SACRED MASTER TO MAKE AUSTRALIAN DEBUT

Auckland Cup placegetter Sacred Master (NZ) (Mastercraftsman) will make his first Australian appearance in the Winter Challenge at Rosehill.

The gelding will be one of four entries for premier trainer Chris Waller in Saturday's $150,000 Listed race at Rosehill, the final stakes race in Sydney for the season.

Marenostro (NZ) (Duelled), She's Clean (Redoute's Choice) and Tales Of Grimm (Distorted Humor) complete the stable's line-up.

"Sacred Master will obviously be better over further than the 1500 metres on Saturday because he was placed in an Auckland Cup over 3200," Waller said.

"Once he gets up to 2000 metres and beyond we will see the best of him but he needs to start somewhere.

"He's had a barrier trial and he's ready to go to the races.

"She's Clean will go to stud this year.

"She hasn't been beaten far in Melbourne but was starting to get too much weight so it would be nice to get another win with her."

After harbouring thoughts Marenostro could be an Epsom Handicap contender, Waller has revised his opinion.

"I think he might be just below Group One company so we'll try to get a lesser race with him," he said.

"He is probably best at a mile (1600m) but this race suits. Tales Of Grimm had no chance the way his last race was run so we will try riding him closer this time.

Sacred Master won the Group Two Avondale Cup before his Auckland Cup placing and has six wins from his 13 starts.

With two meetings left this season, Waller needs four winners to pass his record 167-1/2 Sydney wins in the 2012/13 season.

He has also won 15 Group One races this season, headed by Winx's (Street Cry) Cox Plate and Doncaster Mile.

Gr. 2 Avondale Cup winner Sacred Master will make his Australian debut this weekend

ILLUMINATI LOOKING FOR WINTER CUP REVENGE

A narrow but impressive win by consistent mare Illuminati (NZ) (Keeper) over the weekend has trainer Ben Foote looking forward to tackling the headline flat event at Riccarton's upcoming Grand National Carnival.

Foote travelled south with Illuminati twelve months ago to tackle the eStar Winter Cup (1600m) off the back of a Ruakaka open handicap victory only to bow to southerner Timy Tyler (NZ) (No Excuse Needed) in a desperate finish to the Group Three feature. A year on, the Cambridge conditioner is looking forward to going one better at Riccarton after the Keeper mare replicated her Ruakaka win on Saturday.

"She really appreciated the decent footing this time as she never fired a shot in her last two runs on the deep stuff," he said.

"After her last run at Tauranga where she nearly tailed off I did start to wonder if she wanted to be a racehorse as her work on the wet tracks leading into the race had also been fairly average.

"I galloped her on a semi decent track just to see if that might help and it was as if she was a different horse. I know she has won three on heavy tracks but she really does want it with just a little cut in it these days."

Foote admitted to a degree of confidence on the weekend due to several factors including the Dead6 rated Ruakaka surface.

Illuminati and Viktoria Gatu add their fifth win as a combination at Ruakaka on the weekend

"She has a super record at Ruakaka where she had won twice before plus we had Viktoria Gatu on with a nice two kilogram claim," he said.

"Viktoria had won on her four times including the race last year so she knows her well and the mare seems to run for her. It was a lovely ride again on Saturday and we got the result."

While delighted with the victory Foote does have some trepidation as to the handicapper's reaction to the victory.

"She isn't a very big mare and she already has 55.5kgs for the Winter Cup," he noted.

"I'm hoping for just half a kilo penalty but it's likely to be more than that which will make her task harder.

We will make the trip though and if she can get a decent enough track I'm hoping she can go one better this time."

The 119th running of the eStar sponsored Winter Cup will take place at Riccarton on the 6th of August.

NZTBA ANNOUNCES BREEDER & BROODMARE OF THE YEAR FINALISTS

As the 2015-16 racing season draws to a close it is time to reflect on a stellar season for the New Zealand breeding industry both at home and internationally with over 30 Group One winners beginning their lives on New Zealand farms.

