LUCIA IN SIMILAR FORM TO AUTUMN: LEES

Lucia Valentina is primed and ready for her assault on Saturday's Gr. 1 William Hill Cox Plate

Kris Lees is happy for Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel) to fly under the radar as he prepares the multiple Group One winner for the Cox Plate.

The trainer is convinced the winner of Sydney's richest race is going just as well heading into Saturday's A$3 million feature at Moonee Valley.

Lucia Valentina is at $21 for the Cox Plate (2040m) in which defending champion Winx (Street Cry) is at $1.85 and in-form Hartnell (Authorized) is the only other horse under double figures at $3.20.

Lees is aware of the task ahead against two in-form horses and a host of other toplineers but also believes Lucia Valentina is somewhat forgotten in Cox Plate discussions.

"I think in other years she'd be a lot tighter in the market," said Lees. "But I think it's just a reflection on how these other two are going. And it's going to be a wonderful race."

After a Hong Kong mission last December, Lees took Lucia Valentina into the A$4 million Queen Elizabeth Stakes in Sydney in April second-up with a month between runs.

LUCIA IN SIMILAR FORM TO AUTUMN: LEES

With more time to prepare her for her spring target he has planned for Lucia Valentina to be third-up on Saturday but has deliberately kept a month between races.

“She excelled in the autumn with a nice gap between runs,” he said.

“We feel we’ve got her here in a similar vein. It’s probably a stronger race than the Queen Elizabeth, but she’s getting here in really good order and I’m looking forward to Saturday.”

Lees took Lucia Valentina to Sandown rather than Moonee Valley for a gallop on Tuesday.

Lucia Valentina got her first look around Moonee Valley last Thursday when she worked in company with Happy Trails (Good Journey).

“Kerrin McEvoy was of the opinion she didn’t need to come back,” Lees said.

“I thought on her work on Tuesday morning, she’s going pretty similar to how she was going into the Queen Elizabeth.”

There is some rain forecast in Melbourne on Friday but Lees would love significant downpours as Lucia Valentina excels in the wet.

“I hope they nearly call them off,” Lees said.

Lees is content with barrier nine in the field of 10 as Lucia Valentina is a get-back runner armed with a powerful finishing sprint.

BLINKERS COME OFF SACRED ELIXIR IN VASE

Sacred Elixir will have the blinkers off when he lines up at Moonee Valley on Saturday

Tony Pike has taken the blinkers off Sacred Elixir (NZ) (Pour Moi) for the Gr.2 LUCRF Super Vase as the gelding steps up to a distance his trainer has always expected him to relish.

Sacred Elixir has had the blinkers on for shorter races in all but his first career start, but Pike doesn't believe he needs them over the 2040 metres of Saturday's Vase at Moonee Valley.

Winner of the Gr.1 J J Atkins Stakes (1600m) in Brisbane as a two-year-old, Sacred Elixir won the Caulfield Guineas Prelude first-up this spring over 1400m before his eighth in the Guineas when Pike felt he over-raced.

"I'll take the blinkers off and as long as he settles I think we'll see a different horse," Pike said.

"It's always disappointing when you're second favourite and think you're a winning chance, but at the end of the day he still ran eighth in the Guineas beaten two-and-a-half lengths.

"It's always been difficult with him. He's had so much ability but he's bred to be a stayer. We tried to keep as much speed in his legs and probably just with the run he had he just got over-racing."

Sacred Elixir had his first experience of Moonee Valley in a maintenance gallop over 1600m on Tuesday.

"I just wanted to give him a look around the Valley and get him to switch off and relax, which he did," he said.

Pike says Sacred Elixir is bred to get over a mile-and-a-half (2400m) and he has confidence in him heading toward the Vase and ultimately his main target of the Derby over 2500m at Flemington.

"He's a very, very good horse," Pike said.

"He's just still a baby that's still learning the game. Once he puts it all together, we know he's got the ability.

