LINCOLN ON THE ROAD TO KRA TROPHY GLORY

Former kiwi galloper Lincoln Road is a leading chance in this weekend's Korea Racing Authority Trophy at Kranji

Just like the other Kranji trainers with a runner in the SING$250,000 Korea Racing Authority Trophy (1200m) on Sunday, Shane Baertschiger makes up for the precious little he knows about the Korean trio with the better knowledge he has in his own charge Lincoln Road (NZ) (Swiss Ace) and even the local opposition.

By the time Lincoln Road, who landed in Singapore with a third over 1200m as his best showing from three starts in New Zealand when trained by Lisa Latta, reeled off his five wins in a row at Kranji, his ratings had shot up from 53 to 74, which scaled even higher to 80 even after his first taste of defeat in a Kranji Stakes A race over 1100m on June 24.

As the Swiss Ace four-year-old started to knock in win after win on the Polytrack, the Australian handler was already locking the reciprocal race between the Singapore Turf Club and the Korea Racing Authority in his crosshairs given the maximum rating of 90 his charge was steadily building up towards.

LINCOLN ON THE ROAD TO KRA TROPHY GLORY

“That was the race I had planned for him for a while. I was still happy with his last run even if it was the first time he got beat,” said Baertschiger.

“It’ll also be his first time over 1200m, but that’s not because he doesn’t have 1200m in him, far from it. It’s just that there were no such races for him until this one came up.

“He ran up to 1400m in New Zealand, and I see no reason why he can’t get the 1200m here on Polytrack.

“Unfortunately I don’t know much about the Korean horses, but he will be running against some very good local horses like Good News and The General.

“But I think at the handicap, we are worse off as his rating (80) is less than the others like Good News (90) and Nova Warrior (89) and as it’s a set-weights race, they all carry 57.5kgs.”

Baertschiger said the New Zealand-based Lincoln Farms Stable-owned gelding had pulled up in great shape after his last run and he could not fault his condition four days from his big assignment.

Lincoln Road was purchased from Westbury Stud’s 2013 NZB Select Sale draft and has won over SING$200,000 from his six starts since joining Baertschiger.

PROGRESSIVE MARE ON TRIAL FOR GROUP ONE TEST

Summer's Day (NZ) (Darci Brahma) is already a winner at Hastings and she may return there next month for a crack at a Group One prize.

The daughter of Darci Brahma has been in great touch this preparation with four wins, including a successful open class debut and a last-start victory in the Listed Tauranga Classic.

If Summer's Day produces another bold showing in Saturday's Listed Powerworx Opunake Cup at New Plymouth then a return visit to the central districts for the Gr.1 Makfi Challenge Stakes at Hastings on August 27 is on the cards.

"If she happens to win again then we might just consider a run in the first one at Hawke's Bay," Cambridge trainer Tony Pike said.

Summer's Day has proved her versatility and defied her name during her current campaign with success on rain-affected going.

"She's come through the grades very well," Pike said. "She's a progressive mare and we were concerned that she might not handle the ground last time out at Tauranga.

"She did that without a problem and she has come through the race really well. She's a mare in great form so there's no reason not to run again."

Vinnie Colgan has retained the ride on Summer's Day after successfully combining with her for the first time at Tauranga.

Another inspired effort on Saturday could see progressive mare Summer's Day take her place in the Gr. 1 Makfi Challenge Stakes next month

NEWS IN BRIEF

Illuminati (NZ) (Keeper)

Foote has fingers crossed for Illuminati

Ben Foote is hoping history can repeat at Ruakaka on Saturday.

The Cambridge trainer produced Illuminati (NZ) (Keeper) to win the ITM/GIB Open (1400m) at Ruakaka at the same meeting last year in the hands of apprentice Viktoria Gatu.

This season's Listed Rotorua Stakes winner went on to beat all but Timy Tyler (NZ) (No Excuse Needed) in the Gr.3 Winter Cup (1600m) at Riccarton at her next start.

Illuminati has failed in two runs since her Rotorua win but Foote is counting on a return to Ruakaka, where she has had four starts for two wins and two placings, and better track conditions to spark a return to winning form. Full story here.

Flemington weight relief for Spreadeagled

Robert Smerdon is gambling on the weight relief that comes with a rise in class to get Spreadeagled (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) back into winning form at Flemington.

Spreadeagled heads to the Flemington Event Staff Handicap on Saturday, a 1600m benchmark 90 race.

For added insurance the trainer has called on the services of claiming apprentice Beau Mertens to partner the rising five-year-old, replacing senior jockey Dwayne Dunn.

"He drops a lot in weight and will get on to better footing which I think he'll be more effective on," Smerdon said.

Spreadeagled will carry 53.5kg after Mertens' claim.

New Zealand bred and raced by Peter Mitchell of Cox Plate winner Bonecrusher (NZ) (Pag Asa) fame, Spreadeagled has won five of his 10 starts for Smerdon.