A Melbourne Cup winner, four Derby winners, three Oaks winners, 25% of all Group One winners in Australia, the list goes on, and the quality and calibre of the New Zealand-bred is reflected in the list of finalists for Breeder of the Year and Broodmare of the Year at the 2016 New Zealand Thoroughbred Awards in Auckland next month.

In one of the most competitive years on record, five breeders are up for Breeder of the Year, each of them responsible for more than one Group One winner. The competition for the Broodmare of the Year is just as strong with five outstanding mares vying for that title.

The finalists for the Breeder of the Year are:

Gerry Harvey (Westbury Stud) for Music Magnate and Sofia Rosa

Sir Patrick and Justine Lady Hogan (Cambridge Stud) for Tarzino, Tavago and Preferment

IDL Limited (Dominic Li) for Volkstok N'Barrell and Suavito

Llanhennock Trust (the Hawkins Family) for Kermadec and Valley Girl

Rich Hill Limited (Alan Galbraith) for Xtravagant and Prince of Penzance.

The Broodmare of The Year finalists are:

Better Alternative (AUS) (Flying Spur [AUS]-Ancient Lights) the dam of triple Group One winner Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel), owned by Coolmore Stud and the China Horse Club

Indomitable (Danehill [USA]-Kwan) the dam of the dual Group One winner Turn Me Loose (NZ) (Iffraaj [IRE]), owned by George and Maryanne Simon

Mica's Pride (AUS) (Bite The Bullet [USA]-Gainesville [AUS]) the dam of the Group One Caulfield Stakes winner Criterion (NZ) (Sebring), owned by Go Bloodstock Limited

Staryn Glen (Montjeu [IRE]-Soleil Etoile) the dam of the Group One ATC Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel). Staryn Glen is owned by Helen-Gaye and Graham Bax.

Three stallion Awards will also be presented at the New Zealand Thoroughbred Horse of the Year Awards: the Grosvenor Award based on New Zealand stake earnings, the Dewar Award based on the combined stake earnings in Australia and New Zealand, and the Centaine Award based on worldwide earnings.

MCBETH KEEN ON TAUMARUNUI CUP BID WITH BONNY MARE

A free-wheeling performance that saw home track mare Katie McKeen (NZ) (Keeninsky) score a comprehensive all-the-way win at New Plymouth on Saturday has trainer Gary McBeth set to back up his pride and joy in this weekend's Listed Taumarunui Gold Cup.

The rising seven-year-old simply broke her opponent's hearts as she adopted her preferred pacemaking duties in the Seaton Park sponsored rating 85 2000 metre contest. Rider Rosie Myers kept up a solid clip in front and when she slipped three lengths clear with 600 metres to run the writing was on the wall that a victory loomed.

The mare simply kept running as she ground her rivals into the Taranaki mud with only Perfect Start (NZ) (Perfectly Ready) offering any resistance although she was seven lengths adrift at the finish line with a further 14 lengths back to the third placed Our Gazza (NZ) (Handsome Ransom).

"On a track like that she just loves it when she is rolling along," said an emotional McBeth after the race.

"It was a big weight to carry (58kgs) so it was a brave performance. I'm just rapt.

"Hopefully we can take on the Taumarunui Cup at Rotorua next."

Myers was equally as taken with the performance which saw the Keeninsky mare complete a winning treble after scoring in similar fashion at her last start in the Kiwifruit Cup at Tauranga.

"Nothing had been making any ground up all day so I thought I'd really get going at the 600 metre mark," she said.

"She just swims on that sort of track. There's not many that can keep up with her when she's going along like that so I don't see why she couldn't be competitive if she steps up to the Rotorua race next week."

Where Winning Begins

ALL ROADS DOUBLES UP AT RUAKAKA

Exciting galloper All Roads (NZ) (Road To Rock) rounded off another superb day for the Donna Logan & Chris Gibbs stable when he made it two wins from two starts from his new home base at Ruakaka on Saturday.

The rising five-year-old had done his early racing from part-owner Tony Cole's Te Kauwhata operation where he managed a win and a placing from eight starts before being transferred to the Logan/Gibbs barn after an impressive trial performance back in May.