"As long as he can get some cover and switch off on Saturday, he'll be hitting the line really hard."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital)

Moonee Valley a good fit for Kiwi stayer

Chris Waller believes the Gr.2 Moonee Valley Gold Cup on Saturday is the ideal race for Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) to further his preparation for another crack at the Gr.1 Melbourne Cup.

"I like the Moonee Valley track as it's quite forgiving," Waller said. "Who Shot Thebarman has a high rating, but gets in under the set-weights and penalties conditions of the race well."

The New Zealand-bred and owned stayer finished third behind Protectionist (Monsun) in the Melbourne Cup in 2014 before an unplaced run last year.

Luke Nolan is to partner the John Wheeler-trained Pentathlon (NZ) (Pentire) who carries 55kg in the Gold Cup.

Wheeler took his Pentire five-year-old to Cranbourne for a quiet 1550m trial on Monday and was more than happy with the blowout.

"He hit the line well and had a wee puff which was perfect," he said. "He's going well and has improved nicely from his first run over here."

I Am A Star (NZ) (I Am Invincible)

NZ fillies well represented in Classic

In form filly I Am A Star (NZ) (I Am Invincible) heads the field for Saturday's Gr.2 Moonee Valley Fillies' Classic.

Trained by Shane Nichols, I Am A Star finished a brave second when a length behind Global Glamour (Star Witness) in the Gr.1 Thousand Guineas (1600m) on October 8.

"I was surprised how well she came through the Guineas and she has thrived since," Nichols said.

"As a 94 rater meeting the rest of the field on level weights, she is well placed under the conditions.

"From barrier 2, she could probably be anywhere, but we'll just ride her where she lands."

The Murray Baker & Andrew Forsman-trained La Luna Rossa (NZ) (Written Tycoon) also comes out of the Thousand Guineas and is the second highest rated runner in the field.

Blinkers will come off the Group One winning juvenile, who over-raced in the head gear last start when eighth.

Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young will be represented by their Cape Blanco filly Ceylon (NZ) who is coming off an impressive last start maiden win at Cranbourne.

Aerovelocity (NZ) (Pins)

Aerovelocity back in the groove for the Premier Bowl

Sunday's HK G2 Premier Bowl will see Aerovelocity (NZ) (Pins) return to the fray.

The champion sprinter endured a largely luckless campaign last term, running off-colour in this contest, failing to make the Gr.1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint as a result, and suffering colic in Japan that also forced his absence from the Gr.1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen (1200m).

In amongst all of that drama the Pins gelding reminded everyone of his talents with a HK G1 Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) triumph in January before rounding out his campaign, post-Japan, down the field behind Chautauqua (Encosta de Lago) in May's Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m).

"He's pretty good," said trainer Paul O'Sullivan on Tuesday.

"This time last year we were quite concerned about his trialling and in hindsight he did have a problem, although it was hard to put your finger on it." Full story here.

Barcelo (NZ) (Alamosa)

Te Rapa to decide McKay's plans

Peter McKay will know on Monday whether he will be heading to Riccarton next month.

The Matamata trainer's travel plans hinge on Barcelo's (NZ) (Alamosa) performance in the Gr.2 James & Annie Sarten Memorial at Te Rapa.

McKay's confidence in his Gr.1 Sothys New Zealand 2000 Guineas hope was dented last time out when the three-year-old finished seventh in the Gr.2 Hawke's Bay Guineas.

"We're just hoping that it was the track at Hastings that tripped him up," he said. "He was going well on the turn and then he changed stride and looked to be struggling in the ground."

"The race on Monday will tell us whether we're going to Christchurch – he doesn't have to win, he just has to run well and he does seem bright and happy to me."

Lady Le Fay (NZ) (Thorn Park)

Lady Le Fay well placed

The Chris Waller-trained Lady Le Fay (NZ) (Thorn Park) is early favourite for the Gr.3 Tesio Stakes, to be run as the Merlin Garage Door Openers Handicap at Moonee Valley on Saturday.