Newnham relying on Kiwi help

The former right hand man to leading trainer Gai Waterhouse is hoping a New Zealand-bred horse can credit him with his first city training success.

Mark Newnham, who has set up his own operation at Warwick Farm, will be represented by Per Incanto three-year-old Lanciato (NZ) at Canterbury on Saturday.

Lanciato (NZ) (Per Incanto)

"I haven't got many horses to take to the races so it's nice to have a genuine Saturday-class horse like him," he said.

A dual winner in New Zealand, Lanciato has placed in one of his two runs since joining Newnham's team.

Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon)

Baker stagnant with Music Magnate

Trainer Bjorn Baker's maiden Group One winner Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon) will miss the spring, after sustaining a virus in the winter period.

The Doomben 10,000 winner is Baker's stable star after his Group One win in Brisbane, but Baker reported the four-year-old Written Tycoon gelding had suffered a setback.

"It [the Group One win] was even more special as I bought the horse - we've had him for a long time," Baker said.

"He hasn't been straightforward; he had one or two issues.

"We've been patient with him and it worked out well.

"Unfortunately, he just recently had a virus so he'll be out for the spring and we'll bring him back for the New Year."

Top Kiwi stayer joins Waller

Sacred Master (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) has crossed the Tasman after making outstanding progress under the guidance of Tony Pike during his last preparation, to join the Chris Waller stable.

"We really want to have a crack at the

Sacred Master (NZ) (Mastercraftsman)

Metropolitan with him and that comes up pretty early," Pike said.

"He went over a few weeks ago and I couldn't be in three places at once with horses in Brisbane and at home. We've always had a very good association with Chris so it made sense."

The son of Mastercraftsman made rapid gains during his last preparation and had an outstanding campaign which included a win in the Gr.2 Avondale Cup and a third placing in the Gr.1 Auckland Cup.

Sacred Master made an appearance at the Randwick trials last week and he finished a bold fourth over 1050 metres under Rory Hutchings.

Airlie House (NZ) (Tavistock)

Airlie House sold to Singapore

Talented Tavistock gelding Airlie House (NZ) will do his future racing in Singapore.

The Robert Patterson-trained four-year-old gelding won five of his 18 starts and placed in a further seven races, including a last-start Te Rapa second behind Snowdrop (NZ) (Pins) in May.

Heather Crofskey, who bred Airlie House in partnership with her husband Peter and raced him with Alice Doorbar, Terry and Annie Hinton and Bruce Pepperell, tweeted the news on Wednesday. Full story here.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hong Kong apprentice heads down under

Champion Hong Kong apprentice jockey Kei Chiong Ka-kei will start her one-month stint in Australia with five metropolitan rides in Adelaide.

Chiong is spending the Hong Kong off-season with leading Adelaide trainer Phillip Stokes.

She has three rides for Stokes and two for John Hickmott at Morphettville on Saturday.

Chiong rode 37 winners in the Hong Kong season to claim the apprentice premiership and was voted Hong Kong's most popular jockey ahead of Joao Moreira.

She was the first female rider to be licensed in Hong Kong since Carol Yu retired in 2000.

Chiong spent time riding in New Zealand where she was indentured to Graham Richardson and Allan Sharrock and rode a total of 45 winners over three seasons.

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel)

Kawi is likely to resume in the Gr.2 Lisa Chittick Foxbridge Plate at Te Rapa on August 13 before the Hawke's Bay carnival and then a possible spring campaign in Melbourne.

Caorunn (NZ) (Showcasing)

fifth, but one month later, came very close to bagging the top prize in the final Leg, the Group Two Aushorse Golden Horseshoe when a fighting second to Lim's Racer (NZ) (Red Giant).

"Caorunn pulled up good after his run in the Aushorse. It's confirmed. He's going for the Juvenile Championship next Sunday," said Baertschiger.

"I thought the tough run would take something out of him, but no worries at all, he was bouncing around the next day. Matthew Kellady will ride him again."

Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel)

Quiet hit-out for top mare

Multiple Group One winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel) was given an easy trial at Wyong on Monday.

The New Zealand-bred and owned mare loomed into contention on the turn, but she wasn't put under any pressure in the straight and tailed the five horse field home in her 845m heat.

It was the Savabeel five-year-old's first public appearance since she won the Gr.1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Randwick in April.

Lucia Valentina will open a campaign aimed at the Gr.1 Cox Plate in the Gr.2 Warwick Stakes on August 20.

Kawi in good shape

Multiple Group One winner Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel) has made a solid start to his spring campaign.

On Tuesday, the Savabeel gelding narrowly downed Authentic Paddy (NZ) (Howbaddowantit) in an open 1000 metre trial at Foxton.

Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital)

Group One duo back on track

New Zealand-bred Group One winners Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) and Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel) were in action at the Rosehill trials on Tuesday ahead of their spring campaigns.

