rode Ascona to victory, a feat they repeated two years later.

Browne would go on to train, in later years in partnership with his wife Ann, a further seven Great Northern Steeplechase winners as well as three Great Northern Hurdle winners.

Ken, an enthusiastic amateur from the time he left school in the 1950's, recorded numerous wins as a jumps jockey. He was New Zealand's leading jumps jockey in the calendar years 1981 and 1984 and again in the 1986-87 racing seasons.

That enthusiasm was to span a remarkable fifty years during which Ken as an owner trainer prepared more than 500 winners over jumps. Together, he and wife Ann won most of New Zealand's major jumping races, many of them several times.

In 2001 Ken Browne suffered a serious riding accident at his home which left him a tetraplegic confined to a wheelchair.

Not one to sit back, Browne was still training from his wheelchair and was a regular at the races to watch his and Ann's horses. Two weeks prior to his passing in 2006, at the age of 72, Ken was at Ellerslie when he had two winners including a victory in the inaugural running of the race named after him, the K S Browne Hurdles.