The six-year-old daughter of Thorn Park finished second to Dixie Blossoms (Street Sense) in the Gr.3 Angst Stakes (1600m) at her last outing and looks well placed on Saturday.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"She's going well and it was a very good run last start where she was beaten by a good horse," Waller said.

"She's extremely well suited by the weights on Saturday and should be hard to beat."

One of the longer-priced hopefuls is Michael Moroney's recent Caulfield winner Alaskan Rose (NZ) (Encosta de Lago) who is coming off a fifth in the Ladies Day Vase.

Astara (NZ) (Dalghar)

Bold Soliloquy run to confirm southern venture

Astara (NZ) (Dalghar) returns to her favourite track on Saturday and an effort in keeping with her past Ellerslie performances will book her passage south.

The Dalghar filly's preparation has been aimed toward the Gr.1 gavelhouse.com New Zealand 1000 Guineas and trainers Donna Logan and Chris Gibbs just require a bold showing in the Listed Dunstan Feeds Soliloquy Stakes to press on to Riccarton.

"As long as she gets a decent track she'll run, otherwise she will go to the Sarten on Monday," Logan said.

"She has done really well since she last raced and we're really pleased with the way she is progressing. If everything goes well she will head down to Riccarton and a mile on the big track there will really suit her."

Tiley team out in force

Nigel Tiley has mixed confidence levels about his inter-Island challenge this weekend.

The Pukekohe trainer will produce Showcasing colt Revered (NZ) on debut in the Listed Swiss Ace @ Westbury Stud Wellesley Stakes (1200m) at Trentham, the two-year-old one of nine runners the stable has in action at four venues over the next two days.

Capable stayer Megablast (NZ) (Shinko King) will also race at Trentham on Saturday, while Bruegel (Excellent Art) races at

Nigel Tiley

Ellerslie the same day and Midnight Gossip (NZ) (Showcasing) looks to enhance her Gr.1 gavelhouse.com 1000 Guineas prospects at Riccarton. Full story here.

Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo)

Trans-Tasman trip experience to benefit Humidor

Humidor's (NZ) (Teofilo) Australian venture is one undertaken with an eye very much to the future.

The Group One performer was on a plane to Melbourne on Wednesday night with the Gr.1 Cantala Stakes over a mile at Flemington on Saturday week his target.

"The main reason we decided to go over is for the experience and hopefully the trip turns a boy into a man," said Johno Benner, who trains Humidor with his partner Hollie Wynyard.

"We want to be back in Australia next year for the Australian Cup and, dare I say it, the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups.

"We know he can stay and this trip can be the making of him. He still does a few things wrong, but he is getting better and this experience will certainly help him."

Humidor, who will be ridden by Michael Walker, won on the opening two days of the Hawke's Bay carnival before he finished a meritorious second to Willie Cazals (Aussie Rules) in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic.

"He came home after that and had a quiet week and we've just kept ticking him over since," Benner said.

"He's going really well and we're happy with his condition."

Maraini (NZ) (Exceed And Excel)

Well-bred colt runs up to pedigree

Hasselhoof's half-brother Maraini (NZ) (Exceed And Excel) lived up to his pre-race reputation with a debut victory at Matamata on Wednesday.

The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained colt sat outside the leader to the turn and the son of Exceed And Excel rounded off well in the straight to open his account.

"He's got a lot of ability and he's obviously well-related," Forsman said. "We'll take him along quietly to give him more confidence. A better track will suit him even more as well."

Maraini's sibling Hasselhoof (NZ) (Tavistock), himself a debut winner, hasn't raced since he finished third in the Gr.1 Livamol Classic. His long-term aim is the Gr.1 Barfoot & Thompson Auckland Cup on March 11.

Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel)

Walker confirmed as Kawi's Perth partner

Former champion New Zealand jockey Michael Walker will ride Kawi (NZ) (Savabeel) in Australia.