The Chris Waller-trained pair stepped out in a 900 metre heat with the former winning the heat and Preferment a close seventh.

Who Shot Thebarman may resume in the Gr.2 Warwick Stakes on August 20 while Preferment is likely to return in the Gr.2 Chelmsford Stakes on September 3.

Caorunn on target for Championship

The Shane Baertschiger trained Caorunn (NZ) (Showcasing) will line up next Sunday week in the Group 3 Juvenile Championship (1200m).

The much-hyped Showcasing two-year-old, who boasted three wins up to 1200m in New Zealand as well as a fourth place in the Karaka Million (1200m), was evidently not quite fully screwed down at his Kranji debut in the fourth Leg of the Singapore Golden Horseshoe series on June 10. He finished

Boys flying racing flag for stud

Champion New Zealand farm Waikato Stud have reversed a trend this season.

"It's been interesting – usually our racing team is focussed on fillies, but this time between Garry and I we've been having a really good run with the colts and geldings," said principal Mark Chittick, referring to his father's involvement.

The Matamata farm has been to the fore in Australia, in particular, with the undefeated Bullrush (NZ) (O'Reilly) and the blueblood Beckham (NZ) (Pins), as well as the recently sold Whoop Whoop (NZ) (Savabeel).

"He's gone to Hong Kong and will be trained by Tony Millard," Chittick said.

"He's a lovely type of horse, but he didn't pass the x-ray testing as a yearling so we raced him and he's proved to be an up and

McKay strengthening racing team

Jacob McKay is steadily building up his Waikato stable headed by the talented Barnaby (NZ) (Shocking).

The Matamata horseman went out on his own last November to establish a breaking and pre-training operation following a successful training partnership with his father Peter, which included Group One successes with Puccini (NZ) (Encosta De Lago).

It wasn't long before the three-year-old Barnaby, inherited from Lance Noble when he took up a private role with Brendan and Jo Lindsay at Karaka, provided McKay junior with his first solo success with a winning debut on his home track in March.

"I bought a property at the racecourse and people offered us a couple of racehorses," he said. "I was lucky to get this horse off Lance.

"I've now got 14 in work at the moment with six racehorses, breakers and pre-trainers and we would like to be going to the sales to buy a few more young ones later on." Full story here.

Trial winners and a Tavistock feature in gavelhouse.com July

Among the 57 entries in this month's gavelhouse.com online auction are some interesting lots including two trial winners and a weanling colt by Tavistock.

Lot 12 – Tavistock colt from Zenada who is a half to stakes winner Storm Signal. Great pin-hook prospect for anyone looking to enhance their 2017 yearling sale draft. X-rays available in the NZB repository.

Lot 22 – Sensitive Smile, a two year old filly who's had one start to finish second to the smart juvenile Pluck That. Half-sister to El Novio.

Missraad - broodmare by champion broodmare sire Volksraad in foal to Mapperley Stud's first season sire Atlante (Fastnet Rock).

Fast Dragon – stakes winning juvenile by champion sire Fastnet Rock. Retired from racing and ready to go to stud.

Other sires represented include Al Akbar, Alamosa, Burgundy, Centaine, Ferlax, Flying Spur, He's Remarkable, Jimmy Choux, Keeper, Minardi, Pentire, Per Incanto, Postponed, Savabeel, Shocking, Sufficient, Thewayouare and Wanted. Full story here.

High Forty (NZ) (Danzighill)

Five in line for jumping title

Five horses will vie for the title of champion jumper for the 2015-16 racing season.

The winners will be announced at New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing's Horse of the Year Awards Dinner, at the Langham Hotel, in Auckland, on Sunday, August 7.

Finalists have also been confirmed for the Trainer of the Year and the Media Award.

The finalists are: Jumper of the Year: High Forty (NZ) (Danzighill), Jack Romanov (NZ) (Ustinov), Just Got Home (NZ) (Storming Home), Sea King (NZ) (Shinko King), Wee Biskit (NZ) (Zed).

Trainer of the Year: Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards, Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman, Tony Pike.

Media Award: Steve Davis (Trackside), Michael Holland (TVNZ), Mark McNamara (Trackside), Dennis Ryan (The Informant).

Remembering our Hall Of Fame Heroes

Bill Broughton- Champion jockey, the horseman's horseman

Bill Broughton, based at Awapuni through his long career, was "the horseman's horseman." He was never, as he himself said, regularly associated with a champion. Yet he won 11 premierships (a New Zealand record until overhauled by Lance O'Sullivan); he was in the top three jockeys on the ladder throughout a 20-year period; his sojourn at the top level actually spanned three decades (1930s, '40s and '50s) and his lifetime tally of 1446 winners was a record at the time of his retirement. Broughton was renowned not so much for individual talents or flair but for all-round professionalism and fitness. He was known as a patient rider, very strong in a finish, and most of New Zealand's big races came his way.