That run at the trials caught Logan's eye and she was quick to welcome the Road To Rock gelding when offered him by Cole.

"I thought his trial run was very good and when Tony asked me if we would take him for the winter racing series here at home I was delighted to do so," she explained.

"Tony felt that it would be best to have him based here to save on travelling costs and that he would be suited by the type of surface he would get here over the winter months.

"He did say he was the type who would rip into things which had proven his downfall in his early racing but since he's been with us he has thrived and really settled in beautifully."

A devastating last to first burst to score in a rating 65 1200 metre contest a fortnight ago had Logan convinced there was more to come for the gelding. That was proven correct as he took a step up in grade and distance with aplomb on the weekend as he once again blitzed his rivals with a powerful finish to score in a rating 75 1400 metre event.

"I thought he might have a little more trouble this time as it was a very nice field he struck with a lot of depth in it," admitted Logan.

"If anything he was more impressive because of that. It was another superb ride by Kelly (McCulloch) and on that evidence he hasn't stopped winning yet."

Kelly McCulloch is all business as she guides All Roads to a comfortable victory

Logan will await the handicapper's decision in terms of a rating penalty before deciding on the gelding's next outing but it is likely to be on his home track again at one of three upcoming meetings in the next eight weeks.

The win by All Roads was the third on the day for the Logan/Gibbs barn which took their tally to 11 over the first three days of the Ruakaka Saturday winter series.

MEMORIES OF MIGHTY MARE SUNLINE REVIVED DURING THE WEEK

Memories of arguably New Zealand's greatest galloper in Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun) were revived over the past seven days through the deeds of her extended family across the country.

Promising two-year-old Sheralee (NZ) (Sun Ruler) opened her winning account at Oamaru last Sunday when she scored on debut from the Mandy and Matt Brown stable. The filly is just the second of her sire Sun Ruler's progeny to hit the racetrack and credited him with his first victory.

Sun Ruler (NZ), Sunline's second foal, was a $2million purchase from the 2007 Karaka Yearling sale with the son of Zabeel retired to stand at Stud after two wins during a limited career on the track.

Raced on lease by her breeder and Sunline's mentor Trevor McKee, Sheralee looks a filly of real promise that could well make a name for her sire in the immediate future.

"She is one we bred and brought along at home," explained McKee.

"She had shown us plenty of promise but I thought she might get more opportunities down south so I spoke with Matt and Mandy about taking her on.

Magic Of The Sun scores narrowly at Ruakaka

“It was a great thrill to see her win and hopefully there might be a few more in store which will all help with getting a few more mares for Sun Ruler. There have been quite a few enquiries after the win so that’s certainly been a good thing.”

It got even better for McKee on Saturday when progressive three-year-old Magic Of The Sun (NZ) (Per Incanto) scored his second win from just four starts with a gritty performance at Ruakaka. The Per Incanto gelding is out of Sunstrike (NZ) (Rock Of Gibraltar) who was Sunline’s first foal and is raced by McKee and son Stephen, who also bred him.

“He is a nice galloper who we think could put a few more on the board after that performance,” he said.

“He finished second to a good one in All Roads last time and he went on and won again on Saturday so the form stacks up pretty well.”

McKee will take plenty of interest in this Friday’s Winter Mixed Bloodstock Sale at Karaka where a number of his current broodmare band are on offer, with the majority in foal to Sun Ruler.

“We are just looking to freshen up the mares we are breeding from so we decided to put a few in the sale,” he said.

“We’re hoping with what has happened over the last week or so it will help create more interest in them.”

Sunline raced 45 times for 32 wins, eight seconds and two thirds and an Australasian record $11 million in stakes. She raced in four countries and won in three; she twice won the Southern Hemisphere’s weight-for-age championship, the Cox Plate along with two Doncaster Handicaps.

She was twice elected Australian Racehorse of the Year and four times New Zealand Horse of the Year and was inducted into both the New Zealand and Australian Racing Halls of Fame.

BROWNE LIKES GREAT NORTHERN CHANCES WITH RAISAFUASHO

A stunning last to first victory in Sunday's open hurdle event at Te Aroha has legendary jumps trainer Ann Browne eyeing another premier jumping title with her stable star, Raisafuasho (NZ) (Johar).