Taranaki trainer Allan Sharrock confirmed the engagement as he puts the finishing touches on the star son of Savabeel ahead of a three-start campaign in Perth.

"Michael's going to be riding him and the horse looks magnificent," he said.

Kawi won a 1000m trial at Waverley on Thursday in his last public appearance in New Zealand before crossing the Tasman.

NEWS IN BRIEF

"He flies to Melbourne on October 29 and he'll be there for a day-and-a half before he carries on to Perth. There's a risk involved every time you travel a horse, but Kawi is a good traveller so I can't see any problems."

Eleonora (NZ) (Makfi)

Oaks next for Kiwi filly

In-form New Zealand filly Eleonora (NZ) (Makfi) is unlikely to have another outing before the Gr.1 VRC Oaks.

"She doesn't need a lot of racing and the Wakeful is just five days before the Oaks," said Murray Baker who prepares the three-year-old with Andrew Forsman. "Flemington can get pretty firm and I wouldn't want to risk jarring her up."

Eleonora pressed her classic claims with a convincing last-start win in the Gr.3 Ethereal Stakes at Caulfield where stablemate Highlad (High Chaparral) had no luck when caught wide when unplaced in the Gr.3 Ladbrokes Classic.

Mr Gustavo to chase cash at Randwick

Mr Gustavo (NZ) (Savabeel) is the latest in a string of New Zealand horses sent to Sydney with dollar signs in their eyes.

Even before purses for Sydney metropolitan Saturday races were elevated to a minimum $100,000, more horses were travelling across the Tasman in search of prize money.

Fellow New Zealander Bjorn Baker has been sent Mr Gustavo to train and he will make his Australian debut in the Filante Handicap (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday.

Mr Gustavo is owned by Baker's stable client Scott Richardson who raced dual Group Two winner Burbero (NZ) (O'Reilly) with him.

"He's just here chasing money so we'll see what happens," Baker said.

While Saturday may not be his day, the Goulburn Cup on November 20 looms as a target race for Mr Gustavo.

"He's still got a little bit of improvement," Baker said.

"Fourteen hundred metres first-up is hard.

He's probably been a bit patchy in his last preparation in New Zealand but he's trialled well."

Mr Gustavo won seven races from 27 starts in New Zealand where he was trained by Baker's father Murray and Andrew Forsman. Full story here.

Ready to Run Breeze Up Clips Online Now

The Breeze Up videos for NZB's 2016 Ready to Run Sale of 2YOs are now available for viewing online.

A total of 513 two-year-olds breezed up at Te Rapa Racecourse on 17 & 18 October, with the final 200m of each Lot's work timed and filmed. A full spreadsheet of times can also be downloaded from the online catalogue.

The most successful Sale of its kind in Australasia, the NZB Ready to Run Sale has been the source of 16 Group 1 wins in the past four seasons, where others have had none. Four of those Group 1 victories came during the 2015-16 season.

This year's catalogue has attracted 552 two-year-olds to go under the hammer on 16 & 17 November at Karaka, with an extensive selection of 123 sires from New Zealand and Australia represented.

Jimmy Choux colt coasts home

Three-year-old colt Chaussure (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) justified his $2.70 favouritism, coasting to a dominant two-length win in the Tab Maiden Plate over 1400m at Warwick Farm on Wednesday.

Jockey Tommy Berry had the colt second last during the race before urging him forward around the turn for a sustained run wide down the straight to claim an easy victory.

"I think he'll definitely make Saturday grade without a doubt, but next prep he's definitely going way beyond," Berry said.

"He's got a beautiful presence about him.

"He's well bred and he's bred to get over further and off that run you'd think he would."

Chaussure's sire Jimmy Choux (NZ) (Thorn Park) was runner-up in the 2011 Cox Plate and fittingly Chaussure is raced by Debbie Kepitis, who shares in the ownership of Winx (Street Cry).

It was Chaussure's second career start after he charged home late to finish second at Kembla Grange in July.

Mare comes through Caulfield debacle unscathed

Shillelagh's (NZ) (Savabeel) camp are counting themselves lucky that the mare didn't suffer any major injury when she was stopped in her tracks at Caulfield.

Shillelagh (NZ) (Savabeel)

Not for the first time in Australia, the lightly-raced Savabeel five-year-old was luckless when tailing the field home in Saturday's Gr.2 Tristarc Stakes. She copped a severe check in the straight when full of running.

"She got out of it well really," said Stephen Autridge, who trains Shillelagh with Jamie Richards. "She only had half a run. She lost a bit of skin, but she ate up so we're happy about that.

"At this stage she'll run in a fillies and mares' race on Melbourne Cup day."

Her assignment is the Gr.3 Hong Kong Jockey Club Stakes, formerly the Maybe Mahal, over 1400 metres.

Gun Pit (Dubawi)

Almost "all systems go" for Gun Pit's Breeders' Cup tilt

NZB Ready to Run Graduate Gun Pit (Dubawi) is on track to become Hong Kong's second Breeders' Cup runner after impressing with a trial win in sloppy conditions at Sha Tin on Tuesday morning, but connections have a couple of concerns that still need to be worked through before he boards a plane bound for the United States.

"Under the conditions, I was extremely happy," said trainer Casper Fownes, who will be aiming at the Gr.1 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile on November 4. "There were some nice horses in that trial and he finished off beautifully. Zac was very happy too.

"Right now, it's all systems go, we're still trying to get there. There have been a few issues with visas, and at the moment we're trying to figure out the flights. Right now, we've got a flight path that's not ideal, that's going to Anchorage, then to Seattle, then to Los Angeles. That would mean 28 to 30 hours in the air, and that makes it a much tougher trip." Full story here.

NZ Cup hopes dashed by injury

Raymond Connors' pursuit of further New Zealand Cup glory will have to wait for another year.

The Wanganui trainer had his exciting young staying prospect King Oberon (NZ) (Savabeel) set for the Christchurch Casino-sponsored Group Three feature he first won in 2011 with Blood Brotha (Danzighill), who returned the following year to successfully defend his title.

Unfortunately, Connors' Riccarton hopes are on hold after he was forced to send King

King Oberon (NZ) (Savabeel)

Oberon to the paddock.

"I had to turn him out after he knocked a tendon," he said. "As far as these things go, it's not that bad and hopefully he can have a month or so off and we might even have him back for the autumn."

"He has done a lot in a very short time so a spell now will do him the world of good, perhaps it was coming up a bit too quickly for him anyway."

gavelhouse.com entries close Sunday

There are just a few days left to enter for gavelhouse.com's October auction with listings due online by 7pm on Sunday 23 October.

Now operating for six months, gavelhouse.com's September auction followed the site's trend of reaping great rewards for its users. Among the highlight lots last month was $120,000 paid for a Tavistock yearling colt, $35,000 for a Tavistock yearling filly and $32,000 for a broodmare from Waikato Stud in foal to their five-time Group One winner Ocean Park.

gavelhouse.com users will now also notice a number of enhancements made to the site that were rolled out on Thursday.

The catalogue for the October auction will be launched online at 7pm Monday 24 October with bidding running from 7pm Monday 31 October to 7pm Thursday 3 November.

NEW ZEALAND RACING HALL OF FAME

Jim Cassidy

The Pumper is King!

A record-breaking apprentice in New Zealand, where he won the 1981-82 jockeys' premiership in just his fourth full season.

After his famous last-to-first 1983 Melbourne Cup win on Kiwi he moved to Australia where he was to perform at the top level for the next 30 years. Cassidy is one of only seven jockeys to win the Australian "grand slam" (Caulfield and Melbourne Cups, Cox Plate and Golden Slipper). On Derby Day 2013 he became one of just three Australasian jockeys to win 100 Group Ones.