The nuggety Johar gelding looks set to start one of the favourites in September's Great Northern Hurdles at Ellerslie after a comprehensive victory, his third from just six starts over the fences.

Coming off the back of an equally impressive performance at the same venue three weeks ago, Raisafuasho was installed a warm favourite in the 3100 metre open event. Settled at the rear of the eleven horse field, rider Emily Farr didn't panic when she was four lengths adrift of the field and 15 lengths from the leaders with 1000 metres to run.

Farr set her mount alight at that point and he quickly looped all bar the pacemaking D'LLaro (NZ) (D'Cash) who had shot five lengths clear on the home corner. A relentless finish carried the Browne runner to the front with one hurdle to clear and he did so in fine style before racing away to win by 7 lengths with a further 14 lengths back to stablemate Hunter's Creek (NZ) (Indian Danehill) who battled on well for third.

Browne was delighted with the win after having some initial concerns about the strength of the opposition.

"He got a fair way back didn't he and it was a much better field this time," she noted when questioned after the race.

"It's only his sixth jumps race and third win. He had his first start over the hurdles a couple of years ago and his next one last year as he won a couple on the flat in between times.

"He went a good race in the Great Northern last year. I thought he might run in the money but he botched a fence in the home straight.

"He's a nice little jumper and relaxes well so we'll have another go this year."

A horse that failed to complete the course in his first three steeplechase events last year made amends for his connections when he took out the feature steeplechase event on the day's card.

Stagehand (NZ) (Drama Critic) scored his second victory over the bigger fences with a dogged performance that saw him deny stablemates Goosebumps (NZ) (Istidaad) and Jack Romanov (NZ) (Ustinov) in a thrilling finish to the open 4200 metre contest.

Stagehand survived a protest from the runner-up who alleged interference in the run home although it was the run of the 2015 Great Northern Steeplechase winner Jack Romanov that caught the eye as he prepares to defend his title later in the season.

PATIENT OWNER REAPING REWARDS WITH BAHANA

Jockey Vlad Duric praised the patience shown by Indonesian owner Untung Joesoef after his promising galloper Bahana (NZ) (Elusive City) accounted for a small but handy field in the $80,000 Class 3 race over 1800m on Sunday.

The Australian hoop, who won the preceding race aboard Rock Eagle (Stryker), certainly brought his winning form to the Elusive City four-year-old when he let him coast to the front at the 300m after coming off a muddling-run race.

With a lapful under him, Duric was clearly toying with his rivals and once he released the handbrakes, Bahana swept past weakening race-leader Brilliant Deal (Silent Deal) to establish what looked like a firm foothold towards a fourth local win.

Damon (NZ) (O'Reilly) and Iking (Holy Roman Emperor) tried their best to peg him back, but were always going to face an uphill task on the back of the earlier slow mid-race sectionals. Bahana held Damon off by a length with Iking third another half-a-length away. The winning time was 1min 49.3secs for the 1800m on the Long Course.

"Credit to the owner, Untung (of Dago Stable), who has been very patient with this horse. He's been quite a frustrating horse, but he has so much ability," said Duric.

"He needs more distance and more education. I think he's a progressive staying type."

Bahana and Vlad Duric cruise to the line on Sunday

With trainer Stephen Gray still away on his Canadian family vacation, assistant-trainer Peter Hutton with Bahana's bloodstock agent Gary Carvell were only too happy to lead in the yard's 37th winner and seventh since the boss has been away.

"I'm not sure where Steve is right now. Last time I checked he was on a boat in Alaska, watching whales, I think," said Hutton.

"Wherever he is, I'm sure he'll be happy with the way things are going, especially this horse, Bahana.

"He did it easy today even though he was up in class (from Class 4 at his last-start win to Class 3). Vlad was looking back and it looked like he was doing it for fun the whole length of the straight.

"I think he's a horse who can get 2000m. We'll have to have a think what to do with him next."

With that fourth win, Bahana has now taken his career earnings past the $175,000 mark for the Dago Stable.
